Section II Place of Intra-Community Acquisition

Certification of Existing Circumstances of Intra-Community Acquisition

Article 9. (1) To prove the circumstances under Article 62 (3) of the Act that the intra-Community acquisition of the goods is charged in the Member State where the goods have arrived or the transport has ended, the acquirer under Article 62 (2) shall have a document certifying that the intra-Community acquisition of their goods is charged in that Member State. The document shall be issued by the competent administration of the Member State where the goods have arrived or their transport has ended.

(2) To prove the circumstances under Article 62 (5) of the Act the intermediary in a triangular operation shall have the following documents:

1. an invoice issued by the transferor in the triangular operation, stating the VAT identification number of the intermediary under Article 94 (2) of the Act;

2. (supplemented, SG No. 101/2006) an invoice under Item 1 of Article 79 (2) issued by the intermediary in the triangular operation, specifying the VAT number of the acquirer in the triangular operation, issued by the Member State wherein the goods arrive;

3. a VIES return for the relevant tax period in which the supply, in respect of which the invoice under Item 2 has been issued, is declared;

4. (supplemented, SG No. 10/2011, effective 1.02.2011, amended, SG No 15/2012, effective 21.02.2012, supplemented, SG No. 8/2016, effective 29.01.2016) a written confirmation by the acquirer in the triangular operation, certifying the receipt of the goods, indicating the date and place of receipt, the type and quantity of the goods, and alternatively the type, make and registration number of the vehicle with which the transport is effected, the name of the person who handed over the goods, as well as this person's official capacity, or in the cases of transportation of goods via courier services, the number of the bill of lading.

(3) If the intermediary in the triangular operation fails to obtain the documents under Paragraph 2 until the end of the tax period following the tax period in which the tax on the intra-Community acquisition under Article 62 (2) would become chargeable, it shall be considered that the place of intra-Community acquisition is the territory of the country where the tax becomes chargeable from the intermediary.

(4) In the cases referred to in Paragraph 3 the tax shall become chargeable on the last day of the tax period following the tax period during which the tax on the intra-Community acquisition under Article 62 (2) of the Act would become chargeable and shall be charged by the intermediary by issuing a memorandum under Article 117 (2) of the Act.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 39/2008) The memorandum referred to in Paragraph 4 shall be issued within 15 days of the date on which the tax under Paragraph 4 became chargeable.

(6) (New, SG No. 6/2010, effective 1.01.2010) In the cases of intra-Community acquisition under Article 13 (6) of the Act the person shall have a document certifying the import in the other Member State.

(7) (New, SG No. 3/2019, effective 8.01.2018) The condition under Item 3 of Article 15 shall be considered fulfilled when the intermediary is identified for VAT purposes in Member State A or C but has carried out the respective intra-Community acquisition with VAT identification number issued by Member State B.

(8) (New, SG No. 25/2020, effective 20.03.2020) In the cases under Article 6, Paragraph 7, first sentence of the Act, the person shall simultaneously have the following documents:

1. a document certifying his registration for value added tax purposes in the Member State where the goods have arrived or their transport has ended.
2. a written declaration by the person that the intra-Community acquisition of the goods has been subject to tax in the Member State where the goods have arrived or the transport thereof has ended.

(9) (New, SG No. 25/2020, effective 20.03.2020) Where the person has the documents under Paragraph 8, Item 3 of Article 6 (3) of the Act shall not apply to the supply.

Adjustments

Article 10. (1) Where the tax on the intra-Community acquisition under Article 62 (2) of the Act is charged by a memorandum under Article 117 (2) of the Act and subsequently the person effecting the intra-Community acquisition obtains the document under Article 9 (1), the person shall adjust the result of the application of Article 62 (2) of the Act by cancelling the memorandum under Article 117 (2) whereby the tax is charged. No new memorandum shall be issued for the cancellation.

(2) In the cases under Paragraph 1, the memorandum shall be cancelled not later than the last day of the tax period during which the person obtained the document under Article 9 (1).

(3) Where the intermediary in a triangular operation obtains the documents under Article 9 (2) after the time limit under Article 9 (3), the said intermediary shall adjust the result of the application of Article 9 (4) and (5).

(4) In the cases under Paragraph 3, the adjustment shall be carried out by the intermediary by cancellation of the memorandum under Article 9 (5). No new memorandum shall be issued for the cancellation.

(5) The cancellation under Paragraph 4 shall be effected within 5 days of the date on which the intermediary obtained the documents under Article 9 (2).

(6) (New, SG No. 25/2020, effective 20.03.2020) Where Item 3 of Article 6 (3) of the Act has been applied to the supply and the person obtains the documents under Article 9 (8) subsequently, such person shall adjust the result of the application of this provision by cancelling the memorandum under Item 3 of Article 117 (1) of the Act by means of which the tax has been charged. No new memorandum shall be issued for the cancellation, and the grounds for the cancellation shall be stated in the cancelled memorandum.

(7) (New, SG No. 25/2020, effective 20.03.2020) In the cases referred to in Paragraph 6, the memorandum shall be cancelled within 5 days from the date on which the person has obtained the documents under Article 9 (8) and a new memorandum under Item 3 of Article 117 (1) of the Act shall be issued within the same time limit for the intra-Community supply effected under Article 7 (4) of the Act, which memorandum shall be recorded in the sales log, in the VAT return and in the VIES return under Article 125 of the Act for the tax period in which the new memorandum is issued.

Chapter Three

CHARGEABLE EVENT, TAXABLE AMOUNT AND TAX RATE

Chargeable Event

Article 11. (1) A chargeable event within the meaning given by the Act shall be any supply effected by a taxable person under the Act, including supplies with place of performance outside the territory of the country.

(2) A chargeable event shall furthermore be the intra-Community acquisition of goods.

(3) A chargeable event shall furthermore be the importation of goods within the meaning given by Article 16 of the Act.

Date of Occurrence of the Chargeable Event upon Supply of Goods and Services (Amended, SG No. 39/2008)□

Article 12. (Supplemented, SG No. 101/2006, amended, SG No. 39/2008) (1 Amended, SG No. 6/2010, effective 1.01.2010, repealed, SG No. 8/2016, effective 29.01.2016).□

(2) (Amended, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) Under a supply of a service which is subject to staged execution, where the execution of separate stages is accepted by the recipient of the supply, the date of execution of the relevant stage shall be the date of acceptance of the said stage and such date shall be ascertained by a delivery-acceptance protocol signed by the supplier and the recipient.

(3) (Supplemented, SG No. 6/2010, effective 1.01.2010) Except for the cases referred to in Article 25 (5) of the Act in the event of supplies with periodic or ongoing execution, every period for which a payment is agreed shall be considered a separate supply, the chargeable event whereof occurs on the date on which the payment became due.

(4) Where a payment on a supply is made before a chargeable event under Paragraphs 2 and 3 occurred, the tax shall become chargeable upon receipt of the payment.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 110/2013, effective 1.01.2014) Paragraphs 3 and 4 shall also apply in the cases of actual supply of goods under a lease contract where the conditions under Item 3 of Article 6 (2) of the Act do not apply.

(6) (Amended, SG No. 3/2019, effective 8.01.2019) Paragraphs 3 and 4 shall also apply in the cases of a supply involving ceded copyrights and neighbouring rights by collective management companies under Article 94a (2) of the Copyright and Neighbouring Rights Act.

(7) (Amended, SG No. 3/2019, effective 8.01.2019) The chargeable event involving ceding of copyrights by the authors or holders of copyrights to collective management organisations under Article 94a (2) of the Copyright and Neighbouring Rights Act shall occur on the date on which the authors or the holders of copyrights approve the amounts allocated by collective management organisations by signing a bilateral protocol. Where a payment for a supply is made before a chargeable event on the supply occurred, the tax shall become chargeable upon receipt of the payment.

(8) (Amended, SG No. 6/2010, effective 1.01.2010) Notwithstanding the provision of Item 2 of Article 127 (2) of the Act, upon supply of newspapers, magazines, books and other printed publications, musical audio and video recordings and recordings of films on electronic or technical data storage media, the date of occurrence of the chargeable event of the supply between the principal/mandator and the commission agent/mandatory shall be determined in accordance with Article 25 (9) of the Act.

(9) (New, SG No. 84/2011, effective 1.01.2012) The supply of air traffic control and air navigation services, provided by the State Enterprise "Air Traffic Control", for which the charges are collected by the European Organisation for the Safety of Air Navigation (Eurocontrol), shall be considered supplies with ongoing execution, for which payment becomes due for every calendar month in which the services were provided.

(10) (New, SG No. 84/2011, effective 1.01.2012) The chargeable event on the supplies under Paragraph 9 shall occur on the 25th day of the calendar month following the month in which the services were provided.

(11) (New, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) Upon supply of goods for which a staged implementation has been agreed, the completion of each stage shall be considered to be a separate supply and the chargeable event for it shall occur on the date of completion of the relevant stage. Paragraph 2 shall also apply to supplies of goods which are subject to a staged performance.

Chargeable Event upon Modification of Lease Contract

Article 13. (1) (Amended, SG No. 110/2013, effective 1.01.2014) In the cases of modification of a lease contract wherein as a result of the modification of the contract the conditions under Item 3 of Article 6 (2) of the Act are not met, it shall be considered that the person effects supply on the date of modification of the contract.

(2) The taxable amount of the supply under Paragraph 1 shall be equal to the sum total of the instalments due after the date of the modification of the contract, net of the tax due thereon.

(3) The supply under Paragraph 1 shall be documented in accordance with the standard procedure established by the Act.

(4) (New, SG No. 101/2006) The service of granting a loan upon a supply of goods under the conditions of a lease contract shall be considered a separate supply, the chargeable event whereof occurs under the terms of Article 25 (4) of the Act.

(5) (New, SG No. 101/2006) The supply under Paragraph 4 shall be documented in accordance with the standard procedure established in the Act.

(6) (New, SG No. 101/2006, amended, SG No. 110/2013, effective 1.01.2014) Upon replacement of a lessee with a new lessee under an existing lease contract wherein the conditions of Item 3 of Article 6 (2) of the Act apply, it shall be considered that at the date of replacement with the new lessee a termination of the lease contract with the replaced (initial) lessee exists, which shall be documented under the terms of Article 115 (6) of the Act.

(7) (New, SG No. 101/2006) In the cases of Paragraph 6 it shall be considered that on the date of replacement with the new lessee the lessor effects a supply under Item 3 of Article 6 (2) of the Act to the new lessee. The taxable amount of the said supply shall be equal to the sum of the instalments due after the date of the replacement with the new lessee, net of the tax due thereon.

(8) (New, SG No. 101/2006) The supply under Paragraph 7 shall be documented in accordance with the standard procedure established in the Act.

Taxable Amount of Supply of Excisable Goods

Article 14. The taxable amount under Article 26 and Article 52 of the Act shall not include the amount of the excise duty where the goods are placed under excise duty suspension arrangement in accordance with the terms and procedure of the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act.

Taxes and Charges Involved in Determining the Taxable Amount (Title amended, SG No. 8/2016, effective 29.01.2016)

Article 15. (Amended, SG No. 10/2011, effective 1.02.2011, SG No. 8/2016, effective 29.01.2016) The taxable amount under Articles 26 and 27 of this Act shall be increased with the taxes and charges payable for the supply, where the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled:

1. they have been paid on behalf of and at the expense of the supplier;
2. they have been requested by the supplier.

Utilisation of Investment Grants (Subsidies)

Article 16. (1) Investment grants (subsidies) shall be considered utilized where the conditions required for their recognition as income occur pursuant to the Accountancy Act and the applicable accounting standards.

(2) Where the investment grant (subsidy) received is for additional payment both on effected supplies in respect of which a right to deduct credit for input tax applies and on exempt supplies or on supplies or activities in respect of which no right of credit for tax input applies, and it is impossible to determine which supplies or activities it refers to, it shall be considered that the investment grant (subsidy) is allocated proportionately in accordance with the supplies effected by the supplier under Article 73 (3) of the Act and Items 2 – 6 of Article 73 (4) of the Act in the last 12 months prior to the month in which the investment grant (subsidy) was utilised.

Usual or Customary Packing Materials

Article 17. (1) Usual or customary packing materials or containers within the meaning of the Act shall be only those intended for multiple use without recycling, such as bottles, cases, cans, drums, pallets, casks, barrels, cisterns, containers and others, after they are brought in line with the hygienic and sanitary requirements.

(2) The taxable amount under Article 26 (2) of the Act shall not be increased with the value of the usual or customary packing materials or containers under Item 4 of Article 26 (3) of the Act in so far as this value is included in the incidental expenses for packing under Item 3 of Article 26 (3) of the Act.

Trade Discounts or Rebates Granted to Recipients

Article 18. (1) Item 1 of Article 26 (5) of the Act shall apply regardless of whether the trade discount or rebate is granted in the form of money, goods or services.

(2) The supply of goods or services not linked to the subject of the supply in respect of which they are supplied shall not be considered trade discount or rebate granted.

(3) Goods or services are considered linked to the subject of the supply within the meaning of Paragraph 2 if they are of the same kind or if they are intended for advertising, testing, accompany or facilitate the use of the goods or services supplied.

(4) Where the trade discount or rebate is granted after the date of occurrence of the chargeable event for the supply, to adjust the taxable amount of the supply the supplier shall issue a credit advice to the invoice issued for the supply, and where more than one invoice is issued – a credit advice stating the numbers of all invoices issued for the supply.

(5) In the cases of Item 2 of Article 26 (5) of the Act where usual or customary packing materials or containers are not returned within 12 months from dispatch thereof, the taxable amount of the supply shall be increased by issuing a debit advice to the invoice issued for the supply. The advice shall be issued within 5 days of the day of expiration of the 12-month time limit.

Taxable Amount for Intra-Community Acquisition of Excisable Goods

Article 19. (1) Included in the taxable amount for intra-Community acquisition of excisable goods shall be the excise duty due or paid for the goods in the Member State from which the excisable goods were dispatched or transported.

(2) Where the excise duty due or paid for the goods in the Member State from which they were dispatched or transported has been refunded, the taxable amount under Paragraph 1 shall be reduced with the amount of the excise duty refunded.

(3) Refunding of the excise duty under Paragraph 2 shall be ascertained by the person with a document issued by the competent administration of the Member State which has refunded the excise duty.

(4) The taxable amount under Paragraph 2 shall be decreased by issuing a memorandum under Article 117 (4) of the Act.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 39/2008) The memorandum under Paragraph 4 shall be issued within 15 days of the last day of the tax period in which the person obtained the document under Paragraph 3.

