GENERAL DISPOSITIONS

Purpose of Act

Article 1. This Act regulates the levy of value added tax (VAT).

Subject to Taxation

Article 2. The following shall be subject to value added tax:

1. each taxable supply of goods or services effected for consideration;
2. each intra-European Union acquisition effected for consideration, whereof the place of transaction is within the territory of the country, by a person registered under this Act or by a person in respect of which an obligation to register has arisen;
3. each intra-European Union acquisition of new means of transport effected for consideration, whereof the place of transaction is within the territory of the country;
4. each intra-European Union acquisition effected for consideration, whereof the place of transaction is within the territory of the country, of excisable goods, where the recipient is a taxable person or a non-taxable legal person which is not registered under this Act;
5. the importation of goods.

Taxable Persons

Article 3. (1) "Taxable person" shall mean any person who independently carries out an economic activity, whatever the purpose and results of that activity.

(2) (Partially declared unconstitutional by the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Bulgaria regarding the expression "as well as the practice of a liberal profession, including as private enforcement agents and notaries" - SG No. 37/2007, supplemented, SG No. 108/2007)

Independently carried out economic activities shall comprise the activities of producers, traders and persons supplying services, including mining and agriculture, as well as the practice of a liberal profession, including as private enforcement agents and notaries. Any remunerative activity, carried out on a continuing basis or as a regular occupation or business on a professional basis for the purpose of obtaining income therefrom, including the exploitation of tangible and intangible property, shall also be considered an independently carried out economic activity.

(3) The following shall not be considered an independently carried out economic activity:

1. (supplemented, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) the activity performed by natural persons under employment contract, under contract equivalent to employment contract or under any other employment relationship which creates a relationship similar to an employer and employee relationship in terms of working conditions, remuneration and responsibility of the employer;
2. (amended, SG No. 108/2006) the activity of natural persons, who are not sole traders, in respect of the activity carried out by such natural persons and regulated by law, concerning management and control of legal persons.

(4) Any person, who from time to time effects an intra-European Union supply for consideration of a new means of transport, shall also be regarded as a taxable person.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) The State, the state and the local bodies shall not be taxable persons in respect of all activities and supplies in which they engage in their capacity as a central or local government authority, even where they collect fees, contributions or payments in connection with these activities or supplies, with the exception of:

1. the following activities or supplies:
 - (a) (amended, SG No. 41/2007) electronic communications services;
 - (b) supply of water, gas, electricity or steam;
 - (c) transport of goods;
 - (d) port and airport services;

- (e) passenger transport;
 - (f) sale of new goods manufactured for sale;
 - (g) supplies effected for the purpose of intervention on the market in agricultural products;
 - (h) organizing or running of trade fairs, exhibitions;
 - (i) warehousing;
 - (j) the activities of commercial publicity bodies, advertising services, including rental of advertising space;
 - (k) tourist services;
 - (l) (supplemented, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011, amended, SG No. 96/2017, effective 1.01.2018, SG No. 17/2021) running of shops, industrial canteens and other commercial outlets, the letting of buildings, parts of buildings and sales areas, as well as granting or awarding of concession;
 - (m) activities of radio and television bodies of a commercial nature;
 - (n) (new, SG No. 54/2012, effective 1.01.2013) services provided by a public enforcement agent;
2. any supplies other than those covered under Item 1, which will lead to significant distortion of competition.
- (6) (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) Any taxable person carrying out also exempted supplies and/or supplies or activities beyond the framework of the economic activity conducted independently, as well as any non-taxable legal person registered for the purposes of the value added tax shall be considered to be a taxable person for all services provided to such persons.

Non-taxable Legal Person

Article 4. (Amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) "Non-taxable legal person" shall mean any legal person which is not a taxable person within the meaning given by Article 3, paragraphs 1 to 5 herein and which effects intra-European Union acquisition of goods.

Goods

Article 5. (1) "Goods", within the meaning given by this Act, shall be any movable and immovable thing, including electric current, gas, water, heat or refrigeration and other such, as well as standard software.

(2) Money in circulation and foreign currency used as tender shall not be goods within the meaning given by this Act.

Supply of Goods

Article 6. (1) (Amended, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) Supply of goods within the meaning of this Act shall be the transfer of the right of ownership or any other right in rem in respect of goods, as well as any other right of disposal of the goods as owner.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, the following shall also be considered supply of goods:

1. the transfer, resulting from a request or an act of a central or local government authority or the administrations thereof or in pursuance of the law, of a right of ownership or another right in rem against payment of compensation;
2. the actual handing over of goods, pursuant to a lease contract which provides for the passing of the right of ownership of the said goods under a suspensive condition or in the normal course of events;
3. (amended, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) the actual handing over of goods, pursuant to a lease contract which expressly provides for passing of the right of ownership of the goods; this provision shall furthermore apply where passing of ownership of the goods is stipulated in the contract solely as an option and the sum of the payments due on the lease contract, except for the interest under Item 1 of Article 46 (1), shall be the market price of the goods at the date of handing over;
4. the actual handing over of goods to a person acting in his own name and for the account of another.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, the following shall also be considered supply of goods effected for consideration:

1. (amended, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017, supplemented, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) the setting aside or handing over of goods for the private use or consumption of the taxable person, of the owner, of the factory or office workers thereof or in general for purposes other than the independent economic activity of the taxable person, provided that in the production, importation or acquisition of the said goods credit for input tax has been deducted in full, in part or in proportion to the degree of use for independent economic activity;

2. (amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) free transfer of ownership or other property right in the goods to third parties, where in the production, importation or acquisition thereof tax credit has been deducted in full, in part or in proportion to the degree of use for independent economic activity;

3. (new, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009, supplemented, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) the dispatch or transportation of goods produced, extracted, processed, purchased, acquired or imported on the territory of the country by a taxable person in the course of its business activity where the goods are sent or transported for the purposes of its economic activity by or for its account from the territory of the country to the territory of another Member State in which the person is not registered for VAT purposes; this shall not apply to the transfer of goods under call-off stock arrangements.

(4) Paragraph (3) shall not apply upon:

1. (supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) the handing over of special-purpose, working, uniform and presentable clothing and personal protection means by an employer to the factory and office workers thereof, including such under management contracts, for the purposes of the economic activity of the person;

2. the provision, free of charge, of goods of negligible value for advertising purposes or upon distribution of samples;

3. (new, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016) the setting aside or handing over of goods for the private use or consumption of the taxable person, of the owner, of the factory or office workers thereof or for purposes other than the independent economic activity of the taxable person, caused by extreme need or force majeure;

4. (new, SG No. 88/2016, effective 1.01.2017) free of charge provision of foodstuffs to a food bank operator when, at the time of provision, the following conditions are met simultaneously:

(a) the unit of foodstuff is of negligible value;

(b) (amended, SG No. 52/2020, effective 9.06.2020) the food bank operator is entered in the register under Article 103 of the Foodstuffs Act;

(c) (amended, SG No. 52/2020, effective 9.06.2020) the foodstuff is included in the list under Article 96, paragraph 2 of the Foodstuffs Act;

(d) (amended, SG No. 52/2020, effective 9.06.2020) the timeframe under Article 96, paragraph 3 of the Foodstuffs Act for which the foodstuff may be delivered has not expired yet;

(e) (amended, SG No. 52/2022, effective 1.07.2022) the food bank operator, before making a donation, has provided electronically to the National Revenue Agency the required information, the content and file format of which shall be determined by an order of the executive director of the Agency;

(f) (amended and supplemented, SG No. 52/2022, effective 1.07.2022) the total value of foodstuffs provided free of charge to food bank operators for the current calendar year does not exceed 1 per cent of the total value of the taxable supplies of foodstuffs made by the person in the calendar year prior to the current one, and for each provision a document has been drawn up, stating the type, quantity, unit and total value of the foodstuffs, certifying their delivery to the relevant food bank operator;

(g) (amended, SG No. 52/2022, effective 1.07.2022) the person who provided the foodstuffs free of charge has no enforceable public obligations at the end of the month in which the goods are provided, and the obligations are not reflected in his tax-insurance account or are not reflected as claimed for enforcement at the National Revenue Agency.

(5) (New, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014, amended, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) For the purposes of this Act the handing over of the right of disposal by the pledgor to the pledgee within the meaning of Article 32 (3) of the Registered Pledges Act shall not be considered supply of goods.

(6) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Item 2 of Paragraph 3 shall furthermore apply in case of free intra-Community supply of goods, where in the production, acquisition or importation thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in full or in part.

(7) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) Item 3 of Paragraph 3 shall not apply where the person holds proofs set out in the Regulations for Application of this Act that the intra-Community acquisition is levied in the Member State where the goods arrive or their transport ends. If Item 3 of Paragraph 3 is applied to the supply and the person subsequently proves that the intra-Community acquisition was levied in the Member State where the goods arrive or where their transport ends, the person shall adjust the result of the application of Item 3 of Paragraph 3. The documents certifying such circumstances and the procedure for the adjustment shall be laid down in the Regulations for Application of this Act.

Intra-European Union Supply of Goods

Article 7. (1) (Supplemented, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) An intra-Community supply of goods shall be any supply of goods, transported by or for the account of the supplier who is a person registered under this Act, or of the recipient from the territory of the country to the territory of another Member State, where the recipient is a taxable person or a non-taxable legal entity registered for VAT purposes in another Member State and who has provided its identification VAT number to the supplier.

(2) Any supply of a new means of transport, dispatched or transported by or for the account of the supplier or of the recipient from the territory of the country to the territory of another Member State, regardless of whether the recipient is a taxable person or a non-taxable person, shall also be considered intra-European Union supply of goods.

(3) Any supply of excisable goods, dispatched or transported by or for the account of the supplier who is a person registered under this Act, or of the recipient from the territory of the country to the territory of another Member State, where the recipient is a taxable person or a non-taxable legal person which is not registered for VAT purposes in another Member State, shall also be considered intra-European Union supply of goods.

(4) The dispatch or transport of any goods produced, extracted, processed, purchased or imported into the territory of the country by a person registered under this Act within the framework of the economic activity thereof shall also be considered intra-European Union supply of goods effected for consideration, where the said goods are dispatched or transported for the purposes of the economic activity thereof by or for the account of the said person from the territory of the country to the territory of another Member State in which the said person is registered for VAT purposes.

(5) The following shall not be intra-European Union supply:

1. the supplies of any goods in respect of which the supplier applies the special procedure for taxation under Chapter Seventeen herein;
2. the supplies of any goods which are assembled or installed by or for the account of the supplier;
3. the supplies of any goods under Article 18 herein;
4. the supplies of any goods referred to in Items 1, 2 and 7 of Article 31 and Article 34 herein;
5. (amended, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) the supplies of natural gas through a natural gas system situated on the territory of the European Union or through a network connected to such a system, the supply of electricity or of heating or cooling energy through district heating or cooling networks;

6. the supplies by a person registered under this Act who is an intermediary in a triangular operation to the acquirer in a triangular operation;
 7. (amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) intra-Community selling of goods;
 8. (amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) the dispatch and transport of any goods from the territory of the country to the territory of another Member State for the purpose of valuation or work on the said goods, which is carried out in that other Member State, provided that the said goods, after being valued or worked upon, are re-dispatched to the sender within the territory of the country;
 9. the dispatch and transport of any goods from the territory of the country to the territory of another Member State for the purpose of use of the said goods for the purposes of the supply of services within the territory of that other Member State, provided that the said goods are re-dispatched to the sender within the territory of the country after supply of the services;
 10. the dispatch and transport of any goods from the territory of the country to the territory of another Member State, if the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled:
 - (a) the import of the same goods from a third country or territory to the territory of that other Member State would be eligible for the arrangements for temporary importation with total exemption from import duty;
 - (b) the goods are re-dispatched to the sender within the territory of the country within a period not exceeding 24 months after their dispatch;
 11. (new, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) the supply under Paragraph 1, where the supplier has not submitted a VIES return under Article 125 or where the VIES return does not contain the precise data of the supply, unless the supply may justify the reason for the errors or omissions committed thereby, including where the person has eliminated them in the next VIES return.
- (6) (Amended, SG No. 113/2007) Where the conditions under Items 8 to 10 of Paragraph (5) no longer apply, intra-European Union supply for consideration shall be considered to be effected by that time.

Services

Article 8. "Services" within the meaning given by this Act, shall mean everything which has a value and which is other than goods, money in circulation and foreign currency used as legal tender.

Supply of Services

Article 9. (1) "Supply of services" shall be any performance of services.

(2) The following shall also be considered supply of services:

1. the sale or transfer of rights to intangible property;
2. the assumption of an obligation not to perform any acts or not to exercise any rights;
3. any manual and intellectual work, including treatment in the sense of production, construction or assembly of a tangible asset using raw and prime materials placed by the client at the disposal of the service provider;
4. (amended, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) performance of a service by a tenant/user for:
 - a) repair of an asset hired out or allocated for use;
 - b) improvement of an asset hired out or allocated for use.

(3) The following shall also be considered supply of services effected for consideration:

1. (amended, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014, supplemented, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) the provision of a service for the private use of the taxable person, of the owner, of the factory and office workers or for purposes other than the independent economic activity of the taxable person, the performance of which involves the use of goods upon the production, importation or acquisition whereof credit for input tax has been wholly or partly deducted;
2. (amended, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014, supplemented, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) the provision, free of charge, of services for the private use of the taxable person, of the owner, of the factory or office workers or in general for purposes other than the independent economic activity of the taxable person;

3. (new, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) the performance, free of charge, of services by a tenant/user for improvement of an asset hired out or allocated for use.

(4) Paragraph (3) shall not apply upon:

1. the provision, free of charge, of transport services from the place of residence to the place of work and back, by an employer to the factory and office workers thereof, including such under management contracts, where for the purposes of the economic activity of the person;

2. (amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) the performance, free of charge, of services by a tenant/user for repair of an asset hired out or allocated for use;

3. (repealed, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013);

4. the performance, free of charge, of services of negligible value for advertising purposes;

5. (new, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016) the provision of services for the private use of the taxable person, of the owner, of the factory or office workers thereof or for purposes other than the independent economic activity of the taxable person, caused by extreme need or force majeure.

(5) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Item 1 of Paragraph 3 shall not apply to used goods in respect whereof the right to credit for input tax under Articles 71a, 71b and 73b has been exercised.

Where No Supply of Goods or Services Has Taken Place

Article 10. (1) No supply of goods or services has taken place where the supply to the transferee from the transforming corporation, from the transferor or from the contributor of a non-cash asset results from:

1. transformation of a commercial corporation according to the procedure established by Chapter Sixteen of the Commerce Act;

2. transfer of an enterprise according to the procedure established by Article 15 or Article 60 of the Commerce Act;

3. contributing a non-cash asset in consideration of a capital allotment in a commercial corporation;

4. (new, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) transformation of budget-supported organisations, state-owned or municipal-owned enterprises as a result whereof the newly established organisations or enterprises are legal successors of the transformed enterprises;

5. (new, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014, amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) provision for use of properties by the state and municipalities to applicants for the purposes of private kindergartens and schools under the Pre-School and School Education Act and subsequent transfer thereof to the state and municipalities by the applicants upon closing the kindergartens and schools.

(2) In the cases covered under Paragraph (1), the recipient of the goods or services shall furthermore accede to all rights and obligations under this Act and in connection with them, including the right to deduct credit for input tax and of the obligations to adjust credit for input tax used.

(3) Paragraph (2) shall furthermore apply in the cases where the goods and services have been acquired by legal or testamentary succession by a taxable person under this Act.

(4) The procedure and the requisite documents for application of Paragraphs (2) and (3) shall be determined by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

Where No Supply of Goods or Services Has Taken Place

Article 10a. (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) (1) No supply of goods or services has taken place upon the importation of goods or services by a partner to achieve the common purpose of a contract for establishing an unincorporated company, provided that no remuneration is expressly agreed.

(2) For the goods or services received under paragraph 1 and imported for public use, no rights and obligations under this Act shall arise for an unincorporated company. The partner importing the goods or services, shall perform all the rights and obligations under this Act in connection with their use by the unincorporated company, including the right to deduct credit for input tax and the obligation to make adjustment of the tax credit used.

(3) Where the goods and services under paragraph 1 are used by the unincorporated company for carrying out deliveries, for which a right to deduct credit for input tax exists and for supplies or activities, for which no such right exists, the partner shall charge a tax or make adjustment of the used tax credit under the law, applying the coefficient referred to in Article 73 for the year of the occurrence of the change, calculated on the basis of the turnover of the unincorporated company.

No Supply upon Free of Charge Construction, Improvement or Repair of Physical-Infrastructure Elements Constituting Public State Property or Public Municipal Property

Article 10b. (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) (1) The free of charge supply by a taxable person of constructed, improved or repaired physical-infrastructure elements which pursuant to a law constitute public state property or public municipal property and are used by the taxable person in the course of its independent economic activity, including where the physical-infrastructure elements are accessible for use by other entities, shall not be a supply.

(2) A taxable person shall have the right to deduct credit for input tax under the general rules of this Act, where the costs incurred for the construction, improvement or repair of the physical-infrastructure elements under Paragraph 1 are part of the total costs of the person and/or are a price-setting element of taxable supplies for consideration of goods or services effected in the course of the economic activity of such person.

(3) Paragraph 1 shall not apply to the constructed, improved or repaired physical-infrastructure elements under Paragraph 1 in respect whereof a consideration has been agreed, including where such consideration is determined in full or in part in goods or services.

Supplier and Recipient

Article 11. (1) "Supplier" within the meaning given by this Act, shall be the person who effects the supply of goods or services.

(2) "Recipient" within the meaning given by this Act, shall be the person who receives the goods or the services.

Taxable Supply

Article 12. (1) "Taxable supply" shall be each supply of goods or services within the meaning given by Articles 6 and 9 herein, where effected by a taxable person under this Act and whereof the place of transaction is within the territory of the country, as well as the zero-rated supplies effected by a taxable person, save in the cases in which this Act provides otherwise.

(2) A supply in which the recipient is a taxpayer under Chapter Eight herein shall not be subject to taxation by the supplier.

Intra-European Union Acquisition

Article 13. (1) (Supplemented, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) "Intra-Community acquisition" shall mean acquisition of the right of ownership of goods and any other right of disposal of goods as owner, as well as the actual receipt of goods in the cases under Article 6 (2) herein, which are dispatched or transported to the territory of the country from the territory of another Member State, where the supplier is a taxable person registered for VAT purposes in another Member State.

(2) The acquisition of a new means of transport, which is dispatched or transported to the territory of the country from the territory of another Member State, regardless of whether the supplier is a taxable person for VAT purposes in another Member State, shall also be considered an intra-European Union acquisition.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) The receipt of goods within the territory of the country by a taxable person, which will be used for the purposes of the economic activity of the said person, shall also be considered an intra-European Union acquisition for consideration where the said goods are dispatched or transported by or for the account thereof from the territory of another Member State in which the person is registered for VAT purposes and where the said goods were produced, extracted, processed, purchased, acquired or imported thereby within the framework of the economic activity thereof.

(4) The following shall not be an intra-European Union acquisition:

1. the acquisition of any goods to which the supplier applies special arrangements for taxing of second-hand goods, works of art, collectors' items and antiques, as regulated in the legislation of the relevant Member State;
 2. the acquisition of any goods which are assembled or installed by or for the account of the supplier;
 3. the acquisition of any goods covered under Article 18 herein;
 4. the acquisition of any goods referred to in Items 1, 2 and 7 of Article 31 and Article 34 herein;
 5. (amended, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) the acquisition of natural gas through a natural gas system situated on the territory of the European Union or through a network connected to such a system, the acquisition of electricity or of heating or cooling energy through district heating or cooling networks;
 6. the acquisition of any goods by a person registered under this Act who is an acquirer in a triangular operation from an intermediary in a triangular operation;
 7. (repealed, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021, new, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) the acquisition of goods dispatched or transported from the territory of another Member State for the purpose of intra-Community distance selling of goods whereof the place of transaction is within the territory of the country;
 8. (amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) the receipt of any goods dispatched or transported from the territory of another Member State to the territory of the country for the purpose of valuation or work on the said goods, which is carried out within the territory of the country, provided that the said goods, after being valued or worked upon, are re-dispatched to the sender within the territory of that other Member State;
 9. the receipt of any goods dispatched or transported from the territory of another Member State to the territory of the country for the purpose of use of the said goods for the purposes of the supply of services within the territory of the country, provided that the said goods are re-dispatched to the sender within the territory of that other Member State after supply of the services;
 10. the receipt of any goods dispatched or transported from the territory of another Member State to the territory of the country, if the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled:
 - (a) (amended, SG No. 58/2016) the import of the same goods from the territory of the country would be eligible for the arrangements for temporary importation with total exemption from customs duty;
 - (b) the goods are re-dispatched to the sender within the territory of another Member State within a period not exceeding 24 months after their dispatch.
- (5) (Amended, SG No. 113/2007) Where the conditions under Items 8 to 10 of Paragraph (4) no longer apply, intra-European Union acquisition for consideration shall be considered to be effected by that time.
- (6) (New, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) Paragraph 3 shall furthermore apply to a person that is not registered for the purposes of value added tax in the Member State of the importation of the goods where the dispatch or transportation of the goods begins, if the goods are imported to the Member State of importation or for the account of the person.

Distance Selling of Goods

Article 14. (Amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) Intra-Community distance sale of goods within the territory of the European Union shall be the supply of goods where the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled:

1. the goods are dispatched or transported by the supplier or on its behalf, including where the supplier intervenes indirectly in the dispatch or transportation of the goods from the territory of a

Member State, other than the one where the dispatch or transportation of the goods to the recipient ends;

2. the recipient of the supply is a non-taxable person; a non-taxable person shall furthermore be considered a taxable person or a non-taxable legal entity that has no obligation to charge VAT on the intra-Community acquisition of the goods in the Member State where the transportation end;

3. the goods are manufactured within the territory of the European Union or are released for free circulation except for:

a) new means of transport, or

b) goods that are assembled and/or installed by or for the account of the supplier, or

c) goods that are subject to special arrangements for taxing the price margin for second-hand goods, works of art, collectors' items and antiques.

(2) The sale of excisable goods shall be an intra-Community distance sale of goods under Paragraph 1, Items 1 and 3, where the recipient is a non-taxable natural person or a person under Article 173, Paragraph 5 and Paragraph 6, Item 1.

(3) Distance sale of goods imported from third countries or territories shall be the supply of goods where the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled:

1. the goods are dispatched or transported by the supplier or on its behalf, including where the supplier intervenes indirectly in the dispatch or transportation of the goods from third countries or territories to the recipient in a Member State;

2. the recipient of the supply is a non-taxable person; a non-taxable person shall furthermore be considered a taxable person or a non-taxable legal entity that has no obligation to charge VAT on the intra-Community acquisition of the goods in the Member State where the transportation end;

3. the goods are not:

a) new means of transport, or

b) goods that are assembled and/or installed by or for the account of the supplier, or

c) goods that are subject to special arrangements for taxing the price margin of second-hand goods, works of art, collectors' items and antiques;

4. the goods are dispatched or transported from third countries or territories at the time of their supply.

(4) The cases where the goods are considered dispatched or transported by the supplier or on its behalf, including where the latter intervenes indirectly in the dispatch or transportation of the goods, for the purposes of this Article shall be those within the meaning of Article 5a of Council Implementing Regulation (EU) 2019/2026 of 21 November 2019 amending Implementing Regulation (EU) No. 282/2011 as regards supplies of goods or services facilitated by electronic interfaces and the special schemes for taxable persons supplying services to non-taxable persons, making distance sales of goods and certain domestic supplies of goods (OJ, L 313/14 of 4 December 2019), hereinafter referred to as "Implementing Regulation (EU) 2019/2026".

Services facilitated by electronic interfaces

Article 14a. (New, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) An electronic interface shall be a device or a programme that allows communication between two autonomous systems or a system and a final recipient and it may cover a website, portal, platform, interface for applications and other similar devices.

(2) A taxable person that operates an electronic interface shall be deemed to facilitate the supply of goods where the use of the electronic interface enables a recipient and a supplier offering goods for sale to have communication, resulting in the supply of goods through such electronic interface. The taxable person that operates an electronic interface shall be a person other than the supplier offering goods for sale and the recipient.

(3) Goods packaged together or dispatched simultaneously by the same sender to the same recipient and covered by the same transport contract shall be a consignment.

(4) A main supplier shall be a taxable person delivering goods or making distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories through the use of an electronic interface.

(5) Services facilitated by electronic interfaces shall be the supplies of:

1. intra-Community distance sales of goods within the territory of the European Union by a taxable person who has not a fixed establishment within the territory of the European Union and the recipient is a non-taxable person;
2. (amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) distance sales of goods within the territory of the European Union imported from third countries or territories in the form of consignments with an intrinsic value not exceeding EUR 150 by a taxable person, whether the person has or has not a fixed establishment within the territory of the European Union, and the recipient is a non-taxable person;
3. domestic distance sales of goods shall be the supplies of goods under Item 3 of Article 14 (1), where the dispatch or transportation begins and ends in the territory of the same Member State in which the recipient, who is a non-taxable person, has a fixed establishment, a permanent address or usually resides, by a taxable person who has not a fixed establishment within the territory of the European Union;
4. (amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) intra-Community distance sales of goods within the territory of the European Union, where the main supplier is a taxable person who has a fixed establishment within the territory of the European Union, and /or of distance sales of goods within the territory of the European Union imported from third countries or territories in the form of consignments with intrinsic value not exceeding EUR 150.

(6) The taxable person under Paragraph 2, where it facilitates the execution of the supply of goods under Paragraph 5, Items 1 – 3, shall be deemed a supplier and a recipient and in this case there shall be two simultaneous supplies:

1. a supply between a main supplier and a recipient who is the taxable person operating the electronic interface;
2. a supply of the goods subject of the supply under Item 1 between the taxable person operating the electronic interface and a recipient being the non-taxable person.

(7) The chargeable event for the supply of goods under Paragraph 6 shall arise and the tax shall become chargeable at the moment of accepting the payment.

(8) The moment of accepting the payment under Paragraph 7 shall be determined in compliance with Article 41a of with Implementing Regulation (EU) No. 2019/2026.

(9) For the taxable person operating an electronic interface and facilitating the execution of supply under Paragraph (5) wherein it is considered a supplier and where it does not apply Union scheme and a scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories for the supply, the rules for the purposes of the value added tax of the relevant Member State where the recipient is established, has its permanent address or usually resides shall apply.

(10) A taxable person operating an electronic interface, where the person is registered pursuant to Articles 154, 156 or Article 157a, shall keep an electronic register under Article 159d for the supplies under Paragraph (5) in respect whereof he is considered a supplier, and for the supplies of telecommunication services, radio and TV broadcasting services or electronically provided services in which he participates and is considered to be acting in his own name in accordance with Article 9a of Council Implementing Regulation (EU) No. 1042/2013 of 7 October 2013 amending Implementing Regulation (EU) No. 282/2011 as regards the place of supply of services (OJ, L 284/1 of 26 October 2013), hereinafter referred to as "Implementing Regulation (EU) 1042/2013".

(11) (Supplemented, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) A taxable person operating an electronic interface and who is established in the territory of the country, including a fixed establishment, where he is not registered under Articles 154, 156 or 157a, shall keep an electronic register containing summary information for the relevant tax period for supplies referred to in paragraph 5 for which he is considered to be a supplier, and for supplies of telecommunications, broadcasting or electronically provided services in which he participates and is considered to be acting on his own behalf in accordance with Article 9a of Implementing Regulation (EU) No. 1042/2013. The content of the consolidated information shall be specified by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

(12) A taxable person operating an electronic interface for the supplies under Paragraph (5) wherein it is not considered a supplier, and for the supply of telecommunication services, radio and TV broadcasting services or electronically provided services in which it does not participate and where it is not considered to act in its own name in accordance with Article 9a of Implementing Regulation (EU) 1042/2013, shall keep accounts of such goods and services.

(13) Upon a request, the information from the registers Paragraphs (10) and (11) and the accounts under Paragraph (12) shall be provided to a revenue authority electronically or on an electronic data storage medium in the file format laid down in the regulations.

(14) The persons under Paragraphs (10), (11) and (12) shall keep the accounts under Paragraph (12) and the information in the electronic registers under Paragraphs (10) and (11) for a period of 10 years, effective from the end of the year during which the supply of the goods was made.

(15) A taxable person that operates an electronic interface shall not facilitate the supply of goods where the conditions of Article 5b of Implementing Regulation (EU) 2019/2026 are fulfilled.

(16) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) Paragraph 7 shall not apply to supplies referred to in paragraph 6, point 1 of distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, whether or not the scheme referred to in Article 157a is applied.

(17) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) Paragraph 7 shall not apply to supplies referred to in paragraph 6, point 2 of distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, where the scheme referred to in Article 157a is not applied in respect of said supplies.

(18) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) In the cases referred to in paragraph 6, the dispatch or transport of the goods shall relate only to the supply carried out by the taxable person operating the electronic interface to a recipient being the non-taxable person.

Triangular Operation

Article 15. "Triangular operation" shall be the supply of goods between three persons registered for VAT purposes in three different Member States A, B and C, where the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled:

1. a registered person in Member State A (transferor) effects a supply of goods to a person registered for the purposes of VAT in Member State B (intermediary) who then effects a supply of the said goods to a person registered for the purposes of VAT in Member State C (acquirer);
2. the goods are transported directly from A to C;
3. the intermediary is not registered for VAT purposes in Member States A and C;
4. the acquirer charges VAT as a recipient of the supply.

Call-off stock arrangements

Article 15a. (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) (1) A taxable person may transfer goods forming part of his business assets from the territory of one Member State to the territory of another Member State under call-off stock arrangements.

(2) The transfer under Paragraph 1 under call-off stock arrangements shall not be treated as a supply of goods for consideration where the following conditions apply simultaneously:

1. goods are dispatched or transported by a taxable person, or by a third party on his behalf, from the territory of one Member State to another Member State with a view to those goods being supplied to the Member State, at a later stage, to which the goods are dispatched or transported under an existing contract between the two taxable persons providing for the transfer of the right of ownership or any other right of disposal of the goods as owner;

2. the taxable person transferring the goods has not established his business nor has a fixed establishment in the Member State to which the goods are dispatched or transported;
3. the taxable person to whom the goods are intended to be supplied is identified for VAT purposes in the Member State to which the goods are dispatched or transported and its/his VAT identification number assigned thereto by that Member State is provided to the taxable person referred to in Item 2 at the time when the dispatch or transport begins;
4. the goods are recorded in the registers under Article 123 (5) at the time when the dispatch or transport begins by the taxable person under Item 2;
5. the VAT identification number of the taxable person referred to in Item 3, which is issued thereto by the Member State where the goods arrive or their transport ends, is included in a VIIES return for the tax period of dispatch or transport of the goods of the taxable person under Item 2.

(3) Where the conditions laid down in Paragraph 2 are met, the following shall be deemed to apply at the time of the transfer of the right to dispose of the goods as owner to the taxable person referred to in Item 3 of Paragraph 2, provided that the transfer occurs within a 12-month period from arrival of the goods or from the end of their transport:

1. an intra-Community supply of goods effected by the taxable person under Item 2 of Paragraph 2 in the Member State to which the goods were dispatched or transported;
2. an intra-Community acquisition of goods effected by the taxable person under Item 3 of Paragraph 2 to whom such goods are supplied in the Member State to which the goods were dispatched or transported.

(4) Where, within the 12-month period of the arrival or end of transport of the goods to the Member State to which the goods have arrived or their transport has ended, the taxable person referred to in Item 3 of Paragraph 2 is substituted by another taxable person, provided that all other applicable conditions set out in Paragraph 2 are met and subject to recording of the substitution of the taxable person under Item 2 of Paragraph 2 in the register under Article 123 (5), the call-off stock arrangements shall continue until that period has expired.

(5) The return of goods to the Member State from which they were dispatched or transported, where the right of ownership or any other right of disposal of the goods as owner was not transferred within the 12-month time limit of the arrival or end of transport of the goods and where their return is recorded in the register under Article 123 (5) by the person under Item 2 of Paragraph 2 shall not be deemed a supply of goods.

(6) Where within the 12-month time limit of the arrival or end of transport of the goods any of the conditions under Paragraphs 2 and 4 cease to be fulfilled, as of that moment it shall be deemed that the following takes place:

1. an intra-Community supply of goods effected by the taxable person under Item 2 of Paragraph 2 in the Member State from which the goods were dispatched or transported;
2. an intra-Community acquisition of goods effected by the taxable person under Item 2 of Paragraph 2 in the Member State to which the goods arrived or their transport ended.

(7) Where within the 12-month time limit of the arrival or end of transport the goods were not supplied and the circumstances under Paragraphs 5, 9 or 10 did not arise, it shall be deemed that the conditions under Paragraph 2 cease to be fulfilled as of the day following the expiration of the 12-month time limit, and as of that moment Paragraph 6 shall apply.

(8) (Amended, SG No. 14/2020) Where within the 12-month time limit of the arrival or end of transport the goods were supplied to a person other than the taxable person under Item 3 of Paragraph 2 or Paragraph 4, it shall be deemed that the conditions under Paragraph 2 cease to be fulfilled immediately before the supply, and as of that moment Paragraph 6 shall apply.

(9) Where within the 12-month time limit of the arrival or end of transport the goods were dispatched or transported to a country other than the country to which the goods initially arrived or the transport ended, it shall be deemed that the conditions under Paragraph 2 cease to be fulfilled before such dispatch or transportation begins, and as of that moment Paragraph 6 shall apply.

(10) Where within the 12-month time limit of the arrival or end of transport the goods were destroyed, missing or discarded, it shall be deemed that the conditions under Paragraphs 2 and 4 cease to be fulfilled on the date of occurrence of the respective circumstance, or, if it is impossible to determine that date, the date on which the said circumstance was found, and as of that moment Paragraph 6 shall apply.

(11) The chargeable event in the event of intra-Community supply and intra-Community acquisition under Paragraph 6 shall occur on the date of the respective circumstance. In such cases, Article 51(3) and Article 63(3) shall apply.

Importation of Goods

Article 16. (1) (Amended, SG No. 58/2016) "Importation of goods", within the meaning given by this Act, shall be the introduction of non-EU goods into the territory of the country.

(2) "Importation of goods" shall furthermore mean the release of goods for free circulation after placing under the outward processing procedure.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014, SG No. 58/2016) "Importation of goods" shall furthermore mean the introduction of EU goods into the territory of the country from third territories which form part of the customs territory of the European Union.

(4) "Importation of goods" shall furthermore mean any other event from which a customs debt arises.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 58/2016, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) Paragraphs 1, 2, 3 and 4 shall not apply, where upon introduction into the territory of the country the goods have a status of goods in temporary storage or are placed in a free zone, or are placed under the customs procedures of: customs warehousing, inward processing, temporary importation with total exemption from import duty, external transit, the importation shall be deemed effected when the goods are released for free circulation.

Chapter Two

CHARGEABLE EVENT AND TAXABLE AMOUNT

Occurrence of Chargeable Event and Chargeability of Tax

Article 25. (1) "Chargeable event," within the meaning given by this Act, shall be the supply of goods or services effected by taxable persons under this Act, the intra-European Union acquisition, as well as the importation of goods under Article 16 herein.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) The chargeable event shall occur on the date on which the right of ownership of the goods or another right in rem occurs, as well as any other right of disposal of the goods as owner, or on the date on which the service was rendered.

(3) In addition to the cases referred to in Paragraph (2), a chargeable event shall occur on:

1. (supplemented, SG No. 108/2007, amended, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) the date of actual handing over of the goods under Article 6 (2) herein, except for the cases under Paragraph (9);

2. the date of setting aside or handing over of the goods under Article 6 (3) herein;

3. the date on which the transport under Article 7 (4) herein starts;

4. the date on which the supplier receives the payment: applicable to sale of goods by mail order or by electronic means;

5. the date of retrieval of the coins or tokens: applicable to effecting of supplies by means of vending machines or other similar devices actuated by coins, tokens or other such;

6. (amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) the date of the actual return of the asset improved by the tenant/user upon termination of the tenancy contract or discontinuance of the use of the asset where the improvement of the leased or provided for use asset has not been set out as condition and/or obligation under the contract;

7. (new, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016) the last day of the month in which the service was provided under Items 1 and 2 of Article 9 (3).

(4) (Amended, SG No. 108/2006, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) In supplies effected periodically, or continuously, with the exception of the supplies covered under Article 6 (2) herein, each period for which payment has been agreed shall be considered to be a separate supply and the chargeable event for it shall occur on the date on which the payment became executable. Upon supply of a good or service for which a staged implementation has been agreed, the completion of each stage is considered to be a separate supply and the chargeable event for it shall occur on the date of completion of the relevant stage.

(5) (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, supplemented, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Paragraph (4), first sentence shall not apply to supplies with continuous performance and duration of over a year, for which no chargeability exists for a period of more than a year. In the case of such supplies, the chargeable event shall be considered to have taken place at the end of each calendar year and, in the calendar year in which supplies are terminated, the chargeable event shall occur on the date of termination of the supplies.

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 5, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) On the date of occurrence of the chargeable event under Paragraphs (2), (3) and (4):

1. the tax under this Act shall become chargeable in respect of the taxable supplies and an obligation for the registered person to charge the said tax shall arise, or

2. grounds shall arise for exemption from the charging of tax in respect of the exempt supplies and the supplies whereof the place of transaction is outside the territory of the country.

(7) (Amended, SG No. 113/2007, supplemented, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009, renumbered from Paragraph 6, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) Where an advance payment in full or in part is effected on a supply before the occurrence of a chargeable event under Paragraphs (2), (3) and (4), the tax shall become chargeable upon receipt of the payment (for the payment amount), with the exception of a payment received in connection with an intra-European Union supply. In these cases it is deemed that the tax is included in the amount of the payment.

(8) (Renumbered from Paragraph 7, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) Where a person who is not registered under this Act receives an advance payment in connection with a taxable supply and actually effects the said supply after the date of registration of the said person under this Act, the advance payment received shall be presumed to include a tax which becomes chargeable on the date on which the tax on the supply becomes chargeable.

(9) (New, SG No. 108/2007, renumbered from Paragraph 8, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The chargeable event for supply under Item 4 of Article 6 (2) of newspapers, magazines, books and other publications, music audio and video recordings and recordings of films on electronic or technical medium shall occur at the earlier of the following two dates:

1. the date on which the principal/mandator receives the payment from the commission agent/mandatory under Article 127, or
2. the last day of the quarter following the tax period in which actual handing over of the goods under Item 4 of Article 6 (2) is carried out.

(10) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) A chargeable event under Paragraph (1) shall also be the placement under re-export arrangements of goods intended for the continental shelf and the exclusive economic zone in which the state exercises sovereign rights, jurisdiction and control in accordance with Article 42 and/or Article 47 of the Maritime Space, Inland Waterways and Ports of the Republic of Bulgaria Act, which upon their introduction into the territory of the country have a status of goods in temporary storage or are placed in a free zone, or are placed under the customs procedures of: customs warehousing, inward processing, temporary importation with total exemption from import duty, external transit.

(11) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) The chargeable event under Paragraph 10 shall occur and the tax shall become chargeable on the date on which the goods are placed under re-export arrangements.

(12) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) In the cases when the goods arrive directly in the continental shelf and the exclusive economic zone in which the state exercises sovereign rights, jurisdiction and control in accordance with Article 42 and/or Article 47 of the Maritime Space, Inland Waterways and Ports of the Republic of Bulgaria Act, from a third country or territory or from another Member State, when no intra-Community acquisition exists for the goods, the chargeable event shall arise and the tax shall become chargeable on the date on which the goods arrived in the continental shelf and the exclusive economic zone.

Taxable Amount in Supplies within the Territory of the Country

Article 26. (1) "Taxable amount," within the meaning given by this Act, shall be the value whereon the tax is charged or not charged depending on whether the supply is taxable or exempt.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) The taxable amount shall be determined on the basis of everything which constitutes the consideration which has been obtained by or is due to the supplier from the recipient or another person in connection with the supply, expressed in Euro and Euro cents exclusive of the tax under this Act. Any payment of damages and interest of a compensatory nature shall not be considered a consideration for a supply.

- (3) The taxable amount referred to in Paragraph (2) shall be credited with:
1. all other taxes and fees, including excise duty, where such are payable on the supply;
 2. all subsidies and investment grants directly linked to the supply;
 3. the incidental expenses charged by the supplier to the recipient, such as commission, packing, transport, insurance costs etc., directly linked to the supply;
 4. the cost of the usual or customary packing materials or containers, unless returnable or if the recipient is not a taxable person; if such packing materials or containers are returned by the recipient, the taxable amount shall be debited with the value of the said materials or containers upon return.
- (4) The taxable amount shall be deemed to include:
1. the value of the subsequent warranty services for the goods;
 2. the value retained by the recipient as a performance bond.
- (5) The taxable amount shall not include:
1. the amount of the trade discount or rebate, if allowed to the recipient on the date of occurrence of the chargeable event; if the said discount or rebate is allowed to the recipient after the date of occurrence of the chargeable event, the taxable amount shall be debited therewith upon allowance;
 2. the cost of the usual or customary packing materials or containers, if the recipient is a taxable person and the said materials or containers are returnable; if such materials or containers are not returned within 12 months after dispatch thereof, the taxable amount shall be credited with the value of the said materials or containers at the end of this time period;
 3. the costs incurred by a lessor and lessee in connection with the use of goods under the terms and within the term of validity of a lease contract, such as: costs of property insurance, civil liability insurance and other such, for all or part of the term of validity of the contract, the costs of property taxes and fees, environmental fees and registration costs;
 4. the amounts paid to the supplier as repayment for the expenses incurred in the name and for the account of the recipient, where the said amounts are expressly entered in the accounts of the supplier; the supplier must hold proof of the actual amount of this expenditure and shall not have the right to credit for input tax in respect of the tax which may have become chargeable upon the incurrance of the said expenditure.
- (6) (Amended, SG No. 113/2007, supplemented, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013, amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) Where the values required for calculation of the taxable amount are expressed in a foreign currency, the taxable amount shall be determined on the basis of the Euro equivalent of the said currency at the exchange rate announced by the last exchange rate published by the European Central Bank at the time when the tax becomes due and payable. Conversion of currencies other than the euro shall be carried out by applying the exchange rate of any of these currencies against the euro.
- (7) (Amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) Where the consideration is expressed wholly or partly in goods or services, without the parties quoting a monetary amount, the taxable amount of each supply at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event shall be the taxable amount upon acquisition or the cost of the supplied goods, and in the cases of importation - the taxable amount upon importation or of the direct costs incurred for the supply of the service provided. Where the taxable amount cannot be determined according to this procedure, the taxable amount shall be equal to the market price.
- (8) (New, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) In the cases under Item 1 of Article 27 (3) the taxable amount of each supply under Paragraph 7 at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event shall be the market price of the goods or services supplied.

(9) (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, renumbered from Paragraph 8, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) In the case of supplies under Article 25, paragraph 5, the taxable amount shall be established proportionately to the number of months in the respective calendar year compared to the total number of the months of supply, including the month in which supplies are terminated.

(10) (New, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) The taxable amount of the supply of goods and services provided against a multi-purpose voucher shall be equal to the amount paid for the voucher, or where there is no information about that amount, to the monetary value shown in the voucher itself or in the related documentation, excluding the tax hereunder on the goods and services supplied.

