Cp is a coefficient accounting for the period where for the right has been created, displayed to the third decimal place.

$C_p = (1 - 1.05^{-n})$ where "n" is the number of years wherefor the right has been created. The coefficient may not be greater than 0.900.

(2) Where the right of use is created for an indeterminate duration, the number of years where for the said right has been created shall be arrived at by subtracting the age of the user from 70 or, where there are multiple users, the age of the youngest user. Where the user is older than 70, the number of years shall be presumed to be 5.

(3) (New, SG No. 100/2005) Where a right of use of an enterprise is created for an indeterminate duration, the coefficient accounting for the period shall be 0.900.