(6) The taxable amount under Article 64 of the Act shall not include the amount of the excise duty where the goods are placed under excise duty suspension arrangement in accordance with the terms and procedure of the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act.

Special Cases of Determination of Taxable Amount

Article 20. (Supplemented, SG No. 20/2013, effective 28.02.2013) (1) (Previous text of Article 20, SG No. 110/2013, effective 1.01.2014) The open market value under Article 27, Paragraph 3 and Paragraph 4, Item 2 of the Act shall be determined at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event for the supply.

(2) (New, SG No. 110/2013, effective 1.01.2014) The taxable amount of the supply under a contract under the Water Act shall be determined in accordance with Article 27 (4) of the Act.

(3) (New, SG No. 8/2016, effective 29.01.2016, supplemented, SG No 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) The provisions of Article 6, Paragraph 3, Items 1 and 2, and Article 9, Paragraph 3, Item 1 of the Act shall also apply when no credit for input tax was deducted in the production, importation or purchase of the goods, but credit for input tax was deducted, fully or partially, for any improvement made to the goods. The provisions of Article 6, Paragraph 3, Items 1 and 2 of the Act shall also apply when no credit for input tax was deducted in the production, importation or acquisition of the goods, but credit for input tax was deducted for any improvements made to the goods in proportion to the degree of utilisation in the independent economic activity.

(4) (New, SG No. 8/2016, effective 29.01.2016, supplemented, SG No 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) In the cases referred to in the first sentence of Paragraph 3, only the taxable amount of the improvements made to the goods for which credit for input tax was deducted fully or partially shall be taken into account when determining the taxable amount under the second sentence of Article 27, Paragraphs 1 and 2. In the cases referred to in the second sentence of Paragraph 3, only the taxable amount of the improvements made to the goods for which credit for input tax was deducted in proportion to the degree of utilisation in the independent economic activity shall be taken into account when determining the taxable amount under Article 27 (1) of the Act.

(5) (New, SG No. 3/2019, effective 8.01.2019) For the purposes of determination of the taxable amount under Article 27 of the Act as an expense for wear and tear in view of the normal economic life of goods or services, which are fixed assets within the meaning of the Act, taken into account shall be the expense for their wear and tear as part of the value of the taxable amount, for which a tax credit is deducted for the tax charged, calculated for each tax period according to the straight-line method for the period of the useful life of the good or service. When determining such a period, the period in which the good or service is expected to be economically usable by one or more persons shall be taken into account, but it shall not be shorter than 20 years for real estates and 5 years for the other goods or services, respectively. For goods and services for which the taxable amount cannot be determined according to this procedure, the taxable amount shall be the market price.

Chapter Four CERTIFICATION OF EXISTING CIRCUMSTANCES OF SUPPLIES

4. its voyages outside the territorial sea of the country comprise at least 60 percent of all its voyages over a period of 12 months prior to the month of receipt of the supply with a place of performance in the territory of the country, to which a zero rate will apply; in determining the share of voyages outside the territorial sea of the country, one of the following criteria shall be satisfied:

(a) the miles travelled by the vessel outside the territorial sea of the country comprise at least 60 percent of the total amount of miles travelled by the vessel over a period of 12 months prior to the month of receipt of the supply with a place of performance in the territory of the country, to which a zero rate will apply;

(b) the number of trips made by the vessel outside the territorial sea of the country comprises at least 60 percent of the total number of trips made by the vessel over a period of 12 months prior to the month of receipt of the supply with a place of performance in the territory of the country, to which a zero rate will apply;

(c) the number of passengers carried by the vessel outside the territorial sea of the country comprises at least 60 percent of the total number of passengers carried by the vessel over a period of 12 months prior to the month of receipt of the supply with a place of performance in the territory of the country, to which a zero rate will apply;

(d) the tonnage of cargo and/or postal consignments transported by the vessel (where the main activity is transportation of cargoes, commercial or industrial operations, and/or postal consignments) outside the territorial sea of the country comprises at least 60 percent of the total tonnage transported by the vessel over a period of 12 months prior to the month of receipt of the supply with a place of performance in the territory of the country, to which a zero rate will apply.

(2) A zero rate under Article 31, Item 2, letters "a" and "b" of the Act shall not apply to the following vessels:

1. vessels used for commercial and industrial operations within the territorial sea;
2. vessels used for oyster and shellfish breeding;
3. vessels used for sports and recreation purposes or for personal use;
4. rivergoing vessels;
5. vessels that do not satisfy the conditions specified in Paragraph 1.

(3) Where the vessel makes voyages of incidental, accidental or irregular nature, to determine the proportion of voyages outside the territorial sea of the country for supplies other than those specified in Paragraph 4 for the purpose of applying the zero rate under Article 31, Item 2, letters "a" and "b" of the Act, at least two of the criteria specified in Paragraph 1, Item 4, letters "a" to "d" herein shall be met.

(4) The share of voyages outside the territorial sea of the country under Paragraph 1, Item 4 in the case of construction, delivery or rental of a vessel for the purpose of applying the zero rate under Article 31, Item 2, letters "a" and "b" of the Act shall be determined based on the intended expected voyages or the operational profile of the vessel. Where the vessel has been rented by the same vessel owner under at least two contracts, succeeding each other and having a total duration exceeding 12 months, the share of voyages outside the territorial sea of the country under Paragraph 1, Item 4 shall be determined based on actual information regarding the vessel over the period of 12 months prior to the month of receipt of the supply with a place of performance in the territory of the country, to which a zero rate will apply.

(5) The criteria specified in Paragraph 1, Item 4, letters "a" to "d" shall be determined based on actual data from the logbook of the vessel or on information from the navigation and positioning system, or based on transport documents, or based on intentions and the operational profile of the vessel.

(6) The owner of a vessel that is or will be designed and used for navigation on the high seas, regardless of whether such vessel is established in the territory of the country or not, shall declare the fulfilment of the criteria for applying a zero rate under Paragraph 1, Item 4, letters "a" to "d" by preparing a declaration using a standard form – Appendix No. 26, which shall be provided to the supplier with the first effected supply for the calendar year and shall be valid until the end of the year, or another document in which the circumstances contained in Appendix No. 26, part one or part two, as applicable, are declared.

(7) Where the vessel has been used for less than a year, to determine the proportion of voyages outside the territorial sea of the country for supplies other than those specified in Paragraph 4 for the purpose of applying the zero rate under Article 31, Item 2, letters "a" and "b" of the Act, at least one of the criteria specified in Paragraph 1, Item 4, letters "a" to "d" herein shall be met between the start of the vessel's operation and the date of preparing the declaration referred to in Paragraph 6.

(8) Each voyage between two ports, situated in territorial waters, territorial waters of the European Union or international waters, where operations for loading or unloading of cargo and/or embarking or disembarking of passengers were carried out, is regarded as one trip. One trip shall also exist where such operations have been carried out in the port from which the vessel has sailed and to which it comes back after sailing without making a stop at another port.

(9) Voyages made for the sole purpose of testing the vessel, repair or training of the crew shall not be included when the percentage specified in Paragraph 1,

Item 4, letters "a" to "d" is determined.

Article 52. (Repealed, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017).□

Chapter Eight

ASSESSMENT OF TAX LIABILITY AND CHARGING OF TAX

Calculation of the Tax for Every Supply

Article 53. (1) The amount of the tax due for each supply shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$T = \frac{TA \times RT}{100}, \quad \text{where:}$$

T - the amount of the tax due for the specific supply;

TA - the taxable amount for the specific supply;

RT - the rate of tax as applicable.

(2) Where in accordance with the Act the tax is assumed as included in the declared or agreed price, the amount of the tax shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$T = \frac{P \times RT}{100 + RT} \quad \text{where:}$$

T - the amount of the tax due for the specific supply;

P - the agreed price with the tax included or the declared retail price for the specific supply;

RT - the rate of tax as applicable.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 20/2013, effective 28.02.2013) In case of free of charge taxable supplies of goods or services under Article 6 (3) and Article 9 (3) of the Act the charged tax shall be at the expense of the supplier.

(4) (New, SG No. 16/2007) Free of charge supply of the services under Item 2 of Article 9 (3) of the Act shall be deemed to be tax exempt supply where the supplied services are subject to exemption upon their receipt.

Chargeability and Charging of Tax

(Title amended, SG No. 39/2008)

Article 54. (1) (Previous Article 54, SG No. 39/2008) A registered person in respect whereof the tax has become chargeable shall charge it by:

1. issuing a tax document stating the tax on a separate line;

2. include the amount of the tax in the calculation of the result for the corresponding tax period in the VAT return under Article 116 for such tax period;

3. record the document under Paragraph 1 in the sales day book under Article 113 for the corresponding tax period.

(2) (New, SG No. 6/2010, effective 1.01.2010) In case of supply under Article 21 (1) and (2) of the Act, where the recipient and the supplier are established within the territory of the country, the tax shall be chargeable on the supplier - a person registered under the Act - regardless of whether the recipient is a taxable or non-taxable person.

Right to Credit for Input Tax in cases of Legal Succession under Article 10 of the Act

Article 60. (1) In the cases of legal succession under Article 10 of the Act the legal successor shall have the right to deduct credit for input tax for goods and services received where the following conditions are met simultaneously:

1. (supplemented, SG No. 8/2016, effective 29.01.2016) the transforming corporation, the transferor or the contributor, the deceased person or testator has not exercised its right to deduct credit for input tax;

2. (supplemented, SG No. 8/2016, effective 29.01.2016) the time limit under Article 72(1) of this Act, within which the transforming corporation, the transferor or contributor, the deceased person or testator should have exercised its right to deduct credit for input tax, has not expired;

3. the received goods or services will be used for the purposes of the taxable supplies within the meaning of Article 69 of the Act effected by the legal successor;

4. the supplier of the goods or services is a registered person under the Act at the date of issue of the tax document and the supply is taxable at that time.

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 8/2016, effective 29.01.2016) In the cases of legal succession under Article 10 of the Act, the legal successor shall furthermore have the right to deduct credit for input tax for the received goods or services for which the transforming corporation, the transferor or contributor, the deceased person or testator of a non-cash asset has not had the right to deduct credit for input tax where the following conditions are met simultaneously:

1. the received goods or services will be used for the purposes of the taxable supplies within the meaning of Article 69 of the Act effected by the legal successor and the supplier of the goods and services is a registered person under the Act at the date of issue of the tax document and the supply is taxable at such date;

2. (supplemented, SG No. 20/2013, effective 28.02.2013, SG No. 8/2016 effective 29.01.2016, amended, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) the goods or services are acquired by the transforming corporation, the transferor or contributor, the deceased person or testator of a non-cash asset within 5 years, and for immovable property, within 20 years before the date of entry in the commercial register or in the BULSTAT register of the respective circumstance under Article 10 of the Act.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) The right to deduct credit for input tax on the basis of Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall occur as follows:

1. under Article 71a and Article 71b of the Act – for goods which are or would be fixed assets and which are to be used by the legal successor for both independent economic activity and for its personal use or for the needs of the owner, its/his employees, or more generally for purposes other than its/his independent economic activity;

2. under Article 73 or 73b of the Act – except in the cases referred to in Item 1, for goods and for services, which will be used by the legal successor in the framework of the independent economic activity both for carrying out supplies, for which a right to deduct credit for input tax exists, and for supplies or activities, for which there is no such right.

(4) The right to deduction under Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be exercised where the following conditions exist:

1. (supplemented, SG No. 8/2016, effective 29.01.2016) the legal successor has a copy of the tax document, drawn up in accordance with the provisions of Articles 114 and 115 of the Act, wherein the tax is stated on a separate line – in respect of supplies of goods or services whereon the recipient is the transforming corporation, the transferor or contributor, the deceased person or testator;

2. (amended, SG No. 3/2007, supplemented, SG No. 8/2016 effective 29.01.2016) the legal successor has a copy of a memorandum under Article 117 (2) of the Act, issued by the transforming corporation, the transferor or contributor, the deceased person or testator – in the cases where the tax is chargeable on the transforming corporation, the transferor or contributor, the deceased person or testator as a payer under Article 82 (2) and (3) of the Act;

3. (supplemented, SG No. 39/2008, amended, SG No. 10/2011, effective 1.02.2011, supplemented, SG No. 8/2016, effective 29.01.2016) the legal successor has a copy of a customs document, certifying the importation under Article 16 of the Act wherein the transforming corporation, the transferor or the contributor of a non-cash asset is specified as an importer and the tax is paid under the terms of Article 90 (1) of the Act – in the cases where the transforming corporation, the transferor or the contributor of a non-cash asset is an importer;

4. (supplemented, SG No. 39/2008, amended, SG No. 10/2011, effective 1.02.2011, supplemented, SG No. 8/2016, effective 29.01.2016, SG No. 3/2019

Article 63. The registered person shall not have the right to deduct credit for input tax for received goods and services of negligible value where the advertised supplies are exempt supplies or supplies or activities in respect of which no right to deduct credit for input tax exists.

Chapter Eleven ADJUSTMENTS OF CREDIT FOR INPUT TAX USED

Calculation of the Ratio under Article 73 (2) of the Act

Article 64. (1) For the purposes of calculating the ratio under Article 73 (2) of the Act the following supplies shall not be included in the turnover under Article 73 (3):

1. (Amended, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017, supplemented, SG No 25/2020, effective 20.03.2020) Article 6 (4), Article 9 (4), Article 10 (1) and (3), Article 10a, Article 10b and Article 129;

2. a supply resulting from a request or an act of a central or local government authority or in pursuance of the law where no compensation is provided;

3. (new, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) of fixed assets used by the taxable person within its independent economic activity;

4. (new, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) of real estates and of financial services of incidental nature.

(2) For the purposes of calculating the ratio under Article 73 (2) of the Act the following supplies shall not be included in the turnover under Article 73 (4) of the Act:

1. supplies under Paragraph 1;

2. interest received on current and deposit accounts; this does not refer to:

(a) credit and financial institutions within the meaning of the Credit Institutions Act;

(b) (amended, SG No. 11/2021, effective 9.02.2021) insurance companies;

(c) collective investment schemes, investment companies and management companies under the Public Offering of Securities Act, social insurance companies, pension funds and management companies under the Social Insurance Code, health insurance companies under the Health Insurance Act.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 16/2007, SG No. 8/2016, effective 29.01.2016) The person shall have the data necessary for calculating the ratios under Article 73 of the Act and shall only calculate them by rounding them up to the second digit after the decimal point, as per the rule:

0,120...1	0,126
0,121	0,127
0,122 = 0,13	0,128 = 0,13
0,123	0,129...9
0,124	0,130

(4) (New, SG No. 39/2008) In case the person establishes that a wrong ratio has been applied under Article 73 of the Act in the VAT returns for previous tax periods, the error shall be adjusted under the terms of Item 2 of Article 126 (3) of the Act.