Special Cases of Determination of Taxable Amount

Article 27. (1) (Amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) The taxable amount of the supply of goods under Article 6 (3), to be determined at the beginning of the month of separation or supply of the goods, shall be the taxable amount upon acquisition or the cost of the goods, and in the cases of importation – the taxable amount upon importation less costs for wear and tear in line with the ordinary economic life of the goods. Where the taxable amount cannot be determined according to this procedure, the taxable amount shall be the market price.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014, supplemented, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016, amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) The taxable amount of the supply of services under Items 1 and 2 of Article 9 (3) herein shall be the amount of the direct costs incurred in connection with the performance of the said services. In determining the amount of the direct costs for the goods used, which are or could be fixed assets, a cost for their wear and tear shall be taken into account as part of the value of the taxable amount, for the tax charged on which a credit for input tax has been deducted, calculated for each tax period under the straight-line method for real estate over a period of 20 years, effective from the beginning of the tax period for which the right of tax credit has been exercised, respectively from the beginning of the tax period during which the actual use started in case the property is not used for more than one year after the tax period during which the right to tax credit was exercised, and for other goods for a period of 5 years, effective from the beginning of the tax period during which the right of tax credit was exercised. The costs for wear and tear in the case of existing rights in rem in respect of goods shall be determined for the period for which these rights have been established, but for no longer than the applicable number of years under the preceding sentence. The taxable amount of the supply of services under Item 3 of Article 9 (3) shall be the amount of the direct costs incurred for their supply, less costs for wear and tear in line with the ordinary economic life of the improvement of the leased or provided for use asset, and if the amount of the direct costs cannot be established, the taxable amount shall be the market price.

(3) The taxable amount shall be the market price in respect of the following supplies:

1. (amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) supply between related parties, where the taxable amount set out under Article 26 is:

(a) lower than the market price, the supply is chargeable and the recipient has no right to deduct credit for input tax or has the right to partially deduct credit for input tax, or the right to refund the tax paid under Article 81;

(b) lower than the market price, the supply is tax exempt and the recipient has no right to deduct credit for input tax or has the right to partially deduct credit for input tax, or the right to refund the tax paid under Article 81;

(c) higher than the market price, the supply is chargeable and the recipient has no right to deduct credit for input tax or has the right to partially deduct credit for input tax, or the right to refund the tax paid under Article 81;

2. (supplemented, SG No. 108/2007, repealed, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014);

3. (repealed, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013).

(4) (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) For supplies under contracts for concession of construction works, for service or for extraction/mining, where the consideration is determined wholly or partly in goods or services (payment shall be made wholly or partly in goods or services) at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event:

1. for the supply by the concession grantor to the concessionaire the taxable amount shall be the contracted consideration, including the one determined in goods and services, subject to compliance with the provisions of Article 26 (2), (3), (4) and (5); the consideration determined in goods and services shall be equal to the amount of the agreed investment, excluding the compensation, if such is due by the concession grantor to the concessionaire under the concession contract;

2. for the supply by the concessionaire to the concession grantor the taxable amount shall be the taxable amount upon acquisition or the cost of the granted goods, and where the goods are imported, it shall be equal to the taxable amount upon importation thereof or to the direct costs incurred for the provision of the service, and should it be impossible to determine it in such manner, the taxable amount shall be the market price of the goods or services provided.

(5) (New, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) The taxable amount of the supply of goods and/or services under Article 111, determined at the beginning of the month of termination of the registration of the person, shall be the taxable amount upon acquisition or the cost of the goods, and in the cases of importation - the taxable amount upon importation or the amount of direct costs incurred for the acquisition of the service, less costs for wear and tear in line with the ordinary economic life of the goods or services. (3) The tax upon an intra-European Union acquisition shall become chargeable on the 15th day of the month following the month during which the chargeable event occurs.

(4) (Supplemented, SG No. 108/2006) Notwithstanding Paragraph (3), the tax shall become chargeable on the date of issue of the invoice respectively the document under Article 168, paragraph 8, where the said invoice is issued before the 15th day of the month following the month during which the chargeable event occurs.

(5) Paragraph (4) shall not apply where the invoice is issued in connection with payment on the supply received before the date of occurrence of the chargeable event.

(6) (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) Upon supply with constant provision of goods under Article 7 (1) - (4) for a period exceeding one calendar month, the chargeable event shall occur at the end of each calendar month and in the calendar month of termination of the supplies the chargeable event shall occur on the date of termination of the supplies.

Taxable Amount of Intra-European Union Supplies

Article 52. (1) The taxable amount for intra-European Union acquisitions shall be determined according to the procedure established by Article 26 herein.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) The taxable amount in intra-Community supplies under Article 7 (4) shall be the taxable amount under Article 27 (1), increased in accordance with Article 26 (3).

(3) (Amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The taxable amount referred to in Paragraph (2) shall not be credited with the value of the services covered under Article 21, paragraph 2 herein, whereof the place of transaction is within the territory of the country, for which the person registered under this Act is obliged to charge tax as a payer covered under Article 82 (2) herein.

(4) (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) Upon supplies under Article 51 (6) the taxable amount for each calendar month shall be determined in proportion to the number of days included in the respective calendar month against the total number of performance of the supply, including the days of the month of termination of the supplies.

Rate of Tax and Documenting of Intra-European Union Supplies

Article 53. (1) The intra-European Union supplies referred to in Article 7 herein, with the exception of the exempt intra-European Union supplies referred to in Article 38 (2) herein, shall be liable to tax at the zero rate.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) In order to apply a zero rate under Paragraph 1, the supplier shall have:

1. documents for the supply determined by the Regulations for Application of this Act, and

2. (supplemented, SG No. 102/2019, effective 1.01.2020) documents for the dispatch or transportation of the goods from the territory of the country to the territory of another Member State, laid down in Article 45a of Council Implementing Regulation (EU) 102 of 2019 December 1.01.2020 amending Implementing Regulation (EU) No. 2018/1912 as regards certain exemptions for intra-Community transactions (OJ, L 4 of 2018 December 282/2011), hereinafter referred to as "Implementing Regulation (EU) No. 311/10" or determined by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

(3) If the supplier fails to obtain the documents referred to in Paragraph (2) prior to the lapse of the calendar month succeeding the calendar month during which the tax on the supply became chargeable, Paragraph (1) shall not apply. If the supplier obtains the documents referred to in Paragraph (1) subsequently, the supplier shall adjust the result of the application of this Paragraph according to a procedure established by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

PART THREE

TAXATION OF IMPORTS

Chargeable Event for Importation

Article 54. (1) (Amended, SG No. 58/2016, replacing "вносни митни сборове" by "вносни мита" does not effect the English text) The chargeable event for importation of goods shall occur and the tax shall become chargeable on the date on which the obligation to pay import duty within the territory of the country arises, or should have arisen, including where such an obligation does not exist or the rate of the said obligation is zero.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 58/2016, replacing "вносни митни сборове" by "вносни мита" does not effect the English text) Where an obligation to pay import duty within the territory of the country does not arise upon importation of goods under Article 16 (3) herein, the chargeable event shall occur and the tax shall become chargeable on the date on which the customs formalities are completed.

Taxable Amount

Article 55. (1) (Amended, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) The taxable amount upon importation under Article 16 herein shall be the value for customs purposes credited with, to the extent the following are not included in it:

1. (amended, SG No. 58/2016) the taxes, duties, imposts and other charges due outside the territory of the country, as well as customs duties, excise duties and other charges due by reason of importation into the territory of the country;

2. (amended, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015) the expenses linked to the importation, such as commission, packing, transport and insurance costs, incurred up to the first place of destination of the goods within the territory of the country.

(2) The taxable amount shall furthermore be credited with any costs referred to in Item 2 of Paragraph (1) where the said costs result from transport of the goods from the territory of the country to the territory of another Member State, if the documents accompanying the goods show that the goods are intended for that other Member State.

(3) When goods have been temporarily exported from the territory of the country to a place outside the territory of the European Union for treatment, processing or repair under the outward processing procedure and are re-imported into the territory of the country, the taxable amount shall be the value of the treatment, processing or repair, credited according to the procedure established by Paragraph (1).

(4) The taxable amount under the Paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) shall not include the trade discount or rebate, if allowed to the recipient not later than the date of occurrence of the chargeable event.

(5) Upon importation of goods under Article 16 (3) herein, the taxable amount shall be determined according to the procedure established by Article 26 herein.

Charging of Tax upon Importation by Customs Authorities

Article 56. The tax upon importation under Article 16 herein shall be charged by the customs authorities, with the amount of tax being accounted for according to the procedure established for the customs debt.

30. publications containing tourist information are being imported;
31. fuel and lubrication materials, contained in the standard tanks of the terrestrial motor vehicles and in special containers, are being imported;
32. goods are imported by organizations duly authorized for that purpose by the competent authorities for use during construction, maintenance or decoration of cemeteries, graves and monuments of war victims from a third country and buried in the European Union.

(15) (New, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) Tax-exempt shall be the importation from other territories, the imports of which from third countries would have been exempt on the grounds of Article 14.

(16) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 1.01.2021) When the European Commission or an agency or a body established under the European Union law, when importing the goods under Item 2, littera "d" of Paragraph (1) does not have written documents certifying that the import of the goods is in discharge of tasks assigned thereto under the European Union law, or that the goods will be used immediately or at a later date by the European Commission or such agency or body for subsequent supplies for remuneration, the import tax shall become chargeable by the European Commission or an agency or a body established under the European Union law.

(17) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 1.01.2021) Where the conditions for exemption provided for in Item 2, littera "d" of Paragraph (1) cease to apply, the European Commission or the relevant agency or body shall inform the party that the exemption applied to imports of those goods is subject to taxation under the conditions applicable at that time.

Provision of Security in Respect of Tax upon Importation

Article 59. (1) (Amended, SG No. 58/2016) Where provision of security in respect of customs duties is not required or is required according to customs legislation, security shall not be provided or shall be provided in respect of the tax in accordance with the amounts specified in customs legislation and according to the procedure established for provision of security in respect of customs duties.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) Where an obligation to pay interest on import duties on a customs debt arises according to the customs legislation, an obligation to pay interest on the uncollected tax shall arise as well.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 58/2016) Any person, who has been granted authorisation to manage facilities for customs warehousing according to the procedure established by customs legislation, shall be solidarily liable with the depositor of the goods in the warehouse for the tax due upon removal of the goods from customs supervision during the storage thereof in the warehouse.

(4) Where exemption from tax is provided for according to the procedure established by Article 173 (1) herein upon importation of motor vehicles and the said vehicles remain under customs supervision, such exemption from tax shall furthermore apply if the motor vehicles, imported by any persons enjoying privileges according to the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations, consular conventions or other international treaties whereto the Republic of Bulgaria is a party, were subject to misappropriation or theft within the period of customs supervision and this has been established by the competent authorities according to the procedure provided for this.

Payment of Tax upon Importation

Article 60. (1) (Amended, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, SG No. 58/2016) The tax charged by the customs authorities shall be remitted to Executive Budget Revenue according to the procedure and within the time limits provided for payment of import duties.

(2) The tax charged by the customs authorities upon importation into the territory of the country may not be set off against other receivables by the revenue or customs authorities.

(3) (New, SG No. 108/2007, amended, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, SG No. 58/2016) In case of import under Article 16 under a regime "temporary importation with partial exemption from import duty" the tax charged by the customs authorities shall be remitted to Executive Budget Revenue before the release of the goods.

Release of Goods

Article 61. The customs authorities shall release the goods after payment of the tax charged or after provision of security in respect of the said tax according to the procedure established for the customs debt, save in the cases where the tax is charged by the importer.

PART FOUR

TAXATION OF INTRA-COMMUNITY ACQUISITION

Place of Supply of Intra-European Union Acquisition

Article 62. (1) The place of supply of an intra-European Union acquisition shall be the territory of the country, where the goods arrive and the transport thereof ends within the territory of the country.

(2) Notwithstanding Paragraph (1), the place of supply of the intra-European Union acquisition shall be the territory of the country, where the person acquiring the goods is registered under this Act and made the acquisition of the said goods under an identification number issued in the country.

(3) Paragraph (2) shall not apply where the person holds proof that an intra-European Union acquisition of the goods has been subject to tax in the Member State where the goods have arrived or the transport thereof has ended.

(4) If the intra-European Union acquisition is subject to tax according to Paragraph (2) and the person subsequently establishes that this intra-European Union acquisition has been subject to tax as well in the Member State where the goods arrive or where the transport thereof ends, the person shall adjust the result of the application of Paragraph (2).

(5) Notwithstanding Paragraph (2), the place of supply of the intra-European Union acquisition shall be the Member State where the goods arrive or where the transport thereof ends, where the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled:

1. the intermediary in a triangular operation acquires goods under the identification number thereof referred to in Article 94 (2) herein;
2. the person referred to in Item 1 effects a subsequent supply of the goods to the acquirer in the triangular operation;
3. the person referred to in Item 1 issues an invoice on the supply referred to in Item 2, satisfying the requirements of Article 114 herein, stating therein that the said person is an intermediary in a triangular operation and that the acquirer in the triangular operation is the person liable for the tax due on the supply;
4. the person referred to in Item 1 declares the supply referred to in Item 2 in the VIES return for the relevant tax period.

(6) The documents certifying the circumstances covered under Paragraphs (3), (4) and (5), and the procedure for effecting the adjustment under Paragraph (4), shall be specified by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

Chargeable Event and Chargeability of Tax upon Intra-European Union Acquisition

Article 63. (1) The chargeable event upon an intra-European Union acquisition shall occur on the date on which the chargeable event would have occurred upon a supply within the territory of the country.

- (2) The chargeable event upon an intra-European Union acquisition referred to in Article 13 (3) herein shall occur on the date on which the transport of the goods ends within the territory of the country.
- (3) The tax upon an intra-European Union acquisition shall become chargeable on the 15th day of the month following the month during which the chargeable event occurs.
- (4) (Amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Regardless of paragraph 3, the tax shall become due and payable on the date of issue of the invoice, and when there is no obligation to issue an invoice – on the date of issue of the document certifying the acquisition of a new vehicle, where they are issued before the 15th day of the month following the month in which the chargeable event occurs.
- (5) (Amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Paragraph 4 shall not apply where the invoice or the document certifying the acquisition of a new vehicle is issued in connection with a payment made prior to the date of occurrence of the chargeable event.
- (6) (New, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) Upon uninterrupted supply of goods under Article 13 (1) - (3) with a period of duration exceeding one calendar month, the chargeable event shall occur at the end of each calendar month, and for the calendar month of termination of the supplies the chargeable event shall occur on the date of termination of the supplies.

Taxable Amount for Intra-European Union Acquisition

- Article 64. (1) The taxable amount for an intra-European Union acquisition shall be determined according to the procedure established by Article 26 herein.
- (2) The taxable amount for an intra-European Union acquisition referred to in Article 13 (3) herein shall be equal to the taxable amount formed for the purposes of the intra-European Union acquisition in the Member State from which the goods were dispatched or transported.
- (3) The taxable amount for an intra-European Union acquisition of excisable goods shall also include the excise duty due or paid on the goods in the Member State from which the goods were dispatched or transported. If after acquisition the excise duty is refundable to the recipient, the taxable amount shall be debited according to a procedure established by the Regulations for Application of this Act.
- (4) (Amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The taxable amount referred to in Paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) shall not include the taxable amount of the services covered under Article 21, paragraph 2 herein whereof the place of transaction is within the territory of the country, in respect of which the person registered under this Act is obliged to charge the tax as a person covered under Article 82 (2) herein.
- (5) (New, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) In case of supplies under Article 63 (6) herein, the taxable amount for each calendar month shall be determined pro rata to the days included in the respective calendar month against the total number of days of performance of the supply, including the days of the month of termination of the supply.

Intra-Community Acquisition at the Zero Tax Rate

Article 64a. (New, SG No. 107/2020, effective from 1.01.2021 till 31.12.2022) Intra-Community acquisitions of goods shall be liable to tax at the zero rate whereof the place of transaction is within the territory of the country, whose supply within the territory of the country is specified in Article 36b.

Exempt Intra-European Union Acquisitions

- Article 65. (1) Exemption from tax shall be granted in respect of any intra-European Union acquisitions of goods whereof the place of transaction is within the territory of the country, whose supply within the territory of the country is among those specified in Chapter Four herein.
- (2) Exemption from tax shall be granted in respect of any intra-European Union acquisitions, whereof the place of transaction is within the territory of the country, of goods:
1. (repealed, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022);

2. (amended, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) the importation of which into the territory of the country would be exempted from tax according to the procedure established by Article 58 herein, with the exception of the importation of goods under Article 58 Paragraph 1, Item 6;
3. (supplemented, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) where the recipients are institutions of the European Union, European Atomic Energy Community, European Central Bank, European Investment Bank or by the authorities of the European Union to which the Protocol of Privileges and Immunities of the European Union is applicable, subject to the restrictions and terms and conditions of this same protocol and the agreements for its application or the agreements on the headquarters and provided that this does not result in violation of the fair competition practices;
4. from an intermediary in a triangular operation, who is a person registered for VAT purposes in another Member State.

PART FOUR "A"

(New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020)

SUCCESSIVE SUPPLIES OF GOODS

Defining the Intra-Community Supply in Successive Supplies of Goods

Article 65a. (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) The supplies of the same goods within a chain, including an intermediary operator, which are dispatched or transported from one Member State to another Member State directly by the first supplier to the final recipient in the chain shall be successive supplies of the goods.

(2) An intermediary operator under Paragraph 1 within a chain of successive supplies of goods, other than the first supplier in the chain, who dispatches or transports the goods either himself or through a third party acting on his behalf.

(3) In the cases under Paragraph 1, for the purposes of Article 53, dispatch or transport shall be ascribed only to the supply effected to the intermediary operator.

(4) Where the intermediary operator has communicated to his supplier the VAT identification number issued to him by the Member State from which the goods are dispatched or transported, for the purposes of Article 53, regardless of Paragraph 3, the dispatch or transport thereof shall be ascribed only to the supply of the goods effected by the intermediary operator.

(5) The place of transaction of the other supplies within the chain shall be determined as follows:

1. of the supplies effected before the supply for which the dispatch or transport of the goods refers – the place of transaction shall be in the Member State from which the goods were dispatched or transported;

2. of the supplies effected after the supply for which the dispatch or transport of the goods refers – the place of transaction shall be in the Member State to which the goods arrived or their transport ended.

(6) Where an obligation to register for VAT purposes arises for any of the suppliers in the Member State where the place of transaction of the supply under Paragraph 5 takes place, the rules of the said Member State shall apply.

PART FIVE

RATES OF TAX AND ASSESSMENT OF TAX LIABILITY

RATES OF TAX

Standard rate of tax

Article 66. (Amended, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.04.2011, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012, amended and supplemented, SG No. 55/2020, effective 1.07.2020, SG No. 71/2020, effective from 1.08.2020 to 31.12.2022, supplemented, SG No. 104/2020, effective from 1.12.2020 to 31.12.2022, amended, SG No. 111/2021, effective 1.01.2022, SG No. 52/2022, effective 1.07.2022) (1) The standard rate of tax shall be 20 per cent of taxable supplies with place of transaction within the territory of the country, except those expressly specified as taxable at a reduced or zero rate of tax.

(2) The rate of tax referred to in Paragraph 1 shall furthermore apply to importation of goods into the territory of the country, and on taxable intra-Community acquisitions in the territory of the country, except those expressly specified as taxable at a reduced or zero rate of tax.

Reduced rate of tax

Article 66a. (New, SG No. 52/2022, effective 1.07.2022, amended, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) The rate of tax shall be 9 per cent applicable to:

1. the supply of accommodation services provided in hotels and similar establishments, including the provision of holiday accommodation and the rental of places for camping or caravans, with a place of performance in the territory of the country;
2. the supply of books on a physical medium or by electronic means, or both (including textbooks, knowledge books and textbooks, children's picture books, drawing or colouring books, printed or handwritten notebooks), periodicals like newspapers and magazines, on a physical medium or by electronic means, or both, other than publications which are wholly or mainly intended for advertising, and other than publications which are wholly or mainly composed of video content or audio-musical content;
3. the supply of foodstuffs suitable for babies or young children, baby diapers and similar baby hygiene items in accordance with Annex No. 4.

Exemption with the right to deduct tax credit by applying a zero tax rate

Article 66b. (New, SG No. 52/2022, effective 1.07.2022) A zero rate of tax shall apply to supplies with place of transaction within the territory of the country, as referred to in Chapter Three, Articles 53, 64a, 140, 146 and 173.

Amount of Tax

Article 67. (1) The amount of tax shall be determined by multiplying the taxable amount by the rate of tax.

(2) Where upon contracting a supply the tax was not expressly stated as due separately, the said tax shall be presumed to be included in the agreed price.

(3) The tax shall furthermore be presumed to be included in the named price where goods subject to a supply are offered in the retail network.

CREDIT FOR INPUT TAX

Credit for Input Tax and Right to Deduct Credit for Input Tax

Article 68. (1) "Credit for input tax" shall be the amount of tax which a registered person has the right to deduct from the tax liabilities thereof under this Act in respect of:

1. goods or services received thereby in a taxable supply;
2. a payment effected thereby prior to the occurrence of the chargeable event for a taxable supply;
3. importation effected thereby;
4. the tax chargeable therefrom as a payer under Chapter Eight herein.

(2) The credit for input tax shall become deductible where the tax subject to deduction becomes chargeable.

(3) In the cases of legal succession under Article 10 herein, the credit for input tax shall become deductible:

1. (supplemented, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) on the date of entry of the circumstance referred to in Article 10 in the Commercial Register and the Register of Non-Profit Legal Entities, where the successor is a person registered under that Act;

2. on the date of registration under Article 132 (3) herein.

(4) In the cases referred to in Article 116 (2) herein, credit for input tax shall become deductible on the date of issue of the new tax document.

(5) In the cases referred to in Article 131 herein, credit for input tax shall become deductible on the date of issue of the document referred to in Item 2 of Article 131 (1) herein.

(6) (New, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) The right to deduct credit for input tax for received goods or services in respect whereof the value added tax cash accounting special regime applies shall arise when the deductible tax becomes chargeable.

Supplies Conferring Right to Deduct Credit for Input Tax

Article 69. (1) Where the goods and services are used for the purposes of the taxable supplies effected by the registered person, the person shall have the right to deduct credit for:

1. the tax in respect of goods or services which the supplier, who is a person registered under this Act, has supplied or is to supply to the said person;

2. the tax charged upon importation of goods under Articles 56 and 57 herein;

3. the tax chargeable therefrom as a payer under Chapter Eight herein.

(2) For the purposes of Paragraph (1), the following shall furthermore be considered taxable supplies:

1. the supplies within the framework of the economic activity of the registered person, whereof the place of transaction is outside the territory of the country but which would have been taxable if effected within the territory of the country;

2. the supplies of financial services under Article 46 herein and of insurance services under Article 47 herein, where the recipient of the services is established outside the European Union or where the supplies of such services are directly linked with goods for which the conditions of Article 28 herein are fulfilled.

Block on the Right to Deduct Credit for Input Tax

Article 70. (1) The right to deduct credit for input tax shall not be exercisable even though the conditions under Articles 69 or 74 herein are fulfilled, where:

1. the goods or services are intended for effecting of any exempt supplies under Chapter Four herein;

2. (amended, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) the goods or services are intended for supplies effected free of charge or for activities other than the economic activity of the person;

3. the goods or services are intended for business entertainment purposes;

4. (amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) a motorcycle or a passenger car has been acquired, or imported;

5. (amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) the goods or services are intended for maintenance, repair, improvement and operation of motorcycles and passenger cars referred to in Item 4, including for spare parts, supply of fuel and lubricant materials;

6. the goods have been confiscated, or the building has been demolished as unlawfully constructed.

(2) Items 4 and 5 of Paragraph (1) shall not apply where:

1. the means of transport referred to in Item 4 of Paragraph (1) are used solely for transport and security services, taxi transport, rental, courier services or motor vehicle driving instruction, including upon their subsequent resale;

2. the means of transport referred to in Item 4 of Paragraph (1) are intended solely for resale (merchandise in stock);

3. the goods or services are intended solely for re-sale (merchandise in stock), including after processing;
4. the goods or services are linked to the maintenance, repair, improvement or operation of the means of transport referred to in Item 1;
5. (new, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) the vehicles under Item 4 of Paragraph (1) and the goods or services under Item 5 of Paragraph (1) shall furthermore be used in activities other than those referred to in Items 1 - 4 in the cases where one or more of the activities referred to in Items 1 - 4 comprise core activity for the person; in these cases the right to deduct credit for input tax shall be in place from the beginning of the month following the month for which the core activity requirement is complied with.

(3) Item 2 of Paragraph (1) shall not apply to:

1. (amended and supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) the special-purpose, working, uniform or presentable clothing and the products for personal protection means provided, free of charge, by an employer to the factory and office workers thereof, including such under management contracts, for the purposes of the economic activity of the said employer;
2. the provision, free of charge, of transport services from the place of residence to the place of work and back, by an employer to the factory and office workers thereof, including such under management contracts, for the purposes of the economic activity of the said employer;
3. (amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) the goods or services used in the free of charge performance of services by a tenant/user for repair of an asset hired out or allocated for use;
4. (amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) the goods or services used in the free of charge performance of services by a tenant/user for improvement of an asset hired out or allocated for use;
5. the provision, free of charge, of goods or services of negligible value for advertising purposes and upon distribution of samples;
6. the food and/or food additives which are provided according to the procedure established by Article 285 of the Labour Code;
7. the transport and overnight stays of persons seconded by the person;
8. the goods or services used in connection with the performance of warranty services under Article 129 herein;
9. (new, SG No. 88/2016, effective 1.01.2017) free of charge provision of goods under Item 4 of Article 6 (4).

(4) (Supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021, supplemented, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) Any person registered in pursuance of Articles 97a, 99 (1) – (6) and Article 100 (2) or a person established on the territory of the country and registered only under Article 156 shall have no right to credit for input tax.

(5) The right to credit for input tax shall not be exercisable in respect of any mischarged tax.

Conditions for Exercise of Right to Deduct Credit for Input Tax

Article 71. The person shall exercise the right thereof to deduct credit for input tax where one of the following conditions is fulfilled:

1. the said person holds a tax document drawn up in accordance with the requirements of Articles 114 and 115 herein, wherein the tax is indicated on a separate line: in respect of supplies of goods or services for which the person is a recipient;
2. (amended, SG No. 108/2006, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019, supplemented, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) the said person has issued a memorandum under Article 117 or Article 163b (2) and has complied with the requirements of Article 86 – in the cases where the tax is chargeable on the person as a payer under Article 82 with the exception of Item 1 of Paragraph 6; in the cases under Article 161 or 163a, where the supplier is a taxable person, the recipient must possess a tax document, drawn up in compliance with the requirements of Articles 114 and 115, wherein the respective grounds for not charging of tax is specified;

3. (amended, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011, supplemented, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) the said person holds a customs document for importation wherein the person is specified as importer and a document, a copy of a document or a document proving that the tax has been remitted under the procedure set out in Article 90 (1) herein: in the cases of importation under Article 16 herein;
4. (amended, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011, supplemented, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) the said person holds a customs document for importation wherein the person is specified as importer, has issued a memorandum under Article 117 herein, and has complied with the requirements of Article 86 herein: in the cases under Article 57 (1) and (4) herein;
5. the said person holds a document which satisfies the requirements of Article 114 herein, has issued a memorandum under Article 117 herein, and has complies with the requirements of Article 86 herein: in the cases of an intra-European Union acquisition;
6. the said person holds a document referred to in Item 2 of Article 131 (1) herein;
7. the said person holds the documents specified in the Regulations for Application of this Act: in the cases of legal succession under Article 10 herein;
8. (new, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) the said person holds a tax document referred to in Item 1 herein and a document for effected payment via bank transfer, including credit transfer, direct debit or cash transfer effected through a payment service provider within the meaning of the Payment Services and Payment Systems Act, or via postal transfer effected through a licensed postal operator making money transfers within the meaning of the Postal Services Act, and a memorandum under Article 151c (8) for supplies in respect whereof the supplier applies chapter seventeen "a";
9. (new, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) the said person holds a tax document referred to in Item 1 herein and a document for effected payment via bank transfer, including credit transfer, direct debit or cash transfer effected through a payment service provider within the meaning of the Payment Services and Payment Systems Act, or via postal transfer effected through a licensed postal operator making money transfers within the meaning of the Postal Services Act, and which has issued a memorandum under Article 151d (8) for supplies in respect whereof the supplier does not apply chapter seventeen "a";
10. (new, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.07.2019) the said person holds a customs document for importation wherein the person is specified as importer, and has complied with the requirements of Article 57 (6) herein – in the cases under Article 57 (5) herein;
11. (new, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) the said person holds a customs document for re-export, has issued a memorandum under Article 117 herein, and has complied with the requirements of Article 86 herein in the cases under Item 1 of Article 82 (6) herein.

Right to credit for input tax in proportion to the degree of use for independent economic activity on the acquisition or construction of real estate

Article 71a. (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) (1) For tax charged upon the acquisition or construction of immovable property that is to be used both for independent economic activity and for the personal needs of the taxable person or for the needs of the owner, its employees, or more generally for purposes other than its independent economic activity, the person has the right to deduct credit for input tax in accordance with the rules of this chapter only for the portion of the tax charged thereon corresponding to the use of the immovable property for independent economic activity.

(2) The portion of the charged tax under Paragraph (1), corresponding to the use of the property for independent economic activity, shall be determined in proportion to the degree of use of the immovable property for independent economic activity, and the charged tax on the acquisition or construction of the immovable property shall be multiplied by the proportion of its expected use for independent economic activity in its common use both for both independent economic activity and for purposes other than the independent economic activity, calculated to the second digit of the decimal point.

(3) The registered person is entitled to a partial tax credit under Article 73 for the deductible tax determined under the terms of paragraph 2 in respect of immovable properties, which, within the framework of its independent economic activity, are used thereby both for effecting supplies for which it has the right to deduct credit for input tax, and for supplies or activities for which it has no such right.

(4) The proportion referred to in paragraph 2 shall be determined by applying of a criterion for allocation, which ensures most accurate calculation of the amount of the tax corresponding to the use of the immovable property for independent economic activity, taking into account the specifics of the property.

(5) Paragraphs 1 – 4 shall furthermore apply to a right in rem to an immovable property established in favour of the registered person, which property is to be used both for independent economic activity and for its personal needs or for the needs of the owner, its/his employees, or more generally for purposes other than its/his independent economic activity.

(6) Upon acquisition or construction of an immovable property the registered person shall consider whether to include in its assets the entire property or part thereof which can be separated and distinguished. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to the part of the property not included in the economic assets.

Right to Credit for Input Tax in Proportion to the Degree of Use for Independent Economic Activity in Manufacture, Acquisition Or Importation Of Goods Other Than Immovables Properties, Which Are or Would Be Fixed Assets

Article 71b. (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) For goods other than immovable properties, which are or would be fixed assets and which are to be used by a registered person for both independent economic activity and for its personal use or for the needs of the owner, its/his employees, or more generally for purposes other than its/his independent economic activity, the person shall apply the provisions of Article 71a, paragraphs 1 – 5.

Period of Exercisability of Right to Deduct Credit for Input Tax

Article 72. (1) (Amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) A person registered under this Act may exercise the right thereof to deduct credit for input tax for the tax period during which the said credit becomes deductible or during one of the 12 succeeding tax periods.

(2) The right referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be exercised by the person by means of:

1. including the amount of the credit for input tax upon assessment of the net tax for the tax period under Paragraph (1) in the VAT return under Article 125 for the same tax period;
2. indicating the document under Article 71 herein in the purchase day book under Article 124 herein for the tax period referred to in Item 1.

Right to Deduct Partial Credit for Input Tax

Article 73. (1) A registered person shall have the right to deduct a partial credit for input tax in respect of the tax on goods or services which are used for effecting of both supplies in respect of which credit for input tax is deductible and of supplies or activities in respect of which such a credit is not deductible.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016) The amount of the partial credit for input tax shall be determined by multiplying the amount of the credit for input tax by a factor rounded up to the second decimal place, made up of a fraction having, as numerator, the turnover attributable to the supplies in respect of which credit for input tax is deductible and, as denominator, the turnover attributable to all supplies and activities effected by the person.

(3) The turnover attributable to supplies in respect of which credit for input tax is deductible shall include:

1. the taxable amounts of the taxable supplies effected by the person;
2. the taxable amounts of the payments received by the person in respect of which the tax became chargeable before occurrence of the chargeable event for a taxable supply;

3. the taxable amounts of the supplies effected by the person whereof the place of transaction is outside the territory of the country, treated as equivalent to taxable supplies according to Article 69 (2) herein, with the exception of the supplies whereof the place of supply is outside the territory of the country, effected from a fixed establishment of the person outside the territory of the country;
 4. the taxable amounts of the payments received by the person before effecting of the supplies referred to in Item 3;
 5. (amended, SG No. 108/2006) the tax base of the deliveries of goods or services, for which the right of deducting tax credit under Article 70, paragraph 1, sub-paragraphs 3 - 5, has not been exercised.
- (4) The turnover attributable to all supplies and activities of the person shall include:
1. the turnover referred to in Paragraph (3);
 2. the taxable amounts of the supplies effected by the person whereof the place of transaction is outside the territory of the country, which are not treated as equivalent to taxable supplies within the meaning given by Article 69 (2) herein, with the exception of any supplies effected from a fixed establishment by the person outside the territory of the country;
 3. (amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) the taxable amounts of the exempt supplies effected, with the exception of any supplies referred to in Item 2 of Article 50 (1) herein;
 4. (supplemented, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) the value of the supplies and activities outside the economic activity of the person, with the exception of those for which no credit for input tax is deducted on the grounds of Article 71a and Article 71b;
 5. the taxable amounts of the payments received by the person before effecting the supplies and the activities referred to in Items 2, 3 and 4 herein;
 6. the amount of the subsidies received other than those included in the taxable amount.
- (5) The factor shall be calculated on the basis of the turnovers referred to in Paragraphs (3) and (4) for the entire preceding calendar year and, where there are no such turnovers for the preceding calendar year, on the basis of the turnovers referred to in Paragraphs (3) and (4) for the tax period during which credit for input tax becomes deductible.
- (6) The right to partial credit for input tax under Paragraph (2) shall be recalculated during the last tax period of the current calendar year on the basis of the parameters covered under Paragraphs (3) and (4) for the current calendar year.
- (7) In the cases of deregistration, the amount of the partial credit for input tax under Paragraph (2) shall be recalculated at the end of the last tax period on the basis of the parameters under Paragraphs (3) and (4) in respect of the part of the current calendar year during which the person was not registered.
- (8) The difference resulting from the recalculation under Paragraphs (6) and (7) shall be included as an adjustment (upwards or downwards) in the amount of the credit for input tax in the VAT return for the last tax period.

Right to Deduct Credit for Input Tax Where the Tax is Chargeable on the Recipient/Importer

- Article 73a. (New, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) (1) (Amended, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) In case of supplies the tax on which is chargeable on the recipient, the right to deduct credit for input tax shall furthermore exist where the recipient has not complied with the requirements of Article 72 and/or where the supplier of the good has not issued a document, and/or the recipient does not hold a document under Items 2, 4, 5 and 10 of Article 71, if the supply has not been concealed and data on it is available in the accounts of the recipient.
- (2) In the cases under Paragraph (1) the right to deduct credit for input tax shall be exercised during the tax period in which the tax has become chargeable, applying Item 2 of Article 126 (3) mutatis mutandis.

Right to Deduct Credit for Input Tax for Production, Acquisition Or Importation of Goods or Receipt of Services Which Are Not or Would Not Be Fixed Assets

Article 73b. (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) For goods or services which are not or would not be fixed assets, a registered person may exercise the right of tax credit for the amount of the tax corresponding to the use of the goods or services in the framework of the independent economic activity for carrying out supplies in respect of which it has the right to deduct credit for input tax and shall determine by a reasonable method that amount when using the goods or services:

1. for independent economic activity and for its/his personal use or for the needs of the owner, its/his employees, or more generally for purposes other than its/his independent economic activity, and/or
2. within the framework of the independent economic activity for effecting supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax, and for supplies or activities in respect of which he/it has no such right, and not applying Article 73.

Right to Deduct Credit for Input Tax for Assets Available and Services Received before Registration Date

Article 74. (1) (Amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) A registered person under Articles 96, 97, Article 100, paragraph 1, Articles 102, 132 or 132a herein shall have the right to deduct credit for input tax in respect of any assets, within the meaning given by the Accountancy Act, which were purchased or otherwise acquired or imported prior to the date of registration of the said person under this Act, which are available at the date of registration.

(2) The credit referred to in Paragraph (1) shall become deductible solely in respect of assets available at the date of registration, in respect of which the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled:

1. the requirements of Articles 69 and 71 herein are satisfied;
2. the supplier was a person registered under this Act at the date of issue of the tax document and the supply was taxable at that date;
3. (amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013, repealed, SG No. 92/2017, effective 1.01.2018);
4. (amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) the assets were acquired by the person within five years and, applicable to immovable property, within 20 years before the date of registration under this Act.

(3) Any registered person referred to in Paragraph (1) shall furthermore have the right to deduct credit for input tax in respect of any services received before the date of registration of the said person under this Act, where the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled:

1. the services are directly linked with the registration of the person according to the procedure established by the Commerce Act;
2. the services were received not earlier than one month before registration of the person under the Commerce Act;
3. the person has submitted an application for registration under this Act within 30 days after recording of the person in the register referred to in Article 82 of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code;
4. the person holds an invoice under Item 1 of Article 71 herein in respect of the services received;
5. the supplier of the services was a person registered under this Act at the date of issue of the tax document and the supply was taxable at the said date;
6. (amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013, repealed, SG No. 92/2017, effective 1.01.2018).

(4) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) For available goods of a registered person under paragraph 1, which are or would be fixed assets and which are used both for independent economic activity and for its/his personal needs or the needs of the owner, its/his employees, or more generally for purposes other than its/his independent economic activity, the right to credit for input tax under paragraph 2 shall arise under the terms and conditions of Articles 71a and 71b.

Accrual and Exercise of Right to Deduct Credit for Input Tax in Respect of Available Assets and Services Received before Registration

Article 75. (1) Credit for input tax under Article 74 herein shall become deductible on the date of registration under this Act.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014, SG No. 92/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The right to deduct credit for input tax under Paragraph 1 shall be exercised in the tax period in which it occurred or in one of the following consecutive twelve tax periods, and the documents under Article 71 shall be recorded in the purchases day book together with the tax base and tax corresponding to the available assets or the received services.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013, repealed, SG No. 92/2017, effective 1.01.2018).

Right to Deduct Credit for Input Tax upon Re-registration

Article 76. (1) Any registered person shall have the right to deduct the tax charged upon deregistration of the said person under this Act in respect of the taxed assets under Item 1 of Article 111 (1) herein, which are available at the date of the subsequent registration of the said person.

(2) The right referred to in Paragraph (1) shall accrue where the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled:

1. the assets, within the meaning given by the Accountancy Act, available at the date of the subsequent registration under this Act, were taxed upon the deregistration according to the procedure established by Item 1 of Article 111 (1) herein;
2. (supplemented, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) the tax charged at the date of deregistration is effectively paid or is deducted by the revenue authority, except for the cases where the subsequent registration of the person is within the time limit for payment of the tax for the last tax period;
3. the available assets referred to in Item 1 were, are, or will be used by the person for effecting of taxable supplies within the meaning given by Article 69 herein;
4. (amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013, repealed, SG No. 92/2017, effective 1.01.2018);
5. (amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) the assets referred to in Item 1 were acquired by the person within five years and, in respect of immovable property, within 20 years before the date of re-registration under this Act.

(3) (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) In the cases under Article 111, paragraph 2, item 5, the registered person shall have the right to deduct the tax credit for the assets purchased or acquired in any other way or deposited within the meaning of the Accountancy Act after the date of deregistration, which are available as at the date of the subsequent registration. The right to tax credit shall occur under the terms and conditions set out in Article 74, paragraph 2.

Accrual and Exercise of Right to Deduct Charged Tax in Connection with Deregistration under this Act and Subsequent Registration of Person

Article 77. (1) Credit for input tax under Article 76 herein shall become deductible on the date of re-registration under this Act.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014, SG No. 92/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The right to deduct credit for input tax under Paragraph 1 shall be exercised in the tax period in which it occurred or in one of the following consecutive twelve tax periods, and the document whereby tax was charged upon the deregistration shall be recorded in the purchases day book together with the tax base and tax corresponding to the available assets.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013, repealed, SG No. 92/2017, effective 1.01.2018).

Adjustments to Credit for Input Tax Used

(Title amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017)

Article 78. (1) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Credit for input tax shall be the amount of tax that a person registered under this Act has deducted in the year of the exercise of the right to credit for input tax.

(2) (Renumbered from Paragraph 1, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017, supplemented, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) Any registered person shall adjust the amount of the credit for input tax used upon any change of the taxable amount of the supply or upon rescission of the supply, as well as upon any change of the type of the supply. Any registered person who is a recipient of a supply shall adjust the amount of the credit for input tax used upon a decrease of the taxable amount of the supply and upon charged tax on the supply under Article 126a.

(3) (Renumbered from Paragraph 2, amended and supplemented, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017, amended, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) The adjustment under paragraph 2, first sentence, shall be carried out in the tax period when the respective circumstance occurred, by recording the document referred to in Article 115 or the cancelled document under Article 116 in the purchase day book and in the VAT return for the relevant tax period. The adjustment under Paragraph (2), second sentence, shall be carried out for the tax period of receipt of the credit note issued by the supplier under Article 126b(1).

(4) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) The registered person shall adjust the amount of the credit for input tax used upon rescission of a supply for which an invoice for advance payment is issued in the tax period when the supply is rescinded, in accordance with a procedure laid down in the implementing regulations of this Act, regardless of whether the amount paid in advance was refunded, set-off or otherwise settled against compensation, or whether the supplier has issued a credit advice thereto.

(5) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017, supplemented, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) Paragraphs (2) and (4) shall furthermore apply where the registration of the supplier or the recipient is terminated under this Act.

(6) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Adjustments under Article 79 (1), Articles 79a and 79b in the case of operating lease contract to which Item 3 of Article 6 (2) has been applied, shall be made by the lessee.

(7) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) The adjustments under Articles 79, 79a and 79b in the cases of a service supplied under Item 4, littera "b" of Article 9 (2) for consideration shall be made by the lessor or by the person having granted the right of use of the asset.

(8) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) The adjustments under Articles 79, 79a and 79b in the cases of a service supplied under Item 3 of Article 9 (3) shall be made by the tenant/user.

(9) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) For the purposes of Paragraphs 7 and 8, the adjustments shall be made in accordance with the type of the leased asset.

(10) (New, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) Where a registered person makes a payment in full or in part for a supply for which an adjustment has been made under the second sentence of Paragraph(2) or otherwise repays the obligation for the supply in full or in part against compensation, he shall be entitled to a tax credit, provided that he holds a debit note issued in accordance with the requirements of Article 126b(6) during the tax period in which the payment or repayment is made.