(5) (New, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) Where goods or services, imported for general use in accordance with the conditions set out in Article 10a of the Act, are used by an unincorporated company both for carrying out supplies, for which a right to deduct credit for input tax exists and for supplies or activities, for which no such right exists, the partner shall apply Article 73 of the Act based on the turnover of the unincorporated company.

Annual Adjustment under Article 73 (8) of the Act

Article 65. (1) The difference under Article 73 (8) of the Act shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$AA = Tdpcit \times Fcy - CIPUcy$, where:

AA is the amount of the annual adjustment under Article 73 (8) of the Act;

Tdpcit - tax with right to deduct partial credit for input tax for the current year;

Fcy - the ratio under Article 73 (2) of the Act for the current year;

CIPUcy - total amount of credit for input tax used in the current year.

(2) (New, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) When calculating the difference referred to in Paragraph 1 with respect of the received goods and services, imported for general use, in the cases of Article 10a (2) of the Act, the partner shall use the ratio under Article 73 (2) of the Act for the current calendar year, calculated based on the turnover of the unincorporated company.

(3) (Supplemented, SG No. 101/2006, amended, SG No. 3/2007, renumbered from Paragraph 2, supplemented, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) The amount of the annual adjustment under Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be stated in cell 43 of Appendix No. 13 for the last tax period with a "+" or "-" sign. A memorandum under Article 117 (2) of the Act shall be drawn up for the adjustment, wherein the requisites under Items 3 to 7 of Article 117 (2) shall not be completed and the amount of the annual adjustment under Article 73 (8) shall be stated with a "+" or "-" sign. The memorandum shall be issued on the last day of the last tax period at the latest and shall be recorded in the purchases day book for the last tax period.

Adjustments of Credit for Input Tax Used

6. selling price of the item under Article 131 (2) of the Act;

7. date of issue of the document;

8. name, surname and signature of the person who has executed the document.

(2) The document under Paragraph 1 shall be issued in 3 counterparts within 5 days of the receipt of the full price on the sale.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 10/2011, effective 1.02.2011) Within the time limit under Paragraph 2 the public enforcement agent, the bailiff or the pledgee shall submit a notification in a standard form - Appendix No. 20 - to the territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency where the owner of the item (the debtor, the pledgor, the owner of the pledged item respectively) is registered.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 6/2010, effective 1.01.2010, SG No. 10/2011, effective 1.02.2011) Where the item has been awarded to the execution creditor on a motion thereby in payment of the claim thereof according to the procedure established by the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code, the supply shall be documented by the supplier (the owner of the item - the debtor, the pledgor, the owner of the pledged item respectively) according to the standard procedure established in the Act. The taxable amount of the supply shall be determined in accordance with Article 131 (4) of the Act.

(5) (New, SG No. 4/2009, effective 1.01.2009, amended, SG No. 10/2011 effective 1.02.2011) The right of option under Article 45 (7) of the Act in the cases of public auction under the terms of Article 131 of the Act shall be exercised by the owner of the item (the debtor, the pledgor, the owner of the pledged item respectively) upon an invitation from the public enforcement agent or the bailiff. Where no written notification is received from the debtor until announcement of the auction, the supply shall be released.

(6) (New, SG No. 6/2010, effective 1.01.2010, amended, SG No. 10/2011 effective 1.02.2011, supplemented, SG No. 20/2013, effective 28.02.2013) In the cases of auction under the terms of Article 131 of the Act, where in respect of the subject matter of the public auction Article 50 (1) applies, the owner of the item (the debtor, the pledgor, the owner of the pledged item respectively) shall notify the public enforcement agent, the bailiff or the pledgee of the existence of such circumstance before the announcement of the auction.

(7) (New, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) In the cases referred to in Paragraph 5 herein, where the owner of the item (the debtor, the pledgor, the owner of the mortgaged item respectively) has deducted in full or in part credit for input tax for the goods subject of the exempt supply in proportion to their use in the independent economic activity, he/it shall accrue and owe tax in an amount determined in accordance with Article 79, Paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Act.

Refund of Tax Transferred to the National Revenue Agency in case of Cancellation of Public Auction or Sale by a Secured Creditor, Documentation and Reporting

Article 83a. (New, SG No. 39/2008) (1) Upon revocation of public auction or sale by the competent authority the tax on the auction/sale transferred to the National Revenue Agency shall be refunded on the basis of a request for refund under Article 129 of the Tax and Social Insurance Procedure Code filed by:

1. (supplemented, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) the buyer – in cases of court removal under Article 499 (1) of the Code of Civil Procedure and under Article 239 (3) of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code; or

2. the bank - a secured creditor which has transferred the tax - in the cases of sale effected under Article 60 (3) of the Credit Institutions Act; or

3. the bailiff or the public executor who has transferred the tax – in all other cases.

(2) The following shall be enclosed with the request under Paragraph 1:

1. the original of the buyer's copy of the document under Article 83 (1) issued for the sale;

2. a certified transcript of the enforced decision of the competent authority on cancellation of the public auction or sale.

(3) Where the buyer has exercised his right to deduct credit for input tax on the public auction/sale, he shall report its cancellation on the basis of an enforced decision of the competent authority. Adjustments in the amount of the deducted credit for input tax shall be made in the tax period in which the decision entered into force, and the document under Article 83 (1) shall be recorded in the purchases day book with an opposite sign.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 10/2011, effective 1.02.2011, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) In the cases of court removal under Article 499 (1) of the Code of Civil Procedure and under Article 239 (3) of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code, the debtor, with regard to which it is established that he/it is not the owner of the sold immovable property and who has deducted in full or in part credit for input tax for the property subject of the public auction/sale in proportion to its use in the independent economic activity, shall accrue and owe tax in an amount determined in accordance with Article 79 (3) of the Act.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 10/2011, effective 1.02.2011, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) The adjustment under Paragraph 4 shall be effected in accordance with Article 79 (4) of the Act in the tax period in which the decision of the competent court ascertaining that the debtor was not the owner of the sold property was enforced. The circumstances under Article 79 (1) of the Act shall be considered as having occurred not later than the year in which the decree on the assignment or the sale contract, based on which the buyer is subsequently removed by court, has entered into force.

(6) In the cases of appeal of public auction under Article 256 of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code, where the appeal is honoured and the claimant is declared buyer, the public executor shall apply Items 2, 3 and 4 of Article 131 (1) of the Act based on the act of the competent authority. A copy of the originally filed notification shall be enclosed with the notification in standard form – Appendix No. 20 prepared in accordance with the act of the competent authority.

(7) In the cases of Paragraph 6 where the public executor has transferred the tax due on the sale under Item 1 of Article 131 (1) of the Act and the claimant who is declared buyer has offered a higher price the public executor shall transfer the difference between the tax due on the auction and the already transferred tax in accordance with the same procedure.

(8) In the cases of Paragraph 6 if the claimant who is declared buyer has offered a lower price, the revenue authority, at the request of the public prosecutor, shall refund the difference between the tax paid and the tax due on the effective sale under Article 129 of the Tax and Social Insurance Procedure Code.

Documenting of Damages and Interest of Compensatory Nature

Article 84. No tax document shall be issued to document damages and interest of compensatory nature and the latter shall be documented by issuing a document certifying the payment thereof.

Services to Tourists

Article 85. (1) (Amended, SG No. 15/2012, effective 21.02.2012) The tax on the supply of single service to tourists in the cases referred to in Article 136 of the Act shall be determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$T = \frac{TA - P_{tot}}{100 + RT} \times RT, \text{ where:}$$

TA is the total amount, which the tour operator has received or will receive from the customer or the third party for the supply, including any subsidies and investment grants directly linked to such supply, the taxes and fees, as well as the incidental expenses such as commission and insurance, charged by the supplier to the recipient but exclusive of any trade discounts granted;

PTot - the aggregated taxable amounts and the tax on the supplies of goods and services received by the tour operator from other taxable persons for the direct benefit of the travelling person;

RT- the rate of tax at 20 %.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 15/2012, effective 21.02.2012) Where the provision of Article 140 of the Act applies, the tax shall be determined according to the following formula:

$$T = \frac{TA - P_{tot}}{100 + RT} \times RT \times (1 - F), \text{ where:}$$

TA is the total amount, which the tour operator has received or will receive from the customer or the third party for the supply, including any subsidies and investment grants directly linked to such supply, the taxes and fees, as well as the incidental expenses such as commission and insurance, charged by the supplier to the recipient but exclusive of any trade discounts granted;

PTot - the aggregated taxable amounts and the tax on the supplies of goods and services received by the tour operator from other taxable persons for the direct benefit of the travelling person;

RT- the rate of tax at 20 %.

F - a ratio rounded up to the second digit after the decimal place and determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$F = \frac{P}{PTot}, \text{ where:}$$

P is the aggregate of the taxable amounts and the tax on the supplies of goods and services received by the tour operator from other taxable persons for the direct benefit of the travelling person, the place of performance of which is within the territory of third countries and territories.

(3) (New, SG No. 101/2006) The rounding shall be made in accordance with the following rule:

0,120	0,125
0,121	0,126
0,122 = 0,12	0,127 = 0,13
0,123	0,128
0,124	0,129

Documenting and Reporting Supplies

Article 104e. (New, SG No. 110/2013, effective 1.01.2014) (1) Documenting a supply in respect of which the special regime applies shall be effected under the procedure of Chapter Eleven "Documenting Supplies" of the Act.

(2) The person under Article 151b (1) of the Act shall record the invoices and advices to invoices for supplies issued thereby or in its name, in respect of which the special regime applies, in the sales day book for the tax period in which they were issued, and the taxable amount and the tax amount (after deducting the received advance payments from the taxable amount and the tax amount) shall not be included in the calculation of the result for the period. The issued invoices and advices to invoices for advance payments shall be recorded in the sales day book for the tax period in which they were issued and the taxable amount and the tax amount shall be included in the calculation of the result for the period.

(3) The person under Article 151b (1) of the Act shall record the invoices and advices to invoices received thereby for supplies, in respect of which no payment is made or a partial payment is made as of the date of the chargeable event, in the purchases day book for the tax period in which they were issued, and the taxable amount and the tax amount (after deducting the advance payments from the taxable amount and the tax amount) shall not be included in the calculation of the result for the period. The received invoices and advices to invoices for advance payments shall be recorded in the purchases day book within the time limit under Article 72 of the Act, and the taxable amount and the tax amount shall be included in the calculation of the result for the period.

(4) The invoices and advices to invoices for supply of goods or services received by the person under Article 151b (1) of the Act, which are excluded from the scope of the special regime pursuant to Article 151a (2) of the Act, shall be recorded in the purchases day book within the time limit under Article 72 of the Act. The taxable amount and the tax amount shall be included in the calculation of the result for the period.

Calculating the Chargeable Tax

Article 104f. (New, SG No. 110/2013, effective 1.01.2014) (1) The amount of the chargeable tax under Article 151c (3) of the Act shall be calculated by applying the following formula:

$CTrp = TArp \times RT$, where:

CTrp is the amount of the value added chargeable tax for a received payment;

RT is the rate of tax;

TArp is the taxable amount for the received payment which is calculated according to the following formula:

$TArp = (TA - TAap) \times RP/DPce$, where:

TA is the taxable amount on the supply;

TAap - the aggregate amount of the taxable amounts for all advance payments on the supply;

RP - the received partial payment on the date of the chargeable event or the full or partial payment after the date of the chargeable event;

DPce - payment due as of the date of the chargeable event.

(2) For the purposes of calculating the amount of tax under Paragraph 1, a memorandum shall be issued within 5 days of the date of receipt of a payment on the supply, but not later than the last day of the month in which the tax becomes chargeable.

(3) The memorandum referred to in Paragraph (2) shall mandatorily state:

1. title of document;
2. a number corresponding to the number of the invoice for which it is issued;
3. date of issue;
4. the name and address of the supplier;
5. identification number of the supplier under Article 94 (2) of the Act;
6. the name and address of the recipient of the supply;
7. the identification number of the recipient under Article 94 (2) of the Act;
8. the number and date of the document of the received payment;
9. the date on which the tax became chargeable;
10. the taxable amount and tax amount for the supply;
11. the total amount of the payment due as of the date of the chargeable event;
12. the amount of the effected partial payment at the date of the chargeable event or the full payment or partial payment after the date of the chargeable event for the supply;
13. the portion of the taxable amount of the supply for which the tax has become chargeable;
14. the rate of tax;
15. the portion of the tax charged at the date of the chargeable event, which becomes chargeable.

(4) In case of reduction of the taxable amount or in case of rescinding a supply for which a memorandum under Paragraph 3 has been issued, the person shall issue a new memorandum which shall contain:

1. a number corresponding to the number of the invoice for which it is issued;
2. the date of issue;
3. the grounds for issuing the new memorandum;
4. the number of the credit advice;
5. the reduction of the portion of the taxable amount for the supply;
6. the tax reduction.

(5) The memorandum under Paragraph 4 shall be issued within 5 days of the date of occurrence of the respective circumstance, but not later than the last day of the month in which the circumstance arose.

(6) The amount of the chargeable tax under Article 151c (7) of the Act shall be calculated according to the following formula:

$CTrt = TAnp \times RT$, where:

CTrt is the amount of the chargeable value added tax upon termination of application of the special regime;

RT is the rate of tax;

TAnp is the taxable amount for the non-received payment until the date of termination of the application of the special regime, which shall be calculated according to the following formula:

$TAnp = TA - TAap - TArp$, where:

TA is the taxable amount on the supply;

TAap - the aggregate amount of the taxable amounts for all advance payments on the supply;

TArp - the total sum of the taxable amounts for all payments received on the supply on or after the date of the chargeable event.

(7) The memorandum for the calculation of the tax amount under Paragraph 6 shall be issued within 5 days of the date of serving the act of termination of the application of the special regime, but not later than the last day of the month in which the tax became chargeable.

(8) The memorandum under Paragraph 7 shall contain the requisites under Paragraph 3, excluding those referred to in Item 8;

(9) The person under Article 151b (1) of the Act shall record the memorandums issued thereby under Paragraphs 2, 4 and 7 in the sales day book for the tax period in which these were issued, and the taxable amount and the tax amount shall be included in the calculation of the result for the period.