Right to deduct credit for input tax after correction of wrong tax treatment of supply

Article 78a. (New, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) (1) In case of erroneously drawn up documents under Article 116 (2), (3) and (6) and Article 117a (2), the right to deduct credit for input tax shall arise in the tax period when the new tax document is issued and shall be exercised during that period or during any of the following 12 tax periods only when the incorrectly drafted document is included in the purchases day book of the recipient within the time-limit set out in Article 72 (1).

(2) In case of incorrect treatment of a supply, in the event of an effective act issued by a revenue authority, the right to deduct tax credit arises in the tax period in which the new tax document is issued and is exercised in that tax period or in any of the following 12 tax periods only where the incorrectly drawn up document is included in the recipient's purchases day book within the time-limit referred to in Article 72 (1) and the obligation established by the act has been remitted to the Executive Budget Revenue to an account of the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency or has been offset under Article 92.

Adjustment of Credit for Input Tax Used for Goods or Services

Article 79. (Supplemented, SG No. 108/2006, SG No. 113/2007, amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) (1) (Amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) A registered person who in full, in part or in proportion to the degree of use for independent economic activity has deducted credit for input tax for goods manufactured, acquired or imported thereby, upon destruction, theft, identification of loss or shortages or upon retirement of the goods, shall charge and owe a tax in the amount of the credit for input tax used.

(2) A registered person who in full, in part or in proportion to the degree of use for independent economic activity has deducted credit for input tax for goods manufactured, acquired or imported thereby, or who has deducted in full or in part credit for input tax for a service received, during subsequent supply of the goods or service for which no right to deduct credit for input tax applies, shall owe a tax in the amount of the tax credit used.

(3) For goods and services that are or would be fixed assets, for the purposes of Paragraphs (1) and (2), the person shall owe a tax in the amount determined by the following formula:

1. in respect of immovable properties:

a) for which upon the acquisition or construction thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in full, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity only for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax;

$TD = CVAT \times 1/20 \times NY$, or

b) for which upon the acquisition or construction thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in part, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax, and for supplies in respect of which he/it has not the right to deduct credit for input tax:

$TD = CVAT \times 1/20 \times FA \times NY$, or

c) for which upon the acquisition or construction thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in proportion to the degree of use for independent economic activity under Article 71a:

$DD = CVAT \times 1/20 \times PrIEAO \times FA \times NY$, where:

TD shall be the tax due;

CVAT – charged VAT upon acquisition or construction of the property;

PrIEAO – the proportion of use of the immovable property for independent economic activity in relation to the overall use during the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised for said property;

FA – the factor under Article 73 for the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised;

NY – the number of the years from the occurrence of the circumstance under Paragraphs (1) and (2), including the year of the occurrence of the circumstance until the end of the 20-year period, effective from the beginning of the year of exercise of the right of credit for input tax, respectively from the beginning of the year of actual use, in case the property is not used for more than one year after the year of exercising the right of credit for input tax;

2. for the remaining goods:

a) for which upon the manufacture, acquisition or importation thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in full, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity only for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax:

$TD = CVAT \times 1/5 \times NY$, or

b) for which upon the manufacture, acquisition or importation thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in part, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax, and for supplies in respect of which he/it has not the right to deduct credit for input tax:

$TD = CVAT \times 1/5 \times FA \times NY$, or

c) for which upon the manufacture, acquisition or importation thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in proportion to the degree of use for independent economic activity under Article 71b:

$TD = CVAT \times 1/5 \times PrIEAO \times FA \times NY$, where:

TD shall be the tax due;

CVAT – VAT charged upon the manufacture, acquisition or importation of the goods;

PrIEAO – the proportion of use of the respective goods for independent economic activity in relation to their overall use during the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised for said goods;

FA – the factor under Article 73 for the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised;

NY – the number of years from occurrence of the circumstance under Paragraphs (1) and (2), including the year of occurrence of the circumstance, until the lapse of the five-year period, effective from the beginning of the year of exercise of the right to credit for input tax;

3. for services:

a) for which upon the receipt thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in full, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity only for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax;

$TD = CVAT \times 1/5 \times NY$, or

b) for which upon the receipt thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in part, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax, and for supplies in respect of which he/it has not the right to deduct credit for input tax:

$TD = CVAT \times 1/5 \times FA \times NY$, where:

TD shall be the tax due;

CVAT – VAT charged upon receipt of the service;

FA – the factor under Article 73 for the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised;

NY – the number of years from occurrence of the circumstance under Paragraphs (1) and (2), including the year of occurrence of the circumstance, until the lapse of the five-year period, effective from the beginning of the year of exercise of the right to credit for input tax.

(4) Charging of the tax under Paragraphs (1) – (3) shall be made in the tax period in which the relevant circumstance occurred, by executing a protocol for determining the amount of the tax due and its entry in the sales day book and the VAT return for the said tax period.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) A registered person who has deducted credit for input tax in part or in proportion to the degree of use for independent economic activity, including as a result of the adjustment made under Article 79a, for goods manufactured, acquired or imported thereby, including for the acquisition or construction of immovable property, or has deducted in part credit for input tax for service received, which are or would be fixed assets, and carries out a taxable supply of the goods or services shall have the right to deduct a credit for input tax not used in the acquisition in the amount determined by the following formula:

1. in respect of immovable properties:

a) for which upon the acquisition or construction thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in part, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax, and for supplies in respect of which he/it has not the right to deduct credit for input tax:

$TD = CVAT \times 1/20 \times (1 - FA) \times NY$, or

b) (amended, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) for which upon the acquisition or construction thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in proportion to the degree of use for independent economic activity under Article 71a:

$TD = CVAT \times 1/20 \times (1 - PrIEAO \times FA) \times NY$, where:

TD is the amount of the unused credit for input tax in the acquisition or construction of the property, which the person may deduct;

CVAT – VAT charged upon the acquisition or construction of the property;

PrIEAO – the proportion of use of the immovable property for independent economic activity in relation to the overall use during the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised for said property;

FA – the factor under Article 73 for the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised, when tax credit is partially deducted;

NY – the number of years from the occurrence of the circumstance under Paragraph (5), including the year of the occurrence of the circumstance until the end of the 20-year period, effective from the beginning of the year of exercise of the right of credit for input tax, respectively from the beginning of the year of actual use, in case the property is not used for more than one year after the year of exercising the right of credit for input tax;

2. for the remaining goods:

a) for which upon the manufacture, acquisition or importation thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in part, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax, and for supplies in respect of which he/it has not the right to deduct credit for input tax:

$TD = CVAT \times 1/5 \times (1 - FA) \times NY$, or

b) for which upon the manufacture, acquisition or importation thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in proportion to the degree of use for independent economic activity under Article 71b:

$TD = CVAT \times 1/5 \times (1 - PrIEAO \times FA) \times NY$, where:

TD is the amount of the unused credit for input tax in the acquisition or construction of the property, which the person may deduct;

CVAT – VAT charged upon the manufacture, acquisition or importation of the goods;

PrIEAO – the proportion of use of the respective goods for independent economic activity in relation to their overall use during the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised for said goods;

FA – the factor under Article 73 for the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised, when tax credit is partially deducted;

NY – the number of years from the occurrence of the circumstance under Paragraph (5), including the year of the occurrence of the circumstance until the end of the 5-year period, effective from the beginning of the year of exercise of the right of credit for input tax;

3. for services for which upon receipt thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in part, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax, and for supplies in respect of which he/it has not the right to deduct credit for input tax:

$TD = CVAT \times 1/5 \times (1 - FA) \times NY$, where:

TD is the amount of the unused credit for input tax upon the receipt of the service, which the person may deduct;

CVAT – VAT charged upon receipt of the service;

FA – the factor under Article 73 for the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised, when tax credit is partially deducted;

NY – the number of years from the occurrence of the circumstance under Paragraph (5), including the year of the occurrence of the circumstance until the end of the 5-year period, effective from the beginning of the year of exercise of the right of credit for input tax.

(6) New, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) A registered person who has deducted credit for input tax as a result of an correction made under Article 79a or Article 79b of the Act, but has not deducted credit for input tax on the grounds of Article 70 of the Act for goods manufactured, acquired or imported thereby, including for the acquisition or construction of immovable property, or upon receiving a service, which are/is or would be fixed assets when it carries out a taxable supply of such goods or service, shall have the right to deduct a credit for input tax not used in the acquisition in the amount determined by the following formula:

1. in respect of immovable properties:

$TC = CVAT \times 1/20 \times NY$, where:

TC is the amount of the unused credit for input tax in the acquisition or construction of the property, which the person may deduct;

CVAT – VAT charged upon the acquisition or construction of the property;

NY – the number of the years from the occurrence of the circumstance, including the year of the occurrence of the circumstance, until the end of the 20-year period, effective from the beginning of the year in which the term under Article 72(1) expires, respectively from the beginning of the year of actual use, in case the property is not used for more than one year after the year of expiry of such term;

2. in respect of all other goods and services:

$TC = CVAT \times 1/5 \times NY$, where:

TC is the amount of the unused credit for input tax in the manufacture, acquisition or importation of the goods or upon receipt of the service, which the person may deduct;

CVAT – VAT charged upon the manufacture, acquisition or importation of the goods or upon receipt of the service;

NY – the number of years from the occurrence of the circumstance, including the year of the occurrence of the circumstance, until the end of the 5-year period, effective from the beginning of the year of expiry of the term under Article 72(1).

(7) (Renumbered from Paragraph 6, supplemented, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The right of credit for input tax under Paragraphs (5) and (6) shall be exercised in the tax period in which the supply of goods or services is effected, or in one of the following 12 tax periods by executing a protocol for determining the amount of the unused credit for input tax upon the acquisition, which the person may deduct, and its entry in the purchases day book and the VAT return for the said tax period.

(8) (Renumbered from Paragraph 7, amended, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) Paragraphs (2), (3), (5) and (6) shall also apply in case of supply under Items 1 and 2 of Article 6 (3) and Article 111 (1) in accordance with the tax regime of the supply at the date of occurrence of the tax event.

(9) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) For the purposes of this Article, in the event of improvement of an existing building, resulting in a new building the following individual adjustments shall be made:

1. for the tax accrued in respect of the improvement made a new 20-year period shall apply from:

a) the beginning of the year of the exercise of the right to credit for input tax for the tax accrued for the improvement made, respectively from the beginning of the year of the actual use, in the event that the property is not used for more than one year after the year of exercising the right to credit for input tax, or

b) the beginning of the year during which the period under Article 72(1) expires, when for the improvement of the building made no right to credit for input tax has been exercised, respectively from the beginning of the year of actual use, in the event that the building is not used, after the improvement made, for more than one year following the expiry of that period;

2. in the cases of Item 1 of the VAT Regulations under Item 1 of Paragraph 3, Item 1 of Paragraph 5 and Item 1 of Paragraph 6 this shall be the VAT charged for the costs incurred for the improvement made;

3. no new 20-year period shall arise for the tax accrued upon the acquisition or construction of the building before the improvement made.

(10) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) For the purposes of this Article, for the tax charged for subsequent costs incurred relating to improvement of goods, including immovable properties other than a building, and services which are or would be fixed assets, no new 20-year or 5-year period shall resume.

Adjustment of Used Credit for Input Tax for Acquired, Manufactured or Imported Goods, Including Acquired or Constructed Immovable Properties Which Are or Would Be Fixed Assets

Article 79a. (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) (1) For goods, including immovable properties which are or would be fixed assets, for each of the years following the year of the exercise of the right to credit for input tax in which a change in the use of the goods occurs in respect of which the right to deduct credit for input tax exists, the amount of the credit for input tax used shall be adjusted when it is higher or lower than the one the registered person would be entitled to deduct if the person acquired the goods in the year of occurrence of the change.

(2) Paragraph 1 shall apply regardless of whether in the manufacture, acquisition or importation of the goods, including in the acquisition or construction of the immovable property, credit for input tax has been deducted in full, in part or in proportion to the degree of use for independent economic activity or no credit for input tax has been deducted.

(3) The adjustment referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be determined by the following formula:

1. for immovable properties:

a) for which upon the acquisition or construction no credit for input tax has been deducted on the grounds of Article 70:

$$AATCU = CVAT \times 1/20 \times PrIEAO_x \times F_x, \text{ or}$$

b) for which upon the acquisition or construction thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in full, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity only for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax:

$$AATCU = CVAT \times 1/20 \times (F_x - 1), \text{ or}$$

c) for which upon the acquisition or construction thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in part, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax, and for supplies in respect of which he/it has not the right to deduct credit for input tax:

$$AATCU = CVAT \times 1/20 \times (F_x - F_0), \text{ or}$$

d) (amended and supplemented, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.12.2017) for which upon the acquisition or construction thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in proportion to the degree of use for independent economic activity under Article 71a:

$$AATCU = CVAT \times 1/20 \times (PrIEA_x \times F_x - PrIEA_0 \times F_0), \text{ where:}$$

AATCU is the adjustment in the amount of the tax credit used for the year of the occurrence of the change in the use of the immovable property;

CVAT – charged VAT upon acquisition or construction of the property;

PrIEA₀ – the proportion of use of the immovable property for independent economic activity in relation to the overall use during the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised for said property;

PrNID_x – the proportion of the use of the immovable property for independent economic activity in relation to the total use for the year of the occurrence of the change in the use of the property until the end of the 20-year period, starting from:

– the beginning of the year of the exercise of the right of tax credit, respectively from the beginning of the year of actual use, in the event that the property is not used for more than one year after the year of exercising the right of tax credit, or

– the beginning of the year during which the period under Article 72(1) expires, when upon the acquisition or construction of the property the right to credit for input tax credit is not exercised, respectively from the beginning of the year of actual use, in the event that the property is not used for more than one year following the expiry of that period;

F₀ – the factor under Article 73 for the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised;

F_x – the factor under Article 73 for the year of the occurrence of the change in the use of the property until the end of the 20-year period, starting from:

– the beginning of the year of the exercise of the right of tax credit, respectively from the beginning of the year of actual use, in the event that the property is not used for more than one year after the year of exercising the right of tax credit, or

– the beginning of the year during which the period under Article 72(1) expires, when upon the acquisition or construction of the property the right to credit for input tax credit is not exercised, respectively from the beginning of the year of actual use, in the event that the property is not used for more than one year following the expiry of that period;

2. for the remaining goods:

a) for which upon the manufacture, acquisition or importation no credit for input tax has been deducted on the grounds of Article 70:

$$\text{AATCU} = \text{CVAT} \times 1/5 \times \text{PrIEA}_x \times F_x, \text{ or}$$

b) for which upon the manufacture, acquisition or importation thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in full, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity only for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax:

$$\text{AATCU} = \text{CVAT} \times 1/5 \times (F_x - 1), \text{ or}$$

c) for which upon the manufacture, acquisition or importation thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in part, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax, and for supplies in respect of which he/it has not the right to deduct credit for input tax:

$$\text{AATCU} = \text{CVAT} \times 1/5 \times (F_x - F_0), \text{ or}$$

d) for which upon the manufacture, acquisition or importation thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in proportion to the degree of use for independent economic activity under Article 71b:

$$\text{AATCU} = \text{CVAT} \times 1/5 \times (\text{PrIEA}_x \times F_x - \text{PrIEA}_0 \times F_0), \text{ where:}$$

AATCU is the adjustment in the amount of the tax credit used for the year of the occurrence of the change in the use of the goods;

CVAT – VAT charged in the manufacture, acquisition or importation of the goods;

PrIEA₀ – the proportion of use of the respective goods for independent economic activity in relation to their overall use during the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised for said goods;

PrNID_x – proportion of use of the product for independent economic activity in relation to the total use for the year of the occurrence of the change in the use of the goods until the end of the five-year period, starting from the beginning of the year of the exercise of the right of tax credit, and when it is not exercised, from the beginning of the year in which the time limit under Article 72 (1) expires;

F₀ – the factor under Article 73 for the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised;

F_x – the factor under Article 73 for the year of the occurrence of the change in the use of the goods until expiry of the five-year time limit, starting from the beginning of the year of the exercise of the right of tax credit, and when it is not exercised, from the beginning of the year in which the time limit under Article 72 (1) expires.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.12.2017) The adjustment referred to in Paragraph (3) shall be made in the last tax period of the calendar year in which the relevant circumstances occurred, by executing a protocol of the correction made and entry of the change in the amount of the tax credit used under this protocol in the purchases day book and the VAT return for that tax period, as follows:

1. with a sign (+) when it is in the direction of increase in the amount of the tax credit used;

2. with a sign (-) when it is in the direction of decrease in the amount of the tax credit used.

(5) In the case of existing right in rem in goods established to the benefit of the registered person Paragraph (1) shall apply to the period but for no longer than the applicable number of years under Paragraph (3).

(6) The adjustment under Paragraph (3) is optional when it is in the direction of increase in the amount of the tax credit used.

(7) (New, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.12.2017) For the calendar year in which the circumstances under Paragraph (1) occurred, no adjustment pursuant to this article shall be made for goods, including for acquired or constructed properties that are or would be fixed assets when they are not available at the end of that calendar year and circumstances have arisen to make adjustment Article 79.

(8) (New, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) For the purposes of the correction of this Article, the 5-year period and the 20-year period respectively shall cease to be effective for each calendar year in which the goods, the real estate respectively, are not used for the activities referred to in Articles 69 and 70. The time limit shall resume for each calendar year in which the goods, according to the real estate, the real estate respectively, resume to be used for the activities referred to in Articles 69 and 70.

(9) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) For the purposes of this Article, in the event of improvement of an existing building, resulting in a new building the following individual adjustments shall be made:

1. for the tax accrued in respect of the improvement made a new 20-year period shall apply from:
a) the beginning of the year of the exercise of the right to credit for input tax for the tax accrued for the improvement made, respectively from the beginning of the year of the actual use, in the event that the property is not used for more than one year after the year of exercising the right to credit for input tax, or

b) the beginning of the year during which the period under Article 72(1) expires, when for the improvement of the building made no right to credit for input tax has been exercised, respectively from the beginning of the year of actual use, in the event that the building is not used, after the improvement made, for more than one year following the expiry of that period;

2. in the cases of Item 1 of the VAT Regulations under Item 1 of Paragraph 3, this shall be the VAT charged for the costs incurred for the improvement made;

3. no new 20-year period shall arise for the tax accrued upon the acquisition or construction of the building before the improvement made.

(10) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) For the purposes of this Article, for the tax charged for subsequent costs incurred relating to improvement of goods, including immovable properties other than a building, which are or would be fixed assets, no new 20-year or 5-year period shall resume.

Adjustment of Credit for Input Tax Used for Services Received That Are or Would be Fixed Assets

Article 79b. (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) (1) For services that are or would be fixed assets, for each of the years following the year of the exercise of the right to credit for input tax in which a change in the use of the relevant service occurred in respect of which a right to deduct credit for input tax exists, the amount of the credit for input tax used shall be adjusted when it is higher or lower than the one the registered person would be entitled to deduct if the person received the service in the year of the occurrence of the change.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall apply irrespective of whether upon the receipt of the service credit for input tax has been deducted in full or in part or has not been deducted.

(3) The adjustment referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be determined by the following formula:

1. for services upon the receipt of which no credit for input tax has been deducted on the grounds of Article 70:

$$AATCU = CVAT \times 1/5 \times F_x, \text{ or}$$

2. for services upon the receipt of which credit for input tax has been deducted in full, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity only for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax:

$$AATCU = CVAT \times 1/5 \times (F_x - 1), \text{ or}$$

3. for services for which upon receipt thereof credit for input tax has been deducted in part, as the person intended to use them in his/its independent economic activity for supplies in respect of which he/it has the right to deduct credit for input tax, and for supplies in respect of which he/it has not the right to deduct credit for input tax:

$AATCU = CVAT \times 1/5 \times (F_x - F_0)$, where

AATCU is the adjustment in the amount of the tax credit used for the year of the occurrence of the change in the use of the service;

CVAT – VAT charged upon receipt of the service;

F_0 – the factor under Article 73 for the year in which the right to credit for input tax is exercised;

F_x – the factor under Article 73 for the year of the occurrence of the circumstances until the end of the 5-year period, starting from:

- the beginning of the year in which the right to credit for input tax was exercised, or
- the beginning of the year in which the time limit under Article 72 (1) expires, when no credit for input tax was exercised.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.12.2017) The adjustment referred to in Paragraph (3) shall be made in the last tax period of the calendar year in which the relevant circumstances occurred, by executing a protocol of the adjustment made and entry of the change in the amount of the tax credit used under this protocol in the purchases day book and the VAT return for that tax period, as follows:

1. with a sign (+) when it is in the direction of increase in the amount of the tax credit used;
2. with a sign (-) when it is in the direction of decrease in the amount of the tax credit used.

(5) The adjustment under Paragraph (3) is optional when it is in the direction of increase in the amount of the tax credit used.

(6) (New, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.12.2017) For the calendar year in which the circumstances under Paragraph (1) occurred, no adjustment pursuant to this article shall be made for services that are or would be fixed assets, when they are not available at the end of that calendar year and circumstances have arisen to make adjustment Article 79.

(7) (New, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) For the purposes of the correction of this Article, the 5-year period shall cease to be effective for each calendar year in which the service which is or would be fixed assets, is not used for the activities referred to in Articles 69 and 70. The time limit shall resume for each calendar year in which the service resumes to be used for the activities referred to in Articles 69 and 70.

(8) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) For the purposes of this Article, for the tax charged for subsequent costs incurred relating to improvement of services which are or would be fixed assets no new 5-year period shall resume.

Rules for the calculation of adjustments

Article 79c. (New, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) For the purposes of the calculation of the adjustments under Articles 79, 79a and 79b:

1. F_x is 1 if during the corresponding year the registered person uses the goods or the service within the framework of its independent economic activity only for effecting supplies in respect of which a right to deduct credit for input tax exists; in this case the ratio under Article 73 for the corresponding year is not taken into account;
2. F_x is 0 if during the corresponding year the registered person uses the goods or the service within the framework of its independent economic activity only for effecting supplies in respect of which no right to deduct credit for input tax exists; in this case the factor under Article 73 of the Act for the corresponding year shall not be taken into account;
3. F_0 is 1 if upon the acquisition of the goods or the receipt of the service the registered person has deducted credit for input tax in full, as it has intended to use the goods or the service within the framework of its independent economic activity only for effecting supplies in respect of which a right to deduct credit for input tax exists; in this case the factor under Article 73 of the Act for the year in which the right to deduct credit for input tax was exercised shall not be taken into account;
4. F_0 cannot be 0 if upon the acquisition of the goods or the receipt of the service the registered person has deducted credit for input tax partially, as it has intended to use the goods or the service within the framework of its independent economic activity both for effecting supplies in respect of which a right to deduct credit for input tax exists and for supplies in respect of which the person has no such right; in this case the factor under Article 73 of the Act for the year in which the right to deduct credit for input tax was exercised shall be taken into account;

5. F_0 is 0 if upon the acquisition of the goods or the receipt of the service the registered person has not deducted credit for input tax on the grounds of Article 70 of the Act, as it has intended to use the goods or the service within the framework of its independent economic activity only for effecting supplies in respect of which no right to deduct credit for input tax exists, regardless of whether upon the acquisition of the goods or the receipt of the service the person has intended to use such goods or service outside its independent economic activity; in this case the factor under Article 73 of the Act for the year in which the right to deduct credit for input tax was exercised shall not be taken into account;

6. $PrIEA_x$ is 1 if during the corresponding year the registered person has used the goods or the service only for independent economic activity;

7. $PrIEA_x$ is 0 if during the corresponding year the registered person has used the goods or the service only for purposes other than its independent economic activity;

8. $PrIEA_0$ may not be 0 or 1.

Block on Adjustments

Article 80. (1) (Supplemented, SG No. 108/2007, amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Adjustments under Articles 79, 79a and 79b shall not be made:

1. in the following cases:

a) if the goods or services are used for supplies under Article 70 (3);

b) for the supply of goods or services to the transferee from the transforming company, from the alienator or from the contributor in the cases under Article 10 (1);

c) for the importation of goods or services from a partner to achieve the common purpose under a contract for establishing an unincorporated company;

d) (new, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) for goods or services received, which are used in the construction, improvement or repair of physical-infrastructure elements under Article 10b (1);

2. if the tax treatment of the supplies for which the registered person uses the goods or services is modified by law;

3. for immovable properties if 20 years have lapsed, starting from:

a) (amended, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) the beginning of the year of the exercise of the right to credit for input tax, respectively from the beginning of the year of the actual use, in the event that the property is not used for more than one year after the year of exercising the right to credit for input tax, or

b) (supplemented, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) the beginning of the year during which the period under Article 72(1) expires, when upon the acquisition or construction of the property no right to credit for input tax has been exercised, respectively from the beginning of the year of actual use, in the event that the property is not used for more than one year following the expiry of that period;

4. for items other than immovable properties, goods or services, if 5 years have lapsed from:

a) the beginning of the year in which the right to credit for input tax was exercised, or

b) the beginning of the year in which the time limit under Article 72 (1) expires, when no credit for input tax was exercised;

5. when the document under Article 71 for the acquisition of the goods or services is recorded in the purchase day book under Article 124 in the time limit under Article 72;

6. (new, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) for improvement of an existing building as a result of which a new building emerged, if 20 years have passed from:

a) the beginning of the year of the exercise of the right to credit for input tax for the tax accrued for the improvement made, respectively from the beginning of the year of the actual use, in the event that the property is not used for more than one year after the year of exercising the right to credit for input tax, or

b) the beginning of the year during which the period under Article 72(1) expires, when for the improvement of the building made no right to credit for input tax has been exercised, respectively from the beginning of the year of actual use, in the event that the building is not used, after the improvement made, for more than one year following the year of expiry of that period.

1. proven or confirmed destruction, loss or shortage of goods as a result of:

a) force majeure;

b) accidents or disasters for which the person can prove that they have not been caused through his fault or through the fault of the person using the goods;

c) natural wastage resulting from changes in physical and chemical properties during storage and transportation of goods, determined within the established norms of natural wastage limit size under a normative act or company standards and norms;

d) other events, other than those referred to in points a) - c), which are beyond the control of the taxable person, and for which the person can prove that they have not been caused through his fault;

2. destruction of excise goods under administrative control in accordance with the procedures of the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act;

3. proven or confirmed destruction, including disposal of goods in a manner that leads to their irreversible disappearance as a result of:

a) spoilage within permissible limits, established by the technological documentation as applicable to the production or activity concerned;

b) discarding due to expiry of the service life set out in a statutory instrument or company standards, where a statutory instrument does not exist, and in the customary quantities for the relevant activity;

c) discarding of goods that have become objectively unusable for the independent economic activity of the taxable person as a result of their usual use in the independent economic activity of the person;

d) discarding fixed assets where their carrying amount is lower than 10 per cent of their book value;

4. discarding of goods that have become objectively unusable for the independent economic activity of the taxable person where those goods have been the subject of a subsequent taxable supply, including under Chapter 19a.

(3) (New, SG No. 108/2006, repealed, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017).

(4) (New, SG No. 33/2019, effective 19.04.2019) The calendar years for which the period ceases to be effective on the grounds of Article 79a(8) and Article 79b(7) shall not be included when the 20-year period for immovable properties is determined for the purposes of Item 3 of Paragraph (1), respectively when the 5-year period for goods which are or would be fixed assets is determined for the purposes of Item 4 of Paragraph (1).

Refund of Tax to Persons Not Established within Territory of Country

Article 81. (1) The tax paid shall be refunded to:

1. any taxable persons who are not established within the territory of the country but who are established and registered for VAT purposes within another Member State in respect of any goods purchased and services received thereby within the territory of the country;

2. any persons who are not established within the territory of the European Union but who are registered for VAT purposes in another State: on a basis of reciprocity;

3. any non-taxable natural persons, who are not established within the territory of the European Union, who have effected purchases of goods for private use inclusive of tax charged, after leaving the territory of the country, subject to the condition that the said goods are exported in an unaltered state.

(2) The procedure and the documents required for refund of the tax under Paragraph (1) shall be determined by an ordinance of the Minister of Finance.

Chapter Eight

(New, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, amended, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) The tax shall be payable by a person registered for application of non-Union scheme, Union scheme or distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, the supplier of a taxable supply, within the scope of the relevant scheme and with a place of transaction within the territory of the country in which the recipient is a non-taxable person.

Registered Person's Obligation to Charge Tax

Article 86. (1) Any registered person, in respect of whom the tax has become chargeable, shall be obliged to charge the said tax and, to this end, must:

1. issue a tax document and indicate the tax on a separate line therein;
 2. include the amount of the tax upon assessment of the net tax for the relevant tax period in the VAT return under Article 125 herein for the said tax period;
 3. indicate the document referred to in Item 1 in the purchase day book for the relevant tax period.
- (2) The registered person shall be liable for the tax in respect of the tax period during which the tax document was issued, and in the cases where no such document was issued or was issued beyond the time limit under this Act, in respect of the tax period during which the tax became chargeable.
- (3) No tax shall be charged in the cases of effecting an exempt supply, an exempt intra-European Union acquisition, as well as in respect of any supply whereof the place of transaction is outside the territory of the country.
- (4) Items 1 and 2 of Paragraph (1) and Paragraph (2) shall not apply in the cases under Article 131 (1) herein.

Tax Period

Article 87. (1) "Tax period," within the meaning given by this Act, shall be the period of time upon the lapse of which a registered person must submit a VAT return showing the net tax for the same tax period.

- (2) The tax period shall be fixed as one month in respect of all registered persons and shall be concurrent with the calendar month, except in the cases under Chapter Eighteen herein.
- (3) (Amended, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022, supplemented, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) The first tax period shall cover the time from the date of service of the registration act, including the date of service, until the end of the tax period, except in the cases under Chapter Eighteen. In the cases referred to in Article 132, the first tax period shall cover the time from the date of the entry of the circumstance referred to in Article 10 in the Commercial Register and the Register of Non-Profit Legal Entities or the entry in the BULSTAT register, including the date of entry of the circumstance, until the end of the tax period.

(4) The last tax period shall comprise the clear time between the commencement of the tax period and the date of deregistration.

Net Tax for Tax Period

Article 88. (1) The net tax for the tax period shall be the difference between the total amount of the tax chargeable from the person in respect of the said tax period and the total amount of the credit for input tax in respect of which the right to deduction has been exercised during the said tax period.

(2) Where the tax charged exceeds the credit for input tax, the difference shall constitute a net tax for the period: output tax payable.

(3) Where the credit for input tax exceeds the tax charged, the difference shall constitute a net tax for the period: input tax claimable.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015) The registered person shall self-assess the net tax for each tax period: output tax payable to Executive Budget Revenue or input tax claimable from Executive Budget Expenditures.

Remittance of Tax by Registered Persons

Article 89. (1) (Amended, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015) Where there is an output tax payable, the registered person shall be obligated to remit the tax to Executive Budget revenue by crediting an account of the competent National Revenue Agency territorial directorate within the time limit for submission of the VAT return for that tax period.

(2) (New, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) Where there is an output tax payable for the last tax period, the person shall remit the tax to Executive Budget Revenue to an account of the competent National Revenue Agency territorial directorate by the end of the calendar month following the calendar month in which the VAT return for that tax period should have been submitted.

(3) (Renumbered from Paragraph (2), SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) The tax shall be deemed remitted on the date on which the amount was credited to the relevant account referred to in Paragraph (1).

Remittance of Tax upon Importation of Goods

Article 90. (1) (Amended, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) In the cases covered under Article 16 herein, the importer of the goods or his representative under the customs legislation of the Union shall remit the tax as effectively charged by the customs authorities to the state budget as follows:

1. to the relevant account of the Customs Agency for import duties, value added tax upon importation, excise duty upon importation, fines, penal sanctions and interest;

2. by means of a virtual POS terminal device or by means of a POS terminal device in accordance with Article 4 (3) of the Limitation of Cash Payment Act.

(2) The tax referred to in Paragraph (1) may not be set off against other liabilities by the revenue authorities or the customs authorities.

(3) In the cases under Paragraph (1), the customs authorities shall release the goods upon payment of the tax charged or after provision of security in respect of the said tax according to the procedure established for the customs debt.

(4) (Repealed, SG No. 113/2007).

Remittance of Tax by Person Who Is Not Registered

Article 91. (1) Upon an intra-European Union acquisition of a new means of transport under Article 13 (2) herein by a person who is not registered under this Act, the tax shall be remitted by the said person within 14 days after the lapse of the tax period during which the tax on the acquisition became chargeable.

(2) Upon an intra-European Union acquisition of excisable goods under Item 4 of Article 2 herein, the tax shall be remitted by the person who effected the acquisition within 14 days after the lapse of the month during which the tax became chargeable.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009, repealed, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010).

(4) (Amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015) The tax referred to in Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be remitted to Executive Budget revenue by crediting an account of the National Revenue Agency territorial directorate whereat the person is registered or is subject to registration under the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(5) The tax referred to in Paragraph (4) shall be deemed remitted on the date on which the amount was credited to the relevant account referred to in Paragraph (4).

Set-off, Deduction and Refund of Net Tax for Period: Input Tax Claimable

Article 92. (1) The input tax claimable referred to in Article 88 (3) shall be set off, deducted or refunded as follows:

1. (amended, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) where there are other chargeable and unpaid tax liabilities and liabilities for social-insurance contributions collected by the National Revenue Agency which have accrued prior to the end of the calendar month of submission of the VAT return, the revenue authority shall set off such liabilities against the input tax claimable as stated in the VAT return; the procedure established in Item 2 shall apply to the balance, if any;

2. (amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) where there are no other chargeable and unpaid liabilities referred to in Item 1 or where the amount of such liabilities is less than the input tax claimable as stated in the VAT return, the registered person shall deduct the input tax claimable or the balance referred to in Item 1 from the due output tax payable as stated in the VAT returns to be submitted in the next succeeding two tax periods;

3. if after the deduction under Item 2 there remains any output tax payable, it shall be due within the time period established under Article 89 herein;

4. (amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) if after the lapse of the time limit referred to in Item 2 there is a balance of the input tax claimable, the revenue authority shall set off such balance for redemption of other public receivables due and payable, collected by the National Revenue Agency, or shall refund the said balance within 30 days after submission of the most recent VAT return;

5. (amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) if the input tax claimable in respect of which a deduction procedure has commenced has not been fully deducted at the time of submission of a VAT return for the last of the two tax periods, any other input tax claimable under a VAT return for any of the said two tax periods shall be added to it and shall be subject to refund or set-off together with such balance and within the time limit referred to in Item 4;

6. (amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) if the conditions under Item 5 are not fulfilled, another two succeeding tax periods for deduction following the period in which such tax was stated shall commence in respect of the input tax claimable as stated next under a VAT return.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) The revenue authority shall have no right to set off public receivables that are due and payable, collected by the National Revenue Agency against an input tax claimable as stated in the VAT returns for the two tax periods of the deduction procedure under Paragraph (1).

(3) (Amended, SG No. 108/2007, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, SG No. 98/2013, effective 1.12.2014 - amended, SG No. 104/2013, effective 1.12.2013) Notwithstanding Paragraph (1), the input tax claimable under Article 88 (3) herein shall be refunded within 30 days after submission of the VAT return, where:

1. the person has effected supplies liable to tax at the zero rate during the 12 months last preceding the current month at a total value exceeding 30 per cent of the total value of all taxable supplies, including zero-rate supplies; zero-rate supplies shall be considered equivalent to the supply of the following services with the place of supply within the territory of another Member State on which a recipient is a person registered for VAT purposes in another Member State: intra-European Union transport of goods and related forwarding, courier and postal services other than those under Article 49; transport handling of goods; services related to transport provided by agents, brokers and other intermediaries acting on behalf of and at the sole expense of another person, as well as services of valuation, expertise and handling of movable items.

2. (effective until 31.12.2026 - amended, SG No. 109/2013, effective 1.01.2014, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019, SG No. 18/2022, effective 1.01.2022, SG No. 52/2022, effective 1.07.2022) the person – agricultural producer has effected supplies liable to tax during the 12 months last preceding the current month at a tax rate of 20 per cent of the goods produced thereby under Annex No. 2, part two, to a total value exceeding 50 per cent of the total value of all taxable supplies effected thereby;

3. (new, SG No. 41/2015, supplemented, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018, SG No. 65/2018, effective 7.08.2018, amended, SG No. 108/2023, effective 1.01.2024) the person has used funds for the construction, management, maintenance and operation of water supply and sewage systems and facilities in the implementation of water projects financed with budget funds or funds provided under programmes of the European Union;

4. (new, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016) the person shall provide access to the railway infrastructure and has utilised funds on projects financed under Operational Programme "Transport 2007 – 2013", Operational Programme "Transport and Transport Infrastructure 2014 – 2020", the European Programme "Connecting Europe Facility" and the Trans-European transport network TEN-T, until their completion;

5. (new, SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020) for managing the sales the person has opted to use in the outlet software which is included in the list under Article 118 (16).

(4) Notwithstanding Paragraph (1), the input tax claimable under Article 88 (3) herein shall be refunded within 30 days after submission of the VAT return, where the person has been granted permission under Article 166 herein.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Where, in the cases under Paragraphs (3) and (4) there are public receivables due and payable, and collectible by the National Revenue Agency, which have arisen prior to the date of issuance of the tax assessment act or the act of set-off and refund, the revenue authority shall effect a set-off and shall refund the balance, if any.

(6) (Amended and supplemented, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011, repealed, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014).

(7) The circumstances covered under Paragraphs (3) and (4) shall be certified in writing to the competent National Revenue Agency territorial directorate according to a procedure established by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

(8) (New, SG No. 108/2007, amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) Notwithstanding Item 4 of Paragraph 1 and Paragraphs 3 - 5, where an audit of the person has commenced, the time period for refund of the tax shall be the time period for issuance of the audit act except for the cases where the person provides security in cash, in government securities or in unconditional and irrevocable bank guarantee which shall be valid for not less than 6 months.

(9) (New, SG No. 108/2007, amended, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) The tax shall be refunded and/or set off to the amount of the security under Paragraph (8) within five days after provision thereof.

(10) (Renumbered from paragraph 8, amended, SG No. 108/2007, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) Any input tax claimable, which has not been refunded without grounds or which has not been refunded by reason of lapsed grounds (including upon revocation of an act) within the time limits provided for in this Act under paragraph 1, item 4 and paragraphs 3 and 4, shall be refunded together with the legal interest, reckoned from the date on which the said tax should have been refunded under this Act and until the final payment thereof, regardless of the provision of Article 8 and the suspension of the tax proceedings.

(11) (New, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) In the cases referred to in Paragraph 3 herein upon assigned verification the tax shall be set off or refunded within 30 days, and in case of assigned audit the tax shall be set off or refunded in whole or in part within 30 days from serving the order for audit in an amount representing the difference between the stated claimable tax and the amount of taxes and compulsory social-insurance contributions which are reasonably expected to be established during the audit. The act of refund or refusal to refund upon assigned audit may be appealed in accordance with the Tax Insurance Procedure Code provided for appeal of security measures. Paragraph 8 shall apply to the non-refunded part of the declared tax.

Interruption and Resumption of Time Periods under Article 92

Article 93. (1) The time periods for refund under Item 4 of Article 92 (1) and Article 92 (3) and (4) herein shall be interrupted:

1. where no accounts have been kept according to the requirements of the Accountancy Act, and shall resume upon commencement of keeping of such accounts;
2. in the absence or upon failure to present documents that are mandatory under this Act, or of any other documents requested by the revenue authority, if such documents must mandatorily be drawn up according to a statutory instrument, and shall resume upon presentation of the said documents to the revenue authority.
3. upon a failure to grant access to an authorized revenue body to office, production or other premises related to the activity of the registered person, and shall resume upon granting such access;
4. where the person cannot be found according to the procedure established by the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code by the revenue authority at the mailing address named by the said person, and shall resume upon written notification on the part of the registered person to the revenue authority on the change of the address thereof in the country and the finding of the said person at the named address by a revenue authority;
5. (repealed, SG No. 108/2007).

(2) The time periods for refund under Item 4 of Article 92 (1) and Article 92 (3) and (4) herein shall be interrupted after consultation with the Executive Director of the National Revenue Agency for a period not exceeding 60 days where:

1. a revenue authority ascertains data of a criminal offence against the tax system and refers the said data to the pre-trial proceeding authorities within one month after ascertainment of the said data;
2. the interruption has been requested in writing by the authorities of the Ministry of Interior or by the judicial authorities upon institution of a pre-trial or judicial proceeding.

(3) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (2), the time periods for refund shall resume upon receipt of a written refusal to institute a proceeding or, respectively, after notification of a completion of the proceeding as instituted

PART SIX

REGISTRATION

General Dispositionsthis

Article 94. (1) The National Revenue Agency shall establish and maintain a special register under Act, which shall be part of the register referred to in Article 80 (1) of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(2) Upon recording in the register, the persons shall be issued with an identification number for VAT purposes, having a prefix "BG".

(3) Registration under this Act shall be compulsory and optional.

Registration in Connection with Supplies Effected within Territory of Country

Article 95. (1) The registration requirement under this Act shall apply to each taxable person who is established within the territory of the country and who effects taxable supplies of goods or services covered under Article 12 herein.

(2) The registration requirement under this Act shall furthermore apply to each taxable person who is not established within the territory of the country and who effects taxable supplies of goods or services covered under Article 12 herein other than those for which the tax is chargeable from the recipient.

Compulsory Registration

Article 96. (1) (Amended, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018, supplemented, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020, amended, SG No. 58/2022, effective the first day of the month following the month of entry into force of the decision of the Council of the European Union authorising the Republic of Bulgaria to apply a special measure derogating from Article 287 of Council Directive 2006/112/EC of 28 November 2006 on the common system of value added tax, but not before 1 January 2023, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2025, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) Any taxable person who is established within the territory of the country and having a taxable turnover of EUR 84,874 or more for a period not exceeding 12 consecutive months preceding the current month shall submit an application for registration under this Act within 7 days of the lapse of the tax period during which such turnover has accrued to the said person. When the turnover is reached for a period of not more than two consecutive months, including the current one, the person shall submit the application within 7 days from the date on which the turnover is reached.

(2) The taxable turnover shall be the sum of taxable amounts of the following supplies effected by such person:

1. taxable supplies, including supplies liable to tax at the zero rate;
2. supplies of financial services under Article 46 herein;
3. supplies of insurance services under Article 47 herein.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 108/2006, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) The taxable turnover shall not include the supplies referred to in Items 2 and 3 of Paragraph (2), where they are not related to the primary activity of the person, the supplies of fixed assets used in the activity of the person, as well as the supplies for which the tax is chargeable on the recipient under Article 82 (2) and (3).

(4) (Supplemented, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The taxable turnover shall furthermore include any advance payments received for supplies covered under Paragraph (2), with the exception of advance payments received prior to the occurrence of the chargeable event under Article 51 (1) herein. The taxable turnover shall furthermore include the turnover generated by the transforming person or by the alienator, where the said person is a registered person on the grounds of this Article or Article 100(1) or is not registered under this Act, for a period not exceeding the last 12 consecutive months prior to the transformation or transfer in the cases referred to in Items 1 and 2 of Article 10 (1) and under Item 3 only in case of in-kind contribution of a company or a distinct part therefrom. Upon spin-off or separation, as well as upon in-kind contribution of a distinct part of the undertaking the turnover generated from the implementation of the transferred activities transferred by the transforming person or the alienator shall be taken into account, and failing to be determined, depending on the activities – in proportion to the assets transferred.

(5) (Supplemented, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) The obligation to register for a taxable person who is established within the territory of the country shall arise notwithstanding the time period over which the taxable turnover has accrued, but not for a period exceeding the period defined in Paragraph (1).

(6) Determination of the taxable turnover shall give consideration to the tax treatment of the supplies applicable at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event or at the date of the payment prior to the occurrence of the chargeable event for the supply.

(7) (Amended, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015) Excluded from the taxable turnover under Item 1 of Paragraph 2 shall be supplies with place of transaction within the territory of the country covered under Article 21 (6), where such supplies are effected by a person:

1. registered pursuant to Article 154 or registered in another member state for application of a regime outside the Union;

2. registered in another member state for application of a regime within the Union, which has no fixed establishment within the territory of the country;

3. (repealed, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021).

(8) (Supplemented, SG No. 108/2007, amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010)

Notwithstanding Paragraph (1), a person whose registration has been terminated or refused by the revenue administration in pursuance of Article 176 herein cannot be registered before the grounds for such registration refusal or the grounds for deregistration lapse, or before the lapse of 24 months from the beginning of the month following the month of deregistration or refusal of registration.

(9) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) Notwithstanding the taxable turnover under Paragraph (1), any taxable person under Article 95 (2) shall, within 7 days before the date on which the tax for the chargeable supply becomes chargeable, submit an application for registration under this Act, with the exception of the cases where this Act sets out an obligation for registration under Article 97.

(10) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) In the consecutive performance of homogeneous activity in the same commercial outlet by two or more related persons acting in concert, included in the chargeable turnover of any subsequent person shall be the turnover achieved in the commercial outlet by all persons who had consecutively performed the activity in the said commercial outlet before him, for a period not exceeding the latest 12 consecutive months, including the current one, and it shall be deemed to be turnover achieved by the respective person in the first day of the start of the same activity in the commercial outlet by that person. The activity shall be deemed to be homogeneous when there is a significant identity in respect of two or more of the following properties: the goods or services offered, the assets used, the staff, the trade name/outlet name, the suppliers/customers.

(11) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) There shall be no consecutive performance by two persons of homogeneous activity, if the activity is interrupted for more than a month from the date of suspension of the activity by the previous person and the date of beginning the activity by the person determining the turnover under Paragraph 10.

(12) (New, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) Paragraph (9) shall not apply to supplies in respect whereof a Union scheme, a non-Union scheme or arrangements for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories apply where the taxable person is registered in another Member State for application of the Union scheme, the non-Union scheme or the arrangements for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories.

(13) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) Paragraph 9 shall not apply where a taxable person referred to in Article 95 (2) only carries out supplies for which he is registered under Articles 154 and 156.

Obligation to Register in Case of Supplies of Assembled and Installed Goods

Article 97. (1) Notwithstanding the taxable turnover under Article 96 herein, the registration requirement under this Act shall apply to each person who is established in another Member State, who is not established within the territory of the country and who effects taxable supplies of goods which are assembled or installed within the territory of the country by or for the account of the said person.

(2) An obligation to submit an application for registration shall arise in respect of the persons referred to in Paragraph (1) not later than seven days prior to the date of occurrence of the chargeable event for the supply referred to in Paragraph (1).

(3) Paragraph (1) shall not apply where the recipient of such supply is a person registered under this Act.

Obligation to Register in Case of Supply of Services the Tax for Which Is Chargeable on the Recipient Article 97a. (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) (1) Any taxable person under Article 3, paragraphs 1, 5 and 6 receiving services with the place of supply within the territory of the country where such services are taxable and for which the tax is chargeable on the recipient under Article 82, paragraph 2 shall be subject to registration.

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) Any taxable person referred to in Article 3 (1), (5) and (6), established in the territory of the country, who provides services referred to in Article 21 (2) with a place of performance in the territory of another Member State and in respect of which a tax is payable for the supply by the recipient, who is a taxable person or non-taxable legal entity registered for VAT purposes in that Member State, shall be subject to registration under this Act.

(3) Any taxable person registered pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 shall be considered registered also pursuant under paragraph 2 and vice versa.

(4) The persons under paragraphs 1 and 2 shall lodge a registration application under this Act not later than seven days prior to the date on which the tax on the supply becomes chargeable (advance payment or tax event), whereby the tax base of the received service shall be subject to taxation.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) Any person registered pursuant to the provisions of this Article to whom the conditions for compulsory registration under Articles 96, 97 and 99 or for optional registration under Article 100, paragraphs 1 and 2 apply shall register under the terms and conditions set out for either compulsory or optional registration.

Article 97b. (New, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, amended and supplemented, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019, repealed, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021).

Obligation of taxable persons established only in the territory of the country in the supply of telecommunication services, radio and TV broadcasting services and electronically supplied services or of goods in intra-Community distance sales with place of transaction supply in the territory of another Member State

Article 97c. (New, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) A taxable person who is not registered in the country of application of Union arrangement, and where it has exercised its right of choice under Article 20b, Paragraph 4, shall notify the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency within 7 days of the issue of VAT identification number by any Member State, electronically, as well as in case of revocation thereof.

Article 98. (Repealed, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021).

Obligation to Register in Case of Intra-European Union Acquisition

Article 99. (1) (Amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) The registration requirement under this Act shall apply to each non-taxable legal person and taxable person which is not registered in pursuance of Articles 96, 97p Article 100 (1), and Article 102 herein, and which effects intra-Community acquisition of goods.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) Paragraph (1) shall not apply where the total value of taxable intra-Community acquisitions for the current calendar year does not exceed EUR 10,000.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) An obligation to submit an application for registration under this Act shall arise in respect of the persons referred to in Paragraph (2) not later than seven days prior to the date of occurrence of the chargeable event for the acquisition by which the total value of taxable intra-Community acquisitions exceeds EUR 10,000. The intra-Community acquisition by which the said threshold is exceeded shall be liable to tax under this Act.

(4) The value referred to in Paragraph (2) shall be the sum total of taxable intra-European Union acquisitions, with the exception of the acquisition of new means of transport and of excisable goods, net of the value added tax payable or paid in the Member State from which the goods were transported or dispatched.

(5) Paragraph (1) shall not apply in respect of:

1. any persons referred to in Article 168 herein, who acquire new means of transport;
2. any persons referred to in Item 4 of Article 2 herein.

(6) (Amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) Any person, who is registered in pursuance of this Article and for whom grounds for compulsory registration under Articles 96 and 97 herein or for optional registration under Article 100 (1) herein arise, shall register according to the procedure and within the time limits applicable to compulsory registration or optional registration.

(7) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) Regardless of the value of the effected chargeable intra-Community acquisitions under Paragraph 2, subject to registration hereunder shall be any taxable person established in another Member State and effecting intra-Community acquisition of goods within the territory of the country under Article 15a (6) or Article 65a.

(8) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) An obligation to register hereunder shall arise in respect of the persons referred to in Paragraph 7 not later than seven days prior to the date of occurrence of the circumstance referred to in Article 15a (6) or Article 65a by filing an application.

Optional Registration

Article 100. (1) Any taxable person, whereto the conditions for compulsory registration covered under Article 96 (1) herein do not apply, shall have the right to register under this Act.

(2) Any taxable and non-taxable legal person, whereto the conditions for compulsory registration under Article 99 (1) herein do not apply, shall have the right to register under this Act for intra-European Union acquisition.

(3) (Repealed, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.01.2021).

(4) (Supplemented, SG No. 108/2007, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021)

Notwithstanding Paragraph (1), a person whose registration under this Act has been terminated or refused by the revenue administration in pursuance of Article 176 herein cannot be registered before the grounds for refusal of registration or the grounds for deregistration lapse, or before the lapse of 24 months after the beginning of the month following the month of deregistration or refusal of registration.

(5) (New, SG No. 92/2017, effective 1.01.2019) The right under Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be declared by the persons before the Registry Agency at the time of the application for effecting the initial registration pursuant to the procedure established by Chapter Two of the Commercial Register and Register of Non-Profit Legal Persons Act.

Registration Procedure

Article 101. (1) (Supplemented, SG No. 92/2017, effective 1.01.2019) For the effecting of registration, the person who is obligated or has the right to register shall submit an application for registration, completed in a standard form, to the competent National Revenue Agency territorial directorate, or shall declare optional registration on the grounds of Article 100, Paragraph (5) before the Registry Agency.

(2) Any such application shall be submitted:

1. in person, where the taxable person is a natural person capable of performing juridical acts or a sole trader;

2. by a person vested with representative authority by law, where the taxable person is a legal person or a cooperative;

3. by a person vested with representative authority according to a contract of incorporation, where the taxable person is an unincorporated association or a social insurance fund;

4. by an accredited representative referred to in Article 135 herein;

5. by a person who has been expressly authorized for this act by the persons referred to in Items 1, 2, 3 and 4 by means of a notarized power of attorney;

6. (new, SG No. 92/2017, effective 1.01.2019) by a lawyer authorised by the persons under items 1 - 4 with an explicit power of attorney drawn up in compliance with the provisions of the Bar Act.

(3) The application may be submitted electronically according to the procedure established by the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(4) (Supplemented, SG No. 92/2017, effective 1.01.2019) Any application referred to in Paragraph (1) must state the grounds for registration. Documents specified in the Regulations for Application of this Act shall be attached to any such application. In the cases specified in Article 100, Paragraph (5), when applying before the Registry Agency for effecting the initial registration the person shall not enclose information regarding taxable turnover.

(5) (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, supplemented, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) In the case of failure of the person to indicate an e-mail address before the Registration Agency, this person shall specify such an address in the application under Paragraph (1). Where the e-mail address is changed, the person shall advise the revenue administration thereof within seven days, unless the change has been effected through an application to the Registration Agency. The notified e-mail addresses for correspondence shall be deemed to be an e-mail address for receipt of messages under Article 28 (2) of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(6) (Supplemented, SG No. 108/2007, renumbered from Paragraph 5, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, amended, SG No. 92/2017, effective 1.01.2019, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018 until 31.12.2018) The revenue authority shall verify the grounds for registration within 7 days of the filing of the application or of the receipt at the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency of the information regarding the entry and the exercise of the right under Article 100, Paragraph (5) from the Registry Agency.

(7) (Renumbered from Paragraph 6, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) Within seven days after completion of the verification under Paragraph (6), the revenue authority shall issue an act whereby it shall effect the registration or shall refuse to effect the registration, stating the reasons for such refusal.

(8) (Renumbered from Paragraph 7, amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, supplemented, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, amended, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) Notwithstanding Paragraphs (6) and (7), the registration under Article 96 (9), Articles 97, 97a and 99 herein shall be effected by the revenue authority within three days after submission of the application for registration.

Registration Initiated by Revenue Authority

Article 102. (1) Where a revenue authority ascertains that a person has failed to fulfil in due time the obligation thereof to submit an application for registration, the said authority shall register the said person by issuing a registration act, if the conditions for registration are fulfilled.

(2) The act referred to in Paragraph (1) shall state the grounds and the date on which the obligation to register has arisen.

(3) (Supplemented, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) For the purposes of determining the tax liabilities of the person in the cases where the said person was obligated but has failed to submit an application for registration in due time, the person shall be presumed to be liable for tax on the taxable supplies and taxable intra-Community acquisitions effected thereby, as well as on the taxable supplies of services received for which the tax is chargeable from the recipient:

1. (amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) for the period from the expiry of the time limit for issuance of the act of registration, if the person has submitted the application for registration within the time limit, until the date on which the person was registered by the revenue authority;

2. (amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) for the period from the expiry of the time limit for issuance of the act of registration, if the person has submitted the application for registration within the time limits until the date on which the grounds for registration have lapsed.

(4) (New, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018, amended, SG No. 58/2022, effective the first day of the month following the month of entry into force of the decision of the Council of the European Union authorising the Republic of Bulgaria to apply a special measure derogating from Article 287 of Council Directive 2006/112/EC of 28 November 2006 on the common system of value added tax, but not before 1 January 2023, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2025, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) To determine the tax liabilities of the person in the cases under Article 96 (1), second sentence, when the person was required, but has not submitted an application for registration in due time, it shall be deemed that the person owes a tax for the taxable supplies exceeding the taxable turnover of EUR 84,874 from the date on which it exceeded the turnover until the date on which it is registered by the revenue body, or until the date on which the grounds for registration no longer existed. A tax shall be due for the taxable supply exceeding the taxable turnover. The person shall furthermore owe a tax on the taxable supplies of services received, for which the tax is exigible from the recipient, and for the taxable intra-Community acquisitions carried out during that period.

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018, repealed, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024).

(6) (New, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) A person registered under Paragraph 1 may, in respect of each taxable supply carried out thereby and documented with an invoice and/or a notice to an invoice without charged tax, for which he is liable to pay tax under Paragraph 3 or 4, may cancel the documents issued in accordance with Article 116 in the first tax period or in the following tax period, and may issue a new invoice under Article 113 specifying the tax on a separate line. When determining the amount of tax due for each taxable supply made, it is assumed that it is included in the agreed price, unless when issuing the new invoice it is expressly agreed that the tax will be paid separately. The new invoice shall be recorded in the sales log for the tax period in which it is issued.

(7) (New, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) Where no new invoice has been issued in accordance with Paragraph 6, the person registered under Paragraph 1 shall charge the tax due for the taxable supply carried out thereby in the first or in the subsequent tax period. The memorandum shall contain the particulars referred to in Items 1 - 8 of Article 117 (2), specifying the documents issued to document the supply without charged tax. The memorandum issued shall be recorded in the sales log for the tax period in which it was issued.

(8) (New, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) The registered person under Paragraph 1 for the taxable supplies made, which are not documented with an invoice and/or a notice to an invoice without charged tax and for which he owes a tax under Paragraph 3 or 4, in the first or in the next tax period shall compile a report under Article 119, specifying the amount of the tax due under Article 67 (2) or (3) or shall record it in the sales log for the tax period in which it was issued. (9) (New, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) The registered person referred to in Paragraph 1 shall charge the tax due under Paragraph 3 or 4 for each taxable supply of goods or services received for which the tax is due from the recipient, by means of a memorandum referred to in Article 117, in the first or in the subsequent tax period. The memorandum shall be recorded in the sales log for the tax period in which it was issued.

(10) (New, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) For supplies referred to in Article 163a (2) for which tax is charged by a supplier, the registered person under Paragraph 1 shall not be liable to tax under that Article.

(11) (New, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) For the tax due under Paragraph 3 or 4 the person shall owe interest from the date of expiry of the period in which the tax should have been paid if the person had registered under this Act in due time.

(12) (New, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) In the cases referred to in Paragraph 6, the recipient of the supply who is a registered person under this Act may exercise the right to deduct a tax credit under the general rules of the Act during the tax period in which the new invoice was issued or in the following tax period, provided he was a registered person at the date of the supply and reflected the originally issued invoice and/or a notice to it in the purchase log under Item 1 of Article 124 (1) within the period under Article 72 (1).

Date of Registration

Article 103. (1) The date of delivery of the registration act shall be deemed a date of registration under this Act.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013, repealed, SG No. 92/2017, effective 1.01.2018).

Documents Certifying Registration

Article 104. (1) (Amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Simultaneously with delivering the registration act to the registered person and at his/its request, a registration certificate shall be submitted, protected by plastic foil, executed in standard form specified in the Implementing Regulations of this Act.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Upon written request by the registered person, within 7 days, the revenue body shall issue a certificate in one or more copies, in accordance with the request of the person.

(3) Upon written request by the registered person, the director of the competent National Revenue Agency territorial directorate shall issue, within seven days, a separate certificate for the purposes of evidencing the registration under this Act abroad in a standard form specified in the Regulations for Application of this Act.

Loss, Damage or Destruction of Certificate

Article 105. (1) In the event of a loss, damage or destruction of the certificate, the registered person shall be obligated to notify in writing the competent National Revenue Agency territorial directorate whereat the said person is registered within seven days after occurrence of any such circumstance.

(2) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (1), the revenue authority shall issue a replacement certificate within seven days after notification.

Chapter Ten

TERMINATION OF REGISTRATION (DEREGISTRATION)

General Dispositions

Article 106. (1) Termination of registration (deregistration) under this Act shall be a procedure pursuant to which, after the date of deregistration, the person shall have no right to charge tax and to deduct credit for input tax, except where otherwise provided for in this Act.

(2) Registration shall terminate:

1. on the initiative of the registered person, when there are grounds for deregistration, whether compulsory or optional;
2. on the initiative of the revenue authority, where:
 - (a) the said authority has ascertained grounds for compulsory deregistration;
 - (b) any circumstance covered under Article 176 herein exists.

Grounds for Compulsory Deregistration

Article 107. The following shall be grounds for compulsory deregistration:

1. the death of the natural person;

3. (supplemented, SG No. 108/2007, amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012, supplemented, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) the deregistration of the sole trade from the Commercial Register and the Register of Non-Profit Legal Entities, unless:
 - (a) the person is subject to compulsory registration under the procedure of Article 96 (1) for the taxable turnover of the supplies provided by him, representing independent economic activities, or if the grounds under Article 108 (2) exist
 - (b) (amended, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018, supplemented, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) the conditions under letter "a" do not exist and the person, within 7 days from entry of the deregistration from the Commercial Register and the Register of Non-Profit Legal Entities, files an application for registration to the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency, stating continuation of the registration under the terms of Article 100 (1);
4. (amended, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) dissolution of the legal person:
 - a) without liquidation;
 - b) (supplemented, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) with liquidation, unless the legal entity decides to remain registered until the date of deregistration from the Commercial Register and the Register of Non-Profit Legal Entities; the right of option shall be exercised by filing a declaration to the relevant territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency within 14 days from occurrence of the circumstance; in this case the liquidator shall be jointly and severally liable for the tax due for the period of liquidation;
5. (new, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, repealed, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021);
6. (new, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) dissolution of the unincorporated association or the social insurance fund;
7. (new, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) deletion of branches of foreign legal entities.

Grounds for Optional Deregistration

Article 108. (1) Grounds for optional deregistration shall arise:

1. (supplemented, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) in respect of any person registered pursuant to Articles 96 (1), 97 or Article 100 (1) herein, upon the lapse of the relevant grounds for compulsory registration;
2. (repealed, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021);
3. (supplemented, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) in respect of any person registered pursuant to Article 99 (3) and Article 100 (2), where:

(a) (amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) the sum total of the taxable amounts of the taxable intra-Community acquisitions, with the exception of new means of transport and excisable goods, does not exceed EUR 10,000 for the preceding calendar year, and

(b) at the date of submission of the application for deregistration, grounds for compulsory registration do not exist;

4. (new, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, amended, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) in respect of any person registered under Article 97a, where the conditions for compulsory deregistration do not exist as at the date of the application for registration;

5. (new, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) in respect of any person registered pursuant to Article 96 (9) where the person did not effect chargeable supplies of goods or services under Article 12 in the 12 months preceding the current month;

6. (new, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) in respect of any person registered pursuant to Article 99 (7) where:

a) in the 12 months preceding the current month, the person did not effect chargeable intra-Community acquisitions, and

b) at the date of submission of the application for deregistration, no grounds for compulsory registration exist.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) Registered persons having opted to register according to Article 100 herein shall not have the right to terminate the registration thereof pursuant to Paragraph (1) before the lapse of 12 months from the beginning of the calendar year following the year of registration under this Act.

(3) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Any person registered under Articles 132 and 132a may file an application for deregistration where the conditions for compulsory registration do not exist as at the date of filing the said application.

(4) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) Except in the cases referred to in Paragraph 1, the grounds for optional deregistration shall also arise where a taxable person registered under Article 96 (9) is registered:

1. in another Member State for application of a Union scheme, a non-Union scheme or a scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories when it starts to carry out only supplies subject to a non-Union scheme, a Union scheme or a scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories;

2. in the country - under Article 154 or 156 when it starts to carry out only supplies subject to a non-Union scheme or a Union scheme.

5. (new, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, supplemented, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012, amended, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) upon deregistration and any subsequent registration of the person within the same tax period – for the goods and services on stock both as of the date of the deregistration and as of the date of the subsequent registration.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014, supplemented, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) The tax referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be included in the net tax for the last tax period, shall be declared under the procedure and within the time limit under Article 125 and shall be paid within the time limit under Article 89 (2).

(4) (Amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) Where, at the date of deregistration the person is in a deduction procedure according to the procedure established by Article 92 herein, it shall be presumed that the two one-month periods have expired at the said date.

Chapter Eleven

DOCUMENTING SUPPLIES

General Dispositions

Article 111a. (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) (1) Documenting of the supplies with place of transaction on the territory of the country shall be carried out in accordance with this Chapter.

(2) Documenting of the supplies with place of transaction on the territory of another member state shall be performed in accordance with this Chapter where the tax on the supply is chargeable on the recipient and the supplier is a person in respect whereof the following conditions obtain simultaneously:

1. the person has established his/its independent economic activity on the territory of this country or has a permanent object on the territory of this country from which the supply is performed, or if there is no such establishment or object the said person has a permanent address or usually resides on the territory of the country;

2. the person is not established in the member state on whose territory the place of transaction of the supply takes place or his/its permanent object in this member state does not participate in the supply.

(3) Documenting of the supply of goods or services with place of transaction on the territory of a third country or territory shall be performed in accordance with this Chapter where the person has established his/its independent economic activity on the territory of this country or has a permanent object on the territory of this country from which the supply is performed, or if there is no such establishment or object the said person has a permanent address or usually resides on the territory of the country.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 23/2013, effective 8.03.2013) In the cases under Article 113 (11) where the invoice or the notice to the invoice is issued by the person to whom the goods or services are provided, Paragraphs (2) and (5) shall not apply.

(5) The supplier shall not apply Paragraph (1) for supplies with place of transaction on the territory of the country where the tax is chargeable on the recipient and the supplier is a person in respect whereof the following conditions obtain simultaneously:

1. the person has not established his/its independent economic activity on the territory of this country or has a permanent object on the territory of this country from which the supply is performed, or if there is no such establishment or object the said person has no permanent address or does not usually reside on the territory of the country;

2. the person is established in another member state or has a permanent object in another member state from which the supply is performed.

Tax Documents

Article 112. (1) "Tax document," within the meaning given by this Act, shall be:

1. the invoice;
2. the advice to an invoice;
3. the memorandum.

(2) Tax documents can be issued manually or by automated mean.

(3) In the event of theft, loss, damage or destruction of any tax documents, the registered person shall notify in writing the competent National Revenue Agency territorial directorate not later than 24 hours after learning of the relevant circumstance.

Issuing Invoices

Article 113. (1) Each taxable person who is a supplier shall be obligated to issue an invoice for a supply of goods or service effected thereby or upon receipt of an advance payment before effecting such a supply except in the cases where the supply is documented by a memorandum under Article 117 herein.

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) The invoice on hard copy shall be issued at least in duplicate: one copy for the supplier and one copy for the recipient.

(3) An invoice may not be issued:

1. for any supplies in which the recipient is a non-taxable natural person;
2. for any supplies of financial services under Article 46 herein;
3. for any supplies of insurance services under Article 47 herein;
4. for sales of air tickets;
5. upon supplies effected free of charge;

6. (amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) for supplies under an arrangement for distant sale of goods imported from third countries or territories or under non-Union arrangement;
7. (new, SG No. 108/2006) for deliveries, performed by individuals not registered under this Act, other than sole proprietors, when for the deliveries made by them:
- a) a document is issued under the procedure of a special act, or
 - b) a receipt about the paid amounts or a document under Article 9 from the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act is issued, or
 - c) the document issuance is not obligatory under the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act.
- (4) The invoice shall mandatorily be issued not later than five days after the date of occurrence of the chargeable event for the supply, and in the cases of advance payment, not later than five days after the date of receipt of the payment.
- (5) Notwithstanding Paragraph (4), upon an intra-European Union supply, including in the cases of advance payment, the invoice shall mandatorily be issued not later than the 15th day of the month following the month during which the chargeable event under Article 51 (1) herein occurred.
- (6) When issuing an invoice is not mandatory, it shall be issued upon the request of the supplier or of the recipient, with either party being obligated to render to the other party the cooperation necessary for the issuing.
- (7) (Amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) The supplier may authorize in writing another person to issue invoices and notification to invoices on behalf of the said supplier.
- (8) An invoice may not be issued in the cases referred to in Article 131 (1) herein.
- (9) (Supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013, supplemented, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021, supplemented, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) Any taxable persons, who are not registered under this Act or are registered in pursuance of Article 97a (1) and (2), Article 99 and Article 100 (2) herein, shall not have the right to state the tax in the invoices issued thereby and notification to invoices. Taxable persons, established within the territory of the country, which are registered solely on the grounds of Article 156, shall have no right to state the tax in the invoices issued thereby and notifications to invoices for supplies with place of transaction on the territory of the country for which no Union scheme applies.
- (10) Where the registered person effects a taxable supply for which the said person has received an advance payment prior to the date of registration of the said person under this Act, the said person shall issue an invoice stating therein the full taxable amount of the supply.
- (11) (New, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011, amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) An invoice or notification to an invoice in the name and for the account of the taxable person-supplier, can also be issued by the recipient of the supply, if there is prior agreement between the two parties, provided that there is a procedure for the acceptance of each invoice or notification to the invoice by the taxable person supplying the goods or services.
- (12) (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) Electronic invoices and electronic notifications to invoices shall be deemed issued on the date on which the supplier or another person acting on his/its behalf provides the invoices and the notifications to the invoices so that these can be received by the client.
- (13) (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) For two or more effected supplies of goods and services the tax on which becomes chargeable in one and the same tax period a combined invoice may be issued. The combined invoice shall contain the requisites under Items 9 - 15 of Article 114 (1) for each individual supply recorded in the combined invoice and shall not be issued later than the last day of the month during which the tax on the supplies becomes chargeable, and for intra-Community supplies, within the time limit under Paragraph 5.
- (14) (New, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) A taxable person, including a person operating an electronic interface, may not apply Paragraph 1 for intra-Community distant sale of goods or domestic distant sales of goods performed, where the person is registered to apply an Union arrangement hereunder.

(15) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) A taxable person, including a person operating an electronic interface, may not apply Paragraph (3) for intra-Community distance sale of goods or domestic distant sales of goods performed with a place of transaction on the territory of the country, where the person is not registered to apply a Union scheme hereunder or in another Member State.

Requirements to Invoices

Article 114. (1) An invoice shall mandatorily state:

1. title of document;
 2. sequential ten-character number, containing only Arabic numerals, based on one or more series depending on the reporting needs of the taxable person, which identifies uniquely the invoice;
 3. date of issue;
 4. name and address of the supplier;
 5. supplier's identification number referred to in Article 94 (2) herein or, respectively, the number referred to in Article 84 of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code, where the supplier is a person not registered under this Act;
 6. (amended, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009, repealed, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010);
 7. name and address of the recipient of the supply;
 8. recipient's identification number referred to in Article 94 (2) herein or, respectively, the number referred to in Article 84 of the Tax and Social Insurance Procedure Code, where the recipient is a person not registered under this Act, identification number for VAT purposes, where the recipient is registered in another Member State, another number for identification of the person, where such a number is required according to the legislation of the State where the recipient is established;
 9. quantity and type of the goods, type of the service;
 10. date on which the chargeable event for the supply occurred, or date on which the payment was received;
 11. unit price net of the tax and the taxable amount of the supply, as well as any trade discounts and rebates allowed, unless included in the unit price;
 12. rate of the tax and, when the rate is zero, the grounds for application of the said rate, as well as the grounds for not charging tax;
 13. amount of tax;
 14. amount payable, if other than the sum of the taxable amount and of the tax;
 15. the circumstances which define the goods as a new means of transport: applicable to an intra-European Union supply of new means of transport.
- (2) (Repealed, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016).
- (3) (Amended, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) When the registered person who is an intermediary in a triangular operation documents a supply of goods effected to the acquirer in the triangular operation, the invoice shall state "Article 141 2006/112/EC" as grounds for not charging tax.
- (4) (Amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) Where the tax is chargeable from the recipient, the invoice shall not state the amount of tax and the rate of tax. In such case, recorded in the invoice shall be "reverse charge", as well as the grounds for this.
- (5) (Amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) The amount in the invoice may be stated in any currency, provided that the taxable amount and the amount of the tax are stated in Euro complying with the requirements of Article 26 (6) herein.
- (6) (Amended, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009, SG No. 100/2010, effective 1.07.2011, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) Every taxable person must assure, applying a method of his/its own choice, from the moment of issuance until the end of the period of storage the authenticity of origin, the integrity of content and the readability of the invoices and the notifications to them issued thereby or on his/its behalf as well as the invoices and notifications received thereby, no matter whether they are on hard copy or in electronic form.

(7) (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2023, amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) The invoice may be exempt from the requisites under Items 12, 14 and 15 of Paragraph (1) where the taxable amount and the tax do not exceed EUR 100, except for the documenting of supplies with place of transaction on the territory of another member state, intra-Community supplies and distance sales of goods.

(8) (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) In the cases under Article 111a (3) the invoice issued by the taxable person-supplier may be exempt from the requisites under Items 12 and 13 of Paragraph (1).

(9) (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) Documenting of supplies with electronic invoices and electronic notifications to invoices shall be carried out, provided that such documenting is accepted by the recipient with a written or tacit consent.

(10) (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) The taxable person shall ensure the authenticity of origin, the integrity of content and the readability of the invoice or the notification thereto by exercising any type of control over the economic activity, creating a reliable audit trail between the invoice or the notification to the invoice and the supply of the goods or services.

(11) (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) In addition to the control over the economic activity under Article 10, the authenticity of origin, the integrity of content and the readability of the invoice or the notification thereto shall be provided by one of the following indicative technologies:

1. (amended, SG No. 85/2017) a qualified electronic signature within the meaning of Regulation (EU) No. 910/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 July 2014 on electronic identification and trust services for electronic transactions in the internal market and repealing Directive 1999/93/EC (OJ, L 257/73 of 28.8.2014) and of the Electronic Document and Electronic Trust Services Act, or

2. electronic data interchange.

(12) (New, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) A taxable person registered to apply an arrangement for distance sale of goods imported from third countries or territories shall specify the identification number under the arrangement only in the customs import declaration under Article 57a.

Debit and Credit Advices

Article 115. (1) Upon any change of the taxable amount of a supply or upon rescission of a supply on which an invoice has been issued, the supplier shall be obligated to issue an advice to the invoice.

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) The advice shall be issued not later than 5 days from occurrence of the relevant circumstance under Paragraph (1), and where it is issued for a supply for which an invoice was issued with charged tax for received advance payment, within 5 days of the date of refund, set-off or otherwise settlement against compensation of the amount paid in advance for the amount of the refunded, set off or otherwise settled amount against compensation.

(3) A debit advice shall be issued upon an increase in the taxable amount, and a credit advice shall be issued upon a decrease in the taxable amount or upon rescission of supplies.

(4) In addition to the essential elements covered under Article 114 herein, an advice to the invoice shall mandatorily state:

1. number and date of the invoice to which the advice is issued;

2. grounds for issuing of the advice.

- (5) An advice shall be issued at least in duplicate: one copy for the supplier and one copy for the recipient.
- (6) Upon termination or rescission of a lease contract under Item 3 of Article 6 (2) herein, the supplier shall issue a credit advice on the difference between the taxable amount of the supply under Item 3 of Article 6 (2) herein and the amount which the said supplier is withholding pursuant to such contract, net of the tax under this Act.
- (7) (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) The notification to the invoice may be exempt from the requisites under Items 12, 14 and 15 of Article 114 (1), unless the supplies with place of transaction on the territory of a member state, intra-Community supplies and distance sales of goods are documented.

Adjustment of Invoices and Advices

Article 116. (1) No corrections and additions may be made in the invoices and the advices thereto. Any documents which have been erroneously drafted or corrected shall be cancelled and new documents shall be issued.

- (2) Any invoices and advices thereto, in which no tax is charged even though it should have been charged, shall likewise be deemed erroneously drafted documents.
- (3) Any invoices and advices thereto, in which tax is charged even though it should not have been charged, shall likewise be deemed erroneously drafted documents.
- (4) Where erroneously drafted documents or corrected documents are shown in the ledgers of accounts of the supplier or the recipient, a memorandum shall furthermore be drafted on the cancellation, with a copy for each of the parties, which shall state:
1. the grounds for cancellation;
 2. number and date of the document which is being cancelled;
 3. number and date of the new document issued;
 4. signatures of the persons who drafted the memorandum for each of the parties.
- (5) All copies of the documents cancelled shall be kept with the issuer, and the said documents shall be accounted for by the supplier and the recipient according to a procedure established by the Regulations for Application of this Act.
- (6) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) The issued invoices and notes thereto, in which a wrong tax rate is applied for the supply, shall likewise be deemed erroneously drafted documents.
- (7) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022, amended, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) Invoices and notes shall be corrected in accordance with Paragraphs (1) - (6) in the presence of an effective act issued by a revenue authority, where the obligation established by the act has been remitted to the Executive Budget Revenue to an account of the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency or has been offset by a revenue authority.

Issuing Memorandums

Article 117. (1) A memorandum shall mandatorily be issued:

1. (amended, SG No. 108/2006, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) in the cases referred to in Article 82 (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) and Article 84 herein: by the registered person who is a recipient of the supply;
 2. in the cases referred to in Article 57 herein: by the registered person who is an importer;
 3. in the cases referred to in Article 6 (3), Article 7 (4), Article 9 (3), Article 142 (1) and Article 144 (4) herein: by the registered person who is a supplier;
 4. (new, SG No. 108/2006, amended and supplemented, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) in the cases referred to in Article 161 and Article 163a (2) herein: by the registered person who is a recipient of the supply;
 5. (new, SG No. 88/2016, effective 1.01.2017) in the cases under Item 4 of Article 6 (4) – by a registered person having provided foodstuffs free of charge.
- (2) A memorandum referred to in Paragraph (1) shall mandatorily state:
1. number and date;

2. (supplemented, SG No. 108/2006) name and identification number under Article 94, paragraph 2 of the person referred to in Paragraph (1);
 3. quantity and type of the goods or type of the service;
 4. date of occurrence of the chargeable event for the supply;
 5. taxable amount;
 6. rate of tax;
 7. (supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) grounds for charging or non-charging of the tax by the person referred to in Paragraph (1);
 8. amount of tax;
 9. (new, SG No. 98/2013, effective 1.01.2014 - amended, SG No. 104/2013, effective 1.12.2013) identification number of the supplier for VAT purposes, which has been used to effect the supply, where the supplier is registered for VAT purposes in another Member State, and number and date of the invoice where such invoice has been issued prior to the date of issuance of the memorandum;
 10. (new, SG No. 98/2013, effective 1.01.2014 - amended, SG No. 104/2013, effective 1.12.2013) identification number under Article 84 of the Tax Insurance Procedure Code of the supplier of goods under appendix № 2, part two, and number and date of the invoice.
- (3) (Amended, SG No. 108/2007, supplemented, SG No. 88/2016, effective 1.01.2017) The memorandum shall be issued not later than 15 days after the date on which the tax became chargeable. In the cases of free of charge provision of foodstuffs under Item 4 of Article 6 (4) the protocol shall be issued not later than 5 days from the date on which the foodstuffs are provided.
- (4) Upon any change of the taxable amount of a supply or upon rescission of a supply on which a memorandum has been issued, the person shall issue a new memorandum which shall mandatorily state:
1. number and date of the initial memorandum issued on the supply;
 2. grounds for issuing the new memorandum;
 3. the increase/decrease in the taxable amount;
 4. the increase/decrease in the tax.
- (5) (Amended, SG No. 108/2007) The memorandum referred to in Paragraph (4) shall be issued not later than 15 days after the date on which the relevant circumstance under Paragraph (4) has occurred.

Correction of Memorandums

- Article 117a. (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) (1) No corrections and additions are allowed in the memorandums. Incorrectly drawn up or corrected memorandums shall be cancelled and new ones shall be issued.
- (2) An incorrectly completed memorandum shall furthermore be a memorandum issued, wherein:
1. no tax has been entered, although it should have been;
 2. a tax has been entered, although it should not have been;
 3. a wrong tax rate has been applied to the supply.
- (3) When an incorrectly completed memorandum is reflected in the recipient's registers, no memorandum shall be drawn up for the cancellation, and the grounds for the cancellation shall be indicated in the incorrectly completed memorandum.
- (4) The copies of the memorandums cancelled shall be kept with the issuer, and the said memorandums shall be accounted for according to a procedure set out in the Regulations for Application of this Act.
- (5) (Amended, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) Correction of memorandums in case of effective act issued by a revenue authority shall be made in accordance with Paragraphs (1) – (4).

Cash Receipts, Substitution Documents and Data Submission

Article 118. (Amended and supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, supplemented, SG No. 19/2011, effective 8.03.2011, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012, amended and supplemented, SG No. 54/2012, effective 17.07.2012, amended, SG No. 23/2013, effective 8.03.2013) (1) Any person registered and any person not registered under this Act shall be obligated to register and report the supplies/sales effected thereby at a commercial outlet by means of issuing a fiscal cash receipt from a fiscal device (fiscal slip) or by means of issuing of a cash receipt from an integrated automated system for commercial activity management (system slip), regardless of whether another tax document has been requested. The recipient shall be obligated to receive the fiscal slip or the system slip and to keep them until he or she leaves the outlet.

(1a) (New, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024, amended, SG No. 70/2024) Where a registered or unregistered person under this Act does not issue a document under Paragraph 1, the recipient shall have the right to withhold payment of the delivery/sale amount. The first sentence shall not apply when:

1. this Act or the ordinance referred to in paragraph 4 allow not to issue a fiscal or system receipt for deliveries or sales in a commercial establishment;
2. the customer has requested the issuance of the fiscal or system receipt in electronic form in the cases covered by paragraph 21.

(2) Fiscal devices and integrated automated systems for commercial activity management shall have the technical capability of establishing distance connection to the National Revenue Agency. The technical requirements and the terms and conditions for the establishment and performance of the distance connection shall be set out in the ordinance under paragraph 4, subject also to coordination with the Bulgarian Institute for Metrology.

(3) (Supplemented, SG No. 101/2013, effective 22.11.2013, amended, SG No. 1/2014, effective 1.01.2014, supplemented, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019, SG No. 96/2019, effective 10.12.2019, amended, SG No. 70/2024) The fiscal slip and the system slip shall be paper documents recording a sale/supply of goods or service at a commercial outlet which is paid for in cash, by cheque, by voucher, by bank credit or debit card, or by any other cash equivalents, issued using a commissioned fiscal device or an integrated automated system for commercial activity management of an approved type. In the case of sales of goods or services provided by electrically powered self-service vending machines and which are registered and reported through fiscal devices integrated in the self-service vending machines, except for self-service vending machines for currency exchange, the fiscal slip registering the sale may be visualised on a display only, without issuing a paper document, as per the procedure and manner laid down in the ordinance referred to in Paragraph (4).

(3a) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 10.12.2019) In the cases of a credit or debit card not present payment for sales/supplies of goods or services, a sales document may be electronically issued and provided to the recipient, which is not issued by a fiscal device of approved type or by an approved integrated automated system for management of sales operations, instead of a fiscal slip or a system slip. The conditions for the application of this provision, the format and content and the manner of issuing the document and the obligations for submission of data from the document to the National Revenue Agency shall be determined by the ordinance under Paragraph 4.

(4) The Minister of Finance shall issue an ordinance establishing:

1. the terms, procedure and manner of type approval, type cancellation, commissioning/decommissioning, registration/deregistration, reporting, storage of documents issued from/in connection with a fiscal device and an integrated automated system for commercial activity management.
2. the service maintenance, expertise and control of a fiscal device and an integrated automated system for commercial activity management, the technical and functional requirements thereto;
3. the requirements, terms and procedures for establishing a distance connection and reporting of data to the National Revenue Agency;
4. the issue of fiscal cash receipts from a fiscal device and cash receipts from an integrated automated system for commercial activity management and the mandatory requisites to be contained therein;
5. the type of reported data, format and time limits for reporting thereof;

6. (new, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) the conditions and procedures for granting and withdrawing authorisations of persons who carry out the maintenance and repair of a fiscal device/integrated automated system for commercial activity management (FD/IASCAM);
7. (new, SG No. 24/2018) the requirements for the outlet sales management software, and to manufacturers, distributors and users of such software;
8. (new, SG No. 24/2018) the requirements for persons carrying out sales via e-shops;
9. (new, SG No. 96/2019, effective 10.12.2019) the format and content of the documents, the terms, procedure and the manner of issuance thereof, as well as the obligations for transfer of data in the event of credit or debit card not present payment.
- (5) (Amended, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) For the operation of FD/IASCAM the persons under Paragraph (1) shall conclude a written contract for the maintenance and repair with persons who have obtained authorisation under the ordinance referred to in Paragraph (4).
- (6) All persons under Paragraph (1) supplying/selling liquid fuels at a commercial outlet, except for those supplying/selling liquid fuels at a tax warehouse within the meaning of the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act, shall also be under the obligation to transmit via a remote connection to the National Revenue Agency data making it possible to determine the quantities of fuel available in storage tanks at liquid fuel trade outlets.
- (7) (Repealed, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016).
- (8) (Amended, SG No. 107/2014, effective 1.01.2015) A tax liable person who supplies vehicles, machines, facilities or other equipment with liquid fuels to meet its own needs shall register and report the fuelling under Paragraph (4).
- (9) (Amended, SG No. 107/2014, effective 1.01.2015) Paragraph 8 shall not apply to entities receiving supplies of liquid fuels, which are budgetary organisations in the meaning of the Public Finances Act or municipal enterprises and do not sell liquid fuels.
- (10) A tax liable person or a supplier/recipient of liquid fuel supply shall submit data to the National Revenue Agency about the supply and the movement of the supplied/received quantities of liquid fuels and the changes thereof. Data shall be submitted electronically with a qualified electronic signature on the date of the chargeable event or the date of occurrence of a change in the circumstances.
- (11) Data under Paragraph (10) shall not be submitted by:
1. the supplier and the recipient about supplies of liquid fuels under excise duty suspensive arrangement;
 2. the supplier about supplies and supplied quantities of liquid fuels in respect whereof data has been submitted to the Customs Agency that the fuels are released for consumption under the Excise Duties and Warehouses Act;
 3. (supplemented, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) the supplier for supplies reported thereby through his electronic system with fiscal memory, except for supplies effected from a site which is not a final distributor and uses as a consumption measuring tool a measuring system or a flow-meter;
 4. the recipient about supplies reported by the supplier via a fiscal memory electronic system and the recipient is an end user;
 5. the recipient about supplies reported thereby as received via its fiscal memory electronic system;
 6. (repealed, SG No. 107/2014, effective 1.01.2015);
 7. (new, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) the supplier and the recipient of supplies for household purposes of fuel in bottles of not more than 50 kg or transported through a constructed gas transmission network.
- (12) (New, SG No. 107/2014, effective 1.01.2015) Where the revenue authorities establish that a final distributor sells liquid fuels from a commercial outlet and has no fixed underground storage tanks for the fuel or tanks permanently attached to the grounds, they shall immediately inform the competent authorities to take action on the violations found.

(13) (New, SG No. 107/2014, effective 1.01.2015) Paragraph 12 shall not apply to sales of liquid fuels for river and maritime transport.