Calculating the Credit for Input Tax

Article 104g. (New, SG No. 110/2013, effective 1.01.2014) (1) The amount of the credit for input tax under Article 151d (1) of the Act shall be calculated according to the following formula:

$TCep = TAep \times RT$, where:

TCep is the portion of the credit for input tax with right to deduction for the effected partial payment on the date of the chargeable event or for the full or partial payment after the date of the chargeable event;

RT is the rate of tax;

TAep is the taxable amount for the effected partial payment on the date of the chargeable event or the full or partial payment after the date of the chargeable event, which shall be calculated according to the following formula:

$TAep = (TA - TAap) \times EP / DPce$, where:

TA is the taxable amount on the supply;

TAap - the aggregate amount of the taxable amounts for all advance payments on the supply;

EP - the effected partial payment on the date of the chargeable event or the full or partial payment after the date of the chargeable event;

DPce - payment due as of the date of the chargeable event.

(2) For the purposes of calculation of the amount of credit for input tax under Paragraph 1 by the recipient, a person under Article 151b (1) of the Act, a memorandum shall be issued within 5 days of the date on which the payment was effected, but not later than the last day of the month in which the payment was made.

(3) The memorandum under Paragraph 2 shall contain:

1. the name of the document;
2. a number corresponding to the number of the invoice for which it was issued;

3. the date of issue;
4. the name and address of the supplier;
5. the identification number of the supplier under Article 94 (2) of the Act;
6. the name, address and identification number under Article 94 (2) of the person issuing the memorandum;
7. the name and date of the document for the effected payment;
8. the date on which the right to credit for input tax arises;
9. the taxable amount and tax amount for the supply;
10. the total amount of the payment due as of the date of the chargeable event;

11. the amount of the effected partial payment as of the date of the chargeable event or the full payment or partial payment after the date of the chargeable event for the supply;

12. the portion of the taxable amount of the supply in respect whereof the right to credit for input tax arises;

13. the rate of tax;

14. the portion of the tax charged at the date of the chargeable event in respect whereof the right to credit for input tax arises.

(4) In case of reduction of the taxable amount of a supply or in case of rescinding a supply for which a memorandum under Paragraph 3 has been issued, the person shall issue a new memorandum which shall contain:

1. a number corresponding to the number of the invoice for which it was issued;

2. the date of issue;

3. the grounds for issuing the new memorandum;

4. the number of the credit advice;

5. the reduction of the portion of the taxable amount of the supply;

6. the tax reduction.

(5) The memorandum under Paragraph 4 shall be issued within 5 days of the date on which the relevant circumstance arose, but not later than the last day of the month in which the circumstance arose.

(6) The amount of the credit for input tax with right to deduction under Article 151d (6) of the Act shall be calculated according to the following formula:

$T_{Ctr} = T_{Anp} \times RT$, where:

T_{Ctr} is the portion of the amount of the credit for input tax with right to deduction upon termination of application of the special regime;

RT is the rate of tax;

T_{Anp} is the taxable amount for the non-effected payment until the date of serving the act of termination of application of the special regime, which shall be calculated according to the following formula:

$T_{Anp} = TA - TA_{ap} - TA_{ep}$, where:

TA is the taxable amount on the supply;

TA_{ap} - the aggregate amount of the taxable amounts for all advance payments on the supply;

TA_{ep} - the total sum of the taxable amounts for all payments effected on the supply after the date of the chargeable event.

(7) The memorandum for the calculation of the credit for input tax under Paragraph 6 shall be issued within 5 days of the date of serving the act of termination of the application of the special regime, but not later than the last day of the month in which the act was served.

(8) The memorandum under Paragraph 7 shall contain the requisites under Paragraph 3, excluding those referred to in Item 7.

(9) The person under Article 151b (1) of the Act shall exercise the right to deduct credit for input tax for the memorandums issued thereby under Paragraphs 2, 4 and 7 and on the received memorandums under Article 104f (2) and (4), issued for supplies for which the supplier has applied the special regime, by recording them in the purchases day book within the time limit under Article 72 of the Act. The taxable amount and the tax amount shall be included in the calculation of the result for the period.

(10) Paragraphs 2 and 7 shall not apply to supplies of goods and services which pursuant to Article 151a (2) of the Act are excluded from the scope of the special cash accounting regime.

(11) Memorandums received under Article 104f (7), issued by another person under Article 151b (1) of the Act, who/which terminates the application of the special regime, shall be recorded in the purchases day book for the tax period in which they were issued, and the taxable amount and the tax amount shall be excluded from the calculation of the result for the period.

(12) The right to deduct credit for input tax in the cases referred to in Paragraph 11, regardless of the supplier's termination of application of the special regime, shall arise under Article 151d (1) of the Act for the tax period in which a payment on the supply was made thereto, pro rata to the payment made.

(13) The amount of the credit for input tax under Paragraph 12 shall be calculated according to the following formula:

$TCep = TAep \times RT$, where:

TC is the portion of the amount of the credit for input tax with right to deduction for the effected payment;

RT is the rate of tax;

TAep is the taxable amount for the payment effected after the date of termination of application of the special regime by the supplier, which shall be calculated according to the following formula:

$TAep = TAttr \times EP / DPtr$, where:

TAttr is the taxable amount for the non-effected payment until the date of termination of application of the special regime by the supplier, which shall be equal to the taxable amount on the supply less the total sum of all taxable amounts for all advance payments and the taxable amounts for all payments effected after the date of the chargeable event; this taxable amount shall be equal to the taxable amount calculated by the supplier in the memorandum under Article 104f (6);

EP - the effected payment after the date of termination of application of the special regime by the supplier;

DPtr - payment due as of the date of termination of application of the special regime by the supplier.

(14) For the purposes of calculating the credit for input tax under Paragraph 13, a report shall be drawn up for every tax period in which a payment was effected on the supply to the supplier. The report shall contain:

1. a number corresponding to the number of the memorandum issued by the supplier for which it is issued;

2. the date of issue;

3. the date on which the payment on the supply is effected;

4. the amount of the effected payment on the supply;

5. the tax in respect of which the right to deduct credit for input tax arises.

(15) The right to deduct credit for input tax under Paragraph 12 shall be exercised by recording the report under Paragraph 14 in the purchases day book within the time limit under Article 72 of the Act. The taxable amount and the tax amount shall be included in the calculation of the result for the period.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 3/2019, effective 8.01.2019) When the taxable amount of the taxable supplies/intra-Community acquisitions of liquid fuels or the value of the received liquid fuels released for consumption in the current tax period exceeds the amount of the taxable amount of the taxable supplies, the intra-Community acquisitions or the value of the received liquid fuels released for consumption for which security has been already provided, a new security or an additional security to the already provided security shall be provided. The new security shall be at a rate of 20 per cent of the taxable amount of the taxable supplies/intra-Community acquisitions of liquid fuels or the value of the received liquid fuels released for consumption in the current tax period.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 3/2019, effective 8.01.2019) When the taxable amount of the taxable supplies/intra-Community acquisitions of liquid fuels or the value of the received liquid fuels released for consumption in the current tax period is less than the amount of the taxable amount of the taxable supplies, the intra-Community acquisitions or the value of the received liquid fuels released for consumption for which security has been already provided, a new security in the relevant amount may be provided or a partial release of the provided security may be requested. The new security shall be at a rate of 20 per cent of the taxable amount of the taxable supplies/intra-Community acquisitions of liquid fuels or the value of the received liquid fuels released for consumption in the current tax period.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 3/2019, effective 8.01.2019) When utilising the security and in the presence of the conditions under Article 176c (1) of the Act the tax liable person shall provide a new security under the procedure of Paragraph 1. The new security shall be at a rate of 20 per cent of the taxable amount of the taxable supplies/intra-Community acquisitions of liquid fuels or the value of the received liquid fuels released for consumption in the previous tax period.

Release of security

Article 111e. (New, SG No. 70/2016) (1) Under the conditions set out in Article 176c paragraph 7 of the Act and upon a request under Article 111h, paragraph 1 filed by a tax liable person the security shall be released by the competent revenue authority within 7 days of receipt of the request in the cases when no tax audit is assigned in the same period.

(2) In pursuance of Paragraph 1, when the security is in cash, the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency shall take actions to recover the amount to a specified bank account of the person.

(3) In pursuance of Paragraph 1, when the security is in government securities, a public enforcement agent shall cancel the attachment imposed under Article 203 (4) of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(4) In pursuance of Paragraph 1, when the security is an unconditional and irrevocable bank guarantee, the competent revenue authority shall return to the tax liable person the original of the bank guarantee.

(5) Upon release of the security, the competent revenue authority shall delete the tax liable person from the register under Article 176c (10) of the Act on the day of the release.

Utilisation of security

Article 111f. (New, SG No. 70/2016, supplemented, SG No. 58/2018, effective 13.07.2018) When an outstanding due and payable obligation for value added tax, fines or property sanctions for violations of the Act have been imposed on the person, the security shall be utilised under the enforcement procedure laid down in the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

Check for entry in the register under Article 176c, paragraph 10 of the Act

Article 111g. (New, SG No. 70/2016) (1) Within 7 days of receipt of the application under Articles 111b and 111d, the competent revenue authority shall check the security provided under Article 176c (10) of the Act.

(2) When the security complies with the requirements of Article 176c of the Act, the circumstances and details of the person shall be entered in the register under Article 176c, paragraph 10 of the Act.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 58/2018, effective 13.07.2018) When the security does not comply with the requirements under Article 176c of the Act, the competent revenue authority shall refuse registration of the circumstances and details of the person in the register under Article 176c (10) of the Act. The refusal may be appealed against in accordance with the procedure established by the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code. The provision of security in a smaller amount than the tax due or after the period provided for in Article 176c of the Act shall not constitute grounds for refusal of registration of the tax liable person in the register under Article 176c (10) of the Act. The person shall be given 7 days to provide the full amount of the security.

Deletion from the register under Article 176c, paragraph 10 of the Act

Article 111h. (New, SG No. 70/2016) (1) When circumstances under Article 176c (7) of the Act exist, the tax liable person shall file a request for deletion from the register under Article 176c (10) of the Act.

(2) After checking the existence of the circumstances under Article 176c (7) of the Act for release of the security, the competent revenue authority shall delete the person from the register within 7 days of receipt of the request and shall notify the person in writing/electronically of the deletion.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 58/2018, effective 13.07.2018) When no circumstances for deletion from the register exist, the competent revenue authority shall refuse deletion of the person from the register. The refusal may be appealed against in accordance with the procedure established by the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(4) The competent revenue authority shall also delete the person from the register under Article 176c (10) of the Act before expiry of the one-year period when it finds that:

1. the security is utilised under the procedure of Article 111f and no new security has been provided where grounds for this exist;
2. the security provided or the balance of the security after its utilisation under Article 111f does not meet the requirements of the Act.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 58/2018, effective 13.07.2018) In the cases referred to in Paragraph 4 the competent revenue authority shall notify the person in writing/electronically of the deletion. The deletion may be appealed against under the procedure established by the Tax and Social Insurance Procedure Code.

Substitution of Security

Article 111i. (New, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) (1) At the request of a taxable person a provided and registered security may be substituted with an equivalent security in the form of one of the types of security pursuant to Article 111c.

(2) The person shall provide the new type of security by submitting a written application using a standard form – Appendix No. 36 – to the competent Territorial Directorate of the National Revenue Agency.

(3) In the event that at the time of submission of the application referred to in Paragraph 2 a change in the circumstances that are relevant for determining the amount of the security has occurred, the person shall provide the new type of security in the amount specified in Article 176c, Paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Act.

(4) The period of validity of the new type of security may not be shorter than the remaining period of validity of the security the substitution of which is requested.

(5) The competent revenue authority shall perform a check in accordance with the procedure established by Article 111g herein for registration of the security in the register under Article 176c (10) of the Act.

(6) After the new type of security is registered in the register under Article 176c (10) of the Act, the substituted security shall be released in accordance with the procedure established by Article 111e (2) – (4).

Public electronic register of the persons under Article 176c (15) of the Act

Article 111j. (New, SG No. 58/2018, effective 14.10.2018) (1) The public electronic register under Article 176c (15) of the Act shall be part of the register under Article 80 (1) of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(2) Entered in the register shall be the identification number under Article 84 of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code, the identification number under Article 94 (2) of the Act, the names of the persons, the estimate of the average monthly consumption of fuels received under Items 2 and 3 of Article 176c (1) of the Act, in total by sections of Annex No. 35 and in the unit of measure for the respective fuel indicated in an excise tax document/electronic administrative document, the date of entry, the date of change of the average monthly fuel consumption estimate announced under Article 111k (3), and the date of deletion.

Entry in the register under Article 176c (15) of the Act

Article 111k. (New, SG No. 58/2018, effective 14.10.2018) (1) The entry in the register under Article 176c (15) of the Act shall be made after filing a notification form – annex No. 38, electronically, through an electronic service provided by the NRA, within 7 days prior to the date of occurrence of the chargeable event in case of intra-Community acquisition of liquid fuels or the date of release of liquid fuels for consumption under Item 1 of Article 20 (2) of the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act, which are intended for own use.

(2) The date of entry in the register shall be the date of submission of the notification referred to in Paragraph 1.

(3) In the event of a change of circumstances on the termination and/or resumption of activities at the site, commissioning of a new site, a deviation by more than 10 per cent of the declared average monthly estimate of fuel consumption a notification of change in the circumstances shall be submitted electronically within 7 days before occurrence thereof through an electronic service provided by the National Revenue Agency.

(4) The fuels intended for own consumption by a person under Article 176c (13) and (14) shall be excluded from the determination of the tax bases under Items 2 and 3 of Article 176c (1) of the Act.

Deletion from the register under Article 176c (15) of the Act

Article 111I. (New, SG No. 58/2018, effective 14.10.2018) (1) Deletion from the register under Article 176c (15) of the Act shall be made at the request of the tax liable person or at the initiative of the revenue body.

(2) At the request of the person, deletion from the register shall be made by filing a notification form – Annex No. 38, electronically, through an electronic service provided by the NRA. In this case the date of deletion from the register shall be the date of submission of the notification.