(14) (New, SG No. 24/2018, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020)

Manufacturers/distributors of outlet sales management software may declare before the National Revenue Agency the following data and circumstances:

1. the name and version of the software manufactured/distributed thereby;
2. that the software under Item 1 complies with the requirements set forth in the ordinance under paragraph 4;
3. that it does not manufacture/distribute software designed to change the functionality of the software referred to in Item 1 and to change, delete or otherwise manipulate the information in the database operated by the software.

(15) (New, SG No. 24/2018) The procedure for declaring the data and circumstances under Paragraph (14) shall be set out in the ordinance referred to in Paragraph (4).

(16) (New, SG No. 24/2018) The National Revenue Agency shall establish and maintain a public electronic list of outlet sales management software, for which data and circumstances under Paragraph (14) have been declared. The register shall be available on the website of the National Revenue Agency. The procedure for entry in and deletion from the list and the contents of the list shall be specified in the ordinance referred to in Paragraph (4).

(17) (New, SG No. 24/2018, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020) Paragraph 14 shall not apply to integrated automated systems for commercial activity management and to fiscal memory electronic systems.

(18) (New, SG No. 24/2018, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020) A person for whom an obligation exists to register and report sales by issuing fiscal cash receipts and who wishes to use outlet sales management software may choose to use for the sales management in the outlet the software listed in Paragraph 16. The procedure for the selection of and withdrawal from it, the requirements for the persons having opted for the application of such software, to the software developers/distributors and for the software shall be set out in the ordinance under Paragraph (4). In an outlet for which the person has opted for using sales management software included in the list under Paragraph (16) only such software shall be used.

(19) (New, SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020) Paragraph (18) shall not apply to person using integrated automated systems for commercial activity management and to fiscal memory electronic systems.

(20) (New, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019, renumbered from Paragraph (19), SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020) The National Revenue Agency shall create and maintain an electronic public list of electronic stores for which data under Paragraph (4), item 5 have been submitted. The list shall be available on the website of the Agency. The procedure for entry in and deletion from the list and the contents of the list shall be specified in the ordinance referred to in Paragraph (4).

(21) (New, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024, amended, SG No. 70/2024) The fiscal/system receipt recording the sale may be generated electronically and sent to the recipient by electronic means, without issuing a paper document, under the conditions, according to the procedure and in the manner set out in the ordinance referred to in paragraph (4), by persons which:

1. sell goods or services through an electronic store;
2. have chosen to use software included in the list referred to in paragraph 16;
3. use an integrated automated system for commercial activity management;
4. use a fiscal memory electronic system in the commercial establishment.

(22) (New, SG No. 70/2024) In the cases specified in paragraph 21, at the request of the customer the fiscal/system receipt shall be issued on paper.

(23) (New, SG No. 70/2024) It is admissible for fiscal devices and integrated automated systems for commercial activity management to have the functionality to indicate the total amount for payment in the issued documents in another currency as well. The requirements for the fiscal devices/integrated automated systems for commercial activity management, as well as the conditions and procedure for applying this provision, shall be determined by the ordinance referred to in paragraph 4.

Sales Report

Article 119. (1) Any supplier, who is a person registered under this Act, shall prepare a sales report on the supplies for which the issuing of an invoice or memorandum is not mandatory, which shall contain consolidated information on such supplies for the relevant tax period.

(2) The sales report shall be prepared on the last day of the tax period at the latest.

(3) Optionally, the person may prepare separate sales reports for each day of the tax period and/or for each of the commercial outlets thereof.

(4) The content of the consolidated information referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be specified by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

Sales or purchases Report under Special Arrangements for Taxing

(Title supplemented, SG No. 108/2006)

Article 120. (1) Any supplier, who is a person registered under this Act, shall prepare a sales report for every type of supply effected during the tax period for which the special arrangements for taxing under Chapters Sixteen, Seventeen and Nineteen herein are applicable, which, as a minimum, shall contain the following information:

1. quantity and type of the goods for each particular supply, or type of the service;

Chapter Twelve OTHER OBLIGATIONS

Storage of Documents

Article 121. (1) (Supplemented, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) Any taxable person shall ensure the storage of the tax documents issued by or on behalf of the said person, as well as of all tax documents received thereby, for five years after the expiry of the prescription period for extinguishment of the public liability which such documents certify in the original.

(2) (Amended and supplemented, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) The authenticity of origin and the integrity of content of the tax documents, as well as the readability thereof, must be guaranteed during the entire period of storage. Where the tax documents are stored by electronic means, taxable persons shall furthermore store within the time limit under Paragraph (1) the data ensuring the authenticity of origin and the integrity of their content.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall furthermore apply in respect of the sales reports referred to in Articles 119 and 120 herein, the registers referred to in Article 123 (2) and (3), as well as the customs documents for importation.

Right of Access to Tax Documents Stored by Electronic Means State

Article 122. (Amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) When the taxable person stores by electronic means that ensure on-line access to electronic invoices and electronic notifications to invoices issued or received thereby, the said person shall be obligated to ensure the competent revenue authorities (on-line) access by electronic means to the data stored to:

1. the competent revenue authorities - where the person is established on the territory of the country and where the person is not established on the territory of the country but the tax on the supply is due in Bulgaria;
2. the competent authorities of the member state where the tax is due - where the person is established on the territory of the country and the tax on the supply is due in another member state.

Accounts

Article 123. (1) Each registered person shall keep detailed accounts sufficient for assessment of the liabilities thereof under this Act by the revenue authorities.

(2) Each registered person shall be obligated to keep a register of goods under Items 8 to 10 of Article 7 (5) and Items 8 to 10 of Article 13 (4) herein.

(3) Each taxable person shall keep a register of the goods transported thereto from another Member State by a person registered for VAT purposes in the said Member State, in connection with the supply of services involving assessment or work on movable things.

(4) The form and the essential elements of the registers referred to in Paragraphs (2) and (3) shall be determined by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

(5) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) Any taxable person transferring goods under call-off stock arrangements under Article 15a from the territory of this country to the territory of another Member State shall keep an electronic register of such goods in order to enable the revenue authorities to check the proper application of said arrangements.

(6) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) Any taxable person for which the goods under call-off stock arrangements under Article 15a are intended to be supplied and which are dispatched to the territory of this country shall keep an electronic register of such goods.

(7) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) Any taxable person established in the territory of the country to whom goods are provided for storage shall maintain detailed accounts for such goods, which shall contain information allowing for identification of the type and quantity of the goods at any time, as well as of each of the persons that provided the goods for storage, and shall identify the persons who dispatched, transported or received the goods at the end of their storage.

(8) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) The structure and contents of the electronic registers Paragraphs 5 and 6 shall be determined by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

Upon a request, the information from the registers shall be provided to a revenue authority electronically or on an electronic data storage medium in the file format laid down in the regulations.

(9) (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) The persons under Paragraphs 5, 6 and 7 shall keep the accounts under Paragraph 7 and the information in the electronic registers under Paragraphs 5 and 6 for a period of 10 years, effective from the end of the year during which the storage of the goods under Paragraph 7 or the transfer of the goods under Paragraphs 5 and 6 began.

(10) (New, SG No. 66/2023, effective 1.07.2023) Where, at the end of a calendar quarter, the total amount of cash available in cash registers, the amount of accounts receivable (including from granted loans) from owners who are natural persons, workers, employees, persons employed under a management and control contract, and accountable persons exceeds BGN 50 000, the persons registered under this Act which are enterprises according to the Accountancy Act shall declare separately for the corresponding calendar quarter in their declaration under Article 55(1) of the Income Tax on Natural Persons Act and Article 201(1) of the Corporate Income Tax Act, by the end of the month following the quarter, data from their current accounting records regarding:

1. the amount of cash available in cash registers;
2. the amount of accounts receivable (including from granted loans) from owners who are natural persons;
3. the amount of accounts receivable (including from granted loans) from workers, employees, persons employed under a management and control contract, and accountable persons.

Chapter Twelve "a"

(New, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2024)

GENERAL OBLIGATIONS OF PAYMENT SERVICE PROVIDERS

Obligations of payment service providers

Article 123a. (New, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2024) (1) A taxable person who is a payment service provider to a payee shall, in relation to cross-border payments, keep an electronic register of the payees and of the payments for each calendar quarter, where:

1. (amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) the payer is located in another Member State and the payee of the cross-border payment is located in the country;
2. the taxable person has provided payment services corresponding to more than 25 cross-border payments to the same payee in the relevant period; the number of cross-border payments shall be calculated on the basis of the number of payment services provided by the payment service provider separately to each payee by Member State and by the identifiers referred to in Paragraph (6); where the payment service provider has information that the payee has several identifiers, the calculation of the number of cross-border payments shall be done per payee.

(2) A taxable person who is a payment service provider to a payer, in relation to cross-border payments, shall keep an electronic register of the payees and the payments, for each calendar quarter, where:

1. (amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) the payer is located in the country and the payee of the cross-border payment is located in a third country or territory;
2. the taxable person has provided payment services corresponding to more than 25 cross-border payments to the same payee during that period; the number of cross-border payments shall be calculated based on the number of payment services provided by the payment service provider separately to each recipient by Member State and by the identifiers specified in Paragraph (5); when the payment service provider has information that the payee has several identifiers, the calculation shall be done per payee.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) A taxable person who is a payment service provider to a payer shall not apply Paragraph (2) in respect of any cross-border payment for which at least one of the payee's payment service providers is located in the territory of another Member State. In these cases, the payer's payment service provider shall include the payment services when calculating the number of cross-border payments under Item 2 of Paragraph (2).

(4) In the cases under Paragraph (3) the register shall be kept by the person referred to in Paragraph (1).

(5) For the purposes of Paragraphs (1) and (2), the payer's location shall be considered to be the Member State corresponding to the following identifiers:

1. the IBAN of the payer's payment account or any other identifier which unambiguously identifies, and gives the location of, the payer, or in the absence of such identifiers;

2. the BIC or any other business identification code which unambiguously identifies, and gives the location of, the payment service provider acting on behalf of the payer.

(6) For the purposes of Paragraphs (1) and (2), the payee's location shall be considered to be the Member State or the third country or territory corresponding to the following identifiers:

1. the IBAN of the payee's payment account or any other identifier which unambiguously identifies, and gives the location of, the payee, or in the absence of such identifiers;

2. the BIC C or any other business identification code which unambiguously identifies, and gives the location of, the payment service provider acting on behalf of the payee.

(7) (Amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) The register referred to in Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be kept in an electronic format and shall be kept for three calendar years from the end of the calendar year in which the payment was made.

(8) The register referred to in Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall contain the following information:

1. the BIC C or any other business identification code which unambiguously identifies the payment service provider;

2. the name or business name of the payee, as it appears in the records of the payment services provider;

3. the VAT identification number or other national tax identification number of the payee, where available;

4. the IBAN or, in the absence of an IBAN, any other identifier which unambiguously identifies and gives the location of the payee;

5. the BIC C or any other business identification code that unambiguously identifies, and gives the location of, the payment service provider acting on behalf of the payee where the payee receives funds without having a payment account;

6. the address of the payee, as it appears in the records of the payment services provider;

7. data on any cross-border payment;

8. data on all payment refunds, determined as such, for the cross-border payments under Item 7.

(9) The information under Items 7 and 8 of Paragraph (8) shall contain the following data:

1. the date and time of the payment or of the payment refund;

2. the amount and the currency of the payment or of the payment refund;

3. the Member State of origin of the payment received by or on behalf of the payee, the Member State of destination of the payment refund, as applicable, and the information used to determine the origin or destination of the payment or the payment refund in accordance with Paragraphs (5) and (6);

4. any additional information which unambiguously identifies the payment;

5. where applicable, information that the payment is initiated at the physical premises of the merchant.

(10) (Amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) Payment service providers shall provide information from the electronic register referred to in Paragraphs (1) and (2) no later than the last day of the month following the calendar quarter to which the information relates. The information shall be provided by electronic means to the National Revenue Agency where the country is the home Member State of the payment service provider or a host country where the payment service provider provides payment services in the country.

The registered person transferring goods, which comprise part of his business assets, from the territory of the country to the territory of another Member State under call-off stock arrangements shall submit together with the VAT return referred to in Paragraph (1) a VIES return for the tax period of dispatch or transport of the goods under such arrangements and for the tax periods of occurrence of changes during the 12-month period from the arrival or end of transport, including in the event of substitution of the person under Item 3 of Article 15a (2).
- (3) Together with the VAT return referred to in Paragraph (1), the registered person shall submit the ledgers of account covered under Article 124 herein for the relevant tax period.
- (4) A VAT return referred to in Paragraph (1) shall furthermore be submitted where there is no payable or refundable tax, as well as in the cases where the registered person has not effected or received any supplies or acquisitions or has effected any importation for the said tax period.
- (5) The returns referred to in Paragraphs (1) and (2) and the ledgers of account referred to in Paragraph (3) shall be submitted on or before the 14th day of the month following the tax period to which the said returns and ledgers refer.
- (6) (Amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017, repealed, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018).
- (7) (Amended, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The returns referred to in Paragraphs (1) and (2) and the ledgers of account referred to in Paragraph (3) shall be submitted electronically under the terms and according to the procedure established by the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code, except for the cases referred to in Paragraph (13) and Article 126 (4), (7) and (8).
- (8) The VAT return referred to in Paragraph (1) and the return referred to in Paragraph (2) shall be submitted in a standard form specified by the Regulations for Application of this Act.
- (9) (New, SG No. 108/2006, amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) The register under Article 124 (7) shall be electronically submitted under the terms and according to the procedure of the Tax Social-Insurance Procedure Code by the 14th day of the month following the calendar quarter for which it refers.
- (10) (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) In the cases under Article 111, paragraph 2, item 5, the registered person shall submit a single return for the tax period, covering the supplies by the person until the deregistration date, including those after the date of a subsequent registration.
- (11) (New, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011, repealed, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018).
- (12) (New, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012, repealed, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018).
- (13) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Upon the death of a natural person or a sole trader natural person, the returns referred to in Paragraphs (1) and (2) and the ledgers under Paragraph (3) for the last tax period under Article 87 (4) shall be submitted by the heirs or legatees within 2 months of acceptance of the succession, but not later than the 14th day inclusive of the month following the 6th month of the date of death of the deceased. Additionally emerging circumstances shall be declared, and within one month of becoming aware thereof the heirs shall submit new returns under Paragraphs (1) and (2) and ledgers of account referred under Paragraph (3). Other heirs shall enjoy a return submitted by one heir.
- (14) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) The person referred to in Paragraph 1, where he is registered under Articles 154, 156 and 157a, shall submit the VAT return referred to in Article 159 (4) and/or Article 159a (2). A taxable registered only under Articles 154 and 156 shall submit only the VAT return under Article 159 (4).

Adjustments after Declaration

Article 126. (1) Any errors made in returns submitted under Article 125 (1) or (2) herein as a result of documents not shown or shown incorrectly in the ledgers of account covered under Article 124 herein shall be corrected according to the procedure established in Paragraphs (2) and (3).

(2) Any errors detected prior to the expiry of the time limit for submission of the VAT return shall be corrected by the person making the necessary corrections and submitting again the returns referred to in Article 125 (1) and (2) herein and the ledgers of account covered under Article 124 herein.

(3) Beyond the cases referred to in Paragraph (2), errors shall be corrected by:

1. the person making the necessary corrections in the tax period during which the error was detected and including the document that has not been shown in the relevant ledger of account for the same tax period: applicable to documents not shown in the ledgers of account covered under Article 124 herein;

2. the person notifying in writing the competent revenue authority which shall take action to modify the liability of the person for the relevant tax period: applicable to documents shown incorrectly in the ledgers of account.

(4) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) A person which has been deregistered under this Act shall notify in writing the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency of errors made in the submitted returns under Article 125 (1) and (2) and the ledgers of account under Article 124. The adjustments shall be made after an authorisation by the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency has been issued, by submitting a new return and ledgers of account for the relevant period within 14 days of receipt of the authorisation.

(5) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) A person whose registration is terminated under this Act, within 5 days from the establishment of the fact that prior to the termination of the registration no tax document has been issued under Article 112 (1), and in the cases under Article 116 shall notify in writing the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency, which after consideration shall issue an authorisation for issuance of the relevant tax document or shall refuse issuance thereof.

(6) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) A person whose registration is terminated under this Act, upon occurrence of a circumstance for amending the taxable amount or for rescission of a supply for which a tax document has been issued with charged tax before the date of termination of its/his registration, shall notify in writing the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency, which after consideration shall issue an authorisation for issuance of the relevant tax document or shall refuse issuance thereof.

(7) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Within 14 days of receipt of authorisation under Paragraphs (5) and (6) the person shall issue the relevant tax document and shall submit a return under Article 125 (1) and ledgers of account under Article 124 for the period in which the document was issued, in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Regulations for Application of this Act.

(8) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Where, prior to the date of termination of the registration of the person, a tax document has been issued with charged tax for received advance payment and in the period under Paragraph (7) the amount due in connection with the reduction of the taxable amount or for rescission of the supply has not been refunded to the recipient, set off or settled otherwise against compensation, the person shall issue the document referred to in Paragraph (6) within 14 days from the date of the refund, set-off or settlement in another way against consideration for the amount of the refunded, set off or otherwise settled against consideration amount and shall submit a return under Article 125 (1) and ledgers of account under Article 124 for the period in which the document was issued, in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Regulations for Application of this Act.

(9) (New, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) A person whose registration has been terminated under this Act, upon receipt of a credit note pursuant to Article 126b (1) for a change in the taxable amount of a supply for which he has exercised the right to deduct a tax credit under a tax-charge tax document issued before the date of termination of his registration, shall notify the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency in writing within 7 days of receipt of the credit note, which shall issue authorisation for his inclusion in the purchases day book and in a VAT return in accordance with this Act. Within 14 days of receipt of authorisation, the person shall submit a declaration under Article 125 (1) and ledgers of account under Article 124 for the period in which the document was issued, in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Regulations for Application of this Act.

(10) (New, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) A person whose registration has been terminated under this Act before the issuance of a credit note under Article 126b (1) for a change in the taxable amount of a supply for which he has issued a tax-charge document before the date of termination of his registration, shall notify the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency in writing within 7 days, which shall grant him authorisation for the issuance of the credit note only in the cases where the recipient of the supply has exercised the right to deduct tax credit on this invoice. Within 14 days of receipt of authorisation, the person shall issue the credit note and shall submit a return under Article 125 (1) and the ledgers of account under Article 124 for the period in which the credit note was issued, in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Regulations for Application of this Act.

(New, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023)

REDUCTION OF THE TAXABLE AMOUNT AND THE TAX CHARGED IN THE CASE OF UNCOLLECTIBLE RECEIVABLE

General Provisions

Article 126a. (New, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) (1) In the case of a full or partial non-payment of a taxable supply with place of transaction in the territory of the country and where the receivable is uncollectible, the supplier who is a person registered under this Act, shall reduce the taxable amount and the tax charged on the supply, where the following conditions apply simultaneously:

1. an invoice was issued for the supply and the requirements of Article 86 are complied with;
2. the recipient and the supplier are not related parties at the time of delivery and/or at the time when the relevant circumstance under Paragraph (2) arose;
3. no transfer of consideration on the receivable has been made;
4. the supplier can demonstrate that he has taken action to collect the receivables on the supply;
5. the supplier has notified in writing the recipient, who was a person registered under this Act at the time of supply, that he considers the corresponding receivable uncollectible on the grounds of Paragraph (2) and has evidence that his notification was sent to the recipient's registered office address.

(2) A receivable on a supply shall be considered uncollectible when one of the following circumstances occurs:

1. the expiry of three years for a receivable with a limitation period of three years or the expiry of five years for a receivable with a limitation period of five years from the date on which the receivable becomes payable;
2. by an effective court decision, it has been ruled that the receivable or part of it is not due, and the receivable is considered uncollectible only with respect to the non-due part;
3. the receivable has been extinguished by virtue of law;

4. after completion of enforcement proceedings, the receivable remained wholly or partially uncollected;
 5. the bankruptcy proceedings against the debtor who is the recipient of the supply have been closed by a confirmed plan for rehabilitation which provides for incomplete satisfaction of the receivable of the supplier, and the receivable shall be deemed uncollectible up to the amount of the uncollected part;
 6. expiration of 365 days for a receivable in the amount of up to BGN 600 from the moment the receivable became payable;
 7. the debtor who is the recipient of the supply is deregistered after completed bankruptcy or liquidation proceedings, and in the case of a partially unsatisfied receivable, the receivable shall be considered finally uncollectible up to the amount of the unsatisfied part.
- (3) For the purposes of this Chapter, "partial payment for a supply" is assumed to be proportionally included in the amount of the payment made.

Reduction of the taxable amount and the tax charged on uncollectible receivable

Article 126b. (New, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) (1) Where the recipient of the supply was a registered person at the time of the supply and the conditions referred to in Article 126a (1) are fulfilled, the reduction of the taxable amount and of the tax charged shall be effected by the supplier by issuing a credit note pursuant to Article 115 up to the amount of the total or partial non-payment of the supply.

(2) Where the recipient of the supply was an unregistered person at the time of the supply and the conditions referred to in Items 1 - 4 of Article 126a (1) are fulfilled, the reduction of the taxable amount and of the tax charged shall be effected by the supplier by means of a report in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Regulations, within three months of the end of the tax period in which the relevant circumstance referred to in Items 1 - 6 of Article 126a (2) occurred.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 66/2023, effective 1.08.2023) Where the recipient of the supply has been deregistered after the completion of insolvency or liquidation proceedings pursuant to Item 7 of Article 126a (2), or the recipient of the supply was at the time of the supply a registered person that uses the goods or services received to carry out supplies for which it has not availed of the right to deduct a tax credit on the grounds of Article 70 or within the time limit specified in Article 72 (1), the reduction of the taxable amount and the tax charged shall be made pursuant to Paragraph (2).

(4) The reduction of the charged tax referred to in Paragraph (2) shall be determined as the difference between the charged tax on the supply and the tax credit used by the supplier for goods or services received thereby, which are directly related to the performance of the supply, up to the amount of the full or partial non-payment on the supply.

(5) The report issued under Paragraph (2) shall be marked with a (-) sign in the sales log and in the VAT return for the relevant tax period.

(6) Where the supplier who is registered under this Act receives a payment in full or in part for a supply for which the taxable amount and the tax charged have been reduced under Paragraph (1), or the receivable on the supply is otherwise settled against consideration, the person shall issue a debit note in the tax period in which the payment was received or the receivable was repaid, up to the amount of the payment received or the repayment of the supply.

(7) Where the supplier who is registered under this Act receives a payment in full or in part for a supply for which the taxable amount and the tax charged have been reduced under Paragraph (2) or the receivable on the supply is otherwise settled in full or in part against consideration, the person shall issue a memorandum in the tax period in which the payment was received or the receivable was repaid, up to the amount of the payment received or the repayment of the supply, or up to the amount of the reduction under Paragraph (4). The memorandum shall be marked with a (+) sign in the sales log and in the VAT return.

(8) (Amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) For the purposes of Paragraph (1), the supplier, a person registered under this Act, shall notify in writing the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency within three months of occurrence of the circumstance referred to in Article 126a (2), Items 1 - 6 of a full or partial non-payment for a taxable supply with a taxable amount exceeding EUR 51,130, which shall issue an authorisation for issuance of a credit note to an invoice issued with charged tax only in cases where the recipient of the supply has exercised the right to deduct tax credit on that invoice. Within 60 days of the submission of the notification, the revenue authorities shall issue an authorisation or refusal in accordance with Chapter Twelve of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedural Code. Failing to issue a decision within that term shall be considered a refusal to issue authorisation. Within three months of receipt of the authorisation, the person shall issue a credit note and shall submit a declaration pursuant to Article 125 (1) and ledgers of account pursuant to Article 124 for the period during which the credit note was issued.

(9) (Amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) The notification under Paragraph (8) shall not be submitted for full or partial non-payment for a taxable supply with a taxable amount of up to EUR 51,130. In such cases, within three months of the end of the tax period in which the relevant circumstance referred to in Article 126a (2) Items 1 - 6 occurred, the supplier shall issue a credit note to an invoice issued with charged tax only where the recipient of the supply has exercised the right to deduct tax credit on that invoice. The supplier shall file a declaration pursuant to Article 125 (1) and ledgers of account pursuant to Article 124 for the period during which the credit note was issued and in the manner laid down in the Regulations for Application of this Act.

(10) (New, SG No. 66/2023, effective 1.08.2023) Within the time limit for issuing the authorisation set out in paragraph 8, the revenue authority shall carry out a check on the fulfilment of the condition laid down in Article 126a(1)(1) of the Act and on the exercise of the right to deduct a tax credit by the recipient on the tax documents issued for the supply. Regardless of the granting of the authorisation, the conditions set out in Article 126a(1) and the occurrence of the relevant circumstance under Article 126a(2) shall be subject to subsequent tax control in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code after the granting of the authorisation under paragraph (8).

(11) (New, SG No. 66/2023, effective 1.10.2023) In the cases covered by paragraph 9 the supplier that is a person registered under this Act, using a qualified electronic signature through an electronic service provided by the National Revenue Agency, can receive information about the manner in which a document issued by it has been reflected in the recipient's purchases day book. Such check shall be carried out by entering data regarding the number and date of the invoice/invoices and statement/statements issued by the supplier and the identification number of the recipient under Article 94(2).

Limitations on reduction of taxable amount and tax charged on uncollectible claim

Article 126c. (New, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) The taxable amount and of the tax chargeable pursuant to Article 126a (1) shall not be reduced where the registered supplier knew or ought to have known at the time of the supply that he would not receive the amount due on the supply. It is assumed that the supplier was obliged to know when the supply is sham, circumventing the law or at a price which differs significantly from the market price.

PART SEVEN

SPECIFIC CASES

Chapter Fourteen

SPECIFIC CASES OF SUPPLIES

Supply Effected by Person Acting in His Own Name and for Account of Another Article 127. (Amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) (1) Where a taxable person (commission agent/mandatory) effects supply of goods or services in his own name and for the account of another, the person shall be presumed to have received and supplied the goods or the services.

(2) In the cases under Paragraph (1), two supplies shall be in place:

1. a supply between the commission agent/mandatory and the third party, for which the date of occurrence of the chargeable event for and the taxable amount of the supply shall be determined under the general rules of this Act;
2. supply of the goods or services which are the subject of the supply under Item 1, between the principal/mandator and the commission agent/mandatory, for which the date of occurrence of the tax event and the taxable amount of the supply shall be determined as follows:
 - a) supply between the commission agent/mandatory acts at the expense of the principal/mandator in relation to a sale, the date of occurrence of the tax event for this supply shall be determined by the general rules of the Act but shall not exceed the date of occurrence of the tax event under Item 1, and the taxable amount of the supply shall be the taxable amount of the supply under Item 1 less the fee for the commission agent/mandatory;
 - b) where the commission agent/mandatory acts at the expense of the principal/mandator in relation to a purchase, the date of occurrence of the tax event shall be determined by the general rules of the Act but shall not be earlier than the date of occurrence of the tax event under Item 1, and the taxable amount of the supply shall be the taxable amount of the supply under Item 1 plus the fee for the commission agent/mandatory.

Ancillary Supply

Article 128. Where the principal supply is accompanied by another supply and the payment is determined as a total, it shall be deemed that there is only one principal supply.

Warranty Services

Article 129. (1) The provision of goods by a manufacturer or a person authorized thereby for the purpose of replacement or elimination of defects under the terms of agreed warranty services, which is carried out for the account of the manufacturer, shall not be considered to be a supply.

(2) The provision of a service for the elimination of defects under the terms of agreed warranty services shall not be considered to be a supply where the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled:

1. the service is performed by a person authorized to do so by the manufacturer;
2. the manufacturer is not established within the territory of the country;
3. the warranty services are for the account of the manufacturer.

(3) The provision of goods and services for elimination of defects by a supplier, where the elimination of the defects is for the account of the said supplier in connection with amounts retained under Item 2 of Article 26 (4) herein, shall not be considered to be a supply.

Barter

Article 130. (1) When there is a supply under which the consideration (in full or in part) is expressed in goods or services, it shall be considered that there are two counter supplies, with each of the suppliers being considered to be a seller of what the said supplier gives and buyer of what the said suppliers receives.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) The chargeable event for the supplies referred to in Paragraph (1) shall occur under the general rules of law.

(3) (New, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) The supply referred to in Paragraph (1) with an earlier date of occurrence of a chargeable event shall be deemed an advance payment (in full or in part) on the second supply.

(4) (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) For the purposes of Paragraph (3) the value of the taxable amount for the received prepayment shall be the value of the taxable amount of the supply from an earlier date.

Supply of Goods or Services upon Public Auction under Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code or under Code of Civil Procedure or Sale under Registered Pledges Act

Article 131. (1) (Amended, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) In the cases of public auction according to the procedure established by the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code or by the Code of Civil Procedure or upon a sale according to the procedure established by the Registered Pledges Act or by Article 60 of the Credit Institutions Act and where the owner of the item, the debtor, the pledger or the owner of the mortgaged property respectively is a person registered under this Act, the public enforcement agent, the bailiff or the pledgee shall be obligated, within five days after receipt of the full price of the sale:

1. (amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) to pay the tax payable under the sale by crediting a bank account of the National Revenue Agency territorial directorate which shall be competent for the bailiff or the pledgee or to the bank account of the respective National Revenue Agency territorial directorate within the area of operation of the public enforcement agent;

2. to prepare a document on the sale, as specified in the Regulations for Application of this Act, in triplicate: one copy for the public enforcement agent/bailiff/pledgee, one copy for the owner of the item, and one copy for the recipient (buyer);

3. to provide the document referred to in Item 2 to the owner of the item and to the recipient within three days after the issuing of the said document;

4. to notify the competent National Revenue Agency territorial directorate whereat the owner of the item is registered under this Act of the document issued under Item 2 according to a procedure established by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

When determining the taxable amount, Article 27 shall not be applied.

(2) In the cases under Paragraph (1), the selling price shall be deemed to be inclusive of the tax, and the said tax shall be remitted (paid) by the recipient (buyer) to the public enforcement agent/bailiff/pledgee together with the selling price.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 59/2007) Paragraph (1) shall not apply where the thing has been awarded to the execution creditor on a motion thereby in payment of the claim thereof according to the procedure established by the Tax and Social Insurance Procedure Code.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 59/2007, SG No. 94/2015, effective 1.01.2016) In the cases under Paragraph (3), the taxable amount of the supply shall be the price of the thing determined according to the procedure established by Article 250 (3) or Article 254 (9) of the Tax and Social Insurance Procedure Code and the tax shall be deemed included in the price of the said thing.

(5) (New, SG No. 113/2007) In case the competent court repeals the public auction or sale under Paragraph (1) the remitted tax on the auction/sale shall be refunded according to a procedure set out by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

Single-purpose voucher

Article 131a. (New, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) (1) The sale of a single-purpose voucher by a taxable person acting in its name shall be deemed as a supply of the goods or services to which the voucher relates.

(2) The sale of a single-purpose voucher by a taxable person acting on behalf of another taxable person shall be deemed as a supply of the goods or services to which the voucher relates, effected by such other taxable person.

(3) The actual provision of goods or execution of services by the supplier to the person that has provided a single-purpose voucher as payment or part thereof for the receipt of such goods or services shall not be deemed as supply.

(4) Where a taxable person that has provided the goods or services against receipt of a single-purpose voucher as payment or part thereof is a person other than the issuer of the voucher, upon the provision of the goods or services there shall be a supply to the issuer of the voucher.

Multi-purpose voucher

Article 131b. (New, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) (1) The sale of a multi-purpose voucher by a taxable person acting in its name shall not be deemed as a supply of the goods or services to which the voucher relates.

(2) The actual provision of goods or execution of services by the supplier to the person that has provided a multi-purpose voucher as payment or part thereof for the receipt of such goods or services shall be a supply.

(3) The sale of a multi-purpose voucher by a taxable person acting on behalf of another taxable person shall not be deemed as supply effected by such other taxable person.

(4) Retention of a multi-purpose voucher after expiry of its validity without actual provision of goods or services shall not be deemed as a supply of the goods or services.

Vouchers – special provisions

Article 131c. (New, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) (1) When for the service provided by a taxable person acting on behalf of another taxable person a consideration is agreed in relation to the sale of the voucher, there shall be a chargeable supply of a service.

(2) The provisions of Articles 131a and 131b shall not apply to:

1. the instruments entitling the holder to a discount upon purchase of goods or services but carrying no right to receive such goods or services;
2. transport tickets, admission tickets to cinemas and museums, postage stamps or similar;
3. (repealed, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022).

Supplies of Goods Intended for Activities in the Continental Shelf and the Exclusive Economic Zone

Article 131d. (New, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) (1) In the event of supplies of goods in the territory of the country, which are intended for activities in the continental shelf and the exclusive economic zone, the supplier shall apply the general rules of this Act to such supplies, including in respect of supplies of goods placed under re-export or export arrangements.

(2) The tax under Article 82 (6) shall be charged by issuing a protocol. For the tax charged, the person under Article 82 (6) shall have the right to credit for input tax under the terms of Chapter Seven.

(3) The person under Items 1 and 2 of Article 82 (6) shall notify the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency that he shall charge electronically a tax on goods intended for the continental shelf and the exclusive economic zone.

A supplier who is not established in the territory of the European Union or a third country with which the European Union has concluded an agreement on mutual assistance similar in scope to Council Directive 2010/24/EU of 16 March 2010 concerning mutual assistance for the recovery of claims relating to taxes, duties and other measures (OJ L 84/1 of 31 March 2010), hereinafter referred to as "Directive 2010/24/EU", and Council Regulation (EU) No. 904/2010 of 7 October 2010 on administrative cooperation and combating fraud in the field of value added tax (OJ L 268/1 of 12 October 2010), hereinafter referred to as "Regulation (EU) No.

904/2010", and carries out supply of goods in accordance with Article 28, shall be registered under this Act through an accredited representative.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 108/2007) Registration under Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be effected according to the procedure established by Article 101 herein at the National Revenue Agency territorial directorate under Article 8 of the Tax Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(4) Upon dissolution of the person who is an accredited representative, or upon occurrence of other circumstances which lead to an impossibility for such person to fulfil the obligations thereof under this Act, the non-resident person shall be obligated to designate a new accredited representative within 14 days after the date of occurrence of the intervening circumstances.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) Any non-resident person, who is not established by seat and registered office or by fixed establishment in the territory of the European Union but is established in a third country with which the European Union has not concluded an agreement on mutual assistance similar in scope to Council Directive 2010/24/EU and Regulation (EU) No. 904/2010, and has chosen to register under Article 156 for application of a Union scheme, shall register through an accredited representative.

(6) (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) Where a person under Paragraphs (1), (2) and (5) is established in another Member State or in a third country with which the European Union has concluded an agreement on mutual assistance similar in scope to Directive 2010/24/EU and Regulation (EU) No. 904/2010, the registration shall be carried out following the general rules or the special rules of chapter eighteen. A foreign person may designate an accredited representative and, in such cases, the provisions of Paragraph (4) shall not apply.

(7) (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The revenue authority may register under Article 102 also a person meeting the requirements under paragraphs 1 and 2, including when the person has filed an application for registration within the prescribed time limit but has not designated an accredited representative.

Termination of Registration (Deregistration) of Non-Residents Registered under This Act

Article 134. (1) (Amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) The registration of a non-resident person registered in pursuance of Article 133 herein shall be terminated if the conditions for deregistration under this Act are fulfilled.

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) Deregistration under Paragraph (1) shall be effected according to the procedure established in Article 109 or Article 155 or 157.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) Where the non-resident person fails to designate a new accredited representative within the time limit referred to in Article 133 (4) herein, the registration of the said person may be terminated on the initiative of the revenue authority by issuing of a deregistration act.

(4) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (3), the deregistration act shall not be delivered to the person, and the date of deregistration shall be the date of expiry of the time limit referred to in Article 133 (4) herein.

(5) Upon deregistration under Paragraphs (1) and (3), the non-resident person shall be presumed to effect a supply under Article 111 herein.

Accredited Representative

Article 135. (1) (Amended, SG No. 108/2007) Only a natural person capable of performing juridical act with permanent address or permanently residing only in the country, or a local legal person which is not subject to liquidation proceeding or has not been adjudicated bankrupt and does not incur chargeable and unpaid tax liabilities and liabilities for social-insurance contributions collected by the National Revenue Agency may be an accredited representative of a non-resident person.

(2) The accredited representative shall represent the non-resident person referred to in Article 133 herein in all tax legal relations of the said person which arise in pursuance of this Act.

(3) (Supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) The accredited representative shall incur solidary and unlimited liability for the obligations under this Act of the registered non-resident person, except for the cases under Article 133, Paragraph (5) for the persons registered pursuant to Article 154 for application of a non-Union scheme and under Article 133, Paragraph (6).

(4) (New, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021, amended, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) The representative referred to in Article 157a (2) shall be deemed to be an accredited representative of the person referred to in Article 157a (3) and shall represent him in all its tax relationships under the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories and shall be jointly and severally liable for the obligations under that scheme.

SPECIAL TAXING ARRANGEMENTS

Chapter Sixteen

SERVICES TO TOURISTS

Supply of Single Service to Tourists

Article 136. (Amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) (1) The provision by a tour operator, acting in his own name, of goods or services in connection with the journey of a traveller, for the carrying out of which goods or services for the direct benefit of the traveller are used, shall be treated as a supply of a single service to tourists.

(2) The goods and services referred to in Paragraph (1) directly benefiting the traveller shall be the goods and services which the tour operator has received from other taxable persons and has provided to the traveller without alteration.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to the supplies of travel agents when they act on behalf and for the account of another person.

Place of Transaction of Single Service to Tourists

Article 137. (Amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) The place of transaction of a single service to tourists shall be the place where the tour operator has established the economic activity thereof or has a fixed establishment from which the said operator or agent effects the transaction.

Date of Occurrence of Chargeable Event and Chargeability of Tax

Article 138. (1) (Amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) The date of occurrence of the chargeable event for the supply of a single service to tourists shall be the date on which the traveller benefits from the supply for the first time.

(2) The tax on the supply of a single service to tourists shall become chargeable on the date of occurrence of the chargeable event referred to in Paragraph (1).

Taxable Amount of Single Service to Tourists

Article 139. (1) (Amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) The taxable amount of the supply of a single service to tourists shall be the margin which represents the difference, less the amount of the tax payable, between:

1. the total amount, which the tour operator has received or will receive from the traveller or from the third party for the supply, including any subsidies and investment grants directly linked to such supply, the taxes and fees, as well as the incidental expenses such as commission and insurance, charged by the supplier to the recipient but exclusive of any trade discounts allowed;

2. the amount which has been paid or will be paid for supplies of goods and services received by the tour operator from other taxable persons for the direct benefit of the traveller, including the tax under this Act.

(2) The taxable amount referred to in Paragraph (1) may not be a negative quantity.

Zero-Rating upon Supply of Single Service to Tourists

Article 140. (1) (Amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) The supply of a single service to tourists shall be liable to tax at the zero rate, if the supplies of goods and services are for the direct benefit of the traveller, shall have a place of transaction within the territory of third countries and territories.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) Where only part of the supplies of goods and services referred to in Paragraph (1) which are for the direct benefit of the traveller have a place of transaction within the territory of third countries and territories, only the part of the said supplies corresponding to the supply of the single service to tourists shall be liable to tax at the zero rate.

Credit for Input Tax to Tour Operator

Article 141. (Amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) The tour operator shall not have the right to deduct credit for input tax in respect of the supplies of goods and services received from other taxable persons for the direct benefit of the traveller.

Charging Tax and Documenting Supply of Single Service to Tourists

Article 142. (1) (Amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) The tax on the supply of a single service to tourists shall be charged by the issuing of a memorandum, and recorded in the invoice and the notification to it shall be "regime of margin taxation - tourist services".

(2) The supply of a single service to tourists shall be documented and reported according to a procedure established by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

Chapter Seventeen

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR TAXING PRICE MARGIN

Supply of Second-Hand Goods, Works of Art, Collectors' Items and Antiques

Article 143. (1) (Supplemented, SG No. 108/2006, amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The provisions in this Chapter shall apply to a supply effected by a taxable dealer of second-hand goods, works of art, collectors' items, antiques, supplied to the said dealer within the territory of the country or from the territory of another Member State by:

1. a non-taxable person;
2. (supplemented, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) another taxable person registered under this Act, where the subject of the supply is an exempted good under Article 50 (1) herein or persons registered for VAT purposes in another Member State who are exempted from taxation under the laws of the respective country on equivalent grounds;
3. another taxable person who is not registered under this Act or a taxable person from a Member State who is not registered for VAT purposes, where the subject of the supply is goods representing fixed assets within the meaning of the relevant accountancy law;
4. another taxable dealer applying the special arrangements for taxing the price margin.

(2) The provision of Paragraph (1) shall not apply upon an intra-European Union supply of new means of transport.

(3) Taxable dealers shall have the right to apply the provisions of this Chapter also in respect of a supply of:

1. works of art, collectors' items or antiques which they have imported;
 2. works of art supplied to them by their creators or by the successors in title of the said creators.
- (4) (Amended, SG No. 108/2006) The right of option under Paragraph (3) shall be exercised by means of submission of a notification to the competent National Revenue Agency territorial directorate.
- (5) Taxable dealers who have exercised a right of option under Paragraph (4) shall apply the special arrangements for taxing the margin for a supply covered under Paragraph (3) as from the first day of the month following the month of submission of the notification, and for a period not shorter than 24 months including the month following the month of submission of the notification.
- (6) After the lapse of the time period referred to in Paragraph (5), the taxable dealer may discontinue the application of the special arrangements for taxing the margin for supplies covered under Paragraph (3) by submitting a notification to the competent National Revenue Agency territorial directorate. The application of the special arrangements for taxing the margin shall be discontinued as from the month following the month of submission of the notification.
- (7) Notifications referred to in Paragraphs (4) and (6) shall be submitted in a standard form specified in the Regulations for Application of this Act.

Place of Transaction, Chargeable Event and Chargeability of Tax on Supplies of Goods under Special Arrangements for Taxing Margin

Article 144. (1) The place of transaction of supplies covered under Article 143 herein shall be the place where the taxable dealer has the registered office or fixed establishment from which the said dealer effects such supplies.

(2) The chargeable event for the supplies covered under Article 143 herein shall occur according to the general rules under this Act.

(3) The tax on supplies covered under Article 143 herein shall become chargeable on the last day of the tax period during which the chargeable event occurred according to Paragraph (2).

(4) The tax shall be charged by the issuing of a memorandum according to a procedure and in a manner established by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

Taxable Amount

Article 145. (1) The taxable amount of the supply of goods under this Chapter shall be the price margin which represents the difference, less the amount of the tax payable, between:

1. the selling price, representing the total amount which the taxable dealer has received or will receive from the customer or the third party for the supply, including any subsidies and investment grants directly linked to such supply, the taxes and fees, as well as the incidental expenses on packing, transport, commissions and insurance, charged by the supplier to the recipient but exclusive of any trade discounts allowed;

2. the amount which has been paid or will be paid for goods received by the persons under Article 143 (1) and (3) herein, including the tax under this Act, and where the goods have been imported, the taxable amount upon importation, including the tax under this Act.

(2) The taxable amount referred to in Paragraph (1) may not be a negative quantity.

Supply of Goods under Special Arrangements for Taxing Margin at Zero Rate

Article 146. The supply of goods under the special arrangements for taxing the margin shall be liable to tax at the zero rate where the conditions established by Article 28 herein are fulfilled in respect of the supply.

Credit for Input Tax

Article 147. (1) The taxable dealer shall have the right to credit for input tax in respect of any goods and services acquired or imported thereby which the said dealer uses only for the effecting of supplies under this Chapter.

(2) (Repealed, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010).

- (3) (Repealed, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010).
- (4) (Repealed, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010).
- (5) The taxable dealer shall not have the right to deduct credit for input tax in respect of any goods received or imported thereby to which the said dealer applies the special arrangements for taxing the margin.
- (6) (New, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) The dealer shall have the right to deduct credit for input tax in respect of second-hand goods imported thereby under the general procedure of this Act.
- (7) (New, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) The dealer shall have the right to deduct credit for input tax in respect of imported works of art, collectors' items and antiques or works of art provided to him by the author or his heirs, under the general procedure of this Act, provided that he has not exercised his right of option under Article 143 (3).

Documenting Supply of Goods under Special Arrangements for Taxing Margin

Article 148. (1) (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) The dealer shall write down in the invoice and in the notification to the invoice "regime of margin taxation - second hand goods" or "regime of margin taxation - works of art" or "regime of margin taxation - objects for collections and antique items".

(2) (Previous text of Article 148, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) The supply of goods under the special arrangements for taxing the margin shall be documented and reported according to a procedure established by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

Taxable Turnover of Taxable Dealer from Supplies of Goods under Special Arrangements for Taxing Margin

Article 149. The taxable turnover of a taxable dealer from supplies of goods under the special arrangements for taxing the margin shall be the sum total of the margins.

Charging Tax on Goods in Stock upon Taxable Dealer's Deregistration

Article 150. (1) The deregistration of the taxable dealer shall be effected according to the general conditions for deregistration of this Act.

(2) Upon deregistration, the taxable dealer shall be liable for a tax on the goods in stock covered under this Chapter. The amount of the said tax shall be determined on the basis of the average margin achieved by the taxable dealer during the 12 months last preceding the deregistration date.

(3) The procedure and manner for determining the average margin referred to in Paragraph (2) shall be established by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

(4) Upon deregistration, the taxable dealer shall be liable for tax under Article 111 herein, with the exception of the tax on the goods in stock referred to in Paragraph (2).

Right of Option

Article 151. (1) A taxable dealer may apply the standard procedure under this Act for taxing the supply of second-hand goods, works of art, collectors' items and antiques.

(2) The right referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be exercised by the person for each particular supply and, to this end, the invoice issued shall not state that the special arrangements under this Chapter are applied.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The taxable amount of the supply shall be determined according to the procedure established by Articles 26 and 27 herein.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (1) for the goods to which Article 143 (3) applies, the right to credit for input tax shall arise and shall be exercised during the tax period in which the tax on the subsequent supply of such goods has become chargeable.

(5) The supplies referred to in Paragraph (2) shall be documents according to the standard procedure established by this Act.

(6) Where the taxable dealer applies both the special arrangements for taxing the margin and the standard procedure for taxing the supplies, the said dealer shall be obligated to keep separate accounts for the supplies as specified by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

Chapter Seventeen "a"

VALUE ADDED TAX SPECIAL CASH ACCOUNTING REGIME

(New, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014)

General Provisions

Article 151a. (New, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) (1) The persons registered under Articles 96, 97 and 100 (1) may apply a value added special cash accounting regime, hereinafter referred to as "special regime", if they meet simultaneously the following conditions:

1. (amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) have a taxable turnover not exceeding EUR 500,000, realised for a period not exceeding the last 12 successive months before the current month; the taxable turnover shall be determined in accordance with Article 96;

2. have no effective tax assessment act under Article 122 of the Tax Insurance Procedure Code and/or for liability under Article 177;

3. have no chargeable and unpaid tax liabilities and liabilities for social-insurance contributions under effective acts, and in case of existing liabilities they have provided security or a permit for deferral or rescheduling has been granted thereto.

(2) Upon applying the special regime to supplies in respect whereof a chargeable event has occurred, the tax shall become chargeable on the date of receipt of the whole payment or of a partial payment proportionate to the required payment. The regime shall apply to all supplies of goods or services with the exception of:

1. importation of goods;

2. intra-Community acquisitions of goods;

3. intra-Community supplies of goods;

4. supplies to persons not registered under this Act;

5. tax-exempt supplies;

6. supplies with place of transaction outside the territory of the country;

7. supplies of services with place of transaction on the territory of the country in respect whereof the tax is chargeable on the recipient of the goods;

8. supplies under lease contract under Item 3 of Article 6 (2);

9. supplies in respect whereof part eight applies, except for this chapter;

10. supplies of goods and services in respect whereof the consideration is not paid via bank transfer, including credit transfer, direct debit or cash transfer effected through a payment service provider within the meaning of the Payment Services and Payment Systems Act, or via postal transfer effected through a licensed postal operator making money transfers within the meaning of the Postal Services Act;

11. (amended, SG No. 52/2022, effective 1.07.2022) zero-rated supplies;

12. supplies between related parties;

13. chargeable supplies in respect whereof the whole payment is made, including the tax for the supply, including the tax hereunder, before or on the date of occurrence of the chargeable event.

(3) For application of the special regime a permit shall be granted by the National Revenue Agency authorities.

- (4) For obtaining a permit for application of the special regime the person referred to in Paragraph (1) shall submit to the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency a written request in standard form set out in the Regulations for Application of this Act. The request for application of the special regime shall be submitted in accordance with the procedure for submission of applications under Article 101.
- (5) Within the time limits under Article 101 (6) and (7), the revenue authority shall perform verification and shall issue an act confirming or reasonably refusing to issue a permit for application of the special regime. The permit shall be issued on the date of serving the act referred to in Article 101 (7).
- (6) The National Revenue Agency shall refuse to issue a permit under Paragraph 5 should it establish that any of the conditions referred to in Paragraph 1 has not been fulfilled.
- (7) The National Revenue Agency may refuse to issue a permit under Paragraph 5 should it establish that a circumstance under Article 176 exists.
- (8) For the persons referred to in Paragraph 1 the National Revenue Agency shall create and maintain a special public register which is part of the register under Article 80 (1) of the Tax Social Insurance Procedure Code.
- (9) The revenue authority shall record the person in the special public register under Paragraph 8 on the day of issuance of the permit for application of the special regime.

Application and Termination of the Special Regime

Article 151b. (New, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) (1) A person who has obtained a permit under Article 151a (5) shall apply the special regime from the first day of the month following the month of obtaining the permit.

- (2) When the conditions under Article 151a (1) exist, the person who has obtained a permit for application of the special regime may take actions for termination of the application of the regime upon expiry of 12 months effective from the month following the month of issuing the permit.
- (3) When one of the conditions under Article 151a (1) does not exist, the person who has obtained a permit for application of the special regime shall take actions to terminate the application of the regime.
- (4) For termination of the application of the special regime under Paragraphs 2 and 3 the person shall submit to the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency a request for termination of the application of the special regime in standard form determined in the Regulations for Application of this Act. In the cases under Paragraph 3 the request shall be submitted within 7 days from occurrence of the circumstances.
- (5) For termination of the application of the special regime under Article 109 (4) and (5) the revenue authority shall make verification and shall issue an act confirming or reasonably refusing to terminate the application of the special regime.
- (6) A person who has chosen to apply the general rules for chargeability of the tax under Article 25 after the time limit under Paragraph 2 may request a permit for application of the special regime after expiry of 12 months effective from the beginning of the month following the month of termination of application thereof.
- (7) Application of the special regime shall be terminated at the initiative of the revenue authority by issuing an act when:
1. it is established that any of the conditions under Article 151a (1) does not exist and the person has not fulfilled its obligation for submission of a request under Paragraph 4 within the required time limit;
 2. the person has deducted a credit for input tax before occurrence of the conditions under Article 151d (1);
 3. the person under Paragraph 1 has not issued or recorded the memorandum issued under Article 151c (8) for the value added tax due upon received payment for the supply of goods or services effected thereby in the reporting ledger under Item 2 of Article 124 (1) and in the VAT return under Article 125 for the period for which the tax has become chargeable.

(8) The revenue authority may terminate the application of the special regime for a person who has been granted a permit under Article 151a (5) should it establish that the circumstances under Article 176 apply.

(9) Application of the special regime shall be terminated under Paragraphs 2, 3, 7 and 8 from the day following the serving of the act of termination of the special regime.

(10) The revenue authority shall de-register the person from the special public register under Article 151a (8) on the day of the serving of the act of termination of the special regime.

Chargeable Event, Tax Chargeability and Tax Charging

Article 151c. (New, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) (1) The chargeable event of a supply in respect whereof the provisions of this chapter apply shall arise in accordance with the general rules hereunder.

(2) A person applying the special regime, on the date of occurrence of the chargeable event under Paragraph 1, shall charge the tax on the supply by:

1. issuing an invoice or notification and specifying the tax on a separate line;
2. specifying the invoice or notification under Item 1 in the sales ledger for the respective tax period and the taxable amount and the amount of the tax shall not be taken into account in the calculation of the result for the tax period.

(3) The tax on the supply under Paragraph 1 shall be chargeable on the date of receipt of the whole payment or of a partial payment on the supply and the person applying the special regime shall record and include in the sales ledger and in the VAT return under Article 125 for that tax period the amount of the tax indicated in the memorandum under Paragraph 8 in determining the result for the respective tax period.

(4) Upon received partial payment on or after the date of the chargeable event, chargeability under Paragraph 3 shall arise only for the portion of the tax charged in the invoice and/or notification under Paragraph 2, which proportionately corresponds to the amount of the partial payment made against the total amount of the payment due at the date of the chargeable event.

(5) For a partial advance payment on a supply under Paragraph 1, which is received before occurrence of the chargeable event, Article 25 (7) shall apply and chargeability shall be effected in accordance with the general procedure of this Act. Upon a partial advance payment received before occurrence of the chargeable event, Paragraph 3 shall apply to the amount of the tax on the difference between the taxable amount on the supply and the amounts paid in advance, excluding the tax hereunder.

(6) When before the start of application of the special regime an invoice has been issued for a partial advance payment on a chargeable supply, the chargeable event in respect whereof occurs after the first day of the month following the month of obtaining the permit for application of the special regime, Paragraph 5 shall apply.

(7) Upon termination of application of the special regime a tax in respect whereof no chargeability under Paragraph 3 has occurred shall become chargeable on the date of serving of the act of termination of the regime application and the person shall include it in the VAT return under Article 125 in the calculation of the result for the tax period in which the application of the special regime is terminated.

(8) For determination of the tax under Paragraphs 3 and 7 a memorandum shall be issued under the procedure set out in the Regulations for Application of this Act to each of the parties by the supplier - a person applying the special regime. The tax shall be due for the tax period in which it became chargeable.

Credit for Input Tax

Article 151d. (New, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) (1) For the persons under Article 151b (1) the right to deduct credit for input tax for received supply in which the supplier does not apply the special regime shall arise for the tax period in which the whole or partial payment on the supply was made to the supplier and shall be exercised within the time limit under Article 72.

(2) Paragraph 1 shall not apply for the supplies of goods or services which according to Article 151a (2) are excluded from the scope of the special regime. The right to deduct credit for input tax for such supplies shall arise and shall be exercised in accordance with the general rules of the act.

(3) For the persons under Article 151b (1) the right to deduct credit for input tax on a supply for which the supplier applies the special regime and in the invoice is written "cash accounting" shall arise for the tax period in which the whole or a partial payment was made on the supply to the supplier and shall be exercised within the time limit under Article 72.

(4) Upon a partial payment made on or after the date of the chargeable event the right to deduct credit for input tax under Paragraph 1 shall arise for the portion of the tax charged in the invoice and/or notification at the date of the chargeable event, which proportionately corresponds to the amount of the partial payment made against the total amount of the payment due at the date of the chargeable event.

(5) Upon a partial advance payment made prior to occurrence of the chargeable event the right to deduct credit for input tax shall arise in accordance with the general rules of the act. For the tax stated in the invoice and/or notification issued at the date of the chargeable event, determined on the difference between the taxable amount on the supply and the amounts paid in advance, excluding the tax hereunder, Paragraph 1 shall apply.

(6) A person terminating the application of the special regime under the procedure of Article 151b shall have the right to deduct credit for input tax for the tax in respect whereof the said right has not been exercised as a result of the application of Paragraph 1. The right shall arise on the date of serving of the act for the termination of the regime application and shall be exercised within the time limit under Article 72.

(7) For a person terminating the application of the special regime the right to deduct credit for input tax on a supply for which no tax chargeability has arisen in respect of a supplier - a person applying the special regime and in the invoice is written "cash accounting" shall arise in accordance with the procedure of Article 68 (6).

(8) To determine the amount of the tax credit under Paragraphs 1 and 6 a memorandum shall be issued by the recipient - a person under Article 151b (1) in accordance with the procedure set out in the Regulations for Application of this Act. No memorandum shall be issued by the recipient for supplies in respect whereof the supplier has applied Article 151c (8) and in the invoice is written "cash accounting".

Documenting the Supply

Article 151e. (New, SG No. 101/2013, effective 1.01.2014) (1) The effected supplies for which chargeability of the tax under Article 151c (3) has not occurred shall be documented by stating "cash accounting" in the invoice and in the notification thereto.

(2) Paragraph 1 shall not apply to goods which are excluded from the scope of the special regime in accordance with Article 151a (2).

(3) Documenting and reporting of supplies under the special regime shall be effected in accordance with a procedure set out in the Regulations for Application of this Act.

Section II

(New, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015)

Registration and Deregistration for Application of a Regime Outside the Union

Special Registration for Application of Non-Union Scheme

Article 154. (Repealed, new, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, supplemented, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) Entitled to register for application of the non-Union scheme shall be a taxable person for which the following conditions apply simultaneously:

1. (amended, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) performs supplies of services with a place of transaction in the territory of a Member State for which the recipients are non-taxable persons;
2. the said person is not established within the territory of the European Union;
3. the said person is not registered for application of such special regime in another member state;
4. (amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) there is no effective restriction on registration under Paragraph (10);
5. (repealed, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024).

(2) (Effective 1.04.2021 - SG No. 104/2020; supplemented, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) The right referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be exercised by the person submitting an application for registration according to a standard form set out in the Regulations for Application of this Act to the Sofia Territorial Directorate of the National Revenue Agency. The application shall be submitted electronically under the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code with a qualified electronic signature.

(3) Together with the application referred to in Paragraph (2), the person shall provide at least the following information:

1. name, mailing address, electronic address, including Internet site of the person;
2. identification number for tax purposes, if any;
3. a declaration of absence of seat and registered office and that it has no fixed establishment in the territory of the European Union;
4. a bank account of the person in Euro;
5. identification numbers from previous registrations of the person for application of a non-Union scheme, a Union scheme and a scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, if any.

(4) Within 7 days from receipt of the application under Paragraph (2) the revenue authority shall verify the grounds for registration for application of a regime outside the Union. Within seven days after completion of the verification, the revenue authority shall issue an act whereby it shall effect the registration or shall refuse to effect the registration, stating reasons for such refusal. Delivery of the act to the person under Paragraph (1) shall be effected electronically.

(5) The first day of the quarter following the calendar quarter of submitting the application under Paragraph (2) shall be considered to be a date of registration.

(6) (Amended, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) The identification number for the purposes of registration for application of a non-Union scheme shall consist of 11 alphanumeric digits containing the sign "EU" and shall be used only for the purposes of application of a non-Union scheme.

(7) The date of the first supply shall be considered to be a date of registration, where the first supply of the services under Item 1 of Paragraph (1) is effected before the date under Paragraph (5), provided that the taxable person has submitted an application for registration under Paragraph (2) not later than the 10th day of the month following the date of the first supply.

(8) Upon a change in the details of a submitted application under Paragraph (2), the person shall submit electronically an application for update not later than the 10th day of the month following the occurrence of the change.

(9) (Amended, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) A person registered in another member state for application of the regime outside the Union may register on the grounds of this Article by submitting an electronic application under Paragraph (2) not later than the 10th day of the month following the date of change specified thereby, notifying the other member state of the change within the same time limit. In such cases, the date of registration under this Article shall be the first day of the quarter following the calendar quarter of the submission of the application for registration by electronic means.

(10) (Supplemented, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) A restriction for registration under a non-Union scheme due to systemic failure on the obligations by the persons shall be in force until the expiration of 8 consecutive tax periods effective from the tax period following the period of termination of the application of the scheme in any Member State of identification of the application of a non-Union scheme, a Union scheme, or 24 tax periods effective from the tax period following the period of termination of the application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories in any Member State of identification.

(11) Where the registration of the person for the application of non-Union scheme is terminated on grounds that the person has not made supplies under Paragraph 1, Item 1 for a period of 8 consecutive tax periods, the person may register to apply the scheme as soon as it resumes the supply of said goods.

Termination of the Special Registration for the Application of Non-Union Scheme

Article 155. (Repealed, new, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) The registration for the application of the non-Union scheme shall be terminated at the person's initiative where:

1. the said person no longer makes supplies of services to recipients who are non-taxable persons and who are established or have a permanent address, or usually reside in a Member State, including in the country;

2. the person no longer fulfils the conditions under Article 154 (1) herein.
3. the person opts for applying the non-Union scheme.
- (2) (Supplemented, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) The person shall terminate the registration under Paragraph (1) by submitting an application for deregistration according to a standard form set out in the Regulations for Application of this Act to the Sofia Territorial Directorate of the National Revenue Agency. The application shall be submitted electronically under the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code with a qualified electronic signature.
- (3) In the cases under Items 1 and 2 of Paragraph (1) the person shall submit an application for deregistration not later than the 10th day of the month following the month in which the respective circumstance arises.
- (4) In the cases under Item 3 of Paragraph (1) the person shall submit an application for deregistration not later than 15 days before the end of the quarter preceding the calendar quarter from which he does not wish to apply the regime.
- (5) Within seven days of receipt of the application for deregistration under Paragraph (2) the revenue authority shall verify the grounds for termination of the registration for application of non-Union scheme. Within seven days after completion of the verification, the revenue authority shall issue an act whereby it shall effect the deregistration or shall refuse to effect the deregistration, stating the reasons for such refusal. Delivery of the act to the person whose registration for application of the regime is terminated shall be effected electronically.
- (6) In the cases under Items 1 and 2 of Paragraph (1) the date of deregistration of the application of the non-Union scheme shall be the first day of the quarter following the calendar quarter of sending the act of deregistration electronically, and in the cases under Item 3 of Paragraph (1) the date of deregistration of application of the non-Union scheme shall be the first day of the quarter following the calendar quarter of submitting the application for deregistration.
- (7) Registration for application of the non-Union scheme shall be terminated at the initiative of the revenue authority by issuing an act of deregistration, where it is established that the person:
 1. has not made any supplies under Item 1 of Paragraph (1) in eight consecutive tax periods and has not submitted an application for deregistration of application of the scheme, or
 2. does not fulfil the conditions under Article 154 (1) herein, or
 3. (supplemented, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) systematically fails to comply with the provisions of a non-Union scheme; in this case, registration for the application of a Union scheme and of a scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories is also terminated.
- (8) Systematic failure to comply with the provisions of the non-Union scheme exists where:
 1. pursuant to Article 159 (12) the National Revenue Agency has sent reminders to the person registered for application of the regime for the last three preceding tax periods and the VAT return under Article 159 (4) for each tax period has not been submitted within 10 days after sending of a reminder;
 2. pursuant to Article 159 (12) the National Revenue Agency has sent reminders to the person registered for application of the regime for the last three preceding tax periods and the total amount of the declared tax for each tax period has not been paid by the person within 10 days after sending of a reminder, except for the case where the outstanding tax amount is less than EUR 100 for each tax period;
 3. upon request by a revenue authority and one month after sending of a relevant reminder by the National Revenue Agency the person has not submitted the ledgers of account under Article 159d, Paragraph (1).
- (9) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (7) the act to the person whose registration for application of the scheme is terminated shall be delivered electronically. In these cases, the date of deregistration of the person for application of the non-Union scheme shall be the first day of the quarter following the calendar quarter of sending electronically of the act of deregistration.

(10) (Amended, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) A person registered pursuant to Article 154 may be registered for said scheme in another Member State by submitting an electronic application for deregistration to the Sofia Territorial Directorate of the National Revenue Agency in accordance with the procedure referred to in Paragraph (2), not later than the 10th day of the month following the date of the change specified thereby. The person shall notify the member state of the change within the same time limit. In such cases, the date of termination of the registration shall be the first day of the quarter following the calendar quarter of the submission of the application for termination of registration by electronic means.

Section III

(New, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015)

Registration and Deregistration for Application of a Regime in the Union

4. fixed establishments within the territory of other member states;
5. identification numbers from previous and current registrations of the person for application of the non-Union scheme, the Union scheme and the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, if any.

(4) Within 7 days from receipt of the application under Paragraph (2) the revenue authority shall verify the grounds for registration for application of the regime in the Union. Within seven days after completion of the verification, the revenue authority shall issue an act whereby it shall effect the registration or shall refuse to effect the registration, stating reasons for such refusal. Delivery of the act to the person under Paragraph (1) shall be effected electronically.

(5) The first day of the quarter following the calendar quarter of submitting the application under Paragraph (2) shall be considered to be a date of registration.

(6) The identification number for the purposes of registration for application of the Union scheme shall be the identification number under Article 94 (2).

(7) The date of the first supply shall be considered to be a date of registration, where the first supply under Item 1 of Paragraph (1) is effected before the date under Paragraph (5), provided that the taxable person has submitted an application for registration under Paragraph (2) not later than the 10th day of the month following the date of the first supply.

(8) Upon a change in the details of a submitted application under Paragraph (2), the person shall submit electronically an application for update not later than the 10th day of the month following the occurrence of the change.

(9) A person registered in another Member State for application of the Union scheme, who relocates its place of establishment by seat and registered office to the territory of the country, subject to compliance with the conditions under Paragraph (1), may register pursuant to this Article.

(10) A person registered in another Member State for application of the Union scheme, where the person is not established by seat and registered office, but has a fixed establishment within the territory of the European Union, relocates its fixed establishment to the territory of the country, subject to compliance with the conditions under Paragraph (1), may register pursuant to this Article.

(11) A person registered in another member state for application of the regime in the Union, which is not established by seat and registered office within the territory of the European Union but has fixed establishment both within the territory of the country and within the territory of another member state, subject to compliance with the conditions under Paragraph (1), may register under this Article after expiry of two calendar years following the year of registration for application of the regime in the Union in the other member state.

(12) A person registered in another Member State for application of the Union scheme, where the person is not established by seat and registered office and by fixed establishment within the territory of the European Union, and where the person begins dispatching or transporting the goods supplied thereby only from the territory of the country, subject to compliance with the conditions under Paragraph (1), may register pursuant to this Article.

(13) A person registered in another Member State for application of the Union scheme, where the person is not established by seat and registered office and by fixed establishment within the territory of the European Union, and where the person begins dispatching or transporting the goods supplied thereby both from the territory of the country and from the territories of other Member State, subject to compliance with the conditions under Paragraph (1), may register pursuant to this Article.

(14) In the cases referred to in Paragraphs (9) and (13) the date of registration shall be considered to be the date of the change, if the person submits an application for registration under Paragraph (2) not later than the 10th day of the month following the change, and notifies the member state of identification of the change within the same time limit.

(15) (Supplemented, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) A restriction for registration under a Union scheme due to systemic failure on the obligation by the person shall be in force until the expiration of 8 consecutive tax periods effective from the tax period following the period of termination of the application of the scheme in any Member State of identification of the application of the non-Union scheme, the Union scheme, or 24 tax periods effective from the tax period following the period of termination of the application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, in any Member State of identification.

(16) (Amended, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) The right under Paragraph (1) to register for the application of a regime in the Union shall have a taxable person, which carries out supplies with place of transaction under Article 20b (4) on the territory of the country, if such person notifies, together with the application under Paragraph (2), that he wishes the place of transaction of supplies to be determined in accordance with Article 20 (1) and Article 21 (6).

(17) Where the registration of the taxable person for the application of Union scheme is terminated on grounds that the person has not made supplies under Paragraph 1, Item 1 for a period of 8 consecutive tax periods, the person may register to apply the scheme as soon as it resumes the supply of said goods.

Termination of the Special Registration for Application of Union Scheme

Article 157. (Repealed, new, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, supplemented, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) The registration for the application of the Union scheme shall be terminated at the initiative of the person where:

1. the person no longer makes supplies of services and Intra-community distance sales of goods, including some domestic distance sales of goods of non-taxable persons;
2. the person no longer fulfils the conditions under Article 156 (1) herein.
3. the person opts for not applying the Union scheme.

(2) The person shall terminate the registration under Paragraph (1) by submitting an application for deregistration according to a standard form set out in the Regulations for Application of this Act to the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency. The application shall be submitted electronically under the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code with a qualified electronic signature.

(3) In the cases under Items 1 and 2 of Paragraph (1) the person shall submit an application for deregistration not later than the 10th day of the month following the month in which the respective circumstance arises.

(4) In the cases under Item 3 of Paragraph (1) the person shall submit an application for deregistration not later than 15 days before the end of the quarter preceding the calendar quarter from which he does not wish to apply the regime.

(5) Within 7 days from receipt of the application for deregistration under Paragraph(2) the revenue authority shall verify the grounds for deregistration of the application of the regime in the Union. Within 7 days after completion of the verification, the revenue authority shall issue an act whereby it shall effect the deregistration or shall refuse the deregistration, stating the reasons for such refusal. Delivery of the act to the person whose registration for application of the regime is terminated shall be effected electronically.

(6) In the cases under Items 1 and 2 of Paragraph (1) the date of deregistration of application of the regime in the Union shall be the first day of the quarter following the calendar quarter of sending the act of deregistration electronically, and in the cases under Item 3 of Paragraph (1) the date of deregistration of application of the regime in the Union shall be the first day of the quarter following the calendar quarter of submitting the application for deregistration.

(7) Registration for application of the Union scheme shall be terminated at the initiative of the revenue authority by issuing an act of deregistration, where it is established that the person:

1. has not made any supplies under Item 1 of Article 156 (1) in eight consecutive tax periods and has not submitted an application for termination of the application of the scheme, or
2. does not fulfil the conditions under Article 156 (1) herein, or
3. (supplemented, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) repeatedly fails to comply with the provisions of a Union scheme; in this case, the registration for the application of a non-Union scheme and of a scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories shall also be terminated.

(8) Systematic failure to comply with the provisions of the Union scheme exists where:

1. pursuant to Article 159 (12) the National Revenue Agency has sent reminders to the person registered for application of the scheme for the last three preceding tax periods and the VAT return under Article 159 (4) for each tax period has not been submitted within 10 days after sending of a reminder;
2. pursuant to Article 159 (12) the National Revenue Agency has sent reminders to the person registered for application of the regime for the last three preceding tax periods and the total amount of the declared tax for each tax period has not been paid by the person within 10 days after sending of a reminder, except for the case where the outstanding tax amount is less than EUR 100 for each tax period;
3. upon request by a revenue authority and one month after sending of a relevant reminder by the National Revenue Agency the person has not submitted the ledgers of account under Article 159d, Paragraph (1).

(9) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (7) the act to the person whose registration for application of the scheme is terminated shall be delivered electronically. In these cases, the date of deregistration of the person for application of the Union scheme shall be the first day of the quarter following the calendar quarter of sending of the act of deregistration.

(10) A person registered pursuant to Article 156, who relocates its place of establishment by seat and registered office to the territory of another Member State, shall terminate his registration under this Article.

(11) A person registered pursuant to Article 156, who is not established by seat and registered office within the territory of the European Union, where the person relocates his fixed establishment to the territory of another Member State or establishes his seat and registered office within the territory of another Member State, shall terminate his registration under this Article.

(12) A person registered pursuant to Article 156, who is not established by seat and registered office within the territory of the European Union but has a fixed establishment both within the territory of the country and within the territory of another Member State, may register for application of this scheme in the other Member State after expiry of two calendar years effective from the beginning of the year following the year of registration and shall terminate his registration under this Article.

(13) A person registered pursuant to Article 156, who is not established by seat and registered office and by fixed establishment within the territory of the European Union, and where the person begins dispatching or transporting the goods supplied thereby only from the territory of another Member State, shall terminate his registration under this Article.

(14) A person registered pursuant to Article 156, who is not established by seat and registered office and by fixed establishment within the territory of the European Union and where the person begins dispatching or transporting the goods supplied thereby both from the territory of the country and from the territories of other Member States, may register for application of this scheme in the other Member State after expiry of two calendar years effective from the beginning of the year following the year of registration and shall terminate his registration under this Article.

(15) (Amended, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) The date of termination of registration for application of the scheme shall be the first day of the quarter following the quarter of sending electronically of the act of deregistration. In the cases under Paragraphs (10) - (14), the date of termination of registration for application of the scheme shall be the date of the change, if the person submits an application for deregistration under Paragraph (2) not later than the 10th day of the month following the change and files an application for registration for application of the scheme within the same time-limit in the other Member State.

(16) Where the conditions under Article 20b (1) exist, a person registered pursuant to Article 156 may terminate his registration should he opt for not applying the Union scheme.

European Union) a bank account of the taxable person represented thereby, in EUR in a Bulgarian bank or in a branch of a foreign bank in the Republic of Bulgaria;

4. individual identification number under said scheme of the representative under Paragraph (2).

(8) The registered persons shall apply the special scheme to all distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories made thereby.

(9) Within 7 days from receipt of the application under Paragraph (4) the revenue authority shall verify the grounds for registration for application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories. Within 7 days after completion of the verification, the revenue authority shall issue an act whereby it shall effect the registration or shall refuse to effect the registration, stating reasons for such refusal. The act shall be delivered electronically to the taxable person who acts without a representative or to the representative.

(10) (Amended, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) The date of registration under a scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories shall be the date of sending the act under Paragraph (9), which shall define:

1. individual VAT identification number of the taxable person for the application of said scheme;

2. individual identification number of the representative for the performance of the obligations under said scheme;

3. individual VAT identification number of any person who is represented by a representative for the application of said scheme.

(11) The identification number for the purposes of registration for application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories shall consist of 12 alphanumeric digits and shall be used only for the purposes of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories.

(12) A person registered in another Member State for application of the scheme for distant sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, who is not represented by a representative and who relocates his place of establishment by seat and registered office to territory of the country, after termination of the special registration in the other Member State, provided that he is compliant to the terms of Paragraph (1), may register on the grounds of this Article.

(13) A person registered in another Member State for application of the scheme for distant sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, where the person is not established by seat and registered office but has a fixed establishment in the territory of the European Union, which is not represented by a representative and in case he relocates his fixed establishment to the territory of the country, after termination of the special registration in the other Member State, provided that he is compliant to the terms of Paragraph (1), may register on the grounds of this Article.

(14) A person registered in another member state for application of the scheme for distant sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, who is not established by seat and registered office within the territory of the European Union but has a fixed establishment both within the territory of the country and within the territory of another Member State, and who is not represented by a representative, after termination of the special registration in the other Member State, provided that he is compliant to the terms of Paragraph (1), may register on the grounds of this Article upon expiry of two calendar years following the year in which the person was registered for application of the scheme for distant sales of goods imported from third countries or territories.

(15) In the cases of Paragraphs (12) - (14) the person may register by filing an electronic application for registration under Paragraph (4) not later by the 10th day of the month following the date of change indicated by the person in the application, notifying the other Member State of the change within the same time limit. In these cases, the date of registration shall be the date of the change.

(16) Upon a change in the details under Paragraphs (5), (6) and (7) in the application filed under Paragraph (4), the person shall file an electronic application for update not later than the 10th day of the month following the occurrence of the change.

(17) Paragraphs (12) - (14) shall furthermore apply to a representative acting on behalf and for the account of a taxable person making distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories should he meet the terms of Paragraph (2). In such cases, Paragraphs (15) and (16) shall apply.

(18) (Supplemented, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) A restriction for registration for application of a scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories due to repeated failure on the obligation by the person shall be in force until the expiration of 24 months from the tax period in which the registration is terminated in any Member State of identification of the application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, the Union scheme, or until expiry of 8 consecutive tax periods effective from the tax period following the period of termination of the application of a non-Union scheme or a Union scheme, in any Member State of identification.

(19) Paragraph (18) shall not apply in the cases where the termination of the registration for application of the scheme is due to repeated failure on the obligations by the representative.

(20) A restriction for registration of a representative who acts on behalf and for the account of a taxable person due to repeated failure on the obligations by the representative regarding the application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories shall be in force until the expiration of 24 months from the month in which the registration for the scheme was terminated.

(21) A taxable person whose registration for application of the scheme has been terminated under Item 1 of Article 157b (5) and Item 1 of Article 157b (7) on the grounds that the person has failed to make supplies for a period of 24 consecutive tax periods, regardless of whether the person has acted with or without a representative, may register to apply the scheme as soon as he resumes making such supplies.

(22) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) Where a taxable person represented in another Member State by a representative for whom the conditions of Paragraph 15 are fulfilled chooses to continue to be represented by him, the representative shall register the taxable person for the application of the scheme referred to in this Article.

Termination of the special registration for application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories

Article 157b. (New, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) (Amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) Registration for application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories in the form of consignments with intrinsic value not exceeding EUR 150, except for excisable goods, shall be terminated at the initiative of a taxable person acting without a representative where:

1. the person no longer makes distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories;
2. the person no longer fulfils the conditions under Article 157a (1) herein;
3. the person opts for not applying the scheme, regardless of whether he continues making distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories.

(2) the registration of a representative for application of the obligations under the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories shall be terminated at the initiative of the representative where:

1. the representative has not acted as a representative on behalf and for the account of the taxable person who makes use of such scheme, in 6 consecutive months;
2. the person no longer fulfils the conditions under Article 157a (2) herein.

(3) The registration of a taxable person for application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, who acts through a representative, shall be terminated by the representative where the taxable person:

1. the person no longer makes distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories;

2. no longer fulfils the conditions under Items 1 and 3 of Article 157a (1) or Article 157a (3), first sentence herein;
 3. the person opts for not applying the scheme, regardless of whether he continues making distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories.
- (4) (Supplemented, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) To terminate the registration under Paragraphs (1) - (3) the person shall submit an application for deregistration according to a standard form set out in the Regulations for Application of this Act to the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency. The application shall be submitted electronically under the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code with a qualified electronic signature.
- (5) The registration for application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories shall be terminated at the initiative of the revenue authority by issuing an act of deregistration, where it is established that the taxable person who does not act with a representative:
1. (amended, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) has not made distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories for a period of 24 consecutive months and has not submitted an application for deregistration of the application of the scheme, or
 2. does not fulfil the conditions under Article 157a (1) herein, or
 3. (supplemented, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) repeatedly fails to comply with the provisions of the scheme; in this case, the registration of the person for the application of a Union scheme and a non-Union scheme shall also be terminated.
- (6) The registration of a representative for application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories shall be terminated at the initiative of the revenue authority by issuing an act of deregistration, where it is established that the taxable person:
1. over the last 6 consecutive months has not acted as a representative on behalf and for the account of the taxable person who makes use of such scheme and has failed to submit an application for the application of the scheme, or
 3. systematically fails to comply with the provisions of the regime.
- (7) The registration for application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories shall be terminated at the initiative of the revenue authority by issuing an act of deregistration, where it is established that a taxable person acting through a representative:
1. (amended, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) has not made distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories for a period of 24 consecutive tax periods and has not submitted an application for deregistration of the application of the scheme, or
 2. does not fulfil the conditions under Items 1 and 3 of Article 157a (1) or Article 157a (3), first sentence, or
 3. (supplemented, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) repeatedly fails to comply with the provisions of the scheme; in this case, the registration of the person for the application of a Union scheme and a non-Union scheme shall also be terminated.
- (8) Where the taxable person, including where the person acts through a representative, opts to not apply the scheme, the person or the representative acting on his behalf or for his account shall submit an application for deregistration not later than 15 days before the end of the month preceding the month in which he intends to not apply the scheme. In this case the date of termination of the registration for application of the scheme shall be the first day of the month following the month of submission of the application for deregistration and after such date the taxable person shall have no right to apply the scheme.
- (9) A person registered pursuant to Article 157a (1) and (2), who relocates his place of establishment by seat and registered office to the territory of another Member State, shall terminate his registration under this Act and may opt to register for application of such scheme in the other Member State.

(10) Where a person registered pursuant to Article 157a (1) and (2), who is not established by seat and registered office in the territory of the European Union, relocates his fixed establishment to the territory of another Member State or establishes his seat and registered office or fixed establishment in the territory of another Member State, he may opt to register for application of such scheme in the other Member State and shall terminate his registration under this Article.

(11) A person registered pursuant to Article 157a (1) and (2), who is not established by seat and registered office in the territory of the European Union but has a fixed establishment both in the territory of the country and in the territory of another Member State, upon expiration of 2 calendar years effective from the beginning of the year following the year of the registration, may opt to register for application of such scheme in the other Member State and shall terminate his registration under this Article.

(12) In the cases of Paragraphs (9) - (11) the person shall submit an application for deregistration under Paragraph (4) not later by the 10th day of the month following the date of change indicated by the person in the application, notifying the other Member State of the change within the same time limit.

(13) Within 7 days from receipt of the application for deregistration under Paragraph(4) the revenue authority shall verify the grounds for deregistration of the application of the regime. Within seven days after completion of the verification, the revenue authority shall issue an act whereby it shall effect the deregistration or shall refuse the deregistration, stating the reasons for such refusal. Delivery of the act to the person whose registration for application of the regime is terminated shall be effected electronically.

(14) The date of termination of registration for application of the scheme shall be the first day of the month following the month of sending electronically of the act of deregistration. In the cases of Paragraphs (9) - (11) the date of termination of registration shall be the date of the change.

(15) Except for the cases of repeated failure on the obligations of the scheme under Paragraph (16) by the taxable person, upon termination of his registration, his individual identification number for VAT purposes, as designated for use under the import scheme, shall remain valid for the period required for the import of goods which have been supplied before the date of termination of the registration, but this may not exceed two months from the said date.

(16) A repeated failure on the obligations of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories by a taxable person or a representative shall exist where:

1. pursuant to Article 159a (12) the National Revenue Agency has sent reminders to the person registered for application of the regime for the last three preceding tax periods and the VAT return under Article 159a (2) for each tax period has not been submitted within 10 days after sending of a reminder;
2. pursuant to Article 159a (12) the National Revenue Agency has sent reminders to the person registered for application of the regime for the last three preceding tax periods and the total amount of the declared tax for each tax period has not been paid by the person within 10 days after sending of a reminder, except for the case where the outstanding tax amount is less than EUR 100 for each tax period;
3. upon request by a revenue authority or a competent tax authority of a member state of consumption and one month after sending of a relevant reminder by the National Revenue Agency the person has not submitted the ledgers of account under Article 159d (1);

(17) In the cases under Paragraph (5), item 1 and 2 and Paragraph (7), item 1 and 2, delivery of the act to the person whose registration for application of the regime is terminated shall be effected electronically. In these cases, the date of termination of registration of the person for application of the scheme shall be the first day of the month following the calendar month of sending electronically of the act of deregistration.

(18) In the cases under Item 3 of Paragraph (5), and Item 3 of Paragraph (7), delivery of the act to the person whose registration for application of the scheme is terminated shall be effected electronically. The registration shall be terminated from the day following the date of sending electronically of the act of deregistration.

(19) In the cases under Paragraph (2) and Items 1 and 2 of Paragraph (6), delivery of the act to the person whose registration for application of the scheme is terminated shall be effected electronically and shall be furthermore sent to the taxable persons represented thereby. In these cases the registration of the taxable persons who are represented by the representative shall also be terminated. The registration shall be terminated from the first day of the month following the month of sending electronically of the act of deregistration.

(20) In the cases under Item 3 of Paragraph (6), the date on which the registration for application of the scheme by the representative is terminated shall be the date following the date of sending electronically of the act of deregistration of the representative and of the taxable persons represented thereby. In these cases the registration of the taxable persons who are represented by the representative shall also be terminated.

(21) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) Where the conditions referred to in Paragraph 12 for a representative under Article 157a are present, the registration of the taxable person represented by the representative shall also be terminated. The date of termination of the registration for application of a scheme of the taxable person shall be the first day of the month following the month of sending of the act of deregistration.

(22) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) A taxable person referred to in Paragraph 21, for whom the conditions laid down in Article 157a (3), first sentence, are fulfilled may choose to continue to be represented by the representative for whom the conditions referred to in Paragraph 12 are fulfilled or select a new representative in accordance with Article 157a (2). A taxable person referred to in Paragraph 21, for whom the conditions laid down in Article 157a (3), second sentence, are fulfilled may choose to continue to be represented by the representative for whom the conditions referred to in Paragraph 12 are fulfilled or select a new representative in accordance with Article 157a (2) or register for the purposes of the scheme under the conditions for determining the Member State of identification.

Section IV

Taxation and Declaration of Supplies When Applying the Special Schemes

(Title amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021)

Taxation of Supplies When Applying the Special Schemes

Article 158. (Repealed, new, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) The place of transaction of supplies to which the special schemes under Article 152 (2), (3) and (5) apply and which are made by a registered person under this Chapter, shall be in the Member State of consumption.

(2) The taxable amount, the date of occurrence of the chargeable event and the chargeability of tax on supplies of services and intra-community distance sales of goods under this Chapter shall be determined by the legislation of the Member State of identification.

(3) The chargeable event and the chargeability of the tax in case of distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories shall arise at the time of supply and the goods shall be considered supplied at the time of receiving the payment.

(4) The moment of receiving the payment under Paragraph (3) shall be the earlier of the moment at which the confirmation of payment or the message of the authorisation of payment or the commitment for payment by the recipient is received by the taxable person or on behalf of the taxable person applying the import scheme, or the moment of the actually made payment.

(5) A person registered for application of the regime outside the Union or the regime in the Union shall charge the value added tax due for the effected supply within the scope of the respective regime by:

1. including the amount of the tax upon assessment of the net tax in the VAT return for application of a special regime for the relevant tax period in the member state of identification;
2. stating the information on the supply in the electronic register kept thereby in accordance with the legislation of the member state of identification.

(6) The rate of tax of the supplies under this Chapter shall be the applicable rate of tax in the member state of consumption.

(7) For documenting the supplies of services and goods under this Chapter the legislation of the Member State of identification shall apply.

(8) (New, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) For the supplies to which the special schemes under Article 152 (2), (3) and (5) apply and which are made by a registered person under Chapter Eighteen, the tax shall be due for the Member State of consumption, where the place of performance is.

Tax Period, VAT Return and Tax Remittance Applying Union or Non-Union Scheme

Article 159. (Repealed, new, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, amended, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) The tax period for the persons registered under Articles 154 and 156 shall be quarterly and shall coincide with the calendar quarter.

(2) In the cases under Article 154 (7) and Article 156 (7) the first tax period shall cover the period from the date of the first supply to the end of the calendar quarter.

(3) In the cases under Article 154 (9) and Article 156 (9) - (13) the first tax period shall cover the period from the date of the change to the last day inclusive of the calendar quarter in which the change occurred. Under Article 155 (10) and Article 157 (10) - (14) respectively, the last tax period shall cover the period from the first day of the calendar quarter in which the change occurred to the date of the change inclusive.