(3) At the initiative of the revenue body, the deletion from the register shall be made after verification of the existence of the circumstances under Article 176c (14) of the Act. Where it is established that the person does not meet the requirements for entry in the register under Article 176c (15) of the Act, the competent revenue body shall issue an act for deletion of the entry in the register. The date of serving the act shall be the date of deletion of the entry in the register. The act of deletion of the entry in the register may be appealed against under the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

§ 2. These Regulations shall supersede the Regulations of Application of the Value Added Tax Act (promulgated State Gazette No. 19/1999, amended and supplemented, SG No. 55/1999, SG No. 9/2000, corrected, SG No. 15/2000, amended, Judgment Nc 404/2001 of the Supreme Administrative Court - SG No. 12/2001, amended and supplemented, SG No. 15/2001, amended, SG No. 58/2001, amended and supplemented, SG No. 43/2002, SG No. 63/2002, SG No. 29/2003, SG No. 26/2004, S No. 32/2005, SG No. 9/2006).

§ 3. (1) (Amended, SG No. 101/2006) Registration certificates under Article 75 (1) shall be issued to the persons under § 4 (1) of the transitional and final provisions of the Value Added Tax Act.

(2) The certificates under Paragraph 1 shall be issued ex officio by the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency and shall be submitted to the persons within one month of the entry into force of these Regulations.

(3) Until submission of the certificate under Paragraph 2 the VAT identification number under Article 94 (2) of the Act shall be the identification number under Item 1 of § 1 of the supplementary provision of these Regulations in front of which the sign "BG" shall be placed.

(4) (New, SG No. 3/2007) For natural persons other than sole traders, who upon their registration with the BULSTAT register have received uniform identification code other than the personal identification number, the VAT identification number shall be the personal identification number in front of which the sign "BG" shall be placed.

(5) (New, SG No. 15/2012, effective 21.02.2012) The persons under Paragraph 4, registered in the BULSTAT register under the terms of § 2 of the transitional and final provisions of the BULSTAT Register Act, may select their identification number for VAT purposes to be their unified identification code under BULSTAT with the sign "BG" being placed in front of it. The right of choice shall be realised by submitting a written declaration to the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency.

§ 4. (1) For tax periods until the entry into force of these Regulations the standard forms of documents provided in the superseded Regulations of Application of the Value Added Tax Act shall apply.

(2) Together with the VAT return for the last tax period prior to the entry into force of these Regulations, the persons shall submit on paper-based and magnetic data storage media the ledgers of account for the said last period.

(3) The paper-based and magnetic data storage media submitted under Paragraph 2 shall comply with the format, parameters and requirements set out in Articles 91 and 92 and in Appendix No. 10 of the superseded Regulations of Application of the Value Added Tax Act.

(4) In the cases of § 4 (5) of the transitional and final provisions of the Value Added Tax Act the registration inventory of the assets available at the registration date or the assets available at the re-registration date shall be submitted in a standard form - Appendix No. 3, Appendix No. 4 respectively of the superseded Regulations of Application of the Value Added Tax Act.

(5) For the assets under Paragraph 4 the right to deduct credit for input tax shall occur where the conditions of Chapter Twelve of the superseded Value Added Tax Act shall apply.

§ 5. For presentation of the effected deduction of input tax claimable for the tax periods until the entry into force of these Regulations a standard form Appendix No. 5 of the superseded Regulations of Application of the Value Added Tax Act shall be completed and submitted.

§ 6. The balance of the input tax claimable under § 6 (3) of the transitional and final provisions of the Value Added Tax Act shall be stated in cell 80 of Appendix No. 8 and in the return under Appendix No. 5 of the superseded Regulations of Application of the Value Added Tax Act.

§ 7. The sales report covering the tax periods prior to the entry into force of these Regulations shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of Article 93 (5) of the superseded Regulations of Application of the Value Added Tax Act.

§ 8. (1) Any registered person shall have the right to deduct the tax charged on the assets upon deregistration under Article 119 (3) of the superseded Value Added Tax Act, which is available at the date of the said person's re-registration under the Value Added Tax Act.

(2) The right under Paragraph 1 shall arise where the following conditions obtain simultaneously:

1. available assets within the meaning of the Accountancy Act at the date of re-registration under the Value Added Tax Act have been charged upon the deregistration under Article 119 (3) of the superseded Value Added Tax Act;

2. the tax charged upon the deregistration has been effectively paid or set off by the revenue authority;

3. with the available assets under Item 1 the person has effected, is effecting or will effect taxable supplies within the meaning of Article 69 of the Act;

4. the registration inventory in a standard form - Appendix No. 3, of the assets under Item 1 has been prepared as of the date of re-registration and has been submitted not later than 7 days after the registration date;

5. the assets under Item 1 have been acquired by the person up to 5 years, and for immovable items – up to 20 years before the date of re-registration under the Act.

(3) In the cases where the asset under Paragraph 2 has been used, is used or will be used for both taxable and exempt supplies or for supplies or activities in respect of which no right to deduct credit for input tax shall exist, a right to deduct partial credit for input tax exists for the tax charged, calculated under the terms of Article 73 of the Act.

(4) The right to deduct credit for input tax under Paragraph 1 shall be exercised in the tax period in which it occurred or in one of the following consecutive three tax periods, and the relevant document under Article 71 of the Act shall be recorded in the purchases day book for the relevant tax period.

(5) The right to deduct credit for input tax under Paragraph 1 shall not occur and may not be exercised if the inventory under Item 4 of Paragraph 2 is submitted after the time limit under Item 4 of Paragraph 2.

§ 9. (1) Where the time limit for submission of information under Article 120 (1) of the superseded Regulations of Application of the Value Added Tax Act expires after the entry into force of these Regulations, commercial banks shall submit the information within 7 days of the opening/closing of the "VAT account".

(2) By the 14th day of the month following the month of entry into force of these Regulations, banks shall submit the information under Article 120 (2) and (3) of the superseded Regulations of Application of the Value Added Tax Act for the last calendar month preceding the month of entry into force of these Regulations.

§ 10. Where an obligation for issuing a memorandum under the procedure of the superseded Regulations of Application of the Value Added Tax Act has arisen before the entry into force of these Regulations and no such memorandum has been issued until the entry into force of these Regulations, the person shall issue a memorandum, which shall satisfy the requirements of the Value Added Tax Act and these Regulations.

§ 11. For goods and services received from other taxable persons for the direct benefit of the tourist and in respect of which the tour operator or travel agent have exercised their right to deduct credit for input tax before the entry into force of these Regulations, no adjustment under the terms of Article 79 of the Value Added Tax Act shall be effected.

§ 12. (Amended, SG No. 101/2006) (1) Notwithstanding § 14 (1) of the transitional and final provisions of the Value Added Tax Act no tax shall be due upon execution of customs formalities regarding declaration of free circulation of goods where the following conditions exist simultaneously:

1. at the time of declaration the goods are under customs procedure and customs warehousing, inward processing under excise duty suspension arrangement, temporary importation with full or partial exemption from duty, or have the status of goods in temporary storage, or placed in a free zone or a free warehouse, and

2. simultaneously with the declaration:

(a) the goods leave the territory of the country to a third country or territory,

or

(b) the goods placed under temporary importation with full exemption from duty leave the territory of the country to the Member State from which they were exported (including the Republic of Romania) and the recipient is the person who exported them.

(2) The provision of Article 16 (2) shall furthermore apply to the cases where goods have been temporarily exported from the territory of the country to the territory of a Member State or to the territory of the Republic of Romania before 31 December 2006 inclusive, for treatment, processing or repair under outward processing, and the said goods are imported again to the territory of the country after 1 January 2007 inclusive.

§ 13. (New, SG No. 101/2006) The ratio under Article 73 (5) of the Act for the previous 2006 shall be calculated according to the formula set out in Article 68 of the superseded regulations for the application of the Value Added Tax Act on the basis of all supplies effected in 2006. In determining the type of supplies the tax arrangement of the supplies at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event for them shall be taken into account.

§ 14. (New, SG No. 101/2006) The numbering of the documents under Article 78, issued after 1 January 2007 inclusive, shall commence from "0000000001".

§ 15. (New, SG No. 101/2006) (1) Introduction on the territory of the country of goods which were exported by 31 December 2006 inclusive from the territory of another Member State or from the territory of the Republic of Romania shall be considered importation of goods within the meaning of Article 16 of the Act.

(2) In the cases of Paragraph 1 no intra-Community acquisition of goods shall exist.

§ 16. (New, SG No. 101/2006) (1) No tax shall be charged on intra-Community acquisition of goods where the following conditions exist simultaneously:

1. the right of ownership over the goods is passed after 1 January 2007 inclusive;

2. in respect of the goods a tax has been paid or charged upon importation of goods.

(2) In the cases referred to in Paragraph 1, where the taxable amount of an intra-Community acquisition is higher than the taxable amount upon importation it shall be considered that an intra-Community acquisition of goods exists in respect of which the tax becomes chargeable under the Act and the difference shall be considered a taxable amount of the acquisition.

§ 17. (New, SG No. 101/2006) (1) Where hotel owners, tour operators and travel agents have received advance payments by 31 December 2006 inclusive for supplies under Chapter Twenty-One of the superseded Value Added Tax Act and in respect of such supplies after the entry into force of the Act the provisions of Article 66 (2) or Chapter Sixteen of the Act apply, upon the occurrence of a chargeable event the persons shall issue a tax document for the supplies in accordance with the procedures and time limits of the Act, stating:

1. the total taxable amount for the supply formed in accordance with the Act;

2. the amount of the rate of tax determined on the taxable amount under Item 1;

3. the amount of the tax charged on advance payments by 31 December 2006 inclusive;

4. the amount of the tax charged on advance payments after 1 January 2007 inclusive;

5. the difference between the amount of the tax under Item 2 and the amount of the tax under Items 3 and 4.

(2) In the cases referred to in Paragraph 1 the difference under Item 5 of Paragraph 1 shall be recorded in the sales day book.

§ 18. (New, SG No. 101/2006) The provisions of § 9 of the transitional and final provisions of the Act shall furthermore apply to supply of goods under the terms of a financial lease contract in respect of which the tax procedure is changed upon entry into force of the Act from taxable to exempt supply or from exempt to taxable supply. For the instalments due after 1 January 2007 the tax procedure at the time of occurrence of the chargeable event under the Act shall apply.

§ 19. (New, SG No. 101/2006) (1) Where an advance payment is received by 31 December 2006 inclusive, for a supply under Chapter Three of the Act and by 31 March 2007 the supplier has not obtained the documents certifying the existence of circumstances under Chapter Four hereof, it shall be considered that the supply is taxable at a rate of 20 per cent.

(2) In the cases referred to in Paragraph 1 tax shall be charged on the supplier by issuing a memorandum under Article 117 (2) of the Act within 5 days, effective 31 March 2007.

(3) Where the supplier obtains the required documents subsequently, said supplier shall correct the result from the application of Paragraph 2 in accordance with the terms of Article 39 (4) - (7) hereof.

§ 20. (New, SG No. 101/2006) (1) Where an advance payment is received by 31 December 2006 inclusive for supply of goods or a service in respect of which the tax treatment is modified by the Act concerning the rate of tax, the place of performance of the supply, giving the supply the same status as a taxable one under Article 69 (2) of the Act, and the chargeable event for the supply occurs after the said date, the supplier shall document the supply by issuing an invoice, stating the total taxable amount of the supply. The tax regime effective at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event of the supply under the Act shall apply to the supply.

(2) Where an advance payment is made by 31 December 2006 inclusive for supply of goods or a service, the chargeable event for which occurs after the said date, and the tax on the supply is chargeable on the recipient under the terms of the Act and these Regulations, the recipient who is a registered person shall charge tax on the total taxable amount of the supply, including the advance payment made.

(3) Paragraph 2 shall not apply where tax is charged on the advance payment under the repealed Value Added Tax Act. The provisions of the Act and these Regulations shall apply to the tax treatment of the supply, including any subsequent advance payments.

§ 21. (New, SG No. 101/2006) These Regulations shall come into force on 1 January 2007.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Regulations to Amend and Supplement the Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 16/2007, effective 1.01.2007)

§ 16. (1) The permits issued by the Minister of Finance under Article 58b of the repealed Value Added Tax Act shall survive for the term for which they were issued as permits under Article 166 of the Act.

(2) Confirmations issued under the terms of Article 83 of the repealed Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act shall survive in respect of the contracts for which they were issued.

§ 17. These Regulations shall come into force on 1 January 2007 with the exception of § 11, which shall come into force on the date of promulgation of the Regulations in the State Gazette.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Regulations amending and supplementing the Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 39/2008, effective 15.04.2008)

§ 38. Where until 18.12.2007 inclusive a tax has been charged under Article 37 (2) of the Act for advance payment received and the supplier subsequently obtains the documents under Articles 21 - 38, he shall correct the result from the application of Article 39 (1) and (2) under the terms of Article 39 (4) and (5).

§ 39. (1) Where from 1.01.2007 till 18.12.2007 inclusive an advance payment on a supply of a service for procedural representation whereby the right to defence of natural persons in preliminary, legal, administrative and arbitration proceedings is exercised and the chargeable event for such supply occurs after that date, the supply shall have the nature of exempted under Item 5 of Article 44 (1) of the Act.

(2) The registered person supplier shall document the supply under Paragraph 1 by means of cancellation of the issuing invoice for advance payment and issue of a new invoice, stating the total taxable amount for the supply. A memorandum under Article 116 (4) of the Act shall also be issued for the cancellation. In the cases of Article 119 of the Act the adjustment shall be done by specifying the payment received and the tax charged on it with an opposite sign in the sales log.

(3) Adjustments under Paragraph 2 shall be made in the tax period when the chargeable event of the supply occurred.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Regulations Amending and Supplementing the Regulations
for Application of the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 4/2009, effective 1.01.2009)

§ 12. In the cases under Article 56, where the tax due is not stated in the customs declaration but in another document issued after 1 January 2007 inclusive by the customs administration and the right to deduct credit for input tax has not been exercised as of the date of entry into force of these Regulations, such right may be exercised by including the said document in the purchases day book for the tax period in which these Regulations enter into force or in one of the following three tax periods.

§ 13. In the cases under Article 56a (1) and (2), where the administrative act is issued after 1 January 2007 inclusive by the customs authorities and is received by the importer before entry into force of these Regulations and the right to deduct credit for input tax has not been exercised as of the date of entry into force hereof, such right may be exercised by including the act in the purchases day book for the tax period in which these Regulations enter into force or in one of the following three tax periods.