(4) A person registered pursuant to Article 154 or Article 156 shall submit a VAT return for application of a special scheme according to a standard form specified in the Regulations for Application of this Act for each tax period by the end of the month following the tax period for which the VAT return refers, regardless of whether it has made any supplies in the period. Where the last day of the month is a non-working day, Article 22 (7) of the Tax Social-Insurance Code shall not apply.

(5) The VAT return referred to in Paragraph (4) shall be submitted electronically to the competent territorial directorate under Section II or Section III of this Chapter. Persons registered pursuant to Article 154 and Article 156 shall submit the VAT return electronically in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Tax Social-Insurance Procedure Code with a qualified electronic signature by entering the data or by submitting a pre-generated file. The format, structure and validation scheme of the file shall be approved by an order of the executive director of the National Revenue Agency.

(6) The competent territorial directorate under Section II or Section III of this Chapter shall provide by electronic means the person with a unique incoming number for each submitted VAT return under Paragraph (4).

(7) The information in the VAT return under Paragraph (4) shall state the identification number of the person for application of the respective scheme and, separately for each Member State of consumption shall state the applicable rates of tax, the sum total of the taxable amounts of the effected supplies for which the scheme applies and for which the value added tax at the respective tax rates has become chargeable, the total amount of the tax due at the respective rates of tax and the total amount of the tax due separately for each Member State of consumption and the total amount of the tax due on the value added for the relevant tax period for:

1. supplies of services;

2. intra-Community distance sales of goods;

3. domestic distance sales of goods under Item 3 of Article 14a (5).

(8) Where the goods are dispatched or transported from the territories of other Member States, the VAT return shall contain, besides the information under Paragraph (7) for such supplies, an identification number for VAT purposes or a national tax number issued to the person by the Member State from which the goods are dispatched or transported.

(9) A person registered pursuant to Article 156, where the person has one or more fixed establishments within the territories of other Member States, shall also state the identification numbers for VAT purposes or the national tax numbers issued by the Member States where each of the establishments is located, and the information under Paragraph (7) for supplies effected from such fixed establishments in the respective tax period for which the value added tax at the applicable rates of tax is chargeable and with place of transaction within the territory of a Member State of consumption in which the person has no fixed establishment.

(10) The amounts referred to in Paragraphs (7), (8) and (9) shall be stated in Euro. For supplies in other currencies, the exchange rate of the last day of the tax period shall be used, applying the exchange rate published by the European Central Bank for such day, or if no exchange rate is published for such day, the exchange rate published on the next day shall be applied.

(11) A person registered pursuant to Article 154 or Article 156 shall remit, within the time limit for submission of the VAT return under Paragraph (4), the total amount of the value added tax chargeable for the respective tax period to Executive Budget Revenue by crediting an account of the National Revenue Agency in Euro, without rounding off. The tax shall be deemed remitted on the date on which the amount is credited to the account. On payment of the amount the person shall state the incoming number of the respective VAT return.

(12) Where a person registered pursuant to Article 154 or Article 156 has failed to submit the VAT return under Paragraph (4) within the required time limit or has failed to remit the tax under Paragraph (11), or has remitted a lower tax amount, the National Revenue Agency shall send electronically a reminder to the person on the 10th day following the day on which the VAT return should have been submitted or the tax amount should have been remitted, and shall notify the other Member States electronically that a reminder has been issued. Subsequent actions for determination and collection of the tax after the National Revenue Agency has sent the reminder shall be performed by the competent tax authorities of the member state of consumption.

(13) Regardless of the reminders issued by the Member State of consumption and the actions taken under Paragraph (12), the VAT return shall be submitted in accordance with Paragraph (5).

(14) After the competent tax authorities of another member state of consumption undertake actions in accordance with Paragraph (12), the tax due for that member state for the respective tax period shall be remitted to an account of the said member state.

(15) The VAT return under Paragraph (4) shall not state supplies of goods or services, if they are exempt under the legislation of the Member State of consumption, as well as supplies outside the scope of the Union scheme under Article 153.

(16) Where a taxable person is registered for application of the non-Union scheme and the Union scheme, the person shall submit VAT returns and shall remit the tax due to the Member States of identification for each scheme.

Tax Period, VAT Return and Tax Remittance Applying the Scheme for Distance Sales of Goods Imported from Third Countries or Territories

Article 159a. (New, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, amended, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) The tax period for the persons registered under Article 157a shall be monthly.

(2) The VAT return for application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories shall be submitted by a person registered pursuant to Article 157a according to a standard form set out in the Regulations for Application of this Act.

- (3) The VAT return under Paragraph (2) shall be submitted to the competent territorial directorate for each tax period by the end of the month following the tax period, regardless of whether any supplies were made during the period. Where the last day of the month is a non-working day, Article 22 (7) of the Tax Social-Insurance Code shall not apply.
- (4) (Supplemented, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) The VAT return under Paragraph (2) shall be submitted electronically in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Tax Social-Insurance Procedure Code with a qualified electronic signature by entering the data or by submitting a pre-generated file. The format, structure and validation scheme of the file shall be approved by an order of the executive director of the National Revenue Agency.
- (5) The representative under Article 157a (2) shall submit a VAT return under Paragraph (2) for each registered person under Article 157a (3) represented thereby.
- (6) The competent territorial directorate shall provide to the person electronically a unique incoming number to each submitted VAT return under Paragraph (2).
- (7) The VAT return under Paragraph (2) shall state the identification number of the person for purposes of application of such scheme and, separately for each Member State of consumption shall state the applicable rates of tax, the sum total of the taxable amounts of the effected supplies for which the scheme applies and for which the value added tax has become chargeable, the total amount of the tax due at the respective rates of tax and the total amount of the tax due separately for each Member State and the total amount of the value added tax due for the relevant tax period.
- (8) Any errors (amounts not shown or shown incorrectly) made in a VAT return submitted shall be corrected within three years from expiry of the time limit for submission of the original VAT return, including after application of this scheme.
- (9) Corrections of errors made under Paragraph (8) shall be made in a subsequent VAT return under Paragraph (2), including for issued credit and/or debit notes of supply made in a previous period, stating the respective Member State of consumption, the tax period and the tax amount in relation to which corrections are made. Upon expiry of said time limit corrections in a submitted VAT return shall be made in accordance with the legislation of the respective Member State of consumption. Where the country is a Member State of consumption, the corrections shall be made in accordance with a procedure set out in the Regulations for Application of this Act.
- (10) The amounts referred to in Paragraphs (7) and (9) shall be stated in Euro. For supplies in other currencies, the exchange rate of the last day of the tax period shall be used, applying the exchange rate published by the European Central Bank for such day, or if no exchange rate is published for such day, the exchange rate published on the next day shall be applied.
- (11) A person registered pursuant to Article 157 (1) and (2) shall remit, within the time limit for submission of the VAT return under Paragraph (3), the total amount of the value added tax due for the respective tax period to Executive Budget Revenue by crediting an account of the National Revenue Agency in Euro, without rounding off. The tax shall be deemed remitted on the date on which the amount is credited to the account. On payment of the amount the person shall state the incoming number of the respective VAT return.
- (12) Where a person registered pursuant to Article 157a (1) and (2) has failed to submit the VAT return under Paragraph (3) within the required time limit or has failed to remit the tax under Paragraph (11), or has remitted a lower tax amount, the National Revenue Agency shall send electronically a reminder to the person on the 10th day following the day on which the VAT return should have been submitted or the tax amount should have been remitted, and shall notify the other Member States electronically that a reminder has been issued. Subsequent actions for determination and collection of the tax after the National Revenue Agency has sent the reminder shall be performed by the competent tax authorities of the member state of consumption.
- (13) (Supplemented, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) Regardless of the reminders issued by the Member State of consumption and the actions taken under Paragraph (12), the VAT return shall be submitted in accordance with Paragraphs (3) and (4).

(14) After the competent tax authorities of another member state of consumption undertake actions in accordance with Paragraph (12), the tax due for that member state for the respective tax period shall be remitted to an account of the said member state.

Tax Credit in Applying Non-Union Scheme and Union Scheme

Article 159b. (New, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) A person registered pursuant to Article 154 or registered in another Member State for application of non-Union scheme shall have the right to refund input value added tax for received supplies of goods and/or services with place of transaction within the territory of the country in regard to his supplies of services made in respect whereof the person applies the scheme, in accordance with the procedure set out in Article 81.

(2) Where a person registered pursuant to Article 154 or registered in another Member State for application of non-Union scheme is also registered pursuant to Article 96, shall have the right to deduct credit for input tax under the general rules of this Act for received supplies of goods and/or services with place of transaction within the territory of the country in regard to its supplies in respect whereof the person applies the scheme.

(3) A person registered in another Member State for application of the Union scheme, provided the person is registered under Articles 96, 97 or Article 100 (1), shall have the right to deduct credit for input tax under the general rules of this Act for received supplies of goods and/or services with place of transaction within the territory of the country relating to supplies made thereby in respect whereof the person applies the scheme.

(4) A person registered in another Member State for application of the Union scheme, provided the person is not registered under Articles 96, 97 or Article 100 (1), shall have the right to refund for received supplies of goods and/or services with place of transaction within the territory of the country relating to supplies made thereby in respect whereof the person applies the scheme, in accordance with Article 81.

(5) A person registered pursuant to Article 156, who is not established within the territory of the European Union and who is not registered pursuant to Article 96 shall have the right to refund value added tax for received supplies of goods and/or services with place of transaction within the territory of the country relating to his supplies in respect whereof the person applies the scheme, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 81 (2) laid down for persons not established within the territory of the European Union.

(6) (Supplemented, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022) A person registered pursuant to Article 156 and pursuant to Article 96 and Article 100 (1) shall have the right to deduct credit for input tax under the general rules of this Act for received supplies of goods and/or services with place of transaction within the territory of the country relating to supplies made thereby in respect whereof the person applies the scheme.

Credit for Input Tax when Applying the Scheme for Distance Sales of Goods Imported from Third Countries or Territories

Article 159c. (New, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) A person registered in another Member State for application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, who is established within the territory of the European Union, where he is registered pursuant to Articles 96, 97 or Article 100 (1), shall have the right to deduct credit for input tax under the general rules of this Act for received supplies of goods and/or services with place of transaction within the territory of the country relating to supplies made thereby in respect whereof the person applies the scheme.

(2) A person registered in another Member State for application of the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, who is established within the territory of the European Union, where he is not registered pursuant to Articles 96, 97 or Article 100 (1), shall have the right to refund value added tax for received supplies of goods and/or services with place of transaction within the territory of the country relating to his supplies in respect whereof the person applies the scheme, in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 81 (2) laid down for persons not established within the country of refund but established within the territory of the European Union.

(3) (Repealed, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022).

(4) (Repealed, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022).

Electronic Register

Article 159d. (New, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) (Amended, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) A person registered pursuant to Articles 154, 156 or Article 157a shall keep an electronic register for the supplies for which he applies the scheme.

(2) The information in the register under Paragraph (1) shall be recorded in a manner that allows for its immediate electronic submission and regarding any single supply of goods and/or service in a structured file format upon request from a revenue authority or from the competent authorities of the Member States of consumption.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) Where a taxable person or his representative acting on his behalf and for his account is requested to present electronically the electronic register kept thereby under Paragraph (1) and the person fails to produce it within 20 days from the date of the request, the revenue authority shall remind the taxable person or his representative to present such register.

(4) The persons under Paragraph (1) shall store the information in the electronic registers under Paragraph (1) for a period of 10 years from the end of the year in which the relevant supply was made.

Corrections of VAT Return for Application of Non-Union Scheme and Union Scheme

Article 159e. (New, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) Any errors (amounts not shown or shown incorrectly) made in a VAT return submitted for application of a special scheme by a person registered pursuant to Article 154 or 156 shall be corrected by the said person making the required corrections in the subsequent VAT return.

(2) An issued credit and/or debit note of supply made in a previous period shall be recorded in accordance with Paragraph (1).

(3) The corrections under Paragraph (1) shall be made within three years from expiry of the time limit for submission of the VAT return for application of the respective scheme, including after termination of its application. Upon expiry of said time limit corrections in a submitted VAT return shall be made in accordance with the legislation of the respective Member State of consumption.

Refund of Overpaid Tax under VAT Return for Application of Non-Union Scheme, Union Scheme and Scheme for Distance Sales of Goods Imported from Third Countries or Territories

Article 159f. (New, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, supplemented, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.01.2021) (1) Any over-paid tax on a VAT return for application of a special regime by a person registered pursuant to Article 154, 156 or Article 157 shall be set off or refunded in accordance with the Tax Social-Insurance Procedure Code, unless the over-paid tax has already been transferred to other member states of consumption.

(2) Any tax due on a VAT return for application of a special regime, which has been remitted to Executive Budget Revenue by crediting an account of the National Revenue Agency but which is due in another member state of consumption pursuant to Article 159 (14) or Article 159a (14), shall be set off or refunded to the person under Paragraph (1) in accordance with the Tax Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(3) Any over-paid tax as a result of adjustment under Article 159a, Paragraphs (8) and (9) or Article 159e shall be refunded in accordance with the Tax Social-Insurance Procedure Code, provided it has not been transferred to other member states of consumption. Where the overpaid tax has been transferred to other Member States of consumption, such tax shall be refunded to the person by the respective Member State of consumption in accordance with the correction made.

(4) Any overpaid tax on a VAT return submitted in another Member State for application of the special scheme by a person registered in such Member State for application of the Union scheme, non-Union scheme or a scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, which has been transferred by the Member State or has been remitted by the person to Executive Budget Revenue by crediting an account of the National Revenue Agency, shall be set off or refunded to the person in accordance with the Tax Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(5) Any overpaid tax by a person who is not established within the territory of the country and who is registered for application of the Union scheme, the non-Union scheme or a scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, in another Member State or under Articles 154, 156 or Article 157a, shall be refunded to a bank account. Where the account is not at a Bulgarian bank or a branch of a foreign bank in the Republic of Bulgaria, all bank charges in relation to the tax refund and the currency exchange shall be borne by the person.

Obligations in Making Supplies with Place of Transaction within the Territory of the Country by a Person Registered in Another Member State for Application of Non-Union Scheme, Union Scheme or Scheme for Distance Sales of Goods Imported from Third Countries or Territories

Article 159g. (New, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) A person registered in another Member State for application of non-Union scheme, Union scheme or a scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, who makes supply according to such schemes, with place of transaction within the territory of the country, shall declare such supplies by stating them in the VAT return in accordance with the legislation of the Member State of identification. A VAT return submitted in a Member State of identification shall be considered to be a VAT return submitted under this Act.

(2) A person registered in another Member State for application of non-Union scheme, Union scheme or a scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, who makes supply according to such schemes, with place of transaction within the territory of the country, shall remit the tax due on the VAT return under Paragraph (1) within the time limit set out in the legislation of the Member State of identification. The tax shall be considered remitted on the date of receipt of the tax amount on an account of the member state of identification or, if the tax amount was not received on said account, on the date of receipt thereof in the Executive Budget Revenue on an account of the National Revenue Agency.

(3) A person registered in another Member State for application of non-Union scheme, Union scheme or a scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories, who makes supply according to such schemes, with place of transaction within the territory of the country, shall submit upon request by a revenue authority the electronic register kept in accordance with the legislation of the Member State of identification.

(4) Following a reminder sent to the person by the tax authorities of the member state of identification, demanding compliance with his obligations under Paragraphs (1) and (2), where the country is a member state of consumption, subsequent actions for determination and collection of the tax shall be effected by the National Revenue Agency in accordance with the Tax Social-Insurance Procedure Code. Following actions undertaken by the National Revenue Agency, the tax for the respective tax period, which is due to the country as a member state of consumption, shall be remitted by the person to Executive Budget Revenue by crediting an accounting of the National Revenue Agency.

(5) Where the country is a member state of consumption, until expiry of three years of the legally prescribed time limit under the legislation of the member state of identification, a VAT return not submitted within the prescribed time limit shall be submitted or adjustments shall be made to a

VAT return submitted in such member state, and after expiry of such time limit the VAT return shall be submitted or adjustments shall be made to a VAT return submitted in accordance with the procedure specified by the Regulations for Application of this Act.

(6) Where a person established in a third country with which the European Union has not concluded an agreement on VAT mutual assistance with a similar scope as that of Directive 2010/24/EU and Regulation (EU) No. 904/2010 and who is registered in another Member State for application of the scheme for distant sales of goods imported from third countries or territories is represented by a representative registered for application of the obligations under the scheme in the other Member State, the representative shall be jointly and severally liable without limit for the obligations under this Act relating to the application of the scheme.

Article 159h. (New, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, repealed, SG No. 14/2022, effective 18.02.2022).

Special Registers

Article 159i. (New, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) (1) For the persons registered in the country for application of the non-Union scheme, the Union scheme or the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories and a representative registered in the country for application of the obligations under the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or territories the National Revenue Agency shall establish and maintain a special register, which shall be part of the register referred to in Article 80 (1) of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(2) For any of the persons under Paragraph (1) the revenue authority shall enter in the special register under Paragraph (1) the date of registration of the application of the respective regime and the date of deregistration of the application of the regime.

INVESTMENT GOLD

Supplies of Investment Gold

Article 160. (1) Supplies concerning investment gold shall be exempt where, for the purposes of this Act, the said supplies are:

1. supplies of investment gold, including: supplies of investment gold represented by certificates for allocated or unallocated gold; gold traded on gold accounts, gold loans and swaps, involving the right of ownership or claim in respect to investment gold; supplies concerning investment gold involving futures and forward contracts leading to a transfer of the right of ownership or claim in respect of investment gold;

2. services of agents who act in the name and for the account of another, in connection with supplies of investment gold.

(2) Taxable persons, who produce investment gold or transform gold into investment gold, as well as taxable persons who normally supply gold for industrial purposes, shall be allowed a right of option for taxation of the supplies covered under Item 1 of Paragraph (1). Taxable persons who perform intermediation services in respect or supplies of investment gold shall be allowed a right of option for taxation of the supplies referred to in Item 2 of Paragraph (1) when the supply in connection with which the intermediation service was provided is taxable.

(3) The right referred to in Paragraph (2) may be exercised where the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled:

1. a person registered under this Act is a recipient of the supplies;

2. the invoice issued on the supply states that the tax is to be charged from the recipient.

Investment Gold

Article 160a. (New, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) (1) For the purposes of this Act, investment gold shall be:

1. gold, in the form of a bar or a wafer of weights accepted by the bullion markets, and of a purity equal to or greater than 995 thousandths;
 2. gold coins listed in the order under Article 175 (5), for which the following circumstances obtain simultaneously:
 - a) gold coins of a purity equal to or greater than 900 thousandths;
 - b) they are minted after 1800;
 - c) they are or have been legal tender in the country of origin;
 - d) they are normally sold at a price which does not exceed the open market value of the gold contained in the coins by more than 80 per cent.
 3. gold coins which are not included in the order under Article 175 (5), but are included in the list of gold coins meeting the criteria established in Article 344, paragraph 1, point 2 of Council Directive 2006/112/EC of 28 November 2006 on the EU's common system of value added tax (special scheme for investment gold), published by 1 December of the year in the "C" series of the Official Journal of the European Union, valid for the calendar year following the year of publication; for investment gold are considered and all coin issues included in this list for the year to which the list relates;
 4. gold coins which are not included in the list referred to in Item 3 or in the order under Article 175 (5), but for which a document issued by the Governor of the Bulgarian National Bank certifies that the conditions for investment gold are simultaneously present in Item 2.
- (2) The Bulgarian National Bank shall issue the document referred to in Item 4 of Paragraph (1) to the person who has submitted a request for certification of gold coins as investment gold, after providing information about these coins.
- (3) The procedure and the required documents for including gold coins in the order under Article 175 (5) shall be determined in the Regulations for Application of this Act.

Chargeability of Tax from Recipient

Article 161. (1) The tax shall be charged from the recipient who is a person registered under this Act upon:

1. supplies of gold material or semi-manufactured products of a purity of 325 thousandths or greater;
 2. supplies concerning investment gold where the right referred to in Article 160 herein has been exercised and the invoice issued by the supplier states that the tax is to be charged from the recipient.
- (2) The tax shall be charged by the issuing of a memorandum.

Right to Credit for Input Tax

Article 162. (1) Although the subsequent supply concerning investment gold is exempt, registered persons shall have the right to credit for input tax in respect of:

1. the tax charged from them according to the procedure established by Article 161 herein;
 2. (supplemented, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) the received supply, intra-European Union acquisition or importation of gold other than investment gold which has then been transformed into investment gold by the person or for the account thereof;
 3. received services leading to a change of form, weight or purity of gold, including investment gold.
- (2) (Supplemented, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) Although the subsequent supply concerning investment gold is exempt, registered persons who produce investment gold or transform gold into investment gold shall have the right to deduct credit for input tax in respect of the supplies, intra-European Union acquisition or importation within the territory of the country of goods or services related to the production or transformation of such gold.

Documenting

Article 163. (1) The supplies concerning investment gold, as well as the supplies involving gold material or semi-manufactured products of a purity of 325 thousandths or greater, shall be documented by issuing of an invoice which, in addition to the essential elements covered under Article 114 herein, must also state:

1. description of the gold sufficient for the identification thereof, as a minimum: form, weight, purity etc.;
2. date and address of the physical delivery of the gold;
3. name, address and Standard Public Registry Personal Number and/or type, number, issuer of an official identification document of the persons who prepared the document.

(2) The invoices referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be stored for a period of ten years reckoned from the end of the year during which the relevant supply was effected.

Security in the Event of Supplies of Liquid Fuels

Article 176c. (New, SG No. 60/2016) (1) Each taxable person shall be obliged to provide to the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency security in cash, government securities or in the form of an unconditional and irrevocable bank guarantee valid for a period of one year, where during the current tax period:

1. it effects taxable supplies of liquid fuels with a tax rate of 20 per cent and a total value of their tax bases exceeding BGN 25,000, or

2. (amended, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) the total value of the tax bases of intra-Community acquisitions of liquid fuels exceeds BGN 25,000, or

3. (amended, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) it receives liquid fuels, released for consumption under Item 1 of Article 20 (2) of the Excise Duties and Warehouses Act and a total value of their tax bases exceeding BGN 25,000, if no grounds for providing security have arisen on different grounds.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) The security under Paragraph (1) shall be at a rate of not less than 20 per cent of the taxable amount of the taxable supplies, acquisitions or the value of the received liquid fuels released for consumption in the previous tax period. In case of subsequent supplies of liquid fuels with place of transaction in the territory of the country, which were subject to intra-Community acquisition or secured upon their release for consumption, no security shall be provided by the person which has effected the intra-Community acquisition or which has received the liquid fuels released for consumption.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) Where a person referred to in Paragraph (1) has not effected taxable supplies or intra-Community acquisitions, or has not received liquid fuels released for consumption under Article 20 (2), item 1 of the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act, with a total value of the supplies, acquisitions or released quantities exceeding BGN 25,000 for the previous tax period, the amount of the security shall be determined in accordance with the procedure established by Paragraph (2) based on the estimated average monthly tax base of taxable supplies or acquisitions of liquid fuels, or the value of the liquid fuels released for consumption, calculated on a 12-month basis.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) In the event of any changes in the circumstances relevant for determining the amount of the security, a new security shall be provided not later than 3 days prior to the change. The new security shall be for the duration of the security already provided under Paragraph (1) and shall be no less than:

1. twenty per cent of the taxable amount of the taxable supplies/intra-Community acquisitions of liquid fuels or the value of the received liquid fuels released for consumption by which the 20 per cent of the taxable amount of the taxable supplies, acquisitions or the value of the received liquid fuels released for consumption is exceeded and for which a security has been already provided, with regard to which security has already been provided, the amount of which is determined in accordance with Paragraph (2), or

2. ten per cent of the taxable amount of the taxable supplies/intra-Community acquisitions of liquid fuels or the value of the received liquid fuels released for consumption by which the 20 per cent of the taxable amount of the taxable supplies, acquisitions or the value of the received liquid fuels released for consumption is exceeded and for which a security has been already provided, the amount of which is determined in accordance with Paragraph (16).

- (5) (Amended, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) The security referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be provided not later than 3 days prior to the date of:
1. occurrence of the chargeable event of the supply, the tax base of which results in exceeding BGN 25,000, or
 2. occurrence of the chargeable event of the intra-Community acquisition, the tax base of which results in exceeding BGN 25,000, or
 3. releasing liquid fuels for consumption under Item 1 of Article 20 (2) of the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act, the value of which results in exceeding BGN 25,000.
- (6) (Supplemented, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) When the conditions specified in Paragraph (1) are met, the person shall be obliged to provide a new security no later than 14 days prior to the expiry of the period of validity of the previous security. The amount of the new security shall be determined in accordance with the procedure established by Paragraphs (2) and (16).
- (7) (Supplemented, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The security shall be released and the person shall be de-registered from the register under Paragraph (10) prior to the expiry of the one-year period, where the registration of the person under this Act is terminated, where the person will no longer effect transactions under Paragraph (1), and where the person has no unsettled value added tax liabilities, fines or penalty payments for breaches of this Act.
- (8) Authorised warehousekeepers within the meaning of the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act, persons which effect supplies under Item 1 of Article 24 (1) and Article 26 (2) of the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act, and persons which have satisfies the requirements set out in Article 118 (6) herein only with regard to their supplies reported in accordance with the procedure established by the same provision, shall be exempt from the obligation to provide security.
- (9) Any competent revenue authority may terminate the registration under this Act and de-register from the register under Paragraph (10) a person who has not provided security or has failed to provide security in the full amount or within the required deadline.
- (10) For the persons referred to in Paragraph (1), the National Revenue Agency shall establish and maintain an electronic register, which shall be part of the register referred to in Article 80 (1) of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code and which shall contain identification particulars of the persons that have provided security, the amount of the security and the period of validity of such security, the date of registration and the date of de-registration.
- (11) A competent revenue shall register the person in the register under Paragraph (10) within seven days of the provision of the security. Upon releasing the security, a competent revenue authority shall de-register the person from the register on the day of the release, and shall notify the person.
- (12) The procedure for provision, release and utilisation of the security under this Article shall be determined in the Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act.
- (13) (New, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) A registered farmer who performs loading with liquid fuels for vehicles, machinery, facilities or other equipment registered under the Registration and Control of Agricultural and Forestry Equipment Act, or a budget organisation, where they carry out intra-Community acquisition of liquid fuels or receive liquid fuels released for consumption under Item 1 of Article 20 (2) of the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act intended for own consumption shall be exempt from the obligation to provide security.
- (14) (New, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) A person other than the persons referred to in Paragraph (13) who carried out intra-Community acquisition of liquid fuels or received liquid fuels released for consumption under Item 1 of Article 20 (2) of the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act, which are intended for own consumption, shall be exempt from the obligation to provide a security in the event it has been entered in the register referred to in Paragraph (15).
- (15) (New, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018, supplemented, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) For the persons referred to in Paragraph (14) the National Revenue Agency shall establish and maintain a public electronic register, which shall be part of the register referred to in Article 80 (1) of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code. The form and content of the register shall be determined in the implementing regulations of this Act.

(16) (New, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023, amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) A taxable person who has lodged a security referred to in Paragraph (1) for three consecutive years, in respect whereof there is no effective penalty decree for infringements hereunder during that period and who has no other outstanding public claims collectible by the National Revenue Agency at the date on which the new security referred to in Paragraph (6) is lodged, may set the amount of the security lodged under Paragraph (2), first sentence, at 10 per cent of the taxable amount of the taxable supplies, acquisitions or value of the liquid fuels received and released for consumption, for the preceding tax period.

Persons' Liability in Case of Abuse

Article 177. (1) (Amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) Any registered person who is the recipient in a taxable supply shall be liable for the value added tax due and unremitted by another person insofar as the former person has exercised a right to deduct credit for input tax related directly or indirectly to the due and unremitted tax.

(2) The liability referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be enforced where the registered person knew or was obligated to know that the tax will not be remitted, and this is proved by the auditing authority according to the procedure established by Articles 117 to 120 of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(3) For the purposes of Paragraph (2), the person shall be presumed to have been obligated to know where the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled:

1. the tax due under Paragraph (1) was not effectively effected as paid in as a net tax for a tax period by any of the previous suppliers under a taxable supply whereof the subject are the same goods or services, regardless of whether in the same, modified or processed form, and
2. the taxable supply is simulated, circumvents the law, or is at a price which significantly departs from the market price.

(4) The liability referred to in Paragraph (1) shall not be contingent on the obtaining of a specific benefit from the non-remittance of the tax due.

(5) Any preceding supplier of the person who owes the unremitted tax shall also incur liability under the terms established by Paragraphs (2) and (3).

(6) In the cases under Paragraphs (1) and (2), the liability shall be enforced in respect of the person who is the direct recipient of the supply on which the tax due has not been remitted, and where the collection fails, the liability may be enforced in respect of any succeeding recipient in the order of supplies.

(7) Paragraph (6) shall apply, mutatis mutandis, in respect of the preceding suppliers as well.

COERCIVE ADMINISTRATIVE MEASURES AND ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY PROVISIONS

Article 178. Any taxable person under this Act who is obligated but fails to submit an application for registration or an application for termination of registration within the time limits established under this Act, shall be liable to a fine, applicable to natural persons who are not merchants, or by a pecuniary penalty, applicable to legal persons and sole traders, of BGN 500 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 5,000.

Article 179. (Amended, SG No. 108/2007, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) (Previous text of Article 179, amended, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) Any person, who while obligated to do so, fails to submit a VAT return referred to in Article 125 (1) herein or a return referred to in Article 125 (2) herein, or fails to submit the said returns and ledgers in due time, shall be liable to a fine, applicable to natural persons who are not merchants, or to a pecuniary penalty, applicable to legal persons and sole traders, of BGN 500 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 10,000.

(2) (New, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) Paragraph (1) shall furthermore apply to a person who is not established in the territory of the country and who is registered in another Member State for application of the non-Union scheme, the Union scheme or the scheme for distance sales of goods imported from third countries or to a representative registered for application of the obligations under the relevant scheme to represent such person, or a person registered under Articles 154, 156 or Article 157a, who is obliged but fails to submit a VAT return for application of a special scheme for supplies made with place of transaction within the territory of the country or who fails to submit it within the required time limit.

(3) (New, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.07.2021) Paragraph (1) shall furthermore apply to a person under Article 57b who fails to submit a monthly tax return under Article 57c (5) or who submits any such return past the due date, or who fails to submit the register under Article 57c (8).

Article 180. (1) (Amended, SG No. 108/2007, supplemented, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016) Any registered person who, while obligated to do so, fails to charge tax within the time limits provided for in this Act, shall be liable to a fine applicable to natural persons who are not merchants, or to a pecuniary penalty, applicable to legal persons and sole traders, equivalent to the amount of the uncharged tax but not less than BGN 500. In case of repeated violation, the amount of the fine or pecuniary penalty shall be in the double amount of the uncharged tax but not less than BGN 1,000.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall furthermore apply where the person has failed to charge tax because the said person has failed to submit an application for registration and has not registered under this Act in due time.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 108/2007, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016) In case of violation under Paragraph (1), where the registered person has charged the tax within 6 months from the end of the month in which the tax should have been charged, the fine or the pecuniary penalty, as the case may be, shall amount to 5 per cent of the tax, but not less than BGN 200, and in case of repeated violation it shall be not less than BGN 400.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 108/2007, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016) In case of violation under Paragraph (1), where the registered person has charged the tax after the period under Paragraph (3) but not later than 18 months from the end of the month in which the tax should have been charged, the fine or the pecuniary penalty, as the case may be, shall amount to 10 per cent of the tax, but not less than BGN 400, and in case of repeated violation it shall be not less than BGN 800.

Article 180a. (New, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) (1) A registered person who has failed to charge tax within the time limits prescribed herein in cases where the tax has become chargeable from the person as payer under Chapter Eight and for the tax charged the person is entitled to full tax credit and shall be penalized by a fine - for natural persons other than merchants, or by a pecuniary penalty - for legal persons and sole traders in the amount of 5% of the non-charged tax, but not less than BGN 50.

(2) Paragraph 1 shall furthermore apply where the person has failed to charge tax because it has not filed an application for registration and has not registered under this Act within the legally set time limit.

(3) In case of violation under Paragraph 1, where the registered person has charged the tax in the period following the period in which the tax should have been charged, the fine or the pecuniary penalty, as the case may be, shall amount to 2% of the tax, but not less than BGN 25.

(4) In the cases under Paragraph 1, where the person has notified the revenue authorities under Item 2 of Article 126 (3) within two months from the end of the month in which the tax should have been charged, the fine or the pecuniary penalty shall be in the amount of BGN 100 to BGN 300.

(5) In case of repeated violation under Paragraphs 1 and 2, the amount of the fine or the pecuniary penalty shall be 20% of the non-charged tax but not less than BGN 500, and in the cases under Paragraph 4, from BGN 200 to BGN 600.

Article 185. (Amended and supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012, supplemented, SG No. 54/2012, effective 17.07.2012, amended, SG No. 23/2013, effective 8.03.2013) (1) (Amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) Any person, who fails to submit a return referred to in Article 118 (1) herein, shall be liable to a fine, applicable to natural persons who are not merchants, of BGN 200 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 1,000, or to a pecuniary penalty, applicable to legal persons and sole traders, of BGN 1,000 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 4,000.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) Apart from the cases under Paragraph (1), any person who breaches or allows a breach of Article 118 or a statutory act for its application shall be liable to a fine of BGN 600 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 2000, applicable to natural persons who are not merchants, or to a pecuniary penalty of BGN 6000 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 20 000, applicable to legal persons and sole traders. Where the violation does not result in failure to indicate income, the sanction under Paragraph (1) shall apply.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) In the cases under Paragraph (1), the natural person who is actually obligated to issue a document under Article 118 (1) and has accepted a payment without issuing such a receipt, shall be liable to a fine of BGN 200 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 1000.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) Upon a repeated violation under Paragraph (1), the fine shall be BGN 400 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 2000, and the pecuniary penalty shall be BGN 2000 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 8000.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) In the case of a repeated violation under Paragraph (2), the fine shall be BGN 1200 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 4000 and the pecuniary penalty shall be BGN 12 000 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 40 000. Where the violation does not lead to under-reporting of revenues, the penalties under Paragraph (4) shall apply.

(6) (Amended, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) Any person, who fails to fulfil the obligation thereof to keep the document under Article 118(1) until he or she leaves the commercial outlet, shall be liable to a fine of BGN 10, which shall be collected on the spot, against a receipt.

Article 185a. (New, SG No. 24/2018) (1) Any manufacturer/distributor of software who declares false data in the declaration under Article 118(14) shall be liable to a fine of BGN 1,000 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 3,000, applicable to natural persons who are not merchants, or to a pecuniary penalty of BGN 5,000 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 10,000, applicable to legal persons and sole traders.

(2) In the case of a repeated violation under Paragraph (1), the fine shall be BGN 2,000 to BGN 6,000, and the pecuniary penalty shall be BGN 10,000 to BGN 20,000.

Article 185b. (New, SG No. 24/2018) (1) (Amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020) A person under Article 118 (18), who has opted for using sales management software included in the list under Article 118 (16), but who uses other sales management software/software module in such outlet, which is not included in the list under Article 118 (16), shall be liable to a fine for non-merchant natural persons of BGN 1,000 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 3,000, or to a pecuniary penalty for legal entities and sole traders of BGN 5,000 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 10,000.

(2) In the case of a repeated violation under Paragraph (1), the fine shall be BGN 2,000 to BGN 6,000, and the pecuniary penalty shall be BGN 10,000 to BGN 20,000.

Article 186. (Supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012, amended, SG No. 23/2013, effective 8.03.2013) (1) (Amended, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) The coercive administrative measure of sealing an outlet for a period of up to 30 days, notwithstanding the fines or pecuniary penalties provided for, shall be imposed on any person who:

1. (amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020) fails to:
 - a) (amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020) issue a relevant document of sale under Article 118;
 - b) (amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020) commission or fails to register in the National Revenue Agency of a fiscal device or an integrated automated system for commercial activity management;
 - c) (repealed, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019);
 - d) (amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020) submits data from the electronic system with fiscal memory (ESFM) under Article 118 to the National Revenue Agency;
 - (e) (amended, SG No. 24/2018, repealed, SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020);
 2. uses a fiscal device or an integrated automated system for commercial activity management which does not meet the requirements of approved type and which is not approved by the Bulgarian Institute of Metrology;
 3. (new, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017, repealed, SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020);
 4. (new, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) uses electronic systems with fiscal memory, which:
 - a) are not of an approved type;
 - b) are modified by adding or removing individual components, without prior notification to the National Revenue Agency;
 - c) have broken or missing seals;
 - d) allow an operation mode with broken link/links and/or communication/communications between individual modules in conflict with the procedure set out in the ordinance under Article 118 (4);
 5. (new, SG No. 24/2018, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020) has opted for using sales management software included in the list under Article 118 (16), but who uses other sales management software/software module in such outlet, which is not included in the list under Article 118 (16).
- (2) In the cases under Item 2 of Paragraph (1), the fiscal device shall be confiscated by the revenue authority and shall be destroyed, and the right of the person to use the integrated automated system for commercial activity management shall be revoked.
- (3) The coercive administrative measure referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be applied by a reasoned order of the revenue authority or by an official empowered by the said authority.
- (4) Any order referred to in Paragraph (3) shall be appealable according to the procedure established by the Code of Administrative Procedure.

Article 186a. (New, SG No. 104/2020, effective 12.12.2020) Notwithstanding the fine or pecuniary penalty provided for, the coercive administrative measure under Article 186 shall not apply to a person under Article 118 (18) who fails to issue for the first time a relevant document of sale under Article 118, provided that the person has opted using for the sales management and is using only software included in the list under Article 118 (16).

Article 187. (1) (Amended and supplemented, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) Upon application of the coercive administrative measure referred to in Article 186 (1) herein, the person shall furthermore be barred from the outlet or outlets, and the merchandise in stock at the said outlets and at the warehouses thereto appertaining shall be removed by the person or by a person authorised thereby. The measure applies to the outlet or outlets where violations are found, including where at the time of sealing the outlet or outlets are managed by a third party, if such third party knows that the outlet will be sealed. The National Revenue Agency shall disclose on its website lists of the outlets subject to sealing and their location. It is considered that the person is aware that a permanent notification of the sealing is affixed and/or the information about the pending sealing of the outlet and its location is disclosed on the website of the revenue administration.

(2) Where such removal involves substantial difficulties for the revenue authorities and/or significant expenses for the person, the authority who decreed the sealing may order that the goods at the outlet or outlets be left to the person for safekeeping. Such order shall not apply to any goods which are the subject of violation referred to in Item 2 of Article 186 (1) herein.

(3) In the cases under Paragraph (1), where the person has failed to remove the goods within the prescribed time limit, the revenue authority shall remove the said goods, placing them in front of the outlet, without any obligation to guard the said goods, and shall not be held liable for their damage, waste or loss which shall be for the account of the person.

(4) (Supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The coercive administrative measure shall be terminated by the authority who applied the said measure at a request of the person on whom the administrative sanction has been imposed and after the said person proves that the fine or pecuniary penalty has been paid in full. The person shall be obligated to cooperate upon the unsealing. In the case of a repeated violation, the outlet shall not be unsealed earlier than a month after its sealing.

Article 188. (1) (Previous text of Article 188, amended, SG No. 100/2019, effective 1.01.2020) The coercive administrative measure referred to in Article 186 (1) herein shall be subject to provisional enforcement under Article 60 (1) – (7) of the Code of Administrative Procedure.

(2) (New, SG No. 100/2019, effective 1.01.2020) The decision of the court may not be appealed.

Article 189. (1) (Amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) Any taxpayer under Article 91 (1) and (2) herein, who fails to remit the chargeable tax in due time, shall be liable to a fine, applicable to natural persons who are not merchants, or by a pecuniary penalty, applicable to legal persons and sole traders, of BGN 500 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 2,000.

(2) Upon a repeated violation under Paragraph (1), the fine or the pecuniary penalty shall be equivalent to the unremitted tax but not less than BGN 4,000.

Article 190. (1) Any revenue authority, who fails to refund a tax within the time period as provided for, where the conditions for refund of the said tax under this Act are fulfilled, shall be liable to a fine of BGN 500 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 2,000.

(2) Upon a repeated violation under Paragraph (1), the fine shall be BGN 1,000 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 4,000.

Article 191. (1) Any customs authority, which, while obligated to do so, fails to charge tax under this Act, or who charges tax in a lower amount, or releases goods from customs control without payment of the tax due, shall be liable to a fine of BGN 500 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 2,000.

(2) Upon a repeated violation under Paragraph (1), the fine shall be BGN 1,000 or exceeding this amount but not exceeding BGN 4,000.

Article 191a. (New, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018, amended, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023) (1) A person carrying out maintenance, commissioning, registration of FD/IASCAM or removal of fiscal memory contrary to the established procedure, shall be liable to a fine for natural persons other than merchants ranging from BGN 1,000 to BGN 2,000 or by a pecuniary penalty for legal entities and sole traders ranging from BGN 2,000 to BGN 5,000. The same penalty shall be imposed on a person breaking the integrity of the seals of the electronic system with fiscal memory contrary to the established procedure.

(2) In the case of a repeated violation under Paragraph (1), the fine shall be BGN 2,000 to BGN 4,000, and the pecuniary penalty shall be BGN 5,000 to BGN 10,000.

Article 192. (Amended, SG No. 23/2013, effective 8.03.2013) Upon ascertainment of any violations covered under Article 185 herein, committed by manufacturers, importers or service maintenance providers of fiscal devices, the Chairperson of the Bulgarian Institute of Metrology or a person empowered thereby:

1. issue mandatory prescriptions in connection with the powers vested therein;
2. shall cancel the fiscal devices type approval or the approval of an Integrated Automated Commercial Activities Management System;
3. (amended, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018) shall withdraw the authorisation of the person performing the maintenance.

Article 192a. (New, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) (1) A person who, being obliged, fails to declare or falsely declares data under Article 123 (10), or fails to declare such data within the stipulated time limits, shall be liable to a fine or a pecuniary penalty in the amount of BGN 1,000 to BGN 4,000.

(2) In case of a repeated violation under Paragraph (1), the fine or the pecuniary penalty shall amount from BGN 2,000 to BGN 10,000.

Article 193. (1) The ascertainment of violations of this Act and of the statutory instruments on the application thereof, the issuing, appeal and execution of penalty decrees shall follow the procedure established by the Administrative Violations and Sanctions Act.

(2) The written statements on violations shall be drawn up by the revenue authorities, and the penalty decrees shall be issued by the Executive Director of the National Revenue Agency or by an official empowered thereby.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

§ 2. This Act shall supersede the Value Added Tax Act (promulgated in the State Gazette No. 153/1998; corrected in No. 1/1999; amended in Nos. 44, 62, 64, 103 and 111/1999, Nos. 63, 78 and 102/2000, No. 109/2001, Nos. 28, 45 and 117/2002, Nos. 37, 42, 86 and 109/2003, Nos. 53, 70 and 108/2004, Nos. 28, 43, 76, 94, 95, 100, 103 and 105/2005, Nos. 30 and 54/2006).

§ 3. (Effective 4.08.2006) (1) The Minister of Finance shall issue the Regulations for Application of this Act and the ordinances under this Act within three months after the promulgation of the said Act in the State Gazette.

(2) The Regulations and the ordinances referred to in Paragraph (1) shall enter into force as from the day of entry into force of this Act.

§ 4. (1) All persons registered under the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded at the date of entry into force of this Act shall be presumed registered under this Act as well. In such cases, the identification number referred to in Article 94 (2) herein and the registration certificate referred to in Article 104 herein shall be issued ex officio.

(2) Any registration or deregistration procedures that have been initiated and have not been concluded at the date of entry into force of this Act shall be completed according to the procedure established by this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding Paragraph (2), when grounds for termination of registration in respect to a registered person have arisen during the last tax period prior to the date of entry into force of this Act, such person may remain registered under this Act if the grounds for optional registration under this Act exist.

(4) The tax charged on assets available in connection with termination of registration prior to the entry into force of this Act shall be remitted within 30 days after the date of termination of registration.

(5) Where the time limit for submission of the registration inventory referred to in Article 68 or Article 70 of the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded expires after the entry into force of this Act, the said inventory shall be submitted within three days after the date of registration under the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded.

§ 4a. (New, SG No. 12/2009, effective 13.02.2009) (1) Traders referred to in Article 30 of the Tobacco and Tobacco Products Act that were registered after 1 January 2009 as per Article 100(1), or are undergoing a registration procedure, may submit a request to the competent regional office of the National Revenue Agency to declare their registration null.

(2) The request referred to in paragraph 1 shall be submitted by 1 April 2009, and the relevant registration shall be considered null from 1 January 2009.

§ 5. (1) The VAT return for the last tax period prior to the entry into force of this Act shall be submitted not later than the 14th day of the month following the month to which the said return refers, and all rights and obligations under this Act shall accrue in respect to the net tax (input tax claimable or output tax payable) stated therein.

(2) The annual VAT return referred to in Article 101 (1) of the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded shall be submitted not later than the 15th day of April 2007, and the net tax stated therein shall not be included in the deduction procedure under this Act but the tax shall be remitted or recovered within three months after the submission of the said return.

§ 6. (1) For registered persons in respect of whom the three-month deduction procedure for input tax claimable under the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded has been initiated and has not been concluded at the date of entry into force of this Act, the deduction procedure shall continue according to the procedure established by Article 92 (1) of this Act.

(2) All nine-month deduction procedures for income tax payable under the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded which have not been completed at the date of entry into force of this Act shall be concluded at the last day of the month preceding the month of entry into force of this Act.

(3) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (2), the balance of the input tax claimable shall be declared by the persons in the VAT returns for the last tax period prior to the entry into force of this Act, and the said balance shall be set off and refunded by the revenue authority within 45 days after the submission of the said VAT return.

(4) Any balance of the input tax claimable under Item 4 of Article 77 (1) of the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded which has not been refunded at the date of entry into force of this Act shall be set off and refunded by the revenue authority within 45 days after the submission of the VAT return wherein the said balance is stated.

(5) Any tax refundable in pursuance of Article 77 (2) of the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded which has not been refunded at the date of entry into force of this Act shall be set off and refunded by the revenue authority within the relevant time limits referred to in Article 77 (2) of the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded.

§ 7. (1) Where an advance payment has been received in connection with an exempt supply within the meaning given by the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded, which is a taxable supply within the meaning given by Article 12 (1) (excluding zero-rated supplies) of this Act, and the chargeable event for which occurs after the entry into force of this Act, the registered person who is the supplier shall document the supply by issuing an invoice stating therein the full taxable amount for the said supply. The said supply shall be subject to the tax treatment effective at the date of the occurrence of the chargeable event for the supply under this Act.

(2) Where an advance payment has been received in connection with a taxable supply within the meaning given by the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded, which is an exempt supply within the meaning given by this Act, and the chargeable event for which occurs after the entry into force of this Act, the registered person who is the supplier shall document the supply by canceling the invoice issued on the advance payment and issuing a new invoice, stating therein the full taxable amount for the said supply. A memorandum under Article 116 (4) of this Act shall furthermore be issued on the said cancellation. The said supply shall be subject to the tax treatment effective at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event for the supply under this Act.

§ 8. (1) Where the chargeable event for a supply has occurred prior to the entry into force of this Act and the tax document on the supply is to be issued after the entry into force of the said, the supply shall be documented by issuing an invoice under Article 114 of this Act, and upon the issuing the said invoice, the tax treatment effective at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event for such supply shall apply.

(2) Where, after the entry of this Act into force, grounds arise for modification of the taxable amount of a supply which has been actually effected and documented prior to the entry into force of this Act, the taxable amount shall be modified by issuing a tax advice under Article 115 of this Act, and upon the issuing of the said advice, the tax treatment effective at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event for the supply as effected and documented shall apply.

§ 9. (1) Where goods have actually been supplied under the terms of a financial lease contract prior to the date of entry into force of this Act, each subsequent payment (installment) under such contract due after the entry into force of this Act shall be considered a separate supply for which the chargeable event shall occur on the earlier of the date of payment and the date on which the said payment became due.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall apply only where the taxable person who is the supplier submits an inventory, which shall mandatorily contain the following information, to the National Revenue Agency territorial directorate whereat the said person is registered within one month after the entry into force of this Act:

1. recipient under the contracts referred to in Paragraph (1);
2. number and amount of installments under each contract on which a tax document has been issued but which have not been received;
3. number and amount of installments under each contract for which the chargeable event referred to in Paragraph (1) will occur after the entry into force of this Act.

(3) For any contracts which are not included in an inventory submitted according to the procedure established by Paragraph (2), the person shall be presumed to effect a supply under Item 3 of Article 6 (2) herein on the date of entry into force of this Act, whereof the taxable amount is equal to the sum total of the installments due after the entry into force of this Act, net of tax due on the said installments.

§ 10. Where goods have actually been supplied by a principal/mandator to a commission agent/mandatory and the said goods have not been delivered by the commission agent/mandatory to a third party prior to the entry into force of this Act, the chargeable event for such supply of goods between the principal/mandator and the commission agent/mandatory shall be presumed to occur on the date of occurrence of the chargeable event for the supply of the goods to the third party.

§ 11. The provision of Article 50 of this Act shall furthermore apply in cases of supplies of goods or services for which a right to deduct credit for input tax in pursuance of Article 65 (1) of the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded did not exist.

§ 12. Any tax documents issued prior to the entry into force of this Act and complying with the requirements of the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded shall be deemed compliant with the requirements of this Act.

§ 13. The right to deduct credit for input tax, which has accrued in pursuance of the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded and which has not been exercised until the date of entry into force of this Act and for the exercise of which the time limits under Articles 67, 69 and 71 of the Value Added Tax Act as hereby superseded have not expired, may be exercised in any of the three tax periods following the tax period during which the said right has accrued.

§ 14. (1) Importation shall furthermore refer to the completion of customs formalities in respect of declaring for free circulation of any goods for which the circumstances under Annex V, Chapter 4 "Customs Union," of the Protocol to the Treaty concerning the Accession of the Republic of Bulgaria to the European Union exist.

(2) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (1), the chargeable event shall occur and the tax shall become chargeable according to the procedure established in Article 54 (2) of this Act.

(3) The taxable amount in the cases referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be determined according to the procedure established in Article 55 (1) to (4) of this Act.

(4) The tax shall be charged according to the procedure established in Article 56 of this Act.

(5) The provisions of Articles 60 and 90 of this Act shall apply to the remittance of the tax.

(6) Until occurrence of the chargeable event referred to in Paragraph (2), security shall be provided in respect of the tax according to the procedure and in the amounts specified in Article 59 of this Act.

(7) (New, SG No. 113/2007) Notwithstanding Paragraph (1), no tax shall be due on the performance of customs formalities for declaring vehicles for free circulation where the following conditions exist simultaneously:

1. as of 31 December 2006 inclusive the vehicles are under temporary import regime with full exemption from customs duties;
2. the vehicles are acquired in or imported from another Member State, including Romania;
3. at the time of declaring the free circulation the vehicles are under temporary import regime with full exemption from customs duties;
4. the date of the first registration of the vehicles is not later than 31 December 1998 inclusive;
5. the amount of the tax does not exceed BGN 100 inclusive.

§ 15. (Amended, SG No. 108/2006) (1) The VAT accounts in the meaning of Article 20, sub-paragraph 17 of the repealed Value Added Tax Act, on which no funds are available, shall be closed at the request of the title-holders or ex officio by banks as at 31 January 2007.

(2) If there are funds available in the VAT account, by 31 January 2007 the account holder may specify an account, to which the funds to be transferred and the VAT account shall be closed.

(3) If within the deadline under paragraph 1 the holder of the VAT account in the meaning of Article 20, sub-paragraph 17 from the repealed Value Added Tax Act does not specify an account, to which the available amounts to be transferred, they shall be transferred as at 31 January 2007 ex officio by the bank to another account of the holder in the same bank, and if the holder does not have another account with the bank - to a current account opened by the bank ex officio in the name of the holder, whereas the VAT account shall be closed.

(4) The frozen funds in the VAT accounts in the meaning of Article 20, sub-paragraph 17 from the repealed Value Added Tax Act may be transferred only to an account of the same holder, whereas the imposed freezing shall remain in force, including with regard to its imposition date.

§ 15a. (New, SG No. 108/2006) (1) When in 2006 reasons have occurred for an adjustment to a tax credit used according to the procedures of Article 81, paragraph 4 from the repealed Value Added Tax Act, the person shall accrue and pay tax to an amount, determined under the procedures of Article 76 from the repealed Rules for the Implementation of the Value Added Tax Act (promulgated in State Gazette No. 19/1999; amended No. 55/1999, amended No. 9/2000; amended No. 15/2000, amended No. 12/2001 - Ruling № 404/2001 of the Supreme Administrative Court under administrative file № 1581 of 2000; amended No. 15 and No. 58/2001, No. 43 and No. 63/2002, amended No. 29/2003, amended No. 26/2004, amended No. 32/2005, amended No. 9/2006; repealed, State Gazette No. 76/2006).

(2) The adjustment under paragraph 1 shall be made by issuing a protocol under Article 117 of the present Act during the first tax period of 2007. The protocol shall be registered in the sales journal for that tax period as the tax, accrued under the act in other cases.

§ 15b. (New, SG No. 54/2012, effective 17.07.2012, amended, SG No. 103/2012, effective 1.01.2013, SG No. 23/2013, effective 8.03.2013) The persons under Article 118 (7), (8), Item 1 of (9) and (10) shall bring their activity in accordance with the requirements of this Act by 30 April 2013.

§ 15c. (New, SG No. 54/2012, effective 1.01.2013) Where by 31 December 2012 an advance payment for supply of a service provided by a public enforcement agent for which the chargeable event occurs after 31 December 2012 is received, the tax regime as of the date of occurrence of the chargeable event shall apply. The tax due shall be determined under the terms of Article 67 (2) of this Act on the total taxable amount of the supply, including the advance payment made.

§ 15d. (New, SG No. 41/2015) Municipalities registered under this Act, which have not exercised within the time period specified in Article 72 their right to deduct credit for input tax with regard to value added tax charged after 1 January 2007 on supplies of goods or services for the construction of water supply and sewage systems and facilities in the course of implementation of water projects, including under Priority Axis 1 of the Operational Programme "Environment 2007 - 2013", can exercise the right to deduct credit for input tax in relation to these supplies.

§ 15e. (New, SG No. 52/2022, effective 1.07.2022) (1) (Amended, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) The rate of tax referred to in Article 66a shall apply for the following supplies with place of transaction within the territory of the country, on importation of goods into the territory of the country and for taxable intra-Community acquisitions of goods:

1. (repealed, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023);
2. (effective 9.07.2022 - SG No. 52/2022; supplemented, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) supply of restaurant and catering services consisting of the supply of prepared or non-prepared food, including supply of takeaway food; this shall not apply to restaurant and catering services consisting of the supply of beer, wine and spirits, including in the cases referred to in Article 128, by 31 December 2024 inclusive;
3. (repealed, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023);
4. (repealed, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023);
5. (supplemented, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) the supply of single service to tourists in the cases of Article 136, as well as excursions organised by tour operators and tourist agents with occasional bus transport of passengers, by 30 June 2024 inclusive;
6. (supplemented, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024) the supply of sport facility use services, by 30 June 2024 inclusive.

(2) (Effective 9.07.2022 - SG No. 52/2022) The rate of tax referred to in Article 66a shall apply until 1 July 2023 for the following supplies with place of transaction within the territory of the country, on importation of goods into the territory of the country and for taxable intra-Community acquisitions of goods:

1. district heating supply;
2. natural gas supply.

(3) (Effective 9.07.2022 - SG No. 52/2022; amended, SG No. 102/2022, effective 1.01.2023, SG No. 106/2023, effective 1.01.2024, SG No. 42/2024, effective 1.07.2024) The rate of tax referred to in Article 66b shall apply until 31 December 2024 including for the supply of bread and flour with place of transaction within the territory of the country, on importation of goods into the territory of the country and for taxable intra-Community acquisitions of goods.

(4) For the purposes of Paragraph 1, Items 2 and 5:

1. "beer" is beer under Article 5 of the Excise Duties and Tax Warehouses Act;
2. "wine" is wine within the meaning of the Wine and Spirit Drinks Act;
3. "spirits" shall be spirit drinks within the meaning of Article 121 (3) of Wine and Spirit Drinks Act;
4. "non-scheduled bus services" are bus services within the meaning of item 24 of § 1 of the supplementary provisions of the Carriage by Road Act.

(5) For the purposes of Paragraph 3, "bread" is a product obtained by baking dough obtained by mixing wheat flour or other cereal, alone or in combination, and water, with or without the addition of salt, rising using yeast or leaven, and technological additives (where appropriate). For the purposes of Paragraph 3, "bread" is a product obtained from milling of wheat and it is suitable for the production of bread and bread products.

(6) (Effective 9.07.2022 - SG No. 52/2022) A person who makes supply/sale of natural gas by means of meters for the consumption of liquid fuels shall register in the electronic system with fiscal memory any supply/sale of natural gas to a "E" tax group for the time of application of the rate referred to in Article 66a. In this case, data on the type and quantity of the fuel sold are not required to be submitted when data are transferred to the National Revenue Agency. These sales are allowed to be programmed in a separate department.

(7) Where the chargeable event for a supply to which Paragraphs 2 and 3 apply has occurred prior to the entry into force of Paragraphs 2 and 3, including the tax document on the supply shall be issued after the entry into force of Paragraphs 2 and 3, the supply shall be documented by issuing an invoice under Article 113, and upon the issuing the said invoice, applying the tax treatment effective at the date of occurrence of the chargeable event for such supply.

ACT for Amending and Supplementing
the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009)

Supplementary Provision

§ 17. This Act shall transpose the provisions of Council Directive 2007/74/EC of 20 December 2007 on the exemption from value added tax and excise duty of goods imported by persons travelling from third countries (OJ, L 346/6 of 29 December 2007).

Transitional and Final Provisions

§ 18. (1) Registered persons - recipients of the supply or importers in respect of whom the tax has become chargeable as payer under Chapter Eight who, until entry into force of this Act, have not charged tax under the terms of Article 86 (1) and/or have not exercised their right to deduct credit for input tax, may charge the tax or exercise the right to deduct credit for input tax, as the case may be, within 4 months from entry into force of this Act.

(2) Where the persons under Paragraph 1 have deducted credit for input tax after the time limit under Article 72 (1) has expired shall be regarded as having lawfully exercised the right to deduct credit for input tax.

(3) Paragraph 2 and Article 73a shall furthermore apply to pending administrative and judicial proceedings as of the date of entry into force of this Act.

(4) Registered persons in respect whereof there is an enforced administrative act on the grounds of which the right to deduct credit for input tax for supplies has not been recognised where the tax is chargeable on the recipient/importer and in respect whereof Article 73a hereof would apply, may exercise their right to deduct the unrecognised credit for input tax by including the memorandum for the tax charged on the supply in the purchases log for the tax period January 2009 or for any of the following 6 tax periods. The issued memorandum shall not be included in the purchases log where the tax due on the supply is charged by the registered person or by the revenue authorities for a previous tax period.

§ 20. This Act shall enter into force as from 1 January 2009, with the exception of § 5 and § 16 regarding Items 54, 55, 56 and 57 of § 1 of the supplementary provision, which shall enter into force on 1 December 2008.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Payment Services and Payment Systems Act
(SG No. 23/2009, effective 1.11.2009)

§ 6. (1) Suppliers of payment services, operators of payment systems and other persons with obligations under this Act shall adjust their activities and relations with third parties which occurred prior to the effective date of this Act within three months of the effective date of this Act.

(2) Suppliers of payment services may use the ways and means of notification under Article 42, paragraph 1 and Article 43, paragraphs 1 and 2 when notifying persons with whom they have framework agreements of the changes therein resulting from this Act.

§ 7. The Bulgarian National Bank shall update the licences of cash transfer companies issued under the repealed Money Transfers, Electronic Payment Instruments and Payment Systems Act in accordance with the requirements of this Act and enter them into the register under Article 17 within three months of the effective date of this Act. Updated licenses shall be issued by the BNB Governor.

§ 8. The Bulgarian National Bank shall update the licences of system operators of payment systems under Article 60 of the repealed Money Transfers, Electronic Payment Instruments and Payment Systems Act in accordance with the requirements of this Act and enter them into the register under Article 81 within three months of the effective date of this Act. Updated licenses shall be issued by the BNB Governor.

§ 9. In the cases other than those under § 7 and 8, the companies providing any payment service under Article 4 shall apply for licensing to the Bulgarian National Bank within three months of the effective date of this Act. Any company failing to submit an application under the first sentence or rejected after examination of the documents by the BNB under Article 14 shall not be entitled to operate as a payment institution.

§ 10. The Governing Board of the Bulgarian National Bank shall adopt implementing regulations on the application of Chapters Two, Three, Four and Six within three months of the date of promulgation of this Act in The State Gazette.

§ 11. The Governing Board of the Bulgarian National Bank shall adopt regulations to specify the ways of formation of the unique identifier of bank accounts, the international bank account number (IBAN).

§ 21. This Act shall enter into force on 1 November 2009, except for § 10 which shall enter into force on the date of its promulgation in The State Gazette.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Act Amending and Supplementing the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010)

§ 49. The right to deduct tax credit which occurred prior to 1 January 2010 but had not been exercised as of the effective date of this Act and for the exercise of which the three tax periods following the tax period of its occurrence have not elapsed yet may be exercised in any of the twelve tax periods following the tax period of its occurrence.

§ 50. (1) Where an advance payment was received prior to 31 December 2009, including payment for the supply of goods or services, for which this Act has changed the tax treatment as regards the tax rate, the place of supply, the consideration of the supply as a taxable supply under Article 69, paragraph 2 and for which the chargeable event occurs thereafter, the supplier shall document the supply through the issuance of an invoice specifying the whole taxable amount. The tax regime existing as of the date of occurrence of the chargeable event under this Act shall apply to the supply.

(2) The tax regime as of the date of the relevant chargeable event under Article 25, paragraph 4 shall apply to the supply of services related to procedural representation exercising the right of defence of individuals in pre-trial, trial, administrative or arbitration proceedings, where such supply is regular or on a stage-by-stage basis.

(3) Where an advance payment was made prior to 31 December 2009, including payment for the supply of goods or services the chargeable event for which occurs thereafter and the tax is chargeable on the recipient under this Act, the registered person who is the recipient shall accrue the tax on the whole taxable amount, including the advance payment.

§ 51. (1) The restriction under Article 70, paragraph 1, items 4 and 5 shall not apply to the right to deduct tax credit, which existed or occurred prior to or on 31 December 2009 for automobiles with up to five seats installed by the manufacturer alongside with the driver's seat.

(2) As regards lease contracts specifying only an option rather than an obligation for transfer of the ownership right to automobiles under paragraph 1, the right to deduct tax credit on the lease instalments will continue to occur after 1 January 2010 provided that the right to deduct tax credit on at least one lease instalment occurred prior to or on 31 December 2009.

(3) The right to deduct tax credit shall not occur for the goods and services under Article 70, paragraph 1, item 5 in relation to the automobiles under paragraph 2 after 1 January 2010.

§ 52. (1)) The persons under Article 97a, paragraph 1 who made an advance payment prior to or on 31 December 2009, including payment for the supply of services, the chargeable event for which occurs thereafter and the tax is chargeable on the recipient under this Act, shall apply for registration under Article 97a within 20 days of the effective date of this Act. On the date of occurrence of the chargeable event, the registered person who is the recipient shall accrue the tax on the whole taxable amount, including the advance payment. Where the chargeable event occurred prior to the date of registration under this Act, the tax on the service received shall be accrued within 15 days of the date of registration under this Act.

(2) The persons under Article 97a, paragraph 2 who received an advance payment prior to or on 31 December 2009, including payment for the supply of services the place of which was within the territory of another Member State and the chargeable event occurred thereafter, shall be registered under Article 97a within seven days of the effective date of this Act. The tax regime as of the date of occurrence of the chargeable event shall apply to these supplies.

§ 53. The two-month period under Article 92 shall apply to refundable tax related to tax periods after 1 January 2010.

§ 54. A taxable person who is not established within the territory of the country but is registered pursuant to Article 133 may apply for optional deregistration under Article 108, regardless of the taxable turnover for the last twelve consecutive months prior to the current one, where over the said period the person engaged only in supplies for which the tax became chargeable on the recipient under Article 82 after 31 December 2009.

§ 55. Persons registered as of the effective date of this Act shall specify the e-mail address under Article 101, paragraph 5 within three months of the effective date of this Act.

§ 56. (1) The Minister of Finance shall adjust the ordinance under Article 118, paragraph 4 to the requirements of this Act within six months of its effective date.

(2) The Minister of Finance shall specify the time limit for the persons obliged to use fiscal devices to adjust their activities with a view to maintaining the distance connection in accordance with the requirements set out in the ordinance under paragraph 1. The Minister may specify different time limits for certain groups of persons, which may not be shorter than six months and longer than two years of the effective date of the ordinance under paragraph 1.

§ 57. This Act shall enter into force on 1 January 2010.

§ 29. In the remaining texts of the act, the word "European Union" is replaced by the "European Union", whereas the words "within the European Union and outside of it" are replaced by the words "within the European Union and outside of it".

Transitional and final provisions

§ 30 (1) For the supplies of a concession for construction, service or extraction/mining under contracts concluded prior to 1 January 2011, the tax arrangements as of the occurrence of the taxable event shall be applied as stipulated pursuant to Article 25(4). In such cases it shall be deemed that the tax is not included in the concessionary remuneration.

(2) When an advance payment has been received under Paragraph 1 through 31 December 2010 and the taxable event occurs after this date, the supplier shall document the supply by issuing an invoice in which the supplier shall state the entire taxable amount of the supply.

(3) The concessionaires under a concession contract for construction, service or extraction/mining shall have the right to a credit for input tax for the received supplies of goods and/or services during the period 1 January 2007 - 31 December 2010, which have been used or will be used for supplies under Article 3, Paragraph 5, Item 1 Letter "m" of this act.

(4) The right referred to in Paragraph 3 shall be exercisable by:

1. 31 December 2011 - for the received supplies of goods and services for the period from 1 January 2007 to 30 June 2008,
2. 31 December 2012 - for the received supplies of goods and services for the period from 1 July 2008 to 31 December 2009, and
3. 30 June 2013 - for the received supplies of goods and services for the period from 1 January 2010 to 31 December 2010.

The provisions of Article 126 shall not applied in these cases.

(5) When the persons referred to in Paragraph 3 have exercised the right to deduct a credit for input tax prior to the entry into force of this act, it shall be deemed that this right has been exercised legitimately.

(6) Paragraph 5 shall be applied also to the administrative and judicial proceedings that are not completed as of the date of entry into force of this act.

(7) The concession grantor - persons registered under the act, in respect to whom there exists an individual administrative act which has entered into force and on the basis of which the right to deduct a credit for input tax has not been recognized for received supplies of goods and/or services, for which the terms and conditions of Paragraph 3 exist, can exercise their right to deduct the unrecognized credit for input tax within the time limits referred to in Paragraph 4.

§ 31. For the assets and property under § 29 of the transitional and final provisions of the Act for amendment of the Waters Act (promulgated, SG No. 47/2009, amended, SG No. 95/2009), including for those written off by 31 December 2010, no adjustments shall be made to the used credit for input tax pursuant to Article 79 in connection with the free-of-charge supply upon their being written-off the balance sheet.

§ 32. (1) When an advance payment has been received through 31 December 2010 for the supply of a good or a service for which (by virtue of this act) the tax treatment has been changed in regard to the tax rate, the place of supply, the equalization of the supply to a taxable supply under Article 69(2) and for which the taxable event occurs after this date, the supplier shall document the supply by issuing an invoice, wherein the supplier shall state the entire taxable amount of the supply. The tax arrangements as of the date of occurrence of the tax event of the supply under the act shall be applied to the supply.

(2) When an advance payment has been made through 31 December 2010 for the supply of a good or a service, the taxable event for which occurs after this date and the tax for the supply is due and payable by the recipient according to the provisions of the act, the registered recipient shall be obligated to accrue/assess tax on the entire taxable amount of the supply, including for the advance payment made.

§ 33. In the cases of supplies under Article 130, for which the taxable event of the former supply has occurred through 31 December 2010, whereas the taxable event of the second supply occurs after this date, the tax arrangements as of the date of occurrence of the taxable event of the second supply shall be applied to the second supply.

§ 35. The act shall enter into force from 1 January 2011 with the exception of § 12, which shall enter into force from 1 April 2011, and § 7, § 28 Item 1 Letter "d" and § 34, which shall enter into force from 1 January 2012.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Act Amending and Supplementing the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 41/2015)

§ 3. (1) Municipalities shall exercise the right referred to in § 15d of the Transitional and Final Provisions by filing with the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency a statement-inventory using a standard form as per the appendix within the following deadlines:

1. from the entry of this Act into force till 31 July 2015 – regarding the received supplies, the tax for which has become due and payable during tax periods from January 2007 till and including November 2013;
 2. from 1 January 2016 till 31 July 2016 – regarding the received supplies, the tax for which has become due and payable during tax periods after 1 December 2013.
- (2) The provision of Article 79(8) shall not apply to tax, with regard to which the right to credit for input tax has been exercised in accordance with the procedure of Paragraph 1.

§ 4. (1) Until the date of conclusion of a contract under the procedure of Article 198q (1) of the Water Act or any other contract for provision against consideration of water supply and sewage systems and facilities constructed in the course of implementation of water projects, including under Priority Axis 1 of the Operational Programme "Environment 2007 - 2013", but not later than 31 December 2015, the following shall not constitute a supply of goods or services:

1. the provision by a municipality to a water operator of the assets required for management, maintenance and operation;
 2. the performance by a water operator of the maintenance and repair of the assets, and of the obligation to provide the water supply and sewage service undertaken by such operator.
- (2) Where after 31 December 2015 no contract under the procedure of Article 198q (1) of the Water Act or another contract for provision against consideration of water supply and sewage systems and facilities has been concluded, when such water supply and sewage systems and facilities are granted for management, maintenance and operation by a water operator in exchange for their maintenance by it, as of the date of occurrence of the chargeable event:
1. the taxable amount of the supply by the municipality to the water operator shall be equal to the depreciation of the granted assets, which would have been accrued by the water operator in accordance with the procedure of Article 198q (3) of the Water Act;
 2. the taxable amount of the supply by the water operator to the municipality shall be equal to the taxable amount upon acquisition or the cost of the granted goods, and where the goods are imported – to the taxable amount upon importation thereof or to the direct costs incurred in connection with the provision of the service, relating to the maintenance and repair of the assets.

(3) The chargeable event of the supplies referred to in sub-paragraphs 1 and 2 of paragraph 2 shall occur at the end of each calendar year.

§ 5. (1) By 31 July 2015 the Ministry of Environment and Water shall submit to the National Revenue Agency information by municipalities of the amount of funds subject to refund, disbursed under Operational Programme "Environment 2007 - 2013" to finance value added tax charged on supplies of goods and services received by municipalities in the course of implementation of water projects under Priority Axis 1 of the Programme, indicating the data regarding each supply separately, as in columns 2 - 7 of the appendix to § 3, paragraph 1, and the bank account into which the funds subject to refund shall be transferred.

(2) Up to the amount specified in accordance with the procedure under paragraph 1, the value added tax subject to refund under § 3 shall be refunded to the municipality via a bank transfer into the bank account indicated by the Ministry of Environment and Water, without any set-off in accordance with the procedure of the Tax and Social Insurance Procedure Code for counter liabilities of the municipality, and the remaining tax subject to refund, if any, shall be refunded to the municipality in accordance with the procedure of Articles 128 - 129 of the Tax and Social Insurance Procedure Code.

(3) In the cases specified in paragraph 2, the procedure of Article 92 shall not apply where the tax has been refunded:

1. by 31 December 2015 – for tax specified in a statement-inventory submitted by 31 July 2015;
2. by 31 December 2016 – for tax specified in a statement-inventory submitted by 31 July 2016.

(4) Any claims between municipalities and the Ministry of Environment and Water, arising from inaccuracies in the amounts about which information is provided in accordance with the procedure of paragraph 1, shall be settled in accordance with the standard procedure.

§ 6. (1) It shall be considered that municipalities, which have exercised, within the deadline set in Article 72, their right to credit for input tax with regard to value added tax charged after 1 January 2007 on supplies of goods and services received by them in the course of implementation of water projects, including under Priority Axis 1 of Operational Programme "Environment 2007 - 2013", have legitimately exercised their right to deduct credit for input tax.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall furthermore apply to administrative and court proceedings which have not been closed at the date of entry into force of this Act.

§ 7. In cases of enforced individual administrative acts based on which the right to deduct credit for input tax on supplies of goods and services, received in the course of implementation of water projects, including under Priority Axis 1 of the Operational Programme "Environment 2007 - 2013", is not recognised, the municipality may exercise its right to deduct the unrecognised credit for input tax in accordance with the procedure and within the deadlines set out in § 3.

The Value Added Tax Act (promulgated, SG No. 63/2006; amended, Nos. 86, 105 and 108/2006; Decision No. 7 of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Bulgaria of 2007 – No. 37/2007; amended, Nos. 41, 52, 59, 108 and 113/2007, No. 106/2008, Nos. 12, 23, 74 and 95/2009, Nos. 94 and 100/2010, Nos. 19, 77 and 99/2011, Nos. 54, 94 and 103/2012, Nos. 23, 30 and 68/2013, Nos. 98, 101, 104 and 109/2013, Nos. 1, 105 and 107/2014, Nos. 41, 79, 94 and 95/2015, and Nos. 58, 60, 74 and 88/2016) shall be amended supplemented as follows:

§ 42. (1) For immovable properties available as of 1 January 2016, the determination of the taxable amount under Article 27 (2) of the Value Added Tax Act and adjustments to the credit for input tax used under Item 1 of Article 79a (3) of the same Act, for the years following the year of entry into force of this Act, shall be calculated by counting the 20-year period from the beginning of the year of the exercise of the right of credit for input tax.

(2) For immovable properties under Paragraph (1) for which the circumstances under the present Article 79 (8) exist of the Value Added Tax Act, registered persons may exercise their right to deduct credit for input tax or to adjust (increase) the amount of the partial credit for input tax used, and by 30 June 2017 shall issue a protocol by which:

1. to increase the amount of the partial credit for input tax used with an amount calculated by the following formula:

$ICIT = (Trdpcit - Trdpcit \times Fydpcit) \times 1/20 \times NY$, where

Trdpcit – the tax with right to deduct partial credit for input tax;

Fydpcit – the factor under Article 73 (2) of the Value Added Tax Act, calculated on the basis of the turnovers for the year in which the right to deduct partial credit for input tax was exercised;

NY – the number of years from occurrence of the circumstances under the existing Article 79 (8) of the Value Added Tax Act, excluding the year of occurrence of the circumstances, until 2016 inclusive;

2. where no credit for input tax has been deducted for the acquisition or construction of properties which were subsequently used for effecting taxable supplies under Article 69 of the Value Added Tax Act, to exercise the right to credit for input tax in an amount determined by the following formula:

$CIT = VAT \times 1/20 \times NY$, where:

CIT is the portion of the credit for input tax with right to deduction;

VAT – the amount of the charged value added tax according to the tax documents for the acquisition or construction of the property for which no right to deduction is exercised;

NY – the number of years from occurrence of the circumstances under the existing Article 79 (8) of the Value Added Tax Act, excluding the year of occurrence of the circumstances, until 2016 inclusive.

(3) For goods and services other than immovable properties, for which the circumstances under the present Article 79 (8) of the Value Added Tax Act exist, registered persons may exercise their right to deduct credit for input tax or to adjust (increase) the amount of the partial credit for input tax used, and by 30 June 2017 shall issue a protocol by which:

1. to increase the amount of the partial credit for input tax used with an amount calculated by the following formula:

$ICIT = (TDPCIT - TDPCIT \times FYDPCIT) \times 1/5 \times NoY$, where

ICIT is the increase of the amount of the partial credit for input tax used;

Trdpcit – the tax with right to deduct partial credit for input tax;

Fydpcit – the factor under Article 73 (2) of the Value Added Tax Act, calculated on the basis of the turnovers for the year in which the right to deduct partial credit for input tax was exercised;

NY – the number of years from occurrence of the circumstances under the existing Article 79 (8) of the Value Added Tax Act, excluding the year of occurrence of the circumstances, until 2016 inclusive;

2. where no credit for input tax has been deducted for the manufacture, purchase, acquisition or importation of goods or services which were used subsequently only for effecting taxable supplies under Article 69 of the Value Added Tax Act, to exercise the right to credit for input tax in an amount determined by the following formula:

$CIT = VAT \times 1/5 \times NY$, where:

CIT is the portion of the credit for input tax with right to deduction;

VAT – the amount of the charged value added tax according to the tax documents for the manufacture, purchase, acquisition or importation, for which no right to deduction is exercised;

NY – the number of years from occurrence of the circumstances under the existing Article 79 (8) of the Value Added Tax Act, excluding the year of occurrence of the circumstances, until 2016 inclusive.

(4) The right to deduct credit for input tax under Paragraphs (2) and (3) shall be exercised by recording the protocol in the purchase day book and in the VAT return for the tax period in which the report was issued.

(5) In the cases referred to in Paragraphs (2) and (3) the persons shall cancel the protocols under Article 67 (3) of the Implementing Regulations of the Value Added Tax Act (promulgated, SG No. 76/2006; amended, SG No. 101/2006, Nos. 3 and 16/2007, Nos. 39, 71 and 105/2008, Nos. 4 and 100/2009, No. 6/2010, Nos. 10 and 84/2011, No. 15/2012; corrected, SG No. 16/2012; amended, SG Nos. 20 and 110/2013, No. 1/2015 and Nos. 8 and 70/2016), issued by 31 December 2016 inclusive. Article 80 (7) and (8) of the regulations shall apply to those protocols.

§ 43. Articles 79, 79a and 79b of the Value Added Tax Act shall not apply to goods and services for which the registered person has applied the existing Article 79 (6) and (7) of the same Act.

§ 44. For goods and services that are not fixed assets within the meaning of § 1, item 83 of the Value Added Tax Act, available at 31 December 2016 inclusive, Article 79 (3) and (5), Articles 79a and 79b of the same Act shall not apply.

§ 45. Where a taxable person (commission agent/mandatory) effects supply of goods or services in his own name and for the account of another and the chargeable event of the supply between the principal/mandator and the commission agent/mandatory has arisen by 31 December 2016 inclusive, the provision of the existing Article 127 of the Value Added Tax Act shall apply.

§ 46. Where pending the entry into force of this Act an unincorporated company has been established being a person not registered under the Value Added Tax Act in which a partner participates being a person registered under the Value Added Tax Act, the company shall submit an application for registration within one month of the entry into force of this Act.

(2) (Effective 1.07.2021 - SG No. 104/2020) Started and not completed procedures for registration until the entry into force of this Act under the repealed Articles 97b and 98 shall continue under the procedure for registration under Article 96, Paragraph 9.

(3) (Effective 1.07.2021 - SG No. 104/2020) Where the taxable person registered under Articles 97b and 98 has opted to register for application of the Union scheme, the non-Union scheme or the scheme for distant sales of goods imported from third countries or third territories in another Member State, or under Article 154, the provisions of Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall not apply, provided that the person has electronically notified the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency of such choice by 30 June 2021 inclusive.

(4) A taxable person registered under Articles 96, 97, 99 or Article 100 (1), (2) and (3), having its seat and registered office in the United Kingdom of Great Britain or in a third country with which the European Union has not concluded an agreement on mutual assistance similar in scope to that of Directive 2010/24/EU and Regulation (EU) No. 904/2010, shall be considered registered under this Act, if the person designates an accredited representative under Article 133 and notifies in writing the competent territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency thereof by 31 March 2021 inclusive.

(5) A taxable person registered under Article 98, having its seat and registered office in the United Kingdom of Great Britain, shall be considered registered under Article 96 (9) if the person designates an accredited representative under Article 133 by 15 January 2021 inclusive.

(6) Registration under Paragraphs (5) shall be effected according to the procedure established by Article 101 herein at the National Revenue Agency territorial directorate under Article 8 of the Tax Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(7) If a taxable person registered under Article 98, having its seat and registered office in the United Kingdom of Great Britain, fails to designate an accredited representative within the time-limit under Paragraph (5), its registration shall be terminated at the initiative of the revenue authority by issue of a deregistration act.

(8) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (7), the deregistration act shall not be delivered to the person, and the date of deregistration shall be the date of expiry of the time limit referred to in Paragraph 5 herein.

(9) If the taxable person under Paragraph (4) fails to designate an accredited representative within the time-limit set, its registration shall be terminated at the initiative of a revenue authority by issue of a deregistration act.

(10) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (9), the deregistration act shall not be delivered to the person, and the date of deregistration shall be the date of expiry of the time limit referred to in Paragraph (4) herein.

(11) Upon deregistration under Paragraphs (7) and (9), it shall be presumed that the person effects a supply under Article 111 herein.

(12) (Effective 1.07.2021 - SG No. 104/2020) The provisions of the existing Article 20 (2) and (6) shall apply to goods dispatched or transported from the territory of another Member State to the territory of the country before 1 July 2021 and arriving in the territory of the country on or after 1 July 2021.

(13) (Effective 1.07.2021 - SG No. 104/2020) The persons registered under this Act for supplies of goods under the existing Article 20, (1) and (5), which are dispatched or transported from the territory of the country before 1 July 2021 and arrive on and after 1 July 2021 into the territory of another Member State, shall apply the VAT legislation of such Member State.

(14) (Effective 1.07.2021 - SG No. 104/2020) For goods purchased from a third territory or a third country before 1 July 2021 and arriving into the territory of the European Union on or after 1 July 2021 the general customs rules shall apply.

§ 68. (Effective 12.12.2020 - SG No. 104/2020) Persons who have filed a declaration to the National Revenue Agency under Article 118 (14) for outlet sales management software until the entry into force of this Act shall be considered compliant with the requirements of this Act.

§ 69. (Effective 12.12.2020 - SG No. 104/2020) Within three months of this Act's entry into force the Minister of Finance shall accordingly adapt the ordinance referred to in Article 118 (4) hereof.

(*) § 70. (Amended, SG No. 111/2021, effective 1.01.2022, SG No. 52/2022, effective 1.07.2022) § 14 and § 62, Item 1, Littera (c) shall take effect as of 1 December 2020 and shall apply till 30 June 2022.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Act to Amend and Supplement the Value Added Tax Act
(SG No. 107/2020, effective 1.01.2021)

§ 5. (1) A taxable person registered under Article 97b, established by seat and registered office in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, shall be considered registered under Article 96 (9), if the said person designates an accredited representative under Article 133 by 15 January 2021 inclusive, except for the cases where during the same time limit he registers under Article 154 or in another Member State for application of the non-Union scheme and notifies thereof by 15 January 2021 the National Revenue Agency inclusive.

(2) The registration under Paragraph (1) shall be effected according to the procedure set out in Article 101 at the Sofia territorial directorate of the National Revenue Agency.

(3) If a taxable person registered under Article 97b, established by seat and registered office in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, fails to designate an accredited representative within the time-limit under Article 133 or fails to register under Article 154 for the non-Union scheme within the time limit set in Paragraph (1), his registration shall be terminated at the initiative of the revenue authority by issuing of a deregistration act.

(4) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (3), the deregistration act shall not be delivered to the person, and the date of deregistration shall be the date of expiry of the time limit referred to in Paragraph (1) herein.

(5) Upon deregistration under Paragraph (3) it shall be presumed that the person makes a supply under Article 111 herein.

§ 6. (1) The refund of tax to taxable persons established in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, who are not established within the territory of the country, for goods and/or services received in the territory of the country by 31 December 2020 inclusive, shall be made in accordance with the procedure set out in Article 81 (2), which is intended for persons who are not established in the Member State of refund, but who are established within the territory of the European Union. The applications for refund for tax periods until 31 December 2020 inclusive shall be submitted until 31 March 2021.

(2) Goods dispatched or transported from the territory of the country to the United Kingdom of Great Britain until 31 December 2020 inclusive, which arrive or their transport ends on the territory of the United Kingdom of Great Britain on or after 1 January 2021, shall be considered goods dispatched or transported to the territory of a Member State. The documents certifying the presence of the circumstances under the first sentence shall be the documents under Article 45 of the Regulations for Application of the Value Added Tax Act (promulgated, SG No. 76/2006, amended, SG No. 101/2006, Nos. 3 and 16/2007, Nos. 39, 71 and 105/2008, Nos. 4 and 100/2009, No. 6/2010, Nos. 10 and 84/2011, No. 15/2012, corrected, SG No. 16/2012, amended, SG Nos. 20 and 110 /2013, No. 1/2015, Nos. 8 and 70/2016, No. 24/2017, No. 58/2018, No. 3/2019, corrected, SG No. 5/2019, amended, SG No. 25/2020; Decision of the Supreme Administrative Court – SG No. 57/2020).

(3) Goods dispatched or transported from the territory of the United Kingdom of Great Britain to the territory of the country or to the territory of another Member State until 31 December 2020 inclusive, which arrive or where their transport ends on the relevant territory on or after 1 January 2021, shall be considered goods dispatched or transported from the territory of a Member State. To certify the presence of the circumstances under the first sentence, the person shall have a document of the supply and documents proving the dispatch or transport of the goods.

(4) Corrections of submitted VAT returns under Article 159b for persons registered for application of the non-Union scheme and the Union scheme, or submitted in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland applying the non-Union scheme and the Union scheme in respect of services provided in the Republic of Bulgaria as a Member State of consumption until 31 December

(5) Goods dispatched or transported until 31 December 2020 inclusive to the territory of the United Kingdom of Great Britain, which will be returned to the territory of the country after 1 January 2021 by the person who had dispatched or transported them, shall be exempt from tax upon their importation into the country in accordance with the terms and procedure set out in Item 17 of Article 58 (1).

§ 11. Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall apply until 31 December 2022 inclusive.

1. § 7 herein, which shall enter into force as from the day of promulgation of the Act in the State Gazette;
2. § 8 herein, which shall enter into force as from the 10th day of December 2020.