§ 14. Registered persons - recipients of the supply or importers for whom the tax has become chargeable as taxpayers under Chapter Eight of the Act by 31 December 2008 inclusive, who at that date had charged the tax outside the time limits of Article 117 (3) of the Act and/or had exercised their right to deduct credit for input tax outside the time limits of Article 72 of the Act, shall not apply Article 81 (5) of the Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act. In such cases it shall be deemed that the persons have lawfully exercised their right to deduct credit for input tax, to the extent the supply has not been concealed and data thereon are available in the person's accounting books.

§ 15. Registered persons that have charged tax as recipients of a service under Article 81 (6) by 31 December 2008 inclusive, shall cancel the memorandum for the tax charged within four months of the entry into force of these Regulations. The cancelled memorandum shall be recorded with an opposite sign in the sales day book, and if the person had exercised a right to deduct credit for input tax - with an opposite sign in the purchases day book.

§ 16. Sentences two and three of Article 58 (1) and Article 61a of the Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act shall apply to invoices cancelled after 31 December 2006, and to debit advices issued after the said date.

§ 17. (1) A person registered under Article 133 of the Act may file an application for optional deregistration under Article 108 of the Act, irrespective of its chargeable turnover for the last 12 consecutive months preceding the current month, where during the said period the person has carried out only supplies in respect of which the tax has become chargeable after 31 December 2008 from the recipient of the supply as a payer under Chapter Eight of the Act.

(2) In the cases of Paragraph 1 deregistration shall be done after an audit.

§ 18. These Regulations shall be effective from 1 January 2009, save for § 9, which shall be effective from 12 August 2008.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Regulations Amending and Supplementing the Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 6/2010, effective 1.01.2010)

§ 50. (1) For tax periods until 31 December 2009 inclusive the standard forms of the documents in the hitherto existing appendices shall apply.

(2) The hitherto existing Appendix No. 6 to Article 68 (4) shall apply to the VAT returns relating to tax periods after 1 January 2010, until termination of the quarterly procedure for deduction.

§ 51. (1) In case of supply after 1 January 2010 inclusive of second hand goods imported or acquired under the terms of intra-Community acquisition, in respect of which a tax has been charged as of 31 December 2009 inclusive, the general procedure of the Act for the taxation of the supply shall apply.

(2) In the cases of Paragraph 1, for the tax charged as of 31 December 2009 inclusive the right to deduct credit for input tax shall arise and shall be exercised under the terms of Article 151 (4) of the Act.

§ 52. (1) For supplies with ongoing execution for a period of duration exceeding one year, for which no payment is due for a period exceeding one year and the execution of which has begun as of 31 December 2009 and as of the said date there is no received payment on the supply, Article 25 (5) of the Act shall apply.

(2) In respect of the supplies under Paragraph 1 it shall be deemed that the first chargeable event under Article 25 (5) of the Act occurs on 31 December 2010 unless the supply has been terminated as of that date. The taxable amount under sentence one shall be determined in proportion to the months from the beginning of the execution until 31 December 2010 against the total number of months of execution of the supply, including the month of termination of the supply.

§ 53. For the persons under § 52 (1) of the transitional and final provisions of the Act amending and supplementing the Value Added Tax Act (SG No. 95/2009), who have paid the tax for an advance payment made on the grounds of the repealed Article 91 (3) of the Act, on the date of occurrence of the chargeable event on the supply an obligation shall arise for the recipient registered person to charge a tax on the taxable amount of the supply less the advance payment made for which the tax has been paid.

§ 54. Accredited representatives of registered non-residents established in another Member State or in a third country with which this country has legal instruments for mutual assistance shall incur solidary and unlimited liability for the obligations of the non-resident person for tax periods until 31 December 2009 inclusive.

§ 55. In the cases under § 50 of the transitional and final provisions of the of the Act amending and supplementing the Value Added Tax Act (SG No. 95/2009), where the persons have charged tax on a received advance payment by 31 December 2009 inclusive in connection with a taxable supply for which no tax is required after 1 January 2010, and the chargeable event in respect of such supply occurs after the said date, the registered person – supplier shall document the supply by issuing a new invoice specifying the total taxable amount for the supply. The invoice issued in connection with the received advance payment shall be cancelled and a memorandum for the cancellation shall be issued under Article 116 (4) of the Act.

§ 56. In the cases under § 55 of the transitional and final provisions of the Act amending and supplementing the Value Added Tax Act (SG No. 95/2009), the persons registered as of the date of entry into force of the Act shall specify an e-mail address for correspondence under Article 101 (5) by filing a declaration to the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency. No declaration shall be submitted where the e-mail address for correspondence has been submitted for registration with the Registry Agency.

§ 57. These Regulations shall be effective from 1 January 2010, save for § 18, which shall be effective from the date of promulgation of these Regulations in the State Gazette.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Regulations Amending and Supplementing
the Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 10/2011, effective 1.02.2011)

§ 43. (1) Where for a supply of accommodation provided by a hotel owner an advance payment is received by 31 March 2011 inclusive and in respect to this supply the chargeable event occurs after the said date, the supplier shall document the supply by issuing an invoice stating the total taxable amount of the supply. The tax regime effective at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event of the supply under the Act shall apply to the supply.

(2) The supplier – registered person shall document the supply under Paragraph 1 (as well as under § 30 (2) and § 32 of the transitional and final provisions to the Act Amending and Supplementing the Value Added Act Tax) (SG No 94/2010) by cancelling the issued invoice for advance payment and issuing a new invoice, stating the total taxable amount on the supply. A memorandum under Article 116 (4) under the Act shall be issued for the cancellation. In the cases under Article 119 of the Act the adjustment shall be made by indicating the received payment and the tax charged thereon with an opposite sign in the sales log.

(3) Adjustments under Paragraph 2 shall be made in the tax period when the chargeable event of the supply occurred.

§ 44. (1) Where an advance payment is received in connection with an exempt supply within the meaning of the Value Added Tax Act, effective 31 December 2010 inclusive, which is a taxable supply (excluding those subject to a zero tax rate) after that date and the chargeable event for which occurs after 31 December 2010, the supplier – registered person shall document the supply by issuing an invoice stating the total taxable amount of the supply. A memorandum under Article 116 (4) under the Act shall be issued for the cancellation. In the cases under Article 119 of the Act the adjustment shall be made by indicating the received payment and the tax charged on it with an opposite sign in the sales log for the tax period when the chargeable event of the supply occurred. The tax regime effective at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event of the supply under the Act shall apply to the supply.

(2) Where an advance payment is received in connection with a taxable supply within the meaning of the Value Added Tax Act, effective 31 December 2010 inclusive, which within the meaning of the Act is an exempt supply after that date and the chargeable event for which occurs after 31 December 2010, the supplier – registered person shall document the supply by cancelling the issued invoice for the advance payment stating the total taxable amount of the supply. A memorandum under Article 116 (4) under the Act shall be issued for the cancellation. In the cases under Article 119 of the Act the adjustment shall be made by indicating the received payment and the tax charged on it with an opposite sign in the sales log for the tax period when the chargeable event of the supply occurred. The tax regime effective at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event of the supply under the Act shall apply to the supply.

§ 45. For the tax periods until entry into force of these Regulations the standard forms of the documents set out in the Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act effective as of 31 December 2010 shall apply.

§ 46. These Regulations shall enter into force from the day of publication thereof in the State Gazette.

§ 21. The concession grantor or the concessionaire shall record the invoices under § 43 (4) of the Transitional and Final Provisions of the Act Amending and Supplementing the Value Added Tax Act (SG No. 94/2012) in the sales day book for the tax period in which such invoices are issued, without completing the information in columns 9 - 25 of Appendix No. 10 to Article 113 (2).

§ 22. The right to submit the inventory under Article 60 (5), which has arisen and has not been exercised as of the date of entry into force of these Regulations and where the term for its exercising under Article 60 (6) has not expired, may be exercised by the legal successor within 45 days of the date of registration of the respective circumstance under Article 10 of the Act in the commercial register or in the BULSTAT register.

§ 23. In the cases under Item 2 of Article 67 (1), in respect of which the circumstances under Article 79 (8) of the Act have occurred before the entry into force of these Regulations, the memorandum under Article 67 (2) shall be issued by 30 April. For the purposes of determination of the portion of the credit for input tax with right to deduction it shall be deemed that the circumstances under Article 79 (8) of the Act have occurred in 2012.

§ 24. These Regulations shall enter into force on the day of promulgation of the Regulations in the State Gazette, with the exception of § 15, 16, 17, 18, 19 and § 20, which shall enter into force on 15 March 2013.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Regulations Amending and Supplementing
the Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 110/2013, effective 1.01.2014)

§ 24. (1) In cases of cancellation of an invoice issued for an advance payment, as referred to in § 8 of the transitional and final provisions of the Act Amending and Supplementing the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code (SG No. 98/2013; suppl. No. 104/2013), the supplier of goods under Appendix No. 2, part II (two) shall record in the new invoice issued the wording "reverse charge under Article 163a (2) of the VAT Act".

(2) Where the chargeable event for a supply of goods under Appendix No 2, part II (two) occurred until and including 31 December 2013 and the tax document for the supply was issued after that date, the supply shall be documented by issuing an invoice under Article 114 of the Act and the tax regime at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event of the supply shall apply to that invoice.

(3) Where after 1 January 2014 inclusive grounds occur for amending the taxable amount of a supply of goods under Appendix No. 2, part II (two) of the Act, the chargeable event for which occurred before that date, the amendment of the taxable amount shall be effected by issuing an advice under Article 115 of the Act and the tax regime at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event of the supply shall apply to that advice.

§ 25. The right to deduct credit for input tax for available assets at the date of registration within the meaning of the Accounting Act and for received services under Article 74 (3) of the Act, which right arose by 1 January 2014 and has not been exercised at the date of entry into force of these Regulations and for the exercise of which the three tax periods following the tax period in which the said right arose have not lapsed, may be exercised in any of the twelve tax periods following the tax period in which the said right arose.

§ 26. These Regulations shall enter into force on 1 January 2014.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Regulations Amending and Supplementing the
Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 8/2016, effective 29.01.2016, amended,
SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017)

§ 21. (1) Until 29 February 2016 including, Appendix No. 2 to Article 61(1), Appendix No. 3 to Article 61(2), and Appendix No. 7 to Article 60(5) shall be submitted as per the hetherto effective procedure when they contain more than five entries.

(2) Until 29 February 2016 including, the hetherto effective standard form of Appendix No. 7 to Article 60(5) shall be used.

(3) For tax periods until 31 January 2016 including, the hetherto effective standard forms of Appendix No. 10 to Article 113(2) and Appendix No. 13 to Article 116(1) shall be used, as well as the parameters, structure, and requirements for files submitted on the magnetic or optical data storage medium under the hetherto effective Appendix No 12 to Article 113 (4).

§ 22. (1) In the case of supplies of services under Article 9, Paragraph 3, Item 1 of the Act after 31 December 2015, when determining the amount of the direct costs incurred under Article 27 (2) of the Act for goods which were used for the supply of services for personal needs before 31 December 2015, the costs for their wear and tear shall be calculated as a share of the difference between the taxable amount for which credit for input tax was fully or partially deducted and the value of the wear and tear included in the direct costs when determining the taxable amount for the services delivered before 31 December 2015 including.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017) The costs for wear and tear as a share of the difference under Paragraph 1 shall be calculated for each tax period as per the linear method for the remaining period of the total number of years until the expiry of the 5-year time limit, from the tax period during which the right to credit for input tax was exercised for movable assets, or until the expiry of the 20-year time limit for real estates, respectively. The costs for wear and tear in the case of existing rights in rem in respect of goods shall be determined for the period for which these rights have been established, but for no longer than the applicable number of years under the preceding sentence.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Regulations Amending and Supplementing the
Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017)

.....
§ 62. What was previously Appendix No. 6 to Article 68 (4) shall apply to input tax claimable, which is subject to set-off or refund after the closure of a set-off procedure, stated in VAT returns relating to tax periods until the entry of these Regulations into force, including to the tax period during which these Regulations entered into force.

§ 63. In the case of registration under Article 132 (5) of the Act on the grounds of § 46 of the Transitional and Final Provisions of the Act Amending and Supplementing the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act (SG No. 97/2016), the date of delivery of the registration instrument shall be deemed a date of registration. The registration inventory under Item 3 of Article 74 (2) of the Act shall include the existing assets excluding the assets provided by a partner to achieve a common purpose.

§ 64. In the case of registration under Article 132 (5) (including on the grounds of § 46 of the Transitional and Final Provisions of the Act Amending and Supplementing the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act – SG No. 97/2016) and Article 132a of the Act before the entry into force of these Regulations, the standard forms of documents according to the previous Appendix No. 1 to Article 74 (1) and Appendix No. 8 to Article 77 (1) shall be used.

§ 65. Registered persons shall apply Article 113b and § 53, Item 3, letter "b" and Item 4, letter "b" for the tax period following the month of entry of these Regulations into force.

§ 66. In the cases of supplies of services which are subject to a staged performance, the chargeable event concerning which will occur under Article 25 (4) of the Act effective as of 1 January 2017, but an invoice for which has been issued for a chargeable event, that has occurred under Article 25 (4) of the Act effective as of 31 December 2016, such invoice shall be deemed to have been issued in connection with an advance payment received.

§ 67. For goods and services available as at 1 January 2017, which are not fixed assets within the meaning of § 1, Item 83 of the supplementary provisions of the Act and with regard to which the registered person has not applied the provisions of Article 79 (6) and (7) of the Act effective until 31 December 2016, upon destruction, shortages and retirement of such goods or upon supply of such goods or service the person shall make an adjustment under Article 79 (1) and (2) of the Act.

§ 68. (1) For year 2017, the 20-year period under § 42, Item 1 of the supplementary and final provisions of the Act Amending and Supplementing the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act (SG No. 97/2016) for immovable properties available as of 1 January 2016, used to determine the taxable amount under Article 27 (2) of the Value Added Tax Act and make adjustments to the credit for input tax used under Item 1 of Article 79a (3) of the same Act, shall be calculated from the beginning of the year of the exercise of the right of credit for input tax.

(2) Paragraph 1 shall also apply to immovable properties acquired or developed in 2016.

(3) Memorandums issued in 2016 under the former Article 67 (3) with regard to immovable properties referred to in Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be cancelled. Article 80 (7) and (8) herein shall apply to such memorandums.

§ 69. (1) In the case of supplies of services under Article 9, Paragraph 3, Item 1 of the Act, for the performance of which goods available as of 1 January 2017 that are not fixed assets within the meaning of § 1, Item 83 of the supplementary provisions of the Act are used, when determining the amount of the direct costs incurred under the first sentence of Article 27 (2) of the Act, the costs for their wear and tear shall be calculated as the difference between the taxable amount for which credit for input tax was fully or partially deducted and the value of the wear and tear, included in the direct costs when determining the taxable amount of services performed until and including 31 December 2016 under the second sentence of Article 27 (2) of the Act effective until 31 December 2016.

(2) With regard to goods referred in Paragraph 1, which have not been used to perform supplies of services under Item 1 of Article 9 (3) of the Act until and including 31 December 2016, the value of wear and tear relating to the period of exercising the right to credit for input tax until 31 December 2016 shall not be taken into account when the amount of the direct costs under the first sentence of Article 27 (2) of the Act is determined.

(3) Memorandums issued under Article 117 (4) of the Act, whereby tax for supplies under Item 1 of Article 9 (3) of the Act is accrued for periods after 1 January 2017 until the entry of these Regulations into force, shall be cancelled, and new memorandums shall be issued in accordance with the procedure established by Article 80 (5), where the taxable amount shall be determined in accordance with Paragraphs 1 and 2. An issued memorandum shall be cancelled and a new one shall be issued during the tax period in which these Regulations enter into force.

§ 70. (1) Where until and including 31 December 2016 a tour operator received from another tour operator a full or partial advance payment for a supply, the tax treatment of which is changed with the Act effective as of 1 January 2017 and the tax event relating to which occurs after that date, the provisions of the Act effective until 31 December 2016 shall apply to such supply.

(2) Where until and including 31 December 2016 a tour operator made a full or partial advance payment to a taxable person – supplier of goods and services in connection with a journey of a traveller, and the traveller will use directly such goods or services, and the tax event relating to such supply occurs after that date, the provisions of the Act effective until 31 December 2016 shall apply to such supply.

(3) Where a tour operator issued an invoice with accrued tax in connection with an advance payment received after 1 January 2017 and including that day from another tour operator for a supply, the tax treatment of which is changed with the Act effective as of 1 January 2017 and the tax event relating to which occurs after that date, the tour operator shall document such supply by cancelling the invoice issued for the advance payment and issuing a new invoice in accordance with the procedure established in Article 86. A memorandum under Article 116 (4) under the Act shall be issued for the cancellation. Adjustments shall be made during the tax period when the chargeable event of the supply occurred.

(4) An adjustment shall be made with regard to the credit for input tax used under an invoice issued by a taxable person in connection with an advance payment made after 1 January 2017 and including that day for a supply of goods and services relating to a voyage of a traveller, the tax treatment of which is changed with the Act and the chargeable event relating to which occurs after 1 January 2017. The adjustment of the credit for input tax used shall be made by stating the received payment with an opposite sign in the sales day book for the tax period in which the chargeable event occurred. The tax regime effective as of the date of occurrence of the chargeable event shall apply to the supply.

§ 71. The provisions of Item 8 of Article 58 (1) of the Act effective until 31 December 2016 and of Articles 27 and 31 effective until the entry of these Regulations into force shall apply to supplies under contracts, concluded until and including 31 December 2016.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Regulations Amending and Supplementing the
Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 58/2018, effective 13.07.2018)

§ 28. The adjustments under Article 79a of the Act for goods or real estate available on 1 January 2017, for which no tax credit has been used under Article 70 of the Act upon the purchase, importation or acquisition, including when adjustments are made under § 42 (2) and (3) of the transitional and final provisions of the act amending and supplementing the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act (SG No. 97/2016) shall be made and the 5-year period and the 20-year period respectively shall be counted from the year of manufacture, purchase, acquisition or importation.

§ 29. (1) For the tax periods until the entry into force of these Regulations the existing forms of applications Nos. 1, 8, 9, 13, 19, 20, 23, 25, 27 and 29 shall apply.

(2) Until the entry into force of § 14 and § 27 of these Regulations, exemption of the persons under Article 176c (14) of the Act from the obligation to provide security shall require the submission of a declaration to the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency within a period of 7 days prior to the date of occurrence of the chargeable event upon intra-Community acquisition of liquid fuels or the date of release of liquid fuels for consumption under Item 1 of Article 20 (2) of the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act, which are intended for own use.

(3) The persons that have filed a declaration under Paragraph 2 and under § 40 of the Transitional and Final Provisions of the Act Amending and Supplementing the Value Added Tax Act (State Gazette No. 97/2017) shall be considered entered in the register under Article 176c (15) of the Act.

(4) The date of entry in the register under Article 176c (15) of the Act of the persons referred to in Paragraph 3 shall be the date of submission of the declaration.

(5) The persons referred to in Paragraph 3 shall submit a notification form – Annex No. 38, electronically, through an electronic service provided by the NRA, in the period from 1 October to 31 December 2018.

§ 30. These Regulations shall enter into force as from the day of promulgation thereof in the State Gazette, with the exception of § 14 and § 27, which shall enter into force three months after the entry into force of these Regulations.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

To the Regulations Amending and Supplementing the
Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 3/2019, effective 8.01.2019)

§ 29. For the purposes of Article 21 (8), item 3 of the Act, in the calculation of the total value of the supplies under Article 21 (6) of the ACT excluding VAT the year 2019 shall be considered as the first "current calendar year".

§ 30. Where the last tax period under Article 87 (4) of the Act expires in December 2018, the person shall remit the tax to the central budget to an account of the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency by the end of February 2019.

§ 31. The persons registered optionally in accordance with Article 100 of the Act as of 31 December 2018 may terminate their registration under the Act effective 1 January 2019, where the circumstance under Article 108 (2) of the Act obtains.

§ 32. This Regulation shall take effect as of the date when it is promulgated in the State Gazette, except for:

1. Paragraph 16 shall enter into force on 7 January 2019.

2. Paragraphs 21, 22, 26, 27 and 28, which shall enter into force as of 1 February 2019.

3. Paragraphs 8, 9, 13, 15, 23, 24 and 25, which shall take effect as of 1 July 2019.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Regulations Amending and Supplementing the
Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 25/2020, effective 20.03.2020)

§ 32. (1) Until 31 March 2020 inclusive the standard forms of the documents in the hitherto existing appendices No. 1 and 8 shall apply.

(2) For tax periods until 31 March 2020 inclusive the standard forms of the documents in the hitherto existing appendices No. 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 shall apply.

§ 33. (1) Where for operations involving call-off stock arrangements under Article 15a of the Act, effected in the tax periods January, February and March 2020 no data was recorded in the sales log and/or in the purchases log or in the VAT return and the VIES return for such periods, the data shall be recorded in the April 2020 tax period.

(2) Where for operations involving call-off stock arrangements under Article 15a of the Act, effected in the tax periods January, February and March 2020 data was recorded in the sales log and/or in the purchases log or in the VAT return and the VIES return, Paragraph 1 shall not apply.

FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Regulations Amending and Supplementing the
Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 11/2021, effective 9.02.2021)

§ 7. The VIES return may not contain a VAT identification number of the recipient/acquirer and/or of the person for whom the goods are intended/the person for whom the goods are intended in case of substitution under Article 15a, Paragraph 4 of the Act, with the code of the Member State under ISO 3166 - "GB" for tax period: after 31 December 2020, except in cases where in the field "tax period during which the tax has become chargeable "/" tax period, during which the operation under the call-off stock arrangements", was entered a period before 1 January 2021.

§ 8. (1) Credit and/or debit advices issued after 1 January 2021 inclusive, in connection with intra-Community supplies for which the recipients are taxable persons or non-taxable legal persons registered for VAT purposes in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, supplies as an intermediary in a triangular operation, for which recipients are taxable persons or non-taxable legal persons registered for VAT purposes in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, or supplies of services under Article 21, Paragraph 2 of the Act with a place of transaction on the territory of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, declared in tax periods prior 1 January 2021, shall be reflected in the purchase book and the VAT return under Article 125, Paragraph 1 of the Act for the period during which they were issued. In these cases the issued credit and/or debit advices shall not be included in the VIES return under Article 125, Paragraph 2 of the Act.

(2) Adjustments of errors (unrecorded or incorrectly recorded documents in the ledgers of account) in the VIES return in connection with declared for tax periods before 1 January 2021 intra-Community supplies for which the recipients are taxable persons or non-taxable legal persons registered for VAT purposes in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, supplies as an intermediary in a triangular operation, for which recipients are taxable persons or non-taxable legal persons registered for VAT purposes in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, or supplies of services under Article 21, Paragraph 2 of the Act with a place of transaction on the territory of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, shall be carried out under the procedure of Article 126, Paragraph 3, Item 1 of the Act. In these cases the registered person along with the VAT return under Article 125, Paragraph 1 of the Act shall also submit a VIES return under Article 125, Paragraph 2 of the Act for these supplies.

(3) Registered person who has transferred goods, which comprise part of his business assets, from the territory of the country to the territory of the United Kingdom of Great Britain under call-off stock arrangements, shall submit until 31 December 2020 inclusive, only the VAT return under Article 125, Paragraph 1 of the Act for the tax period after 31 December 2020 of occurrence of changes during the 12-month period from the arrival or end of transport, including in the event of substitution of the person under Article 15a, Paragraph 2, Item 3 of the Act.

(4) Registered person who has transferred goods, which comprise part of his business assets, from the territory of the country to the territory of the United Kingdom of Great Britain under call-off stock arrangements, shall submit until 31 December 2020 inclusive, for the tax period after 31 December 2020 during the 12-month period from the arrival or end of transport, shall record in the VAT return, respectively in the VIES declaration:

- an executed operation which was not recorded in the period of its execution, only when an initial dispatch or transport of goods from the territory of the country to the territory of the United Kingdom of Great Britain under call-off stock arrangements under Article 15a of VAT Act has been declared, and/or

- the correct VAT identification number of the person upon adjustment of stated wrong VAT identification number of the person for whom the goods are intended, declared in a previous tax period of dispatch or transport of goods under Article 15a, Paragraph 1 of the Act (in case of operations, registered under code "41" in the register under Article 123, Paragraph 5 of the Act).

(5) The provisions of Article 117, Paragraphs 14 and 15 shall apply to supplies made after 1 January 2021 inclusive.

(6) The provision of § 1c shall apply for tax periods after 31 December 2020.

PARAMETERS, STRUCTURE AND REQUIREMENTS TO FILES ON TECHNICAL DATA STORAGE MEDIUM (Title amended, SG No. 24/2017, effective 21.03.2017)

General requirements to the structure of files

The "DEKLAR.TXT", "POKUPKI. TXT" and "PRODAGBI. TXT" files shall be text files with coding cp-1251/windows-1251.

There are no separators between individual fields of one entry in the files.

Between individual entries (lines) a standard separator for end of line of a text file shall be placed – the character for Carriage Return with subsequent character Line Feed.

The "DEKLAR.TXT", "POKUPKI. TXT" and "PRODAGBI. TXT" files shall be downloaded consecutively on a technical data storage medium.

Requirements to the sequence of entries in the files

The entries in the "POKUPKI.TXT" and "PRODAGBI. TXT" files shall be arranged in the field "Sequence number of document in the log" in ascending sequence.

The field "Sequence number of the document in the log" shall be filled in with the sequence number of the entry in the log for the respective tax period. In the first entry in the "POKUPKI.TXT" or "PRODAGBI.TXT" files the value of the field is "1". The values in the field in the subsequent entries increase by 1 without omissions or duplications. If the information is submitted on more than one data storage medium, the sequence numbering in the field "Sequence number of the document in the log" shall not be disrupted. Numbering shall not be disrupted either in the cases where data submitted refer to more than one branch. When consolidating the information from the purchases and sales logs of the registered person and its branches in one file, the entries shall be arranged in ascending sequence according to field "Number of branch of the registered person which issued the document" ("Number of branch of the registered person which received the document") in accordance with the requirements to completion of the field "Sequence number of the document in the log".

The fields in the DEKLAR.TXT file describing value shall contain the sum of the values of the respective fields in "POKUPKI.TXT" and "PRODAGBI.TXT" files.

If no documents are recorded in the purchases and sales logs for the respective tax period, the "POKUPKI.TXT" and/or "PRODAGBI.TXT" files shall contain no entry at all.

Requirements to the content of the fields in the files

(Amended, SG No. 3/2019, effective 1.07.2019, amended and supplemented, SG No. 25/2020, effective 20.03.2020)

The fixed length (number of characters) for every field is compulsory. The unused positions shall be completed with a character spacing. If the field is blank (not completed), its individual positions shall be completed with a character spacing.

The fields in notional format "Symbols" may contain symbols from the code table Windows 1251 with code from 20 to FF inclusive. The content is left aligned and does not allow for filling in of empty slots in the box completed with zeros (0) in order to abide by the requirement for box length.

Example: Number of document 250 - "250" shall be completed.

Example: Number of document 6000EX0412345 - "6000/EX/04/12345" shall be completed.

The fields in notional format "Numbers" may contain only Arabic numerals. The content is right aligned. Where the field describes a value, it may contain also a separator "." for stotinki and a minus sign, but no other signs or separators. Zeros (0) may not be added in front of the amount to abide by the requirement for box length. Completed values shall be in BGN.

Example: Value BGN 100.00 - "100.00" shall be completed.

Example: Value BGN -200.00 - "200.00" shall be completed.

The fields in notional format "Date" shall contain only numbers and the sign "/". The content of the field shall have the following format: "dd/mm/yyyy", where: dd is the day, mm is the number of the month, and yyyy is the year.

Example: Date 3 December 2007 - "03/12/2007" shall be completed.

Example: Date 25 March 2007 - "25/03/2007" shall be completed.

Example: The field is blank (not completed) - it shall contain " " or " / / ".

Requirements to specific fields

The fields "Identification number of the registered person submitting the data", "Name of the registered person submitting the data", "Person submitting the data" shall be filled in mandatorily.

The field "Reporting period" shall contain the period to which the information submitted on the data storage medium refers. The field contains only numbers. The content of the field shall have the following format: "yyyymm", where yyyy is the year to which the data refer, mm is the number of the month to which the data refer. The field shall be filled in mandatorily.

Example: Information about the period 1 March 2007 - 31 March 2007 is submitted - "200703" shall be completed.

Example: The person terminates its registration on 7 May and submits information from the logs for the period 1 May 2007 - 7 May 2007 - "200705" shall be completed.

Example: The person is registered on 13 May 2007 and submits information from the logs for the period 13 May 2007 - 31 May 2007 - "200705" shall be completed.

The fields "Number of branch of the registered person which received the document" and "Number of branch of the registered person which issued the document" shall be completed with unique number for every branch. For documents received or issued by the head office the field shall remain blank (shall not be completed) or shall be filled in with zero value (0).

Example: for a document issued by branch 1 - complete "1".

Example: For a document issued by the head office of the registered person or by a registered person which has no branches - complete " " or "0".

The field "Type of document" shall be filled in with the following codes:

Requirements to entries upon cancellation of documents

If a document is cancelled (invoice or invoice notification) in the period in which it was issued, the document shall be described in the file "PRODAGBI.TXT" of the issuer but the fields describing value shall be left blank (not completed) or a zero (0) value shall be entered. The document shall not be recorded in the recipient's purchases log.

If a document is cancelled (tax accrual statement or a statement under article 117 (4) of the Act) in the period in which it was issued, the document shall be described in the file "PRODAGBI.TXT" of the issuer but the fields describing value shall be left blank (not completed) or a zero (0) value shall be entered. The document shall not be recorded in the issuer's purchases log.

If a document is cancelled (invoice or invoice notification) after the period in which it was issued, the document shall be described in the file "PRODAGBI.TXT" of the issuer and in the fields describing values, values shall be completed with the same size of content as the corresponding box in the original entry in the log but with an opposite sign. The document shall be recorded in the recipient's purchases log in the file "POKUPKI.TXT" of the recipient concerning the tax period in which the document was cancelled and the boxes describing values shall be filled in with values with the same size of content as the corresponding boxes in the original entry in the log but with an opposite sign.

If a document is cancelled (tax accrual statement or statement under article 117 (4) of the Act) after the period in which it was issued, the document shall be described in the file "PRODAGBI.TXT" of the issuer and in the fields describing values, values shall be completed with the same size of content as the corresponding fields in the original entry in the log but with an opposite sign. The document shall be recorded in the issuer's purchases log in the file "POKUPKI.TXT" of the issuer concerning the tax period in which the document was cancelled and the boxes describing values shall contain values with the same size of content as the corresponding boxes in the original entry in the log but with an opposite sign.

In the cases of breaking a supply for which an invoice has been issued (an invoice notification), the issued or received document shall be described in the file "PRODAGBI.TXT" of the issuer or respectively "POKUPKI.TXT" of the recipient and in the fields describing values a value shall be completed with the same size of content as the corresponding field in the original entry in the log but with an opposite sign.

In the cases of breaking a supply for which the tax was accrued, the respective statement under article 117 (4) of the Act shall be described in the file "PRODAGBI.TXT" and "POKUPKI.TXT" of the issuer and in the fields describing values a value shall be completed with the same size of content as the corresponding field in the original entry in the log but with an opposite sign.

Already cancelled documents may not be cancelled.

Entries by which documents have been cancelled may not be cancelled.

Requirements pertinent to entries when statements under article 117 (4) of the Act are issued.

If a statement under article 117 (4) of the Act is issued pertinent to the increase of the taxable amount of the supply, this document shall be described in the file "PRODAGBI.TXT" of the issuer similarly to the description of an invoice debit note. The statement shall also be described on the issuer's purchase log in the file "POKUPKI.TXT" of the issuer similarly to the description of a received invoice debit note.

If a statement under article 117 (4) of the Act is issued pertinent to the decrease of the taxable amount of the supply, this document shall be described in the file "PRODAGBI.TXT" of the issuer similarly to the description of an invoice credit note. • The field "Code of operation under call-off stock arrangements" contains one of the following codes – 1, 2 or 3.

Code of operation under call-off stock arrangements	Description
1	Dispatch or transport of goods from the territory of the country to the territory of another Member State under call-off stock arrangements under Article 15a (1) of VAT Act
2	Return under Article 15a (5) of VAT Act to the territory of the country of goods dispatched or transported under call-off stock arrangements, or adjustment of erroneously recorded VAT identification number of the person for whom the goods are intended, declared in a previous tax period of dispatch or transport of goods under Article 15a (12) of the Act
3	Substitution under Article 15a (4) of VAT Act of the person for whom the goods were intended

Requirements to the completion of the field "Code of the operation for call-off stock arrangements" depending on the completed information in the sales log

When in column 8a of the sales log the code "41" is completed, the data of dispatch of goods shall be recorded by completing code 1 in field "Code of the operation for call-off stock arrangements".

When in column 8a of the sales log the code "46" is completed, the data of the erroneously recorded identification number shall be recorded by completing code 2 in field "Code of the operation for call-off stock arrangements".

When in column 8a of the sales log the code "48" is completed, the data of the return shall be recorded by completing code 2 in field "Code of the operation for call-off stock arrangements".

When in column 8a of the sales log the code "43" is completed, the data of the substitution shall be recorded by completing code 3 in field "Code of the operation for call-off stock arrangements".

Requirements to the completion of the section "Transfer of goods under call-off stock arrangements"

Recording the dispatch of goods (code 1)

When in the sales log code "04" in column 3 and code "41" in column 8a are completed, in section "Transfer of goods under call-off stock arrangements" the following information shall be recorded:

- In field "VAT IN of the person for whom the goods are intended (incl. sign), the VAT IN of the person shall be recorded, completed in column 6 "Identification number of the counterparty" (field 02-07) of the sales log.

- In field "Code of the operation for call-off stock arrangements" code 1 shall be recorded.

- In field "Tax period in which the operation was effected" - the field shall not be completed if the goods were dispatched in the period for which the return is submitted.

Recording the return of goods (code 2)

When in the sales log code "04" in column 3 and code "48" in column 8a are completed, in section "Transfer of goods under call-off stock arrangements" the following information shall be recorded:

- In field "VAT IN of the person for whom the goods are intended (incl. sign), the VAT IN of the person shall be recorded, completed in column 6 "Identification number of the counterparty" of the sales log (field 02-07).

- In field "Code of the operation for call-off stock arrangements" code 2 shall be recorded.

- In field "Tax period in which the operation was effected" - the field shall not be completed if the goods were returned in the period for which the return is submitted. If the return of the goods was not declared in the period of execution, the tax period from the information completed in column 5 "Date of document" (field 02-06) of the sales log shall be recorded in the field.

Recording an adjustment of erroneously declared VAT IN of the person for whom the goods are intended (code 2)

When in the sales log code "04" in column 3 and code "46" in column 8a are completed, in section "Transfer of goods under call-off stock arrangements" the information shall be recorded in 2 entries (on 2 lines) as follows:

1. Recording the wrong VAT IN

- In field "VAT IN of the person for whom the goods are intended (incl. sign)" shall be recorded the VAT IN of the person which was completed in column 8 "Type of the goods/service" (field 02-09) of the sales log.

- In field "Code of the operation for call-off stock arrangements" code 2 shall be recorded.

- In field "Tax period in which the operation was effected" - the tax period stated in the information in column 5 "Date of document" (field 02-06) of the sales log shall be recorded in the field.

2. Recording the correct VAT IN

- In field "VAT IN of the person for whom the goods are intended (incl. sign)" shall be recorded the VAT IN of the person which was completed in column 6 "Identification number of the counterparty" (field 02-07) of the sales log.

- In field "Code of the operation for call-off stock arrangements" code 1 shall be recorded.

- In field "Tax period in which the operation was effected" - the tax period stated in the information in column 5 "Date of document" (field 02-06) of the sales log shall be recorded in the field.

Recording of substitution of the person for whom the goods were intended (code 3)

When in the sales log code "04" in column 3 and code "43" in column 8a are completed, in section "Transfer of goods under call-off stock arrangements" the following information shall be transferred:

- In field "VAT IN of the person for whom the goods are intended (incl. sign)" shall be recorded the VAT IN of the person which was completed in column 6 "Identification number of the counterparty" of the sales log (field 02-07).

- In field "Code of the operation for call-off stock arrangements" code 3 shall be recorded.

- In field "VAT IN of the person for whom the goods were intended in the event of substitution under Article 15a (4) of VAT Act" shall be recorded the VAT IN of the person which was completed in column 8 "Type of the goods/service" (field 02-09) of the sales log.

- In field "Tax period in which the operation was effected" – the field shall not be completed in the event the substitution was effected in the period for which the return is submitted. If the substitution was declared in the period of execution, then the tax period stated in the information in column 5 "Date of document" (field 02-06) of the sales log shall be recorded in the field.

- Requirements to entries (lines) in section "Transfer of goods under call-off stock arrangements"

- Regardless of the number of effected operations of specific type for the same counterparty or same counterparties (in the cases of substitution) during the tax period in which the operation was effected or for which the operation refers, only one entry for each type of operation shall be made in the VIES return. This means that the VIES return may contain only one unique entry for each combination of a counterparty or counterparties (in the cases of substitution), the code of the operation and the tax period.

In addition, the same applies to the cases of omitted declaration or adjustment of erroneously recorded VAT identification number of the person for whom the goods are intended, declared in a previous tax period of dispatch or transport of goods under Article 15a (1) of the Act;

Examples:

1. Dispatch or transport of goods under call-off stock arrangements

- Example: In January 2020 three dispatches and/or transports of goods under call-off stock arrangements were effected – on 06.01.2020, 15.01.2020 and 29.01.2020, for a person for whom the goods are intended, with VAT IN DE123456789. The entry in section "Transfer of goods under call-off stock arrangements" of the VIES return for January 2020, stating the three dispatches and/or transports, shall be as follows:

Line number	VAT IN of the person for whom the goods are intended (incl. sign)	Code of operation under call-off stock arrangements	VAT IN of the person for whom the goods were intended in the event of substitution under Article 15a (4) of VAT Act (incl. sign)	Tax period in which the operation was effected
κ1	κ2	κ3	κ4	κ5
*	DE123456789	1	-

- * complete the sequence number of the entry in the section;

 the tax period shall not be completed as it coincides with the period for which the return is submitted, or complete "01/2020".

2. Substitution under Article 15a (4) of VAT Act of the person for whom the goods are intended

- Example: In January goods were dispatched for a person for whom the goods were intended, with VAT IN DE111111111 under call-off stock arrangements. The dispatch was declared in the VIES return submitted for January 2020 tax period. On 05.03.2020 the person for whom the goods were intended was substituted – from DE111111111 to DE222222222. On 17.03.2020 a subsequent substitution for part of the goods intended for DE222222222 was effected and the new person for whom the goods are intended is DE555555555. The entries in the return for March 2020 tax period reflecting the sequence of effected substitutions, shall be as follows:

Line number	VAT IN of the person for whom the goods are intended (incl. sign)	Code of operation under call-off stock arrangements	VAT IN of the person for whom the goods were intended in the event of substitution under Article 15a (4) of VAT Act (incl. sign)	Tax period in which the operation was effected

Parameters and Requirements for the Structure of Data in the Electronic Register

The electronic register under Article 113 (13) shall be kept as a NMTREG electronic file.

Structure of the NMTREG.CSV file.

The "NMTREG.CSV" file contains the VAT identification number of the registered person and information about supplies of new means of transport performed by Bulgarian suppliers registered under VAT to unregistered persons in another Member State. Each means of transport delivered shall be described in the file in a single entry (line) and shall be placed on a single technical data storage medium. The fields in the file shall be separated by the semicolon sign (;) and a standard separator for end of line of a text file shall be placed between individual entries (lines) – the sign for Carriage Return followed by the Line Feed sign.

Every line of the file shall have the following structure:

Nº of field	Description/Comments	Format (number of characters)
1	Date of issue of the invoice	Date (10) DD/MM/YYYY
2	Number of the invoice issued for the supply of a new means of transport	Numbers (10)
3	VAT identification number of the supplier, including the "BG" sign	Symbols (12)
4	Name of the supplier	Symbols (20)
5	Address of the supplier – street No.	Symbols (20)
6	Postal code of the supplier	Symbols (10)
7	Town of the supplier	Symbols (12)
8	Name of the client	Symbols (20)
9	Address of the client – street No.	Symbols (20)
10	Postal code of the client	Symbols (10)
11	Town of the client	Symbols (12)
12	Sign (prefix) of the member state where the means of transport will be used	Symbols (2)
13	Value of the means of transport in BGN	Numbers (8)
14	Type of the means of transport: land vehicle, vessel, aircraft. Values of the field: - Land vehicle - Vessel - Aircraft	Symbols (12)
15	Description – explanatory text – additional information	Symbols (50)
16	Date of initial registration	Date (10) DD/MM/YYYY
17	Mileage in km/sailing hours/flight hours	Symbols (12)
18	Frame number or identification number of the vessel or aircraft	Symbols (12)
19	Date of issue of the temporary/transit license plates (for motor vehicles)	Date (10) DD/MM/YYYY

The specified length (number of characters) for each field is compulsory. The unused positions shall be completed with a character spacing. If the field is blank (not completed), its individual positions shall be completed with a character spacing.

The fields in notional format "Symbols" may contain numbers, letters and separators (such as ", etc.) with the exception of the semi-colon (;) symbol. The content shall be left-aligned.

The fields in notional format "Numbers" may contain only Arabic numerals. The content shall be right-aligned. Where the field describes a value, it may contain also a separator "." for stotinki, but no other signs or separators. Zeros (0) may be added in front of the amount to abide by the requirement as to the length of the field. The completed values shall be in BGN.

Example: Value BGN 10,000.00 - "10,000.00" shall be completed.

The fields in notional format "Date" shall contain only numbers and the sign "/". The content of the field shall have the following format: "dd/mm/yyyy", where: dd is the day, mm is the number of the month, and yyyy is the year.

Example: Date 3 December 2007 – "03/12/2007" shall be completed.

Example: Date 25 March 2007 – "25/03/2007" shall be completed.

Example: The field is blank (not completed) – it shall contain " " or " / / ".

Requirements to specific fields

The field "No. of the invoice issued for the supply of a new means of transport" shall contain only Arabic numerals. The content shall be right-aligned. It is mandatory to complete this field and the positions that are not used can be filled with "0" before the actual number in order to abide by the requirement as to the length of the field.

Example: No. of the invoice issued for the supply 510 – "510" shall be filled in.

The field "Date of issue of the invoice" shall contain the date on which the document is issued. The field shall be filled in mandatorily.

Requirements to entries upon cancellation of documents

If the invoicing is done in the period when issued, it shall be described in the NMTREG.CSV file, but the fields specifying value shall be left blank (i.e. shall not be filled in) or zero (0) shall be recorded.

If an invoice is cancelled after the period when issued, it shall be described in the NMTREG.CSV file, where the fields specifying values shall be filled in with a value equal in absolute value to the content of the respective field from the initial entry in the file but with the opposite sign.

Already cancelled documents may not be cancelled.

Entries by which documents have been cancelled may not be cancelled.
